AMENDMENT 975, AS MODIFIED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are now 2 minutes evenly divided prior to the next vote.

Mr. ROCKEFELLER. Mr. President, this next amendment has to do with dual eligibility. Never in the history of Medicare have we precluded Medicare beneficiaries from being Medicare beneficiaries. In the underlying bill, for the very first time, we do.

The people I refer to are called dual eligibles. Their average income is $6,500 a year. They tend to be over 85, single women, and very sick. They are on Medicaid. Medicaid, however, is optional according to the States. We know the States to be broke. The fastest growing expense they face is Medicaid. So they are cutting the benefits. They are cutting Medicaid. They will continue to do that. The States have no choice but to cut Medicaid. Some will do it because they wish to, all will do it because they have to.

When that possibility is gone, there is no place for these poorest of the poor to go. They are then, under the underlying bill, precluded from being Medicare beneficiaries. That is wrong. In my budget-neutral amendment I attempt to fix it. I hope my colleagues will support the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Two things for my colleagues to consider during the consideration of how to vote on this amendment: No. 1 is the money that is available to pay for his amendment, an offset, is the very same amount of money we, Senator BAUCUS and I, are using to offset the cost of a lot of demonstration projects that colleagues have asked us to do, a lot of minor amendments they have asked us to do. If that money is not there, there cannot be consideration given. That is not a threat; it is just a practical aspect of how the budget law works.

Secondly, remember, these dual eligibles are being taken care of very well in our underlying legislation. The point being, they will not be taken care of better. It is just it is going to cost the Federal Government more.

I hope you will take those things into consideration and vote down this amendment.

I ask for the yeas and nays.

NOT VOTING—2

Kerry Lieberman

The amendment (No. 975), as modified, was rejected.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. CRAIG. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

AMENDMENT NO. 1066

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are now 2 minutes equally divided on the Bingaman amendment.

Mr. BINGAMAN. Mr. President, the bill before us has, in my view, a significant flaw in it. We are holding out this prescription drug benefit. But the bill we are considering here says if you want to take advantage of the benefit, you are thereby prohibited from buying any supplemental insurance to cover prescription drugs. Today, people are able to buy Medigap policies that cover prescription drugs. In the future they will not be able to, if this bill becomes law as it is.

My amendment would merely give people the option of buying a prescription drug supplemental policy if they chose to do so. It directs that two policies be developed that would accomplish that.

It is supported by the insurance industry. It is supported by the Consumers Union. Seniors would like to have this opportunity to reduce their risk of substantial out-of-pocket costs.

We ought to provide this benefit.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, first of all, let me make very clear that we know that Medigap is very important as part of Medicare. We leave that untouched as it relates to 1965 model Medicare. In fact, many of my Iowa constituents want to keep that. But we as a policy matter have made it a very conscious choice to prevent the sale of wraparound Medigap plans for the new Part D drug benefit. This policy makes sense considering drug plans could be different everywhere else in the United States.

It is impossible to standardize Medigap policies like we did about 15 years ago so that seniors don't get ripped off. But the Congressional Budget Office tells us this new Medigap plan that is before us now will increase the cost of our bill. The cost of this amendment is $1.5 billion over 10 years, according to the Congressional Budget Office. That is because of the increased utilization that comes from having additional insurance.

I share the Senator's concern with gaps in coverage. I wish we didn't have any.

But we believe participating drug plans—especially drug plans delivered by PPOs—will offer benefits in a comprehensive fashion, lessening the need for expensive supplemental policies.

I urge my colleagues to reject this amendment.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

NOT VOTING—2

Kerry Lieberman

The amendment (No. 1066) was rejected.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote and I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader is recognized.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, very briefly, it is almost 6:25, and we have just completed our 12th rollcall vote. We still have a fair amount of work to do. But in discussion with the managers of the bill and the Democratic leader, it is our intent to finish this bill tonight. I optimistically think we can finish in 2 or 3 hours, or this bill can go until midnight, or 1, or 2, or 3 in the morning.

Part of the problem we are having now is that people are still coming up and submitting amendments, and because we have been working in good faith over the last 2 weeks in the amendment process, we have not set strict filing deadlines.

Now that we are in the last several hours of consideration, I want to make the case and, in fact, plead with my colleagues that any amendments that need to be considered—let us hear about them. Let the managers hear about them in the next 15 minutes. That is the only way we can get a list to deal with them, and we will have rollcall votes on those that are necessary.

There will be a certain number of those amendments looked at by the managers. The ones I encourage you to bring to them for consideration to be accepted need to be budget neutral and have bipartisan support, and they need to be scored by the CBO. People keep bringing amendments forward now. I will ask—and then I want the Democratic leader to comment—that people, in the next 15 minutes or so, make sure the managers have the amendments. That way we can move ahead. We will finish tonight.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic leader is recognized.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I hope we can do as the majority leader has suggested. We have had a good debate. I think this has been an excellent debate. The managers deserve credit for the way they have managed the legislation. We have had 12 rollcall votes today already. It is likely that we will have 16 or 17 by the end of the day, if not more; we had 9 yesterday. More than 50 amendments have now been considered.

I think it is time that we bring the debate to a close. There will be many more opportunities to talk about prescription drugs and health care with the array of legislative challenges that we face relating to health. I think we have been able to do a good deal, and I hope we can get cooperation now on both sides of the aisle. I hope the majority leader will hold to the commitment that we finish tonight. That would accommodate people's travel schedules tomorrow.

If we are going to do that—it is now 6:30—over the course of the next 4 or 5 hours, we have a lot of work to do even with what we know we have to vote on. I hope everybody will cooperate so we can minimize the time required to consider amendments. I hope those who may have remarks to make will perhaps hold off until after final passage and make those remarks after final passage. That would accommodate our time as well.

We will work with the majority leader to see if we can accomplish the schedule he has laid out. I hope we can do so well before the bewitching hour. I yield the floor.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, when we finish this bill tonight, my expectation would be that we would not have votes tomorrow. That is assuming we are going to finish. I encourage anyone who has an amendment that needs to be considered to get it to the managers within the next 15 minutes. If we can do that, we can finish tonight and we will be able to consider each of those amendments, as the Democratic leader said.

I know some people want to talk for an hour but I ask Senators to keep their comments to a few minutes and we can vote throughout the night. We will have the opportunity after final passage tonight, or through tomorrow, to make statements—for those who wish to continue the debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Hampshire is recognized.

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I rise to address this bill. I had hoped to do it earlier in the day but, unfortunately, the managers of the bill were unable to work the time in. I certainly regret taking time out of the schedule, which is obviously crowded. I do think it is important to speak up on the issue of this piece of legislation.

This is the most significant piece of spending legislation, and maybe even public policy legislation, outside of an international issue, that I expect I will vote on in my tenure in the Senate. Ironically, when I ran for this job, after serving as Governor of New Hampshire, one of the reasons I sought the job and one of the reasons I wanted to pursue a term in the Senate was that I was concerned about entitlement spending. In fact, during my first few years, I aggressively pursued setting up an entitlement commission to address entitlement spending, which I sponsored with Senator Kempthorne, who came in with me that year, and Senator Coverdell and Senator BENNETT, all of whom came in the year I was elected, in a bill to end unfunded mandates, many of which were entitlement oriented.

I tried to lead an effort in passing legislation to address reform of the Social Security system. I consider that to be a huge entitlement that we confront. My basic reason for seeking entitlement reform and responsibility was that I was concerned that it not only is what is driving the deficits of our country—which they continue to do—but, more importantly, as the demographics shifted in the Nation and we saw the baby boom generation, which represents a huge population, moving toward retirement, we, as a nation, were going to be placing on our children and our children's children an inordinate burden in the area of taxes in order to support the older generation—my generation—which would be retiring. It is because all the major programs, whether they are Social Security or Medicare, are built on the theory that there is a pyramid out there, that there will always be more people working and a lot more people working than those people who are taking their retirement benefits out of the system. That, of course, is the way it began.

Back in 1950, there were 12.5 people working for every person who retired under Social Security. Today, we are down to 3.5 people working for every 1 person retired on Social Security and under Medicare, and that is stressing the system.

Unfortunately, when we hit the retirement situation for the baby boom generation, the largest generation in the history of our Nation, the generation born between 1946 and 1955, we go down to two people working for every one person retired. We go from a pyramid to basically a rectangle, and the result is that we will end up putting an inordinate amount of stress on those people who are working to support those folks who are retired. So we need to address thoughtfully any entitlement expansion, to say nothing of the entitlements that are already on the books.

That is what brings me to the Chamber today to address this legislation because I believe very strongly that needy senior citizens should have a drug benefit. Clearly, prescription drugs have become the new way to treat disease and maintain public health in our Nation. We have been able to move from a system where you had to have invasive activity in the health care system, where you had to go through surgery, to a system where people can, as result of the keen use of our scientific community, take a pharmaceutical and actually have a better life than if they were to go under the knife, have surgery.

This is a revolution, and it is a revolution that is exploding and growing. Biotech activity, the nanotech activity, is only going to lead to more and more and better and better pharmaceuticals coming on the market to help people with their health.

It is absolutely unfair, in my opinion, that people who are in a low-income situation, especially retired people who are on a fixed low income, have to choose between their food and their housing and maybe their pharmaceuticals. That is not right in our society, and we can certainly afford to have that addressed.

It was my hope as we brought forward a pharmaceutical drug benefit for senior citizens that we would do it in a way that would address low-income seniors. Equally important, it is important that a middle-income senior should not have to spend all their assets for health care as a result of pharmaceutical costs. After a certain amount of spending, there should be catastrophic coverage that kicks in, relieving that person of the full responsibility or a large portion of their responsibility for the pharmaceutical cost. That is the type of structure at which we should be looking.

Putting in place this brand new drug benefit, we also have to look at the underlying Medicare system which we all know is fundamentally broken as we look out into the future. When the baby boom generation hits, it simply is not going to work. It is not going to support that generation. That is because it is a 1959 design, an automobile built in the fifties driving on the highways of the year 2000 which, when it gets to 2015, is going to be too old to function effectively. It needs to have put in place forces which are going to cause it to be more efficient, to be more effective in addressing a person's approach to their health care. Those forces have to be basically marketplace oriented. They cannot be price-control oriented.

My hope, my goal, my belief was that we would create a drug benefit that would help low-income seniors and, at the same time, give catastrophic coverage, and that would, fundamentally, reform the Medicare system so that we would end up with a more market-oriented system, something that was going to contain costs as we moved into the outyears.

What did we get? What is before us today? Essentially, what we have before us today is a drug benefit that will plant a fiscal disease that will afflict our children and our children's children. It is a drug benefit that is going to put in place a fiscal disease that will afflict our children for the next 75 years. By afflict them, I mean that our children and our children's children, under the benefit in this bill, are going to have to pay $6 trillion. That is the estimate. That may be the high end. It is somewhere between $4.6 trillion and $6 trillion. When you get into those numbers, it is pretty hard to get very definitive.

That is the burden this drug benefit in this bill puts on our children and our children's children to support my generation which is going to retire and take advantage of it.

That is a huge problem because what we are essentially saying to the person who is working in a restaurant or working in a garage or working on a computer line or working as a sales person, who is young and trying to raise a family, is that they are going to have to pay an inordinate amount of tax burden to support people who are retired with this drug benefit.

That would not be so bad if the drug benefit was not an income transfer from that person working in that garage, working in that restaurant, or working on that computer line to somebody who is a great deal wealthier than they are potentially. That would not be so bad if it was a transfer from that person to people who are low income or whose assets are about to be wiped out because of a drug expenditure.

That is not the way this bill works. The way this bill works is essentially to nationalize the entire drug delivery service for senior citizens to take all the present programs which presently benefit senior citizens for drug benefits—and there are a lot of them; there are a lot of seniors in this country today who already have a drug benefit; something like 76 percent is the estimate—to take a large percentage of those people and move them from their private programs to the public programs.

If you retired from a major corporation or even a smaller corporation in this country, it is very likely that in your retirement package, depending on how aggressive your union was or how successful your company was, you received a drug benefit during your retirement. But when this bill passes, the incentive is going to be to take that drug benefit which presently exists in the private sector under some sort of contractual agreement which you had when you retired and move it out of the private sector and throw it on the taxpayers of America.

Who are those taxpayers going to be? They are going to be our children and our children's children, people who are working for a living, trying to buy their kids a better education, a better home, better food, or even just a nice car or a night out at the movies. Their ability to do that is going to be undermined if this bill goes forward in its present form because so much will have to flow back to benefit people who already have the benefit in the private sector and are now going to be migrated over to the public sector.

Mr. President, $4.5 trillion to $6 trillion is a huge amount of money, a huge burden to put on our children. It is hard to put it in terms that are realistic and are visible when we are talking those type of dollars, but every American child born tonight—and there are a lot of kids being born tonight in America—starts out with a $44,000 debt they have to pay for Medicare for my retirement, for the retirement of everybody in this room, for the retirement of most of the people who are watching who are over the age of 45. They start out with a $44,000 debt.

When this bill passes, they will have another $12,000 to $15,000 added to that debt. So before they get through the first night of their life, as a result of this legislation they are going to owe $60,000. It is not fair. It is not right. We are not doing it the correct way.

There are ways to do this where the system is not nationalized, where all the people who already have a drug benefit are told there is no incentive for them to keep it.

