LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now return to legislative session.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, APRIL 7, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 3 p.m., Monday, April 7. I further ask unanimous consent that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then begin a period for morning business until 5 p.m., with the time until 4 p.m. to be equally divided between Senator HUTCHISON and the minority leader or their designees, and the remaining time until 5 p.m. be equally divided between the two leaders or their designees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, for the information of all Senators, the Senate will return for business on Monday. On Monday there will be a period for morning business to allow Members to continue to make statements in support of our troops. At 5 p.m. under a previous order, the Senate will proceed to a vote on the confirmation of a district court judge.

Next week, as I announced earlier this evening, the Senate will consider nominations, including judicial nominees, the CARE Act, the FISA bill, and, hopefully, under a unanimous consent agreement, the POW resolution, and conference reports as they are available.

Next week is the last week prior to the Easter recess. I expect a busy week as we attempt to finish the mentioned items and any other legislative or executive items that can be cleared.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 3 P.M.,
MONDAY, APRIL 7, 2003

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 10:33 p.m., adjourned until Monday, April 7, 2003, at 3 p.m.
