

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO ROBERT H.
CASTELLINI

HON. ROB PORTMAN

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 24, 2002

Mr. PORTMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Robert H. Castellini, a friend, community leader and accomplished businessperson who will have the honor of being inducted into the Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky Business Hall of Fame on September 26, 2002. Bob is being honored for his outstanding business and community leadership.

Bob is a Cincinnati native. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., in 1963, and went on to earn his M.B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania in 1967. After earning his M.B.A., he served in the U.S. Army for 2 years until 1969.

Bob's business successes come from his association with the produce firm, Castellini Company, where he started in 1966 as a Vice President. From 1970 to 1992 he was President and CEO of the company, and, from 1992 to the present, he has served as the company's Chairman of the Board of Directors. Under his leadership, the firm experienced significant growth, becoming one of the premier fresh produce distribution firms in the Midwest.

The Castellini Company is one of Cincinnati's oldest companies. It was founded in 1896 by Bob's grandfather, Joseph J. Castellini. Bob has been with the company for over 35 years, and his outstanding leadership and hard work are directly responsible for its continued success.

Bob also has been very active in our community. He serves on the board of directors of several Greater Cincinnati privately-held corporations. He also is a member of the Chief Executives Organization and the Cincinnati Business Committee in addition to serving on the Board of Trustees for the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, Xavier University, the Good Samaritan Hospital, and the Cincinnati Art Museum. In addition, Bob has received a number of other honors and awards including the Distinguished Service Citation Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice; the People of Vision Award from Prevent Blindness of Southwest Ohio; and the Founders Award from Xavier University.

Bob also is a devoted family man. He and his wife, Susan, have four children and four grandchildren. All of us in the Cincinnati area congratulate him on his induction into the Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky Business Hall of Fame.

HONORING DR. JEROME DOLAN

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 24, 2002

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Dr. Jerome Dolan for his contributions in the medical field and his outstanding service to his community. Dr. Dolan was awarded the Louis T. Scialli Memorial Award on September 17, 2002, at the United Way Kick-Off, which was held at the Crowne Plaza in Secaucus, New Jersey.

Born in Jersey City, Dr. Dolan graduated from St. Peter's College in 1944. He attended NYU College of Medicine after serving in the US Navy, and later joined the U.S. Army Medical Corp as a Korean War Combat Surgeon. Upon his return home, he completed his residency in Bellevue Hospital's Obstetrics, Gynecology and Pathology Department.

As an accomplished doctor, Dr. Dolan focused on the care and well being of others, and opened his own medical practice in 1955. He enjoyed a successful career in the medical field as he became Director of Ob/Gyn at St. Joseph's Medical Center in Paterson, NJ, before becoming the Medical Director of Margaret Hague Hospital in Jersey City.

Dr. Dolan is a member of the American Legion, Korean War Veterans Association, First Cavalry Division Association, Eighth Cavalry Regiment Medics 1950 Survivors Association and a member of the United Way of Hudson County Board of Directors since 1965.

The Louis T. Scialli Memorial Award is given in recognition of the spirit of community in the "gentlemen of Hudson County." This award also symbolizes the spirit of the United Way, "to increase the organized capacity of people to care for one another."

Dr. Dolan and his wife Marguerite May have four children, five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Today, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Dr. Jerome Dolan for his many accomplishments in the medical field and his selfless contributions to our community.

AMERICAN FRONTIERS: A PUBLIC LANDS LEGACY

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

Tuesday, September 24, 2002

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, America has an important shared legacy in its parks, forests and other public lands. They bring us close to the natural world and its wildlife; contribute to physical and mental health; add to our understanding of history and culture; and provide important economic opportunities to many communities across the West. Unfortunately, not enough people understand the multiple facets of America's public lands. As Chairman of the National Parks Subcommittee, I am happy to see a major effort being mounted to address this issue. "American Frontiers: A Public Lands Journey" is a 3,000-mile expedition currently being undertaken by two teams of adventurers. They are crossing only public lands and waters in six states, by foot, horseback, mountain bike, canoe, SUV and boat. Their two month journey will culminate in Salt Lake City on September 28, 2002, National Public Lands Day. Along the trail, they are sharing dispatches and individual journals relating their experiences and impressions of the public lands by videophone and through an interactive Internet website located at www.americanfrontiers.net. These communication efforts are especially directed at America's youth. I applaud the efforts of Public Lands Interpretive Association, which has spearheaded this project, along with the many dedicated individuals, volunteers, and sponsors of this impressive journey. I look forward to hearing more about their experiences in America's national parks.