We do not say in the private sector to the people who bought Medigap, to the people who have reached contractual agreements in retirement, to the people who have retained retirement coverage through the private sector, that there is no advantage to them keeping their program or, alternatively, the people who are giving them that program saying they are not going to give it to them anymore, and move those folks onto the public dole, onto the public system. It makes no sense.

Then there is the issue of the underlying question of Medicare. Not only is the drug benefit in this bill fundamentally flawed because it migrates huge numbers of people off the private sector and into the public sector, but the underlying purpose of the Medicare effort in this bill is flawed. If we are going to put in place this huge new benefit for seniors, and especially if it is going to be as grand and as pervasive, where we are basically saying to all seniors that they get a benefit here, no matter what their income is—if that is going to be put in place, that ought to at least be coupled with some sort of reform of the underlying Medicare system to try to bring under control those costs which are driving the outyear liability, which will be the tax burden for our children and their children.

The estimated outyear cost of Medicare that is unfunded is $13.3 trillion. When the baby-boom generation starts to hit the system in 2008, that is when it really starts to crank up, by the year 2020, 2025, when there will be large retirement populations as a result of this demographic shift, $13.3 trillion of unfunded liability.

Unfunded means it is just there. We have to pay it, but nobody has an idea of how they are going to do it. There is no trust fund for it. There is no money out there to do it. So the only way it is going to be done is to raise taxes or to cut the benefit, which is politically probably impossible, so to raise taxes on the young people who are working.

There is a third way, however, to do it, and that is to make Medicare a more cost-sensitive, more thoughtful, more efficient system for delivery of health care. Regrettably, under this bill that does not happen. There is a representation that that might happen, something called a PPO, which is supposedly going to create an opportunity for the private sector to come in and compete with the traditional Medicare system. The price control system will have a chance to compete with a marketplace system. That is the thematic statement of the bill. Unfortunately, it is illusory. It will not happen under the bill. CBO says maybe 2 percent of the people will migrate, will move over, to a PPO system. The administration says it is 48 percent. Logic tells us it is not going to fly, because the bill has been structured to defeat the probability a PPO, a marketplace system, will be allowed to work. All the little gimmicks in this bill are aimed at essentially undermining that.

Classic was the amendment that we passed earlier, which had been so gerrymandered, which was an effort by Senator KYL. So what are we told? Well, even though the bill has these fundamental flaws of having a drug benefit that migrates a large number of people out of the private sector into the public sector and essentially causes low-income working Americans who are young to have to support middle-income Americans who are retired and who had a private sector benefit, and even though the bill has this illusory marketplace representation, basically no real reform of Medicare, we are told we should vote for it because it is going to be improved in conference. At least that is what we are being told on our side of the aisle. I do not know what is being said on the other side of the aisle. Maybe they are not getting that same message. We are being told that by the administration.

The problem is, we are betting on the come. I mean, this is $6 trillion of unfunded liability we are talking about passing on to our kids. It is massive. If this bill were to pass in its present form, or anything near to its present form, it would fundamentally extinguish the torch which the Republican Party has allegedly—and I thought pretty effectively—carried for years which was the torch of spending responsibility.

That is why I came here, as I said when I began my statement. I came to try to do something about controlling the rate of growth of spending in the Federal Government, especially in the area of entitlements. I was told by one of the finest legislators I have ever met in my experience in 20 years in Government—a man named Barber Conable—one time on the floor of the House when I was mumbling about the fact that some bill was coming through that was a little expensive, you have to understand, JUDD, all Government moves to the left, and it is just a question of how many engines are on that train—think of it as a train—as it moves to the left, and our job as fiscal conservatives is to limit the number of engines that go on that train.

This bill, if it passes in its present form, is going to be all engine, and it is going to undermine our capacity to assure our children they have the opportunity to have the type of lifestyle which we have, because it is going to put a huge and unfair tax burden on them.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana.

Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, this morning one of the very able legislative assistants who has worked on this legislation for almost 7 years, going back to the time on the Medicare Commission when we first started doing Medicare reform, was on the floor working with me on amendments in this legislation. She had to temporarily leave because at 5:47 this afternoon she had a little baby girl. That is a very good excuse to not be on the Senate floor. But my legislative director, Sarah Walter, is doing fine. It is a baby girl. The name is yet to be determined, but I wanted to bring that to the attention of my colleagues and all of her colleagues on the professional staff.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Idaho.

AMENDMENT NO. 1087 WITHDRAWN

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, this afternoon I will speak to amendment 1087. That amendment was pulled up last night by the manager of the bill, Senator GRASSLEY. I believe that amendment is at the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct. The amendment has been called up and is pending.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, it is my intent within a few moments to withdraw this amendment, but I thought I should speak to it tonight because I am disappointed at this time that we could not get the scoring from CBO we felt would produce a revenue-neutral bill, or a cost-neutral bill, going into the final hours of this debate.

This is an amendment that produces in this legislation, and hopefully to take up in conference, a consumer-driven health care plan under the new MedicareAdvantage program all of us are talking about at this moment. The Senator from New Hampshire gave a very impassioned speech from the depths of his heart, frustrated that this bill does not balance out and provide enough of the incentives in the market that will offset and create the kind of competitive forces being designed for Medicare with the extension of prescription drugs in it offers.

For a few moments tonight, I did want to speak about that and explain it. As we get into conference with the House, the House has a consumer-driven health care concept within their legislation that is critical. It is something we ought to address.

First, the amendment before the Senate is designed to dovetail with and not disturb the overall MedicareAdvantage competitive dynamic. As a complement to MedicareAdvantage, consumer-driven health care plans would be subject to the same competitive rules as preferred provider organizations.

Second, I emphasize this amendment is carefully crafted. We thought it would ensure budget neutrality. But CBO says tonight, no, and I am not going to be too critical of them; we pushed them very hard in the last good number of days to quickly analyze and bring forth estimates. I think they are simply swamped. We will continue to work with them. We believe what we are offering is budget neutral.

Additionally, the Finance Committee chairman, the majority leader, and the White House have expressed the kind of support for these concepts in amendments. I appreciate it. As everyone begins to examine this structure, they become increasingly enthusiastic that this could become a component of the MedicareAdvantage Program.

For the benefit of my colleagues, let me describe for a moment the key features of this amendment. The amendment establishes a new category of competition within Medicare Advantage designed to encourage participation by consumer-driven health plans. These plans would be subject to the same requirements of PPOs in MedicareAdvantage, including prescription drug benefits and risk adjustment parameters.

Consumer-driven health care is one of the fastest growing innovations emerging in the employer health insurance market. Already 1.5 million Americans are estimated to be in consumer-driven health care in the summer of 2002, and that number is now growing very rapidly.

What is the consumer-driven health care? It harnesses market forces in ways similar to medical savings accounts. However, there are some differences between medical savings accounts and consumer-driven health care plans. For example, enrollees in consumer-driven health care do not have to make contributions to the account. In the private sector, the employer or in my amendment if it were to pass, Medicare makes the contribution to the personal care account. There would be no tax consequence for the senior under this amendment. In other words, it would not be viewed as income. Some in Congress might be familiar with the account because the American Postal Workers Union of the AFL-CIO consumer-driven health care plan is now available. It is in that bundle of choices that Federal employees have today to choose from. More and more employees are signing up for this concept.

This is what the union Web site states: We believe that people who have more control over how their health care dollars are spent are more satisfied consumers and the APWU health plan consumer-driven option is designed to give that kind of control.

It is the very thing the Senator from New Hampshire was talking about. It is what we ought to be striving for to balance off the differences and to create the competitive forces within the MedicareAdvantage program.

Benefits make sense in consumer-driven health care plans. I draw your attention to my chart. My amendment is designed to encourage market flexibility. The information on this chart is one example of what consumer-driven health care plans can provide. Web site education and decision support is one example. In other words, you can go to the Web site, look at it, make choices and decisions based on the best available information. 100-percent preventive care coverage—the very kind of thing we want in modern medicine today. Preventive benefits keep healthy people healthy instead of making the repairs after the human body breaks down.

There are no more barriers to necessary care, including annual physicals, mammograms, and preventive services. All are within this kind of health care plan. All are available today offered by the postal workers.

Patient control of personal care accounts for routine health care services are also included. Unused funds in these accounts then roll over into the next year.

High deductibles, that is true insurance, to protect against financial ruin in an acute health care crisis, in other words, catastrophic coverage.

A limit on annual out-of-pocket spending is an especially important feature. Traditional Medicare does not have an out-of-pocket limit and drives many seniors into bankruptcy. In other words, it limits financial risk when it kicks in at a certain point.

It includes care coordination, disease management, and provider network discounts. Consumer-driven health care gives control of health care back to patients. That is why more and more are enrolling in it. We know today, many who work in the health care area with our seniors know they look at the details of their spending; they look at the billing; they know more about their health care and what is being charged than most people realize. Patients and their physicians, ultimately, with this kind of insurance, join in partnerships to seek the finest care at the most reasonable costs.

Consumer-driven care is especially suited for patients who like to be personally involved in their health care decisions. More and more Americans who can use the necessary information want that kind of personal involvement.

Consumer-driven care eliminates wasteful Medicare spending, it increases patient awareness of health care costs, and encourages prudent purchasing of health care services. Any unspent funds in the personal care account would be returned to the Medicare trust fund upon the death or the disenrollment. That is a key factor. Federal dollars go into the trust fund and, if there are dollars remaining, they flow back into the trust fund of Medicare upon disenrollment or the death of the individual.

This amendment would be an important addition to the bill. I wish we could get it into the bill tonight. But it would be unfair to the manager of the bill at this time because it cannot get scored. I would not want to drive the cost up of the already-fixed segment of the Medicare Advantage side. Already, it is less competitive than we would like it to be. I don't want to add to that disadvantage.

We believe ultimately that this will be a budget-neutral program. At that time, it will be the right thing to offer as part of the dynamics that we want to see in a modern health care delivery system and in an improved Medicare with a prescription drug program.

I thank my colleagues for listening. We will return with this when it is a final product. It may well make it into the conference between the House and the Senate. We will be working with our colleagues in the House because they have already provided that kind of a provision within the legislation which they are currently debating and voting upon.

With that, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw amendment No. 1086.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 1086) was withdrawn.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. SPECTER. Since Medicare was established in 1965, people are living longer and living better. Today Medicare covers more than 40 million Americans, including 35 million over the age of 65 and nearly 6 million younger adults with permanent disabilities.

Congress now has the opportunity to modernize this important Federal entity to create a 21st century Medicare Program that offers comprehensive coverage for pharmaceutical drugs and improves the Medicare delivery system.

The proposal before the Senate would make available a voluntary Medicare prescription drug plan for all seniors. If enacted, Medicare beneficiaries have access to a discount card for prescription drug purchases starting in 2004. Projected savings from cards for consumers would range between 10 to 25 percent. A $600 subsidy would be applied to the card, offering additional assistance for low-income beneficiaries defined as 160 percent or below the Federal poverty level. Effective January 1, 2006, a new optional Medicare prescription drug benefit would be established under Medicare Part D.

This bill has the potential to make a dramatic difference for millions of Americans living with lower incomes and chronic health care needs. Low-income Medicare beneficiaries, who make up 44 percent of all Medicare beneficiaries, would be provided with prescription drug coverage with minimal out-of-pocket costs. For these seniors, copayments would not exceed 20 percent of the cost of the drugs.

For medical services, Medicare beneficiaries will have the freedom to remain in traditional fee-for-service Medicare for drug coverage, or to enroll in Health Maintenance Organizations (HMOs) or Preferred Provider Organizations (PPOs), also called Medicare Advantage, which offers beneficiaries a wide choice of health care providers, while also coordinating health care effectively, especially for those with multiple chronic conditions. Medicare Advantage health plans would be required to offer at least the standard drug benefit, available through traditional fee-for-service Medicare.

The legislation which is pending has been worked on, now, for many years. I congratulate the chairman of the committee, Senator GRASSLEY, and the ranking member, Senator BAUCUS, for the outstanding work which they have done. This is an extraordinarily complex subject, and it is a very complex bill.

We already know that there are many criticisms directed to this bill at various levels. Many would like to see the prescription drug program cover all of the costs without deductibles and without copays. There has been allocated in our budget plan $400 billion for prescription drug coverage. That is, obviously, a very substantial sum of money. There are a variety of formulas which could be worked out to utilize this funding. The current plan, depending upon levels of income, provides a deductible, then a copay, then what is called a donut hole where the recipient pays the entire costs of their drug coverage, and when it gets to a certain high level, it is catastrophic and there is coverage that pays almost all of it.

As I have reviewed these projections and these analyses, it is hard to say where the line ought to be drawn. It is a value judgment as to what deductibles ought to be, and for whom, and what the copays ought to be and for whom. I am seriously troubled by the so-called donut hole. But it is calculated to encourage people to take the medical care they really need, and at lower levels of income to have certain copays, which it is projected will be affordable. Then, when the costs move into the so-called catastrophic range, to have the plan pay for nearly all of the medical costs.

I think passage by the Senate would be a significant step forward. The House of Representatives, as usual, has a different plan—as is customary, with our bicameral legislative approach. Then the bill can be improved in conference.

The legislative process has the committee turning out a bill, and then many amendments, which generally are not known to Members in advance of brief debate and then votes. It is in the conference, after the bill is analyzed, that another fresh look is taken at the bill to produce the best legislative product in the public interest.

I have already offered an amendment relating to end of life directives, number 983, which was adopted by unanimous consent.

Commenting on it very briefly, we find statistically that nearly 30 percent of Medicare expenditures occur during a person's last year of life. We find, beyond the last year of life, a tremendous percentage of medical costs occur in the last month, in the last few weeks, in the last week, or in the last few days.

