Vol. 147

Senate

MONDAY, APRIL 30, 2001

The Senate met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the Honorable HARRY REID, a Senator from the State of Nevada.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The prayer will be offered by the guest Chaplain, Rev. Richard Foth, Falls Church, VA.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Rev. Richard Foth, offered the following prayer:

We stand in Your presence today, Almighty God, in awe of Your creation. No season reflects Your heart like springtime, with its songbirds and cherry blossoms, old memories and young love. Just outside this building, all nature shouts Your glory, Your grace, and Your creative power.

But, we need Your grace and creativity here, too, in this Chamber. For, in the lives of 100 Senators, we see men and women with whom we have something in common. Though elected to govern us, many grapple as we do in balancing work with family. They have spouses and children and grandchildren whom they love and dream for. On this spring afternoon, we ask Your blessings on the families of these public servants. Give them perspective and patience and protection. Where pain is real or frustration mounts, wrap them in Your arms, we pray, and hold them with a grip like all eternity.

As for the business of this week, we ask wisdom. Debate will be intense about money and programs. Differences will show up quickly and good thinkers will speak strong words in strong ways. Give our chosen leaders grace to bring more light than heat to the Senate floor in the next 4 days and, in so doing, to move us ahead as a nation.

In the springtime of 2001, let the actions of this body help us to know one more time that we really are "one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask these things in that name which is above every name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable MARK DAYTON, a Senator from the State of Minnesota, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

CONSIDERATION OF THE ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION ACT

Mr. REID. Mr. President, this week we are going to take up one of the most important pieces of legislation that will occur this entire Congress—not this year, not next year, but the entire Congress. That is the Elementary and Secondary Education Act—extremely important.

In the last Congress, we did not complete it. We were refused the opportunity to debate and amend this legislation—we, the Democrats, in the minority. Things have changed now. The Senate is divided 50–50. The time has come that we work together on this and all legislation.

Last week, we did some very important work. We only had one vote last
