PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 107th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 147

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2001

No. 162

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: Lord God of Heaven and Earth, through the stories of the ancient Scriptures You bring us to faith and renew us in hope. May Your word live in the hearts of the Members of this House and Your spirit guide them in their journey of service to Your people.

The ancient story of the tower of Babel describes the origin of diverse languages in the human family. It is from You, another illustration of the refusal to accept human limitations. Yet out of this context of diversity and confusion, You call Your servant Abraham to be the father of faith in You as the one, true living God.

Help us in our day to embrace not only our limitations but also our diversity. Let us not be as those who build for themselves a tower or city only to make a name for themselves. Rather, shape us by our differences to be one Nation under God who has a message You scatter to people all over the face of the Earth. Seeking to live beyond words, enable us to accept all human diversity, even the more subtle differences of perception and opinion. In such loving acceptance we give You glory now and forever. Amen.

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Mr. Speaker, our Nation has many outstanding citizens. One such individual is Rositta Kenigsberg, a child of Holocaust survivors, born in the displaced persons camp of Bindermichel in Austria.

Rositta is the founding Chair of the Children of Holocaust Survivors of Southeast Florida. She also serves as the executive vice president of the Holocaust Documentation and Education Center in North Miami Beach.

Rositta has worked with Nobel Prize winner Elie Wiesel, and she served on the North American Advisory Board for the "March of the Living."

She has traveled to the concentration camps of Poland to retrace the steps of her father, the sole survivor of a family of over 120 members. She has contributed countless hours and worked endlessly to implement Holocaust education in the State of Florida.

Rositta currently serves a presidential appointment to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council. Please join me in congratulating Rositta Kenigsberg for her contributions to Holocaust education and to Holocaust survivors as well as their children.