Nobody should decide for anybody else what that person should have by way of end-of-life medical care. What care ought to be available is a very personal decision.

The living wills would give an individual an opportunity to make that judgment, to make a decision as to how much care he or she wanted near the end of his or her life and that is, to repeat, a matter highly personalized for the individual.

But if that decision was made to eliminate some of the very high costs at the very end of life, there would obviously be substantial savings to our medical system. As long as that comports with the will of the individual, that is something which ought to be considered.

The amendment directs the Secretary of Health and Human Services to include in its annual "Medicare And You" handbook, to be provided to each beneficiary, a section that specifies information on advanced directives and details on living wills, durable powers of attorney for health care, and directs the Secretary of HHS, in the introductory letter to the "Medicare And You" handbook, to reference the inclusion of advanced directives.

I have also submitted an amendment which is pending at the desk, amendment No. 1085, which has not yet been acted upon but which I will call up at an appropriate time.

This is an amendment which would update the Medicare physician fee formula. It is a sense-of-the-Senate resolution. The projections from the Medicare payment formula called for a 4.4-percent reduction on March 1, which would have been very problematic. The fact is, the Center for Medicare and Medicaid Services, CMS, now projects a Medicare conversion factor figure of 4.2 percent will be projected for the year 2004. This reduction threatens to destabilize an important element of the Medicare Program; namely, physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare payments. This instability is a result of the sustainable growth rate, a system of annual spending which targets physicians' services under Medicare.

This sense-of-the-Senate amendment would provide that the conferees on Medicare reform and prescription drug legislation should include in the conference agreement a provision to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years, and should consider adding provisions which would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multiyear adjustments to recoup the variance and creating tolerance corridors for variations around the updated target trend.

I have also submitted an amendment designated as amendment No. 1118, which provides for a lifestyle modification program demonstration. This is projected on the factor that heart disease kills some 500,000 Americans each year. The costs of coronary disease currently relate to an expenditure of some $58 billion annually. There has been a test program of the Medicare lifestyle modification program operating in some 12 States which has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent. This program could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by as much as $36 billion annually.

Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater. This program has also been applied to men with prostate cancer, who have shown significant improvements in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modifications. My amendment expresses the sense of the Senate that the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the lifestyle modification program demonstration at the national level and then provide it on a permanent basis, and include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis.

I have submitted one additional amendment, which is No. 1128 and which relates to State pharmaceutical assistance programs for the elderly and disabled. Currently, 18 States have comprehensive pharmacy assistance programs which provide prescription drug coverage for more than 1.1 million older and disabled Americans.

In my own State, Pennsylvania's Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly, known as PACE, established in 1984 provides prescription drug coverage to 230,000 Medicare beneficiaries, the vast majority of whom have incomes below 160 percent of the Federal poverty level. This enrollment is comprised largely of 70- and 80-year-old widows who have multiple diseases and limited educational background who have been enrolled in the PACE program for more than a decade.

There is a serious concern that if there is not a coordinated program, people will not be informed as to how to move from PACE to another program. This affects not only Pennsylvania but, as I stated, 17 other States.

The pending bill does not provide for coordination of benefits between State pharmaceutical programs and private insurers. Without a coordination of benefits for State plans to facilitate enrollment in private plans, many of these State program beneficiaries will be unable to assess the new Medicare drug benefit.

This amendment provides for coordination of benefits between States and private insurance companies and facilitates the enrollment of State pharmacy assistance beneficiaries in the private plans. Without this amendment, the majority of seniors enrolled in their State pharmacy programs will not be able to effectively access private plans.

I note the presence of other Senators who are seeking recognition. I attempted to be brief in my general statement about the bill and also in my descriptions of these four amendments, one of which has already been adopted.

I ask unanimous consent that at the conclusion of my remarks, there be printed in the RECORD a summary of the end-of-life directive amendment, a summary of the updating of the Medicare physician fee formula, a summary of the lifestyle modification program, and a summary of the State pharmaceutical assistance programs for the elderly and disabled, and also printed in the RECORD at this point the amendments themselves.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SUMMARY ON THE END OF LIFE DIRECTIVE AMENDMENT

The purpose of this amendment is to make it easier for individuals to make their own choices regarding their treatment when nearing the end of their life.

A health care advance directive is a document where a beneficiary gives instructions about their health care if, in the future, that beneficiary cannot speak for him or herself. The beneficiary can give someone they name ("agent" or "proxy") the power to make health care decisions on their behalf. They may also give instructions about the kind of health care they do or do not want.

In a traditional Living Will, a beneficiary would state their wishes about life-sustaining medical treatments if he or she is terminally ill. In a Health Care Power of Attorney, one appoints someone else to make medical treatment decisions for the beneficiary if they cannot make them on their own.

Unlike most Living Wills, a Health Care Advance Directive is not limited to cases of terminal illness. If the beneficiary cannot make or communicate decisions because of a temporary or permanent illness or injury, a Health Care Advance Directive helps them keep control over important health care decisions.

Observers have long noted that individuals incur the majority of health care costs in the last few months of life. Nearly 30 percent of Medicare expenditures occur during a person's last year of life.

Your amendment directs the Secretary of HHS to include in its annual "Medicare and You" handbook, which is provided to each beneficiary, a section that provides information on advanced directives and details on living wills and durable power of attorney for health care; and directs the Secretary of HHS, in the introductory letter to the "Medicare and You" handbook, to reference the inclusion of advanced directives information.

SUMMARY ON THE AMENDMENT TO UPDATE THE MEDICARE PHYSICIAN FEE FORMULA

Earlier this year, Congress passed legislation as part of the Fiscal Year 2003 Omnibus Appropriations bill (H.J. Res. 2) that avoided an impending 4.4 percent cut in the Medicare conversion factor. Although this change resulted in a welcomed 1.6 percent increase in the Medicare conversion factor for 2003, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' (CMS) preliminary Medicare conversion factor figure predicts a 4.2 percent reduction for 2004.

It is clear that this scheduled 4.2 percent reduction in the physician reimbursement formula threatens to destabilize an important element of the Medicare program, namely physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare patients.

The primary source of this instability is the sustainable growth rate (SGR), a system of annual spending targets for physicians' services under Medicare.

The sustainable growth rate (SGR) system has a number of defects that result in unrealistically low spending targets, such as the use of the increase in the gross domestic product (GDP) as a proxy for increases in the volume and intensity of services provided by physicians, no tolerance for variance between growth in Medicare beneficiary health care costs and our Nation's GDP, and a requirement for the immediate recoupment of the difference.

Both administrative and legislative action are needed to return stability to the Medicare physician payment system.

In its March 2003 report, the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC) stated that if "Congress does not change current law, then payments may not be adequate in 2003 and a compensating adjustment in payments would be necessary in 2004."

With 17 percent of its population eligible for Medicare, the Pennsylvania Medical Society has calculated that Pennsylvania's physicians have already suffered a $128.6 million loss, or $4,074 per physician, as a result of the 2002 Medicare payment reduction. If not corrected, the flawed formula will cost Pennsylvania physicians another $553 million or $17,396 per physician for the period 2003-2005.

Your amendment expresses the sense of the Senate that the conferees on Medicare reform and prescription drug legislation should include in the conference agreement a provision to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years and should consider adding provisions that would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multi-year adjustments to recoup the variance and creating "tolerance" corridors for variations around the update target trend.

SUMMARY OF THE AMENDMENT ON THE LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM

Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year. The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $58 billion annually.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program (also known as the Dean Ornish Program for Reversing Heart Disease) has been operating throughout 12 states and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36 billion annually.

Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise effect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17 million Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

Lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes. Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state.

The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification. These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

Your amendment expresses the sense of the Senate that the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration at the national level on a permanent basis and include as many medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis.

SUMMARY OF THE AMENDMENT ON STATE PHARMACEUTICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS FOR THE ELDERLY AND DISABLED

Currently, 18 states have comprehensive pharmacy assistance programs that provide prescription drug coverage to more than 1.1 million older and disabled residents.

The majority of these beneficiaries receive life saving medications to treat high blood pressure, heart disease, arthritis, diabetes, and eye disease.

Pennsylvania's Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly (PACE), established in 1984, provides prescription drug coverage to 230,000 Medicare beneficiaries, the vast majority of whom have incomes below 160% of the federal poverty level. This enrollment is comprised largely of 70 and 80-year-old widows who have multiple disease states, and less than a tenth grade education, and have been enrolled in PACE for more than a decade.

Currently, the pending bill the Senate does not provide for 'coordination of benefits', between state pharmaceutical programs and private insurers. Without a coordination of benefit mandate and a role for the state plans to facilitate enrollment in private plans, many of these state program beneficiaries will not be able to access the new Medicare drug benefit.

This amendment provides for the coordination of benefits between states and private insurance companies, and facilitates the enrollment of state pharmacy assistance beneficiaries into private plans, without this amendment the majority of the seniors enrolled in their state pharmacy programs will not be able to effectively access private plans.

AMENDMENT NO. 983

(Purpose: To provide medicare beneficiaries with information on advance directives)

On page 676, after line 22, insert the following:

SEC. ____ PROVISION OF INFORMATION ON ADVANCE DIRECTIVES.

Section 1804(c) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395b-2(c)) is amended—

The Secretary shall ensure that the introductory letter that accompanies such handbook contain a statement concerning the inclusion of such information.

"(B) In this section:

"(i) The term 'advance directive' has the meaning given such term in section 1866(f)(3).
 "(ii) The term 'medicare beneficiary' means an individual who is entitled to, or enrolled for, benefits under part A or enrolled under part B, of this title."

AMENDMENT NO.

(Purpose: To permit existing State pharmaceutical assistance programs to wrap around the coverage provided by Medicare Prescription Drug plans and to facilitate the enrollment of eligible beneficiaries for prescription drug coverage)

On page 133, after line 25, insert the following:

"(3) COORDINATION WITH EXISTING STATE PHARMACEUTICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—An eligible entity offering a Medicare Prescription Drug plan, or a Medicare Advantage organization offering a Medicare Advantage plan (other than an MSA plan or a private fee-for-service plan that does not provide qualified prescription drug coverage), shall enter into an agreement with each existing State pharmaceutical assistance program to coordinate the coverage provided under the plan with the assistance provided under the existing State pharmaceutical assistance program.

"(B) ELECTION.—Under the process established under section 1860D-3(a), an eligible beneficiary who resides in a State with an existing State pharmaceutical assistance program and who is eligible to enroll in such program shall elect to enroll in a Medicare Prescription Drug plan or Medicare Advantage plan through the existing State pharmaceutical assistance program.

"(C) EXISTING STATE PHARMACEUTICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM DEFINED.—In this paragraph, the term 'existing State pharmaceutical assistance program' means a program that has been established pursuant to a waiver under section 1115 or otherwise before January 1, 2004."

AMENDMENT NO. 1085

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule)

At the end of title VI, insert the following:

SEC. ____ SENSE OF THE SENATE ON PAYMENT REDUCTIONS UNDER MEDICARE PHYSICIAN FEE SCHEDULE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(1) the fees Medicare pays physicians were reduced by 5.4 percent across-the-board in 2002;

(2) recent action by Congress narrowly averted another across-the-board reduction of 4.4 percent for 2003;

(3) based on current projections, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) estimates that, absent legislative or administrative action, fees will be reduced across-the-board once again in 2004 by 4.2 percent;

(4) the prospect of continued payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule for the foreseeable future threatens to destabilize an important element of the program, namely physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare patients;

(5) the primary source of this instability is the sustainable growth rate (SGR), a system of annual spending targets for physicians' services under Medicare;

(6) the SGR system has a number of defects that result in unrealistically low spending targets, such as the use of the increase in the gross domestic product (GDP) as a proxy for increases in the volume and intensity of services provided by physicians, no tolerance for variance between growth in Medicare beneficiary health care costs and our Nation's GDP, and a requirement for immediate recoupment of the difference;

(7) both administrative and legislative action are needed to return stability to the physician payment system;

(8) using the discretion given to it by Medicare law, CMS has included expenditures for prescription drugs and biologicals administered incident to physicians' services under the annual spending targets without making appropriate adjustments to the targets to reflect price increases in these drugs and biologicals or the growing reliance on such therapies in the treatment of Medicare patients;

(9) between 1996 and 2002, annual Medicare spending on these drugs grew from $1,800,000,000 to $6,200,000,000, or from $55 per beneficiary to an estimated $187 per beneficiary;

(10) although physicians are responsible for prescribing these drugs and biologicals, neither the price of the drugs and biologicals, nor the standards of care that encourage their use, are within the control of physicians; and

(11) SGR target adjustments have not been made for cost increases due to new coverage decisions and new rules and regulations.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) should use its discretion to exclude drugs and biologicals administered incident to physician services from the sustainable growth rate (SGR) system;

(2) CMS should use its discretion to make SGR target adjustments for new coverage decisions and new rules and regulations; and

(3) in order to provide ample time for Congress to consider more fundamental changes to the SGR system, the conferees on the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003 should include in the conference agreement a provision to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years and should consider adding provisions that would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multi-year adjustments to recoup the variance and creating "tolerance" corridors for variations around the update target trend.

AMENDMENT NO.

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding the establishment of a nationwide permanent lifestyle modification program for Medicare beneficiaries)

SEC. ____ SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATION-WIDE PERMANENT LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM FOR MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

(1) Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year.

