Since adoption of its first Constitution in June 1, 1959, Tunisia has made great progress in embracing procedural and substantive democratic reforms by holding contested presidential and legislative elections that provide for the opposition party to hold seats in parliament; expanding freedom of expression; strengthening people's participation in public education for all children; and promoting the equality of women, including the election of women to parliament.

As a result, the Republic of Tunisia has reaped the benefits of becoming a world trading power through liberal free trade agreements, trade agreements with European Union, and nearly two decades of sustained economic growth.

Marsh deflects such praise. In this small farming community that he and his family call home, he has rediscovered what he loved most about Delta Force. “It’s the same atmosphere,” he says. “Everybody takes care of each other, and we do our jobs.”

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. ELTON GALLEGY
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mr. GALLEGY. Mr. Speaker, on March 7 I missed roll call vote number 52. Had I been present, I would have voted “aye” on the vote.

TRIBUTE TO DR. JOE CRAIG

HON. SUE WILKINS MYRICK
OF NORTH CAROLINA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mrs. MYRICK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and work of one of my constituents, Dr. Joe Craig.

Dr. Craig has spent his entire life working to better the lives of others. Since 1978, he has traveled overseas to the poorest of regions, including Africa and Latin America, to provide free medical and dental care. This is a special year for Dr. Craig because he is 70 years old and will be conducting his 70th and final overseas medical mission.

Dr. Craig’s altruistic work also extended to his local community of Charlotte, North Carolina. He greatly helped our local Charlotte community by providing free dental services to recovering drug users and alcoholics and by counseling dozens of families through marriage and family problems. He also volunteered in the Charlotte Police Crime Lab in the 1960s before a full-time chemist was hired. Dr. Craig is a perfect example of the selfless call to volunteerism recently highlighted by President George W. Bush. For this reason, I honor Dr. Craig for his life work and commend him and his family for his 70 years of dedication to making this world a better place.

CELEBRATING THE WOMEN OF LEWISTON/AUBURN

HON. JOHN ELIAS BALDACCI
OF MAINE
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, March 20, 2002

Mr. BALDACCI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call my colleagues’ attention to a dinner being held next week in the Lewiston/Auburn community of Maine. The event, “Celebrating the Women of L/A,” will honor women who have touched the lives of others in their communities.

I am proud to have the opportunity to pay tribute to the following Women of L/A here in the House of Representatives. The Honorees are Diane Atch, Gail Baur, Margaret Banks, Kathleen Beaule, Sue Capponi, Sandy Conrad, Theresa Cote, Christine Clabey, Lori Cummings, Robin Duffy, Belinda Gerry, Nancy Hinds, Patience Johnson, Rachel Kay, Kathleen Noel King, Simone Lavoie, Linda Mynahan, Venise Pratt, Muriel Richard, Patricia Robiblite, Trena Hamblin Steele, Linda Tanguay, Ann Tourtelotte, Dr. Luz Maria Umpierre, and Kathy Varney.

These honorees were asked to briefly describe what it was about the nominee that made her such a special and important part of the community. Here are a few examples: “She truly cares about the company’s employees . . . she is interested in their lives, and she treats everyone with respect and dignity.”

“My sister has been an example to me. We came from a single parent home where our father was an alcoholic. She quit school at 16 and worked as a nurse’s aide to earn money so our family could stay together. No one thought she would make anything of herself. Through hard work she proved them wrong.”

“Her dedication to family and friends is equally as selfless.”

“How can a daughter ever begin to explain how much her mother means to her? There are certainly not enough words in the dictionary for me to tell you who and what my mother is to me.”

“She is a loving person with a Heart of Gold, who has touched the lives of many people through her love and dedication in helping others and never wanting anything in return.”

“If there could be one person that I look up to it would be my grandmother. . . . She is the bravest, most courageous person I know. I have ever met and no one could ever replace her.”

“Now that I’m grown up with children of my own, I love and appreciate my mother more than ever. I now know how much hard work is involved in being a good mother, although she always made it seem so effortless . . . . When people tell me how much I am like her I take that as the greatest compliment, for I hope I could be half of the woman that she is.”

“The world is a much better place because of her. She inspires me and teaches me every day that the world is a better place because of her.”

“For decades, the women of Lewiston and Auburn—like those throughout Maine, the nation and the world—have raised children, served as caregivers, worked inside and outside the home, and volunteered their time and talents. They have maintained a strong and quiet foundation for our families that has nourished us all. This celebration recognizes all that women bring to families and our community.”

These 24 women are all extremely deserving of this honor, and I congratulate them as they are recognized for their efforts in the home, in the workplace and in the community. I know that they are also representative of many other women throughout these communities and as we honor them, we also look around at the many other women who have made positive changes in L/A. I offer my thanks and best wishes to all the women of L/A for making Lewiston and Auburn such a strong and vibrant community.
