□ 2000

So the joint resolution was passed.
 The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.
 A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
 Stated for:

Mr. GRAVES. Mr. Speaker, on rollcall No. 470, I was unavoidably detained. Had I been present, I would have voted "aye."

Stated against:

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker on rollcall No. 470, I was conducting official business in my San Diego, California district. Had I been present, I would have voted "no."

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Mr. HINOJOSA. Mr. Speaker, I regret that I was unavoidably detained in my Congressional District. Had I been present, I would have voted "yes" on rollcalls 464, 466 and 469. I would have voted "no" on rollcalls 465, 467, 468 and 470.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

Ms. SLAUGHTER. Mr. Speaker, I was unable to be present for rollcall votes 464, 466, 467, 468, 469, and 470. Had I been present, I would have voted aye on rollcall votes 464, 466, 467, and 469, and no on rollcall votes 468, and 470. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that my statement appear in the permanent RECORD immediately following this vote.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

(Ms. PELOSI asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I rise to inquire of the distinguished majority leader regarding the schedule.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentlewoman yield?

Ms. PELOSI. I yield to the gentleman from Texas.

Mr. ARMEY. Mr. Speaker, we have completed our legislative work for this week. There will be no more recorded votes this week. The House will, however, be in session pro forma tomorrow and the next day, and then back pro forma on Tuesday and Thursday of next week.

I should also like to advise Members that the House still waits upon many very important pieces of legislation. In conference, for example, we have the terrorism risk insurance bill, the energy security bill, the defense authorization bill, intelligence authorization, and port security.

We also wait upon the Senate to move bills: the Department of Homeland Security, pension reform, prescription drugs, and welfare reform.

I should like to advise the Members of this body that should any of those conference reports become available or should the Senate complete work on any of the other bills under consideration, and therefore afford us the opportunity to go to conference on those bills, that we will be constrained to call the Members back for a session next week or even the week thereafter.

However, Members should be advised that they will receive a 48-hour notice prior to any requirement to come back and complete any of that work.

As it turns out, each of these conference reports and bills is problematic, but the other body will stay in session working, the conferees will continue to meet, and we should all be apprised of the real possibility of being asked to come back after a 48-hour notice.

Ms. PELOSI. I thank the gentleman for that information, Mr. Speaker.

I would ask the leader, what day will we be back after the election?

Mr. ARMEY. If the gentlewoman will continue to yield, the CR, Mr. Speaker, is through November 22. However, we would expect to be back on the week of November 11. Since November 11 is itself a holiday, I should think Members should plan on being back on November 12, but we will get official notice to Members' offices as soon as possible. But I would think the prudent Member would plan to come back November 12 and expect to be here throughout most of that week.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman know what time votes would occur that day?

Mr. ARMEY. Again, I want to thank the gentlewoman for her inquiry.

If she would continue to yield, it is a travel day. Especially in consideration of our West Coast Members, we would try to arrange a date that votes would not actually be taken before the customary 6:30 in the evening.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, continuing to yield to the leader, will we be in through Friday of that week?

Mr. ARMEY. Again, I want to thank the gentlewoman for her inquiry. That would depend on what work is available to us. Obviously, we would want to deal with another continuing resolution, and we should have reason to expect that some of these conference reports might be available.

As something I think, again, for us to be prudent in terms of taking the opportunities that could be here, the Members should expect to be here through that week and even work on Friday. As we see the workload for the week develop and can begin to put the daily calendar together, we ought to be able to give Members more complete and accurate information so they can make, hopefully, their travel plans for the beginning and the end of the week before they depart for their home districts.

Ms. PELOSI. Could the gentleman please shed some light on what legislative business might come up that week? Would there be any appropriations bills?

Mr. ARMEY. Again, I appreciate the gentlewoman's inquiry.

Mr. Speaker, obviously, there are additional opportunities for appropriations bills. Depending upon the