(2) The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $58,000,000,000 annually.

(3) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been operating throughout 12 States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

(4) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36,000,000,000 annually.

(5) Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

(6) Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

(7) The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17,000,000 Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

(8) Lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes.

(9) Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state.

(10) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

(11) Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

(12) These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the demonstration project known as the Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration, as described in the Health Care Financing Administration Memorandum of Understanding entered into on November 13, 2000, on a permanent basis;

(2) the project should include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis; and

(3) the project should be conducted on a national basis.

Mr. SPECTER. I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the distinguished Senator from West Virginia be recognized to speak on the bill for up to 20 minutes and that following his statement, the Senator from Florida, Mr. GRAHAM, be recognized for 15 minutes.

The Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished Democratic whip for his thoughtfulness and courtesies.

Mr. President, just last month we celebrated Older Americans Month, a time of reflect on the contribution of older Americans to our society—to their families, their communities, and their Nation. For many seniors, these “golden years” are the most valuable time in their lives, a time when they may no longer have the day-to-day aggravations of work, and can concentrate their time and efforts on something else—grandchildren, lifelong passions, learning new skills, acquiring knowledge, or participating in creative endeavors.

But that is not the case for many seniors. In too many instances, seniors who have worked and saved a lifetime find that today’s cost of living far exceeds the level they can afford. Despite planning and frugality, today’s costs simply have exceeded the means of many older Americans, and they find that the visions of the secure life they had expected post-retirement are now more a nightmare than a dream.

A big part of the problem is the value that our society places on the elderly—it is much too low!

Age discrimination is all too prevalent in the workplace. Long-held stereotypes—that seniors are slow, forgetful, less competent than their younger counterparts—limit opportunities for older workers and prevent businesses from benefiting from well-honed talents. Those stereotypical images are just plain wrong.

To be 65 today is not like it was to be 65 when I was a young man. The idea of pushing senior citizens out of the door to make room for younger workers is, itself, antiquated.

I grew up during the Great Depression when one had to work hard just to get a job and then work even harder to keep it. People of my generation, the generation Tom Brokaw has referred to as “The Greatest Generation”—I kind of like that term, “The Greatest Generation,” although I don’t quite agree with it.

Seniors in the workforce can be a positive and inspiring force.

The reason I don’t agree with it is that I think the greatest generation was that generation that produced the Constitution of the United States and produced this constitutional system of government that we have today. We will talk more about that on a later day.

I grew up during the Great Depression when one had to work hard, as I say, just to get a job and then work harder to keep it. People of my generation, coming from that experience, developed a work ethic which can inspire young people today. Seniors in the workforce can be a positive, inspiring force. Moreover, better health care and healthier lifestyles have extended life-spans and led to a senior population with vigor and vitality.

But when the health of seniors does decline, this Nation does an embarrassingly poor job of dealing with their needs. Child care has become a booming business in this Nation. Millions are spent on bigger, brighter, better child care centers—lively places, filled with happy activities and stimulation. That is as it should be. But when the elderly need daily care, too often they are relegated to dim, overcrowded centers, places that serve as little more than warehouses that provide busy work for the hands, and little to fill the heart and soul.

Inestimable numbers of scam artists focus on the elderly. The offices of Attorney Generals across the nation are besieged with complaints from seniors who were prey for some con artists and ended up losing their life savings. Newspapers carry stories about CEOs of big, once-profitable companies who are awarded big bonuses, while the pensions of loyal retirees are squeezed. When this is how we treat our seniors, something is wrong with America.

Older citizens should rejoice in their long lives, in their collected experiences, and in their accomplishments. But in America today, magazines showcase images of young, vibrant models. Movies and television shows feature youthful actors and actresses. No one wants to be “old” anymore. It has become a tarnished word.

Older citizens today are generally not appreciated as either experienced “elders” or possessors of special wisdom. Older people are respected only to the extent that they remain capable of working, exercising, and taking care of themselves. In American culture, increasing age seems to portend decreasing value as a human being. It should be just the opposite.

How did the American culture develop such blatant disregard and disrespect for the elderly? Well, however we got to such a point, we are definitely here.

Senior citizens need to rise up and make their voices heard or else they will be forgotten, especially when it comes to policy formation that directly affects them, such as Medicare legislation before us today. The Senate is in the midst of an important debate on a major restructuring of Medicare—a debate that will shape the health care choices of millions of our Nation’s senior citizen for years to come.

The Medicare program is in desperate need of renovation to meet the needs of today’s older citizens living in a new era with dramatic advancements in the delivery of health care. Medicare was designed to provide health care benefits to the most vulnerable segments of the population, the elderly and the disabled.

When I voted, way back in 1965, to establish the Medicare program, pharmaceutical treatments, then more of footnote in health care, were not nearly as commonly available as they are now.

Today, they are a primary form of medical care and often substitute for more costly treatments like hospitalization and surgery.

Today, 40 million Americans rely on Medicare to help provide for their medical needs. With more than one-third of all Medicare beneficiaries lacking insurance coverage for the cost of needed medications, finding affordable prescription drug coverage is a critical issue for our Nation's seniors. Prescription drugs are an essential tool for treating and preventing many acute and chronic conditions, but Medicare fails to cover them on an outpatient basis. Too many seniors and disabled persons in this country, especially those living on fixed incomes, are forced to choose each month between paying for food and paying for shelter, or buying the essential medicines that their doctors have prescribed.

Our Nation's senior citizens are losing their patience. They are losing their dignity. And they are fed up with fast-rising drug costs that they cannot afford. Older citizens should not have to travel in bus loads to Canada and Mexico just to obtain the medications their doctors prescribe. What does it say about this country and its values when we fail to take care of our elderly citizens whose lifetime of work and sacrifice and dedication and industry helped to endow this country with the greatness it now enjoys?

Mr. President, I fear that the legislation before us today is a glaring example of how this Nation shortchanges our senior citizens. We are not taking care of our elderly citizens as they wrestle with the most serious issue in their lives. We are offering a partial fix to assuage senior anger. This bill fails to go far enough to meet the needs of our Nation's senior citizens. I am concerned that this measure would force Medicare beneficiaries to rely on a private, untried, untested, drug-only insurance market for their prescription drug coverage, rather than the traditional Medicare program that they know and trust. We split drug benefit off from Medicare?

I am concerned that this administration and some Members of Congress plan to phase out the traditional Medicare program as an option for new beneficiaries in the future. Some people have asserted that this legislation is merely a Trojan horse designed to get rid of Medicare. I sincerely hope that this is not the case, but there is something very suspicious about this particular horse.

I am worried that we may be endorsing the slow suicide of one of the most popular and effective Government programs in history. I have been down this tortured road before during my 50-year tenure in Congress. My constituents and others around the Nation are reeling from public programs that have been turned over to the so-called free market. Utility rates, cable rates, airline rates, you name it, the free market has ensured exorbitant prices with diminished service, especially for rural areas such as West Virginia. Pensions and retirement security have taken a similar beating.

The Medicare program, for which I voted in 1965, was originally created because the private sector did not offer affordable and reliable health insurance to the elderly and the disabled. Health care has certainly changed in the past 38 years, but what has not changed is the fact that the private market does not want to insure people who are old or disabled or likely to need care. Mr. President, what is the rationale for inventing some new hocus-pocus type of plan that exposes senior citizens to the whims of private insurance companies which may be more interested in profits than in providing comprehensive drug benefits?

Mr. President, this legislation, as currently designed, does not even provide sufficient prescription drug coverage. It would cover less than a quarter of Medicare beneficiaries' estimated drug costs over the next 10 years, and the complicated coverage formula has a large donut hole providing zero coverage just when seniors might need it most.

This legislation also includes copayments, premiums, and deductibles that may be unaffordable for man low- and middle-income seniors. The $35-per-month premium, the 50-percent copay, the $275 annual deductible, and the $5,800 stop-loss amount that we have heard so much about are only suggested amounts and certainly not a guarantee. A closer look at the fine print of this legislation reveals that private insurers could choose to charge senior citizens double or even triple these amounts.

Let's fact it, the kind of prescription drug benefit that we have repeatedly promised our Nation's elderly citizens, and that they now rightly expect, would cost at least $800 billion over the next decade. Yet the administration and congressional Republicans have only allocated $400 billion for the next 10 years for a Medicare prescription drug benefit. And during this same period, drug costs for senior citizens alone, according to the Congressional Budget Office, are expected to total almost $2 trillion.

One of the primary reasons this legislation contains such glaring deficiencies in the drug benefits being offered to seniors is not difficult to understand—this administration and Congress have chosen to make tax cuts a higher priority than prescription drugs for senior citizens. Since the Federal Treasury has already been raided, there is not enough money to adequately cover prescription drugs. Senior citizens ought to be outraged—outraged. Senior citizens ought to be outraged. I am a senior citizen, and I represent a State with a lot of senior citizens, and I am outraged! I am outraged!

What is the rationale for waiting until 2006—conveniently right after the next election cycle—to implement this legislation? Why wait? What are we so afraid of? We had Medicare up and running less than 12 months after creating it from scratch in 1965. So why can't we do it now? Mr. President, it seems that this Congress is trying to pull the wool over the eyes of our Nation's senior citizens—hoping to claim victory and keep senior citizens in the dark until they become painfully aware of the fine print—the fine print—of this legislation upon a visit to their local pharmacist in 2006.

Mr. President, this legislation, as it stands, does not provide the real, guaranteed, defined benefit that our senior citizens desperately need and does little to address the high cost of prescription drugs. I had hoped we could improve this legislation through the amendment process, but that does not appear to be the will of this Senate in the mad dash—the mad dash—to reach final passage before the recess. We should do better for our older citizens. We owe them so much.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Florida.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, this is a sad evening for me. I rise to oppose the prescription drug bill that we will be voting on shortly. No issue that we have debated over recent years has held so much promise, the promise that we could fundamentally reform Medicare from a program which today requires you to be sick enough to go to the doctor or the hospital in order to get services to one that would have its focus on wellness, including the opportunity to participate in a voluntary, comprehensive, universal, and affordable plan of prescription drugs.

Prescription drugs are, in today's health care system, a fundamental part of maintaining good health. I have spent the better part of the last 5 years, as have so many of my colleagues—and in the case of Senator BYRD, many more than 5 years—attempting to deliver a meaningful drug benefit for our Nation's seniors. I have learned some things during this period. Unfortunately, what I have learned convinces me that the bill before us tonight is not worthy of America's seniors. Because what we are about to deliver is a hollow promise and little else.

Why do I believe this? Why have I come to the conclusion that this proposal is not worthy of using all of the years of enthusiasm and commitment of America's seniors and many of those such as myself who represent a substantial number of those seniors? Why do we feel that this path is not acceptable?

First, there are gaps in the benefit which are too large to overcome. I could not go home to Florida or to any other place in America and tell people that this legislation is a good deal. This is especially the case for those with large out-of-pocket expenses. How do we tell a senior who halfway through the first year in which this will be available, 2006, their drug costs will double but they will continue to pay the monthly premiums?

That would be analogous to car insurance which says: You will be covered in case you have an accident from January to August but if you have one from September to December it is out of your pocket. Who would buy that automobile coverage?

The worst thing is that millions of seniors will never realize they have bought in to such an inadequate policy until it is too late.

Second, this bill does not provide a universal drug benefit. Under this plan, for instance, if you are a Medicare beneficiary but you are also poor, you will not get the prescription drug benefits for Medicare. That is right. Seniors at 74 percent or below the poverty level would be excluded from the Medicare benefit. They would get their prescription drugs through Medicaid. This is a clear effort for the Federal Government to unload a substantial part of its prescription drug expenses on the States, States which are already struggling with serious financial problems.

It is for that reason that the National Governors Association has opposed this design saying:

It is not good health policy. It is not good precedent.

The argument is made that this is all we can do. We cannot do better because we do not have the resources to do better. This is analogous to the child who just has shot his mother and his father and now throws himself on the mercy of the court claiming to be an orphan. We have made the decision to be in the financial status that we are, and the consequence of that decision, as we debated a few weeks ago when we adopted the Senate's budget for the year, is that we are going to have to have an unnecessarily and unacceptably low level of financial support for a meaningful prescription drug benefit.

Third, this plan will cost many seniors more than they can afford. From repeated surveys, seniors have stated that they need a plan with no deductible so that coverage starts from the first prescription. And they need a premium of no more than $25 a month. Yet the sponsors of this bill suggest a $275 deductible and an average premium of $35 per month, an average premium which could actually be higher because the private insurance companies will determine the level of the premium. You can look through the over 600 pages of this bill and not find the number $35. That is a hope number but the actual number will be determined by the private insurance carriers.

Fourth, this bill would subject millions of America's seniors to a giant experiment, a giant experiment in delivering prescription drugs through an untested delivery system, a system which is unheard of in the private markets. It is stated that this system will be justified because it will be efficient and will use the power of competition to suppress cost. If this was such a good system, why don't we provide it for all Federal employees so they can get, we as Federal employees can get, the benefit of this greater efficiency and cost savings? The reason is because insuring drugs only is not an actuarially sustainable risk. It has been analogized to buying a fire insurance policy just to cover the kitchen. No insurance company is going to sell you a policy for the most vulnerable area of your house to actually experience a fire.

That is why no private insurance plan is available today which will provide you a prescription-only coverage. That is the equivalent of the kitchen in terms of its intensity and potential for explosion of cost within health care. Yet we are about to say that some 40 million of the most vulnerable and frail Americans are going to be the experiment for this ideology.

I have said it before and I will say it again: There is simply no reason to subject our Nation's seniors to this grand experiment, particularly when we already know what works. There is no reason to pump extra dollars into private insurance plans.

A few hours ago we adopted an amendment which will pump in $6 billion for additional benefits to HMOs. Those $6 billion could have been used to reduce the monthly premium, to close part of the gap of coverage. But what did we decide to do? We are going to give it to the HMOs so the Federal Government will be assuming more of the risk of coverage as opposed to these plans whose reason for being is to assume the risk and, therefore, have the incentive to provide the most efficient plans.

We are begging these HMOs to participate in the Medicare Program for the sake of a private sector veneer, for the sake of an ideology untested. We actually tried a version of this before. Guess what. It didn't work. I speak from experience. Medicare HMOs have dumped hundreds of thousands of Floridians from their rolls as they have in virtually every other State, and more are being dumped each day. But this Congress, rather than look to the reality of past experience, has determined to embark on this collision course at the expense of seniors and at the expense of common sense.

Fifth, I fear that we will have difficulty in convincing healthier seniors to sign up for this prescription drug benefit. As it is with virtually all insurance plans, it is critical that there be a mixture of those who have the greater likelihood of experiencing the risk with those who have the lesser likelihood in order to create an actuarially sound balance.

One-third of our seniors would not break even under this legislation. That is, one-third of seniors with drug spending of less than $1,135 per year would get no benefit should they voluntarily sign up for this plan. Therefore, how do we induce them to do so? One of the ways that we had induced them in the past was to have a meaningful catastrophic care provision, so that seniors who, today, are relatively healthy are insuring themselves against the risk that they might have a disease or an accident that would put them into much higher prescription drug costs.

Last year we determined that the level necessary to induce a large enough number of healthy seniors to participate was $4,000 in an annual drug expenditure, and if their previous employer made a contribution, that would be counted toward that $4,000. This bill increases the level at which a person would be eligible for catastrophic care to $5,800, and employer contributions would be excluded. This new level is significantly less of an inducement for healthy seniors to participate, and the effect is likely to be disappointing levels of participation.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. The reporter interviewed active, healthy seniors at centers in Cleveland, OH, and they were skeptical of the cost of the benefits that would be offered under this bill.

Sixth, the fact that this bill doesn't take effect until 2006 is another brutal hoax on seniors, truly an abusive, shameful, misleading ploy.

The fact is, many of those who most need prescription drug coverage today simply will not live long enough to get any benefits under this plan. As much as I have wanted to vote for a drug bill, for those reasons, I simply cannot vote for the one before us this evening.

We have lost our focus. The focus should be on the Medicare Program in reform and how to help our 40 million seniors and disabled persons. Instead, the focus is everywhere else—insurance companies, drug companies, and hiding the flaws which ought to be exposed.

This focus is often presented as the issue of choice. Choice has different meanings. For the ideolog, choice means a choice among delivery systems. But for seniors, choice means doctors, hospitals, and, hopefully, prescription drugs. Yes, this gives seniors a choice among delivery systems. For instance, if you are one of the 89 percent of seniors in a fee-for-service Medicare Program, you will get a choice of between two or more prescription drug plans. If that fails, you will then drop back into traditional Medicare.

The Stabenow amendment, which was defeated earlier in the debate, would have given seniors at least real choice between a prescription drug delivery system and fee-for-service Medicare as the delivery system.

The tragedy is that we know what we ought to be doing. What we ought to be doing is building on the strengths of our current Medicare system—one of the most popular health care programs in this Nation's history. We also ought to be seeing that we have a plan that is affordable and comprehensive.

I think the dye is cast and this bill is likely to pass the Senate. I will be hopeful that in conference it will improve but I think there is every likelihood to suspect that it will get worse. It will be my intention to introduce legislation that will correct the flaws of this legislation which, among other things, will provide for a patients' bill of rights, so that as we herd more seniors into HMOs, at least they will know the standards by which they will be asked to operate within that.

We are beginning to hear the first rumblings of dissent. Today's Miami Herald looked at the legislation before the two Houses and this is what they had to say:

House and Senate bills attempting to offer prescription drug cost relief to Medicare seniors can be summed up with the movie title, Dumb and Dumber.

Both bills promise dubious benefits without providing the security that seniors want and have, with traditional Medicare health coverage.

I ask unanimous consent that a copy of that editorial be printed in the RECORD after my remarks.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Medicare has served our seniors superbly. And where it has not, as in the area of prescription drugs, it has been because Congress has not allowed it to do so.

I hope when this bill comes back from conference, it will be better but I doubt that will be the case.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has consumed 15 minutes.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, I will vote no today in the hopes that soon we will have an opportunity to pass a prescription drug bill that will fully meet the needs and expectations of older Americans.

FOR STRUGGLING SENIORS, MEDICARE DRUG PLAN'S PROOF IS IN THE PURSE

(By Ceci Connolly)

CLEVELAND—As the Medicare drug package moving through Congress takes on an air of inevitability, Washington politicians are already jostling for credit. But in this working-class city 370 miles from Capitol Hill, prospects for the plan's eventual success may lie deep inside the handbags of women such as Marie A. Urban.

Stashed in there are her monthly Social Security statement, a half-dozen prescription discount cards and insurance letters rejecting several recent medical claims. The scraps of paper—creased and scribbled on—document a life near the financial edge.

After working 24 years as the secretary at St. Paul's Shrine, Urban, 72 collects $843.70 a month in Social Security. After housing and Medicare payments, she has $459 for utilities, food, car insurance, taxes and medication. "Some months I have 87 cents to live on," she said. With her drug bills this year already exceeding $1,500, she said she probably will try to cobble together the money to buy the prescription coverage that lawmakers plan to offer Medicare recipients.

"I don't know," she said. "My finances right now are very tight. I guess I'd have to go with it."

In interviews at two senior centers here, Urban and other retirees expressed deeply mixed feelings about the voluntary prescription drug benefit scheduled for votes in Congress as early as today. They exhibited a visceral distrust of Washington, voicing skepticism that elected officials would deliver a package that fits their health needs and budgetary constraints—in time for them to use it. They were disappointed that in most cases, benefits would not begin until a person spent nearly $1,000 a year on prescription drugs. And they were annoyed—but not totally surprised—that the program would not begin until 2006.

"They've been kicking this ball around for a while," said Carrie Adams, 66. "If they wanted to solve this, they would. The people with the ball are not relating to the people out here."

Ruby Bogus, 83, was a bit more sanguine. "We just have to live longer, girls," she said.

Both the House and Senate plans would require seniors to pay about $35 in monthly premiums and an annual deductible of $250 to $275 before receiving any subsidy. The Senate plan would cover half of a person's annual drug expenditures between $276 and $4,500. The recipient would pay the next $1,300 in prescription costs. If the person's total drug costs rose above $5,800 in a year, subsidies would resume.

The House bill would offer retirees an 80 percent subsidy on drug bills between $251 and $2,000 and no coverage for the next $1,500 worth of medications. The "catastrophic coverage" would begin when costs reached $3,501.

Asked whether either plan was attractive, Emily Eckert pulled a tiny notebook from her purse. It listed her daily medications: two pills to control sugar, one for high blood pressure, another to regulate potassium. Using her People's Drug Mart discount card—also tucked in her pocketbook—Eckert spends about $100 a month on prescriptions, plus $22 for diabetes test strips.

At 79, she has outlived two husbands, but at a high cost. Caring for her first husband, who had cancer, and the second, who had diabetes, wiped out $7,000 in savings and two life insurance policies valued at $3,000. Eckert has been in bankruptcy and worries about helping her three children, 10 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

"If it wasn't for this center, I'd be starving," she said, referring to the Senior Citizens Resources facility in the Old Brooklyn neighborhood. She wants to buy the drug coverage proposed for Medicare but isn't certain she will be able to pay the premiums.

The situations of Marie Urban and Emily Eckert may sound dire, but in many respects they are typical for the millions of senior citizens and disabled people who rely on Medicare for their health care. Not poor enough to qualify for Medicaid, yet not fortunate enough to have substantial savings or a lucrative retirement package, such people have clamored for years for help with the rising cost of medication.

Assuming the House and Senate pass their spending bills and then resolve their differences, Congress hopes to answer those demands by spending nearly $400 billion on drug coverage over 10 years. The legislation would mark the largest Medicare expansion in the program's 38-year history and could provide a political boost to President Bush and fellow Republicans who campaigned on the promise of alleviating drug costs.

However, as the conversations in Cleveland illustrated, many older Americans are watching with guarded optimism and could revolt if the final package fails to meet expectations. That would dash Republicans' hopes of taking away an issue that has been mostly associated with Democrats for decades.

Their elderly residents' fundamental question is whether they would save money under the new plans. The answer isn't easy.

Urban is torn. Most years she spends about $800 on medicine, so a benefit that does not begin paying off until after $1,000 in out-of-pocket spending looks like a money loser for her. But this year, a mysterious infection and several hospitalizations pushed her drug bills to $1,500, and the federally subsidized insurance would have saved her money. Urban drives 30 minutes to several pharmacies in the Cleveland suburbs to shop for the best deals. She gets agitated thinking about the complex math of the new proposal.

Howard Bram, 77, also complained about the complexity of a program that will involve choosing a plan, tracking out-of-pocket expenses and knowing when the coverage kicks in, lapses and then resumes in severe cases, all according to a sliding scale of benefits.

"It's just gonna blow their minds," he said. Bram is trying to figure out whether the drug plan would put a significant dent in the cost of the eight medications he takes.

Carrie Adams and Jean Nagorski are precisely the sort of customer-patients that Medicare will need—comparatively young, healthy and with some retirement income. Yet both women doubt they would buy the Medicare drug coverage because they believe they get a better bargain with the current supplemental insurance plans. Without clients such as Adams and Nagorski, policy-makers worry, the new Medicare package will draw the oldest, sickest and poorest patients, leading to skyrocketing costs.

Despite the plan's limits, Adams predicted many friends will sign up for any program that might lower their drug bills. "They're gonna jump on this like white on rice," she said.

Zev Harel, 73, agreed.

"There are always those who hope for a revolution, but what has worked in the United States is evolution," said Harel, a professor at Cleveland State University and board member of the Western Reserve Area Agency on Aging. Many of his friends will be disappointed with the limits of the drug coverage, he said, but he considers it "a major improvement over the current situation."

If analyzed in the context of other types of insurance, the Medicare drug plan is a reasonable approach, Harel said. "This follows on the principle of purchasing protection."

But many others said the fundamental promise of Medicare—a system they supported through payroll taxes throughout their careers—has always been health care for all, and in today's world, that should include prescriptions.

"The politicians seem to say it's better than nothing, and we should be grateful," Urban grumbled.

To some retirees here, who chip coupons and follow the news, Washington's Medicare is just the latest example of the doings of out-of-touch elitists.

Nagorski reached into her purse and retrieved a recent newspaper clipping detailing the personal riches of the United States' elected leaders. The article identified several millionaires, including Sens. Bill Frist (R-Tenn.), Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Ohio's senators, Mike DeWine and George V. Voinovich, both Republicans.

"Do you really think they care about the average person with what they earn?" Nagorski asked. "I don't think any of them are ever going to have to live on $1,100 a month."

[From the Miami Herald, June 26, 2003]

THE WRONG PRESCRIPTION—CONGRESS
CONSIDERS INADEQUATE BILLS

U.S. House and Senate bills attempting to offer prescription-drug cost relief to Medicare seniors can be summed up with a movie title: Dumb and Dumber. Both bills promise dubious benefits without providing the security that seniors want, and have, with traditional Medicare health coverage.

With election-year politicking started already, the bad news is that a bad bill may actually be enacted after years of waiting. The politicians may easily be miscalculating. Most seniors, who faithfully turn out to vote, want prescription-drug coverage through Medicare—not the private insurers that the GOP-controlled Congress and White House are pushing.

Further, an increasing number of Americans—32 percent today versus 16 percent in 1999—says that neither the Republican Party nor the Democratic Party is doing a good job on the issue of prescription-drug benefits for the elderly, according to a recent poll by the Kaiser Family Foundation and Harvard School of Public Health. The proposed congressional legislation can only deepen that sense.

Each bill would cost about $400 billion over 10 years and suffer from complexity and coverage gaps. Under the Senate bill, for instance, a senior would pay the first $275 in drug costs (the deductible), then half of the costs—up to $4,500. They would then get no benefit until the bills total $5,800 (an out-of-pocket expense of $3,700), after which 90 percent of the cost would be covered. Have you got that?

It gets worse. Beyond the deductible and co-payments, seniors would pay a monthly premium—even while getting no benefits when they are in the coverage gap. Although the premium is “estimated” at $35 a month, it’s actually subject to a drug-cost inflator that, at the moment, is four times higher than inflation. It’s also subject to interpretation by private insurers, who presumably would contract with the government to administer this plan—an uncertain assumption.

The Senate bill also provides for a “fallback”: if a region doesn’t attract two competing private insurers, the government may contract with pharmacy-benefit managers, firms that actually manage the prescription-drug programs of most large health-insurance plans. So why contract with the private insurers in the first place when these pharmacy-benefit managers have the expertise to drive down drug costs by leveraging Medicare’s enormous volume-buying power?

That the pharmaceutical companies are trying to strip this fallback provision does indicate who wants the benefits here—and we’re not talking about Medicare seniors.

The House GOP measure, indeed, has no fallback provision—which could leave large areas of the country without access to the Medicare drug benefit. It has the same premium problem and a bigger coverage gap. But it would provide more generous benefits: A $250 deductible and 80 percent cost coverage up to $2,000.

Neither bill offers the drug-price relief, simplicity and security that seniors need. But what do you expect from a Congress and White House that already have spent $1.7 trillion on tax cuts since 2001? Seniors, and critical Medicare and Social Security concerns, apparently only matter as talking points for an election year.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada is recognized.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I know the Senator from Arizona is here to speak.

He will speak for 10 or 15 minutes, is my understanding.

We are at a point where we have very few amendments left. We have a couple that may take a little debate but I think most of them will be disposed of with minimal debate. I hope everyone understands we are moving this along as quickly as possible. The managers have worked for 2 weeks on this matter.

After the Senator from Arizona finishes his statement, we should be in a position to have a number of votes lined up for later this evening.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Arizona is recognized.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, the passage of the Medicare prescription drug benefits legislation is a difficult vote for me. It is unacceptable that in a country as wealthy as ours seniors across the country are struggling to afford the high cost of prescription drugs. I have supported adding a prescription drug benefit to Medicare because I believe no beneficiary should have to choose between life-sustaining prescription medications and other vital necessities. Far too many American seniors face those choices every day. Many ration their supplies of medication, skip dosages, or cut pills in half.

In Arizona, busloads of seniors depart from Phoenix and Tucson every week, heading south to Mexico to purchase lower cost prescription drugs. The story is similar across the northern border, where seniors make daily trips to Canadian pharmacies. Throughout the country, an increasing number of seniors are looking to online pharmacies, selling reduced-priced prescriptions imported from other countries, oftentimes with questionable safety.

That said, I also recognize, as does every other Member of Congress, that Medicare is on a fast track toward bankruptcy. The most recent Trustee’s Report adjusted down the year Medicare will reach financial insolvency by 4 years, to 2026. Clearly, it is incumbent upon us to include comprehensive reform of the system in any Medicare prescription drug package in order to ensure that Medicare is financially sound for current beneficiaries as well as future generations.

Medicine has changed substantially since the creation of the Medicare system in 1965. Advances in medical technology and pharmaceuticals have led to more prescription-based treatments. The simple fact is, Americans now consume more prescriptions than ever before. In 1968, soon after the enactment of Medicare, American seniors spent about $65 a year on a handful of prescription medications. Today, seniors fill an average of 22 prescriptions a year, spending an estimated $999.

The bill before us represents one of the largest enhancements to Medicare since its creation, setting up an entirely new bureaucracy and establishing a sizable new entitlement program. I believe this bill addresses a real problem, the need to help struggling middle and low-income seniors. However, we must have no illusions. There are dangerous complexities and potential unintended consequences associated with this bill.

First, we must be realistic about the cost of this new entitlement program. For anyone who believes this bill will cost a maximum of $400 billion over the next 10 years, I have some oceanfront property in Gila Bend, AZ, to sell you.

Medicare and Social Security, together, represent an enormous unfunded liability for our Nation. In a few short years, millions of baby boomers will hit retirement age and the system will quickly become insolvent.

The numbers speak for themselves. Medicare currently has an unfunded liability of $13.3 trillion. Some have estimated the unfunded liability of the package before us in the $6 to $7 trillion range. A scholar at the American Enterprise Institute Scholar estimated that if passed, the Senate’s prescription drug benefit legislation will result in a $12 trillion unfunded liability. Social Security and Medicare, with a prescription drug benefit, will together consume an estimated 21 percent of income taxes by the year 2020.

Long after the Members of this Congress and administration have left office, our children and our grandchildren, and a future Congress and administration, will be struck with the burden of cleaning up the mess we have created.

In the past 2 years, we have passed two large tax cuts. Government spending, however, has continued to increase well above the inflation use. Much of that spending is unnecessary, and represents a lack of fiscal discipline more common in times of federal budget surpluses. Yet our current budget deficit and national debt have risen dramatically. Security concerns in the post 9/11 era necessitate substantial increases in spending on defense and homeland security. We cannot sustain this level of fiscal profligacy indefinitely.

This extraordinary large new entitlement we are debating will impose an equally extraordinary burden on taxpayers. The money has to come from somewhere, and none of the “somewheres” are desirable. The reality is, this new benefit will be funded by raiding other entitlement trust funds, or by increasing our national debt, or by substantially increasing taxes.

Despite the enormous cost of this bill, this new entitlement will not provide the prescription drug coverage many seniors expect to receive. Nor does it enact significant reform measures needed to ensure the long-term solvency of the Medicare system.

Those seniors who think this bill will solve their financial problems will soon learn that there are substantial limitations to the benefit. When it does pass, the new prescription benefit will not be available immediately. In fact, it will take several years just to establish the new bureaucracy which will administer the prescription benefits.

Low-income seniors will benefit from this package, and I am pleased that they will. Many other seniors, however, will not receive a generous benefit, and might not even get out of the system what they will pay in deductible and premiums. The Congressional Budget Office estimates that 37 percent of employers currently providing coverage to Medicare eligible seniors, will drop coverage if this bill passes. Last week, the Wall Street Journal quoted one analyst who called this bill the "automaker enrichment act," because companies such as the automakers who currently provide their retired employees with a prescription drug benefit are unlikely to continue doing so if the Federal Government assumes part of the burden for them.

I am concerned that we are about to repeat—I emphasize repeat—an enormous mistake. I have been around here long enough to remember another large Medicare prescription drug entitlement program we enacted in 1988, Medicare Catastrophic. The image of seniors outraged by the high cost and ineffectiveness of that package should be a cautionary tale to all of us.

Moreover, I am not confident that the Medicare Advantage portion of this new scheme, which establishes regional PPO options for seniors, will succeed. Many in the insurance industry have expressed skepticism and concern that such plans will not be profitable. In the end, the Federal Government, which acts as a fallback if no private plans are available, might end up covering the majority of the country. Not exactly the reform we all had hoped for.

The American people should be aware that this new benefit has substantial cost to seniors, and to current and future generations of taxpayers, who will bear the majority of a crushing financial burden. There will be unintended consequences of our actions. We can be sure of that. Moreover, we should be honest about the cost of this measure—$400 billion is merely a down payment for what we are creating. Given the fiscal realities we face, realities that will become more dire with every passing year, Congress and the administration should have committed to addressing the acute need for a drug benefit to alleviate the impossible choices confronting lower income seniors. And, most importantly, begun to seek consensus among responsible Members of both parties for the reforms we all know are necessary to save Medicare.

I recently heard a good assessment of this package: it is "an effort to do too much with too little, and thus doing nothing very well at all."

There are several good amendments that have been adopted during this debate. I am encouraged that a bill Senator SCHUMER and I worked on for the last 4 years, might finally be enacted into law as part of this package. Our amendment will increase competition in the pharmaceutical industry and ensure that all Americans have access to lower cost generic drugs. That amendments, which would not have been possible without the leadership of Senator GREGG and the support of Senator KENNEDY, will reduce the cost to the government of any Medicare prescription drug benefit.

I was happy to cosponsor an important amendment with Senators FEINSTEIN, NICKLES, CHAFEE, and GRAHAM, which I believe will add some fiscal discipline to the bill and the Medicare program. The amendment will add means testing to Medicare Part B—increasing co-payments for wealthier seniors.

I am also pleased that several measures which I have supported and cosponsored as separate bills, have been adopted as part of this package, including the Immigrant Children's Health Improvement Act, the Blind Empowerment Act, and funds to reimburse hospitals for the uncompensated cost of caring for undocumented immigrants. Additionally, there have been several good amendments that I think will improve overall health care in our country. In particular, I believe Senator GRASSLEY's amendment which requires agreements between brand and generic pharmaceutical companies to be reported to the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department will shine some much needed light on potential collusive agreements.

Despite these welcome improvements, and recognizing that this legislation will address the crisis faced by lower income seniors, the costs of this entitlement remain, simply put, beyond the means of this country absent real reform of Medicare. Therefore, after much thought, I regret that I cannot vote for this legislation. I have reached this conclusion, not because I believe our seniors and disabled do not need or deserve prescription drug coverage, but because I do not believe our country can sustain the cost of this benefit, which will not, despite its staggering expense, provide the assistance many beneficiaries will expect.

As I noted, Congress and the administration should have addressed the acute need for assistance of lower income seniors. And before we consider extending that assistance to other seniors, we should save Medicare first by instituting the reforms we all know are necessary, but which we apparently prefer to defer until we have retired from public service. I know that those reforms pose a very difficult political challenge to us, and that the bipartisanship we have commended in the drafting and consideration of the legislation before us today would be put to a far more severe test should we genuinely attempt to save the Medicare system from insolvency. However, should we simply add another huge, new unfunded liability to an already fiscally unsound entitlement, imposing a breathtakingly heavy tax burden on our children and their children, with devastating consequences for their prosperity and the national economy, we will have done the one thing no public servant should want to be remembered for, we will have left the country worse off than we found it.

I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ALEXANDER). The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, the Senator from Michigan, Mr. LEVIN, has been extremely patient. He has been waiting for us to get a unanimous consent for his amendment. We are very shortly going to get that, but prior to that being announced, the Senator from Michigan is going to offer amendment No. 1111. He is going to speak for 10 minutes. Senator STABENOW will speak for 5 minutes, and Senator GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS will speak for up to 10 minutes in opposition, if they need to. The leaders will arrange a vote at some time that they have agreed upon.

I ask unanimous consent that that be the case.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENT NO. 1111

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, the amendment which I will be offering is designed to ensure that the CBO estimate of 37 percent of current retirees who now get their prescription drug coverage from their former employer and who will lose that coverage as a result of this bill will at least have the option of a prescription drug coverage under the Medicare fallback.

There are a number of problems which have been identified with this bill. Some of them are significant problems which cause many of us, who very much favor having a prescription drug benefit available to our seniors, great pause before we support this bill. For instance, there is a so-called yo-yo effect in this legislation. Some have called it the revolving door effect. The problem there is that seniors who are offered two private plans in their service area must pick one of those private plans. They cannot use the Medicare fallback. There will not be a Medicare fallback with a guaranteed premium because if two or more private companies offer a prescription drug program, with whatever premium they decide upon, then the seniors in that service area must pick one of those two private plans.

What happens then if the senior says, okay, I am going to pick that private plan A, and then a couple of years later the private sector decides to pull out of that service area? At that point, the senior will be offered the Medicare fallback.

Then what happens if the private insurance folks decide to come back into that service area? Could the senior keep the Medicare fallback plan? No. They are kicked out of that plan even if they want it. They have to go into one of the private plans again. Then that can be repeated over and over again. Each time private insurance companies decide to pull out of an area, the seniors then can get into a Medicare fallback, but when private companies come into the service area again, they are removed from the Medicare Program and have to go back to one of the plans. It is confusing, uncertain, unfair. It is the yo-yo effect, what others call the revolving door. It is a real problem with this plan. We ought to give much more certainty to that.

Another problem identified is the so-called donut hole problem. We have heard quite a bit about that problem where once a senior is told her drug spending reaches $4,500 for a year, she will have to pay 100 percent of the costs of the prescriptions until the total drug spending reaches $5,800. Now, premiums will continue to be paid during that period, but the gap in coverage will be there, so from $4,500 to $5,800. There is not a 50/50 deal between the plan and the senior; it is 100 percent burden of the senior during that period. That is a real gap in coverage. That is a gaping hole in coverage. I don't know of any other insurance program that is so unfairly structured. That is another problem which has been identified. There have been efforts made to correct that, without success.

Another problem identified is that the private insurance plans that may come into a service area do not have a cap on the premium; it is an unlimited premium. That is a problem which has been identified. The effort to put a cap on the premiums has failed.

But of all the flaws that have been identified, the weaknesses in this program, the one that troubles me most and that troubled seniors most is the fact that it has been estimated by the CBO and by the Health and Human Services folks who operate Medicare that 37 percent of current retirees who have a prescription drug program through their former employer are going to lose their prescription drug benefit following the enactment of the plan before the Senate; that is, a situation where we are actually going to see 37 percent of our seniors—that is the estimate—who currently have a benefit being worse off as a result of what we do.

There is a debate here as to whether the plan before the Senate is going to be good for seniors because of the donut hole or because of the fact there is no cap on premiums or because of this yo-yo effect, this revolving door effect. Is it a good plan? Is it not a good plan? Will seniors who don't have health insurance, a prescription drug program now, actually want to opt into this program? That people can debate. But, at a minimum, we should do no harm. At a minimum, we should not have millions of seniors who will lose an existing prescription drug program as a result of our enacting a plan. That is the time bomb in the bill before the Senate. We should not leave people worse off than they otherwise would be.

During the markup of this bill, we had some experts who testified. One was Tom Scully, Administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services at HHS:

Among employees who have employer-sponsored insurance, our estimate is consistent with 37 percent having their coverage dropped.

A little later on, page 6 of the transcript of the markup of the Finance Committee:

TOM SCULLY: Thirty-seven percent of those retirees who have employer-sponsored coverage . . . [will lose their coverage].

Then, a little later on in the markup of the Finance Committee, Senator CONRAD was going to ask a question of Mr. Holtz-Eakin, our CBO Director, about this issue, and the majority leader posed a question.

Senator FRIST: Senator CONRAD, could I—on that last—I'm over here—on this employers dropping it, can I just ask a follow-up question just real quick.

Senator CONRAD: Yeah. Absolutely.

Senator FRIST: You said—is it 37 percent of employers are going to drop—

TOM SCULLY: Yes.

Colleagues, Senator FRIST said something which I hope will reverberate in this Chamber.

Senator FRIST: This has huge implications.

Then the Director of the CBO said the following:

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN: Thirty-seven percent of employees—of retirees with such employee insurance.

Then there was a voice, unidentified by the reporter:

MALE VOICE: As I understand it, this 37 percent is the effect of our legislation.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN: Correct.

Colleagues, Senator FRIST is correct. This has huge implications. And we ought to address it. The least we can do is to direct Health and Human Services to make available to designate a Medicare backup plan for the 37 percent of our current seniors who have a prescription drug program through their previous employer to make available to them the Medicare backup program so they at least know there will be a Medicare backup for them if they lose their current prescription drug program, as is projected by the Congressional Budget Office and by Health and Human Services. It seems to me that is the least we can do.

It still will be harmful because it is very unlikely for most of the people that the Medicare backup will be as good as their current prescription drug program. It is unlikely. But at least we can say, for those people, there will be a Medicare backup plan designated by HHS which will have the criteria established by HHS and the premium established by HHS. That is the least we can do for those who are going to lose their prescription drug benefit that they currently have following the enactment of this legislation.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has 1 minute 15 seconds.

Mr. LEVIN. I reserve the remainder of my time.

I ask unanimous consent to call up amendment No. 1111.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is pending.

Mr. LEVIN. I ask unanimous consent that my colleague from Michigan, Senator STABENOW, be listed as a cosponsor of this amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LEVIN. I ask unanimous consent that the excerpts from the quoted testimony be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Senator ROCKEFELLER. Okay. Actual dollars in the plan that are spent on, number one, the drug benefit itself, provider add backs and that's all I can see. I don't need the third one I've written down.

TOM SCULLY. These are figures that were in the table. We issued it to the Committee. Since this table was put together, there were some modest modifications to the drug benefit. In particular, putting the cap at $4,500.00 instead of $4,725.00. That changes the estimate on the drug benefit from $408 billion to $402 billion over ten years.

Senator ROCKEFELLER. Four hundred two?

TOM SCULLY. Four hundred two. Six billion dollars lower. And, the provider add backs are listed on pages 2 and 3—or, pages 1 and 2—

Senator ROCKEFELLER. Could you give them to me?

TOM SCULLY. There's a long list of them, and simply adding them up is not that—they interact in many ways.

Senator ROCKEFELLER. [Unintelligible].

TOM SCULLY. [Unintelligible].

Senator ROCKEFELLER. Next one is, percent of employers who drop retiree coverage. And, the number and percent of beneficiaries who will lose retiree coverage under this plan so far.

TOM SCULLY. We don't have an estimate of the number of employers. But, among employees who have employer-sponsored insurance, our estimate is consistent with 37% having their coverage dropped. Of that 37% of those who have such coverage, about 11% of beneficiaries overall.

MALE VOICE. Could you repeat that? I didn't get the—you might pull the microphone up a little closer to you.

TOM SCULLY. Thirty seven percent of those employees who have employer-sponsored coverage, it's 11% of beneficiaries overall.

Senator ROCKEFELLER. And, what percent would drop it?

TOM SCULLY. We don't know the number of employers who would drop coverage. We know the number of employees who are affected.

MALE VOICE. I thought you gave an estimate—excuse me—this is Senator Rockefeller's time, and I just want to make sure I—

TOM SCULLY. Let me repeat so it's—

MALE VOICE. Just repeat what you said.

TOM SCULLY. Underlying our estimate are that 37% of employees who have beneficiaries who have employer-sponsored insurance, retirees who have such employer-sponsored coverage, 37% will lose their coverage. And, that is 11% of total beneficiaries.

MALE VOICE. Could I also add into this, Senator Rockefeller? What we also need to know is, what percentage of the figure you said might drop—or, case would be dropped even

Or, they could drop it entirely.

In those latter two cases, they can use the additional resources to provide other kinds of employee compensation.

What we've done is examine the literature to the extent that we can find it on employer responses to the shape of compensation packages in shaping our estimate of the number that would drop.

Senator CONRAD. Okay. Let me go to something that I have found difficult to follow. And, I'd like, if I could, to have the attention of the Chairman.

Senator FRIST. Senator Conrad, could I—on that last—I'm over here—on this employers dropping it, can I just ask a follow up question just real quick.

Senator CONRAD. Yeah. Absolutely.

Senator FRIST. You said—is it 37% of employers are going to drop—

TOM SCULLY. Yes.

Senator FRIST. This has huge implications.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. Thirty seven percent of employees—of retirees with such employee insurance.

Senator FRIST. Okay.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. And, that's 11% of overall Medicare beneficiaries.

MALE VOICE. Okay. If we did nothing, how many would be dropped over the next ten years? If you look at these curves, the employees—yours are getting out of the business, anyway—not out of the business, but the curve is going down.

What would it be ten years from now?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. We don't have an estimate of that. We isolated our estimate on the impact of the bill above the baseline. That's a question about the baseline estimate, and I don't have that.

MALE VOICE. Okay.

MALE VOICE. It's 37%, just so we're clear with each other. As I understand it, this 37% is the effect of our legislation.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. Correct.

MALE VOICE. I think the question Senator Frist has is, in your baseline you have an assumption that there will be changes, though, correct? Or, don't you?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. No, we do not.

MALE VOICE. And, would you suggest that that's an inaccurate baseline?

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. In reality—

MALE VOICE. Its reality is not that. And, I can have a few of my retirees in Pennsylvania give you a call if you have any questions on that subject.

I mean, I think that's an unfair—I mean, baselines are supposed to be real, but not supposed to be artificial. That's artificial.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. The baseline issue that we—that is most important, that we capture is new retirees not having such coverage.

This is a provision that would induce existing retirees who have such coverage to have their coverage dropped or modified by the their employer.

MALE VOICE. I understand what this provision does. I just want you—I just want an understanding of what would happen without this being calculated into the baseline.

MALE VOICE. Senator Santorum, we've looked at the literature and the surveys of the employee benefits consultants of retiree offerings.

What we understand is mainly happening is that, for current workers who are newly hired, they are—employers are no longer putting as part of their compensation package a guarantee of retiree healthcare.

As far as we can tell, the base of people who are near retirement or retired are not having their healthcare—there's not that much erosion going on.

MALE VOICE. I'll have the people from Bethlehem Steel and about seven other steel companies in Pennsylvania that I can just think of off the top of my head give you a call, and let you know that their retiree health benefits have been eliminated. I mean, it's happening all over the place.

Senator Rockefeller, would you like to join into this? I mean—so, I just—I think you need to look at your baseline, please.

And, then give us an understanding of maybe looking back over the last few years and projecting forward given the trends what—how the baseline would be affected. And, I think that would much—be a much fairer score as to what the impact of this bill would be.

Senator CONRAD. Mr. Chairman?

The CHAIRMAN. Senator Conrad.

Senator CONRAD. Let me just say that I agree entirely with Senator Santorum. We know that people are dropping—employers are dropping their plans.

And, I understand your answer to this question is the effect of this bill.

I think one of the things we've got to do—Senator Frist said it well—this has got major implications; 37% having their healthcare plans dropped. That means it's going from being on the company's nickel to being on our nickel; that dramatically increases the cost.

So, if we can find ways to hold that number down, that's in our interest and we should pursue it.

Let me go—

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. If we could, before we—

Senator CONRAD. Yes, sir.

Mr. HOLTZ-EAKIN. I understand the policy interest, and * * *

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Michigan.

Ms. STABENOW. Mr. President, I am very proud to be joining with my colleague on this very critical amendment. Can you imagine, you are someone who has worked hard all of your life, you have been fortunate enough to have a good-paying job with benefits, you are now retired and you are fortunate to have good health benefits and you find yourself in a situation that, as a result of an action taken here—and certainly there is an effort to move forward and provide people with prescription drug coverage—but if those who already have coverage find, as a result of an action we take, there is an incentive for their employer to drop their coverage, how would you feel about that?

I know how I would feel about that. This amendment is about making sure those who have worked hard all of their lives, who have retired and have had the confidence and the security to know that those health care benefits, retirement benefits they have worked so hard to have in their retirement, would be secure—to make sure if someone is covered right now for prescription drugs that he or she not lose the ability to continue, at least to know that if their employer changes their benefit, they would have immediately the security of the backup Medicare prescription drug plan.

This is very critical in a State such as Michigan where we have 37 percent of our retirees who have insurance, who right now are fortunate enough to have health care insurance and prescription drug coverage.

While there are positives in this bill so there are those who will receive help as a result of being low-income seniors, or those with very high prescription drug costs who will receive help under this bill, one of the glaring omissions and great concerns that I have relates to what Senator LEVIN was just speaking about, the unfairness of saying to a group of people who have been fortunate enough to have insurance and prescription drug coverage that, as a result of something done by the Congress, they would potentially lose that coverage. That makes absolutely no sense.

What our amendment is saying is if, in fact, their employer would have the incentive to change or drop their coverage, they should be guaranteed that something else is right there, that Medicare as a backup should be there.

My preference would be that we change the formulas so there is not the incentive to drop anyone. That was one of the reasons I strongly supported Senator ROCKEFELLER's amendment and other amendments that have been on the floor. Because my first choice is we take away any incentive for anyone to lose their prescription drug coverage. But unfortunately those amendments were not successful. We did not have the support to do that here.

Given that, we are now coming in and saying if, in fact, an employer, because of the incentives, makes a determination to drop coverage, that at a minimum, out of a sense of decency and fairness, at a minimum that retiree needs to know that Medicare prescription drug coverage, through Medicare, is available without wading through tons of insurance forms or picking through plans or going through all the ups and downs that have been described so many times in this Chamber. They need to know, after having coverage, having it available, having it dependable, that another plan is right there for them. That is the least we can do.

I hope we will join together in a bipartisan way this evening to agree to this very important amendment, and let us send a message to those fortunate enough to have health care insurance and prescription drug coverage that we remember them, we care about them, and we are going to make sure no harm is done to them in the process of putting together this prescription drug plan.

I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, this is the greatest and most prosperous Nation in history. Nobody has worked harder to make this country great than our senior citizens. And few things weigh more heavily on their minds than the soaring cost of prescription drugs.

You would think such a great, prosperous Nation would honor its elders, by making sure they get the medicines they need. That is why a comprehensive, meaningful and voluntary drug benefit for our senior citizens has been among my highest priorities.

Over the last several weeks, this Senate has worked hard to achieve that. In the process, many of us who shared that goal have disagreed about how to react it. In the end, we wound up with a bill that is not how I would have created a prescription drug benefit. But it is a start.

I am voting for this bill, because I believe some benefit is better than none. I am voting for it because of people like Shirley Rosamond of Sparks, NV. Shirley, who is 78 years old, raised eight children in the Sierra Nevada. She currently spends $400 a month on medicine, and has less than $400 left over to live on. This bill would reduce her monthly costs to less than $20 in medicine. And it would provide a similar level of assistance for tens of thousands of Nevada seniors.

I am voting for this bill in the hope it will be like the camel's nose under the tent—a foot in the door for our senior citizens.

I'm hoping we will pass this bill today, and then improve it in the future. And, yes, there is plenty of room for improvement.

For example, this bill will do little to help seniors whose income is $15,000 a year or more. Even if they spend more than $100 a month on prescription drugs. That is why I voted to make the program more generous.

This bill doesn't take effect soon enough. That is why I voted for and cosponsored the Lautenberg amendment to move the start date up to 2004, instead of 2006.

There are gaps in the coverage this bill provides. That is why I voted for Senator Boxers' amendment to close the coverage gap, and Senator Graham's amendment to cancel premiums while coverage is suspended.

There were other amendments that were very good but were not agreed to. Finally, this plan is just plain confusing—which means it won't give our senior citizens the peace of mind they deserve.

I voted to address all of these issues. I wish we had succeeded, and that this bill would provide the kind of coverage our senior citizens need. We didn't and it doesn't.

We have to be honest with our senior citizens, and with the American people. This isn't the best we can do for our senior citizens, but it is the best we can do tonight.

I will vote for this bill today, because it provides a start toward fulfilling our promise to senior citizens. It a start, and I won't stop fighting until we finish the job.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader is recognized.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I know we are waiting for some completion on negotiations on an amendment. As I understand it, no one is seeking recognition to continue work on other amendments. So I will speak for a couple of minutes until somebody is prepared to come to the floor to continue our work. I don't want to delay the business of the Senate but I want to express myself, as the distinguished Democratic whip has been doing with regard to the legislation.

I, too, intend to support this bill. I am thinking of the old joke about a camel being a horse designed by a committee. Oftentimes, I think of that as we work our will on legislation. In many respects, this is the legislative version of a committee horse, a camel.

It is not the kind of bill I would write. It is not the kind of bill I would cosponsor. It is not the kind of bill I would enthusiastically endorse.

I look at some of the concerns we have about this legislation—concerns about an unlimited volatility in the premium, uncertainty about the benefit package, uncertainty with regard to the deductible, uncertainty with regard to the backup, uncertainty with regard to the way the provisions can be provided in rural areas. There are many issues. Mostly I think there is far greater confusion than there is understanding with regard to the benefits themselves as seniors attempt to determine whether they will be assisted by this bill.

The confusion and the uncertainty will be issues that we have to address at some later date. But having said that, I must say that the rural provisions—the effort made by our two distinguished managers to address the rural needs to overcome the inequities that exist today—alone merit consideration and I would suggest support for this legislation. The help for low-income seniors—tens of thousands of South Dakotans will get help they are not getting today in part because of this bill. The possibility that seniors could access generic drugs with far more regularly and successfully, and the possibility that we could reimport drugs at a lower price from Canada, all are reasons why I think this bill merits our support.

As I look to the balance and look to all of those things I wish were better, my response is that we are going to make them better. It may take months, if not years, but we are going to continue to work to make this a better bill and a better program.

There are so many ways that I hope we as Senators—Republican and Democrat—can work together to make this a better bill in future years.

There is a warning and a hope as we complete our debate tonight. The warning is that if this legislation comes back from conference in a significantly different form we will not be in the same position we are tonight. This bill will enjoy broad bipartisan support tonight. But if we fail, if we endorse a bill with some of the provisions of the House, then I daresay this legislation may still be in trouble.

My hope is that we can do what I have just suggested—that over the course of the next several years we can take a very close look at ways to make this legislation better and that we can address what I would consider to be serious shortfalls, especially the benefits shutdown that exists after a person pays $4,500. We are talking about a sickness penalty that, frankly, cannot be sustained. We have to find a way to address that serious shortcoming in this legislation. I hope it is done sooner rather than later.

I come to the floor with my gratitude for the work that has been done. This is the fifth year we have made an effort to pass meaningful prescription drug legislation. We can wait no longer. We simply can't allow the perfect to be the enemy of the good. We have to take what we can do and move to build upon something that we will do in future years to make it more meaningful, make it a better piece of legislation, and make it a law that we can be enthusiastic about someday.

I vote tonight with that expectation and that hope. I am hopeful that there will be many on both sides of the aisle who will share that perspective and that expectation.

I yield the floor.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that at 9:15 tonight the Senate proceed to a vote in relation to the Levin amendment, No. 1111, to be followed by a vote in relation to the Hagel-Ensign amendment, No. 1026, with no second degrees in order to the amendments prior to the votes and with 2 minutes of debate equally divided prior to each vote.

I further ask unanimous consent that prior to the vote Senator ENSIGN be recognized for up to 15 minutes and Senator HAGEL, for up to 10 minutes, and the two managers be given up to 5 minutes each; further, that it be in order for the Hagel-Ensign amendment to be modified up to the beginning of the stacked votes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I suggest that we make them perhaps 10-minute votes as well to expedite our votes.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, let us make it 10-minute votes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I rise to speak on behalf of the amendment on which Senator HAGEL and I have been working actually for the last several years. This amendment received bipartisan support in the last Congress as a stand-alone bill. We actually made some improvements to it. We think if this amendment is adopted, it will dramatically improve what the committee has attempted to do to add a prescription drug benefit to Medicare. The only portion of the bill we are modifying in substantial form is the prescription drug part of it.

Let me talk about what our amendment exactly does. It would say to a person who is below 200 percent of poverty, they would pay the first $1,500 out of pocket. After that, the Government is going to pay for the rest of their drug costs, other than a 10-percent copay the person would pay.

However, if a person is up to 160 percent of poverty, we will give them, in a pharmaceutical benefit account, $500 per year, which they can use to go to a local pharmacy to buy their prescription drugs or they can use that money and negotiate the price of their prescription drugs through a pharmaceutical benefit manager and mass buy them with their drug discount card. If they want to use their local pharmacist, they can do that. And this $500, if they did not spend it that year, would be rolled over to the next year where it would cover the first part of their deductible. So if you are below 160 percent of poverty, the most you are going to pay out of pocket is less than $100 per month.

There are several benefits to our plan. First of all, with the committee mark, you pay a monthly premium of $35. You also have a deductible of $275. With our bill, you have no monthly premiums, you have a one-time annual fee of $25, and for low-income people, we waive that.

Our plan is completely voluntary. It also gives the most help to lower income seniors and gives progressively less help the more money you make.

So between 200 percent and 400 percent of poverty, $3,500 is your out-of-pocket expenses. Above that amount, the Government pays 90 percent. And from 400 percent to 600 percent of poverty, $5,500 is your out-of-pocket expenses. Above that amount, 20 percent is your deductible before catastrophic coverage kicks in.

For all of these people, though, who want to sign up for the plan, they get a drug discount card where they will save between 25 to 40 percent on their prescription drug costs. It is a completely voluntary program. And in this program, we have several benefits that we think are better than the committee's underlying bill.

One is, under our bill, States that have already enacted programs will be encouraged to keep their programs. Under the committee mark, every State that has a program for low-income seniors is going to drop those. There is no debate about that. As a matter of fact, the Secretary of HHS was before us. The person who oversees Medicare was before us. Both of them said there is nothing in this bill that will say to the States: Don't drop your plans. And they agreed they will probably drop their plans.

Our bill works with the States that have those programs, States such as my State of Nevada, and encourages those programs to be kept.

A couple of other advantages that our bill has: I want to illustrate those with a couple of examples. These are real-life cases. This is a fictitious name, of course, to protect this woman's identity, but this is a real person. We call her Doris Jones. She is 75 years old. She has an income of about $17,000 a year. She is being treated for diabetes, hypertension, and high cholesterol. She is taking medications that are very typical of what this type of a disease management would require. Her out-of-pocket expenses right now are $3,648.

Let's compare how our amendment, the Hagel-Ensign approach, would affect her out-of-pocket expenses versus the bill on the floor if our amendment is not accepted.

Under our bill, she would have $1,700 out-of-pocket expenses a year. Under the committee bill that is before us today, she would have $2,383 a year. So it is a savings of almost $700 under our approach.

Another person: James is 68 years old. He has an income of about $16,000 a year. He is being treated for diabetes, a pretty severe case of diabetes, and he has all these different medications—very common medications today for a diabetic. His total out-of-pocket expenses today are $5,700.

How does he compare under the two provisions?

Under the Hagel-Ensign approach, about $1,900 would be his out-of-pocket expenses for the year; under the bill that is before us today, a little over $4,000 in out-of-pocket expenses a year. So the difference is almost $2,200 to this senior who is sick. And we certainly would not call him a rich person. I would call this person certainly a low- to moderate-income senior.

Now, Betty is another example. These are real-life examples taking real medicine, prescribed by real doctors. She is 66 years old. She has an income of $15,500. She is being treated for breast cancer and she is taking commonly prescribed medications for that. She is on low-dose radiation. She pays about $8,000 for her prescription drugs a year.

What would happen to her under the two different scenarios?

Under our scenario, she would pay about $2,100 out of pocket. Under the bill that is before us today, she would pay $4,300.

What we have done with our amendment is we have said: Let's help the seniors who need it the most. And we put the dollars to them. Under our amendment, people who are sick, with low and moderate income, they really get help. For people above that, they are treated about the same between our amendment and the bill. The out-of-pocket expenses for people between 200 and 400 percent of poverty are about the same.

When you start getting to the wealthier seniors, there is no question, the committee bill is more generous. For very low income seniors, the committee bill is slightly more generous. But for those who are really sick, our amendment is much better.

Also, there are a couple of other advantages.

In the future, to control costs, our amendment says: The person receiving the medication has something at stake. They are paying out of their own pocket for the first dollars, so they are going to shop. They are going to go around and see: Do I need generics? First of all, do I need the drug? Could I take a generic, which may be less expensive? Are there perhaps other alternatives for treatment that may be cheaper and just as effective? They will have that conversation with their doctor because they have something at stake.

I would argue that what the committee is doing—and I applaud what they are doing, trying in a bipartisan fashion—I believe our amendment would strengthen the committee's bill dramatically because it would target the dollars, those precious taxpayers' dollars, to the people who need it the most. It will also, though, in the future, control costs and, therefore, be more responsible to the next generation.

The committee mark, especially for very low income people, pays 97.5 percent of their drug costs, maybe a $1 to $2 copay. Well, there is going to be a tremendous amount of overutilization in that group.

Our amendment gives that group help by putting $500 of their first costs into an account. They will use that to go shop because if they do not use it, it gets rolled over to the next year where it covers more of their deductible. So they have something to benefit by if they do not use it.

So I implore our colleagues to look and compare. If you look and compare, you will see there truly is a difference.

Mr. President, I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I commend Senator HAGEL and Senator ENSIGN because they have been working very carefully over the last few years to help move this process along. They have had a different approach than I have had. I have had what I call a comprehensive, universal, voluntary approach. They have had one that is more targeted toward low-income people and toward catastrophic. We deal with that in our legislation, but we are very comprehensive. We are very universal. I don't attack their attempt, but it is just not as good as what is before the Senate. S. 1 already reflects the influence of their plan by providing a drug discount card which will give seniors access to discounted drug prices.

I would like to point out a few things. The Hagel-Ensign plan has two laudable objectives: to protect seniors against catastrophic costs and to ensure that low-income seniors are fully protected.

I am happy to report that S. 1 already meets these goals. S. 1 provides a generous protection for low-income beneficiaries, very generous. It also covers fully 90 percent of beneficiaries' out-of-pocket costs beyond $3,700. Most seniors don't have catastrophic drug costs and thus would not see any benefit from the coverage in the Hagel-Ensign plan. S. 1, on the other hand, would provide a significant basic benefit to most seniors each year. Passing a drug bill that most seniors would see no benefit from is a prescription for disaster. I am afraid of that.

So S. 1 already meets the main goals of the Hagel-Ensign plan, but it provides additional value to a much broader group of beneficiaries as well, the underlying bill, the one that they amend, the one they would decimate.

Another thing S. 1 does very well is use competition to maximize value to the taxpayers. There has been some concern that S. 1 doesn't have as much competitive reform as many of us would have preferred. But the Hagel-Ensign plan has far less reform and is much more government run.

I would like to explain: First, this amendment would rule out any true competition in the delivery of Medicare drug benefits. S. 1 would let private drug plans assume a modest amount of financial risk, giving them an incentive to drive hard bargains and keep taxpayers' costs down. It seems to me that is very significant—the difference between the underlying bill and their bill. We are going to drive drug prices down more through competition.

The Hagel-Ensign plan, it is pretty obvious from my point of view, allows for no such exemption, specifically mandating that the Government—in this case we are talking about the taxpayers—bears all the financial risk for delivering the benefit, much as Senator BOB GRAHAM's did the last year when we debated this very issue.

Under this amendment, the benefit would be delivered just like other Medicare benefits are today—by contractors that merely pay the claims that come in without any effort whatsoever, no effort to contain costs.

Second, the Hagel amendment doesn't include any of the improvements to the Medicare Program that President Bush has proposed and our bill includes. It does not include the role for private preferred provider organization plans to deliver an improved Medicare benefit package. It doesn't make modern innovations such as disease management services or rational cost sharing available to beneficiaries who choose them. It simply dumps a catastrophic drug benefit on to the 1965 vintage Medicare system.

What the people of this country need is improvement in Medicare, strengthening of Medicare, voluntary, universal, comprehensive. The Ensign plan wouldn't improve S. 1, but it would make it substantially worse.

I urge my colleagues to defeat the amendment.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I want to clear up something. We don't touch any of the other Medicare reforms in your bill. The whole thing with the PPOs, we touch the prescription drug part of the underlying bill.

You mentioned competition. I practiced veterinary medicine, built, owned, and operated two different animal hospitals. Why do I bring that up? It is because in veterinary medicine people pay out of their own pocket. Veterinarians are in an incredibly competitive field because we know that if somebody brings a case to you, they are going to shop about half the time based on price. So veterinarians have to be very competitive and price sensitive to that, so they work to become more efficient, to keep their costs down, because individuals shop.

In our health care system today, individuals do not shop because we have low deductible policies, and a lot of times the doctors waive those deductibles. Senator FRIST will be able to tell you about that. The hospitals waive the deductibles. So the person receiving the care is not accountable for the care, and so they don't shop. The doctor tells them, go get this service or this drug, and they don't think about it. They have modest, low copays, and they don't think about it.

The cost control, the competition, is established by 40 million people on Medicare, 40 million people receiving drugs. If they are paying out of their own pocket or low-income people have the $500 in a pharmaceutical benefit account, they have something at stake, so they go shop.

They ask the questions: Do I need the drug in the first place? Maybe I can get a generic. So they do the shopping. Also, we have pharmaceutical benefit managers in the bill. That is what the whole drug discount card is about. So those pharmaceutical benefit managers help lower the costs as well.

We have several reforms in this bill that are true reforms, that introduce competition to keep the costs down. That is why our bill actually scored lower.

Because of that, we were able to add a couple other things. When Senator HAGEL arrives, he will modify the amendment. For instance, we will allow Medicaid, the dual eligibles that people have been talking about today, to give States help in handling those dual eligibles through Medicare because our prescription drug cost to the taxpayer was less. It is because we have more reform on the prescription drug part of it than the underlying bill. It just a difference of philosophy of how you do it.

I come to this based on my experience in the private sector and how health care can be delivered by individuals shopping.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum and ask unanimous consent that the time be equally charged.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, in the last 2 weeks the Senate has engaged in an historic effort to reform and strengthen Medicare. When we opened this debate 2 weeks ago, I said that what we would do here debating this bill would affect every American and future generations.

Health care is a defining issue for our Nation and future generations. Just a reminder: When Medicare was enacted in 1965, the Federal Government's lead actuary at that time projected that the hospital program, Medicare Part A, would grow to $9 billion by 1990. In fact, the program, in 1990, had then cost the taxpayers $66 billion. So we have some sense of how these programs can get out of hand if not defined clearly at the front end.

In addition to the internal problems of the changing realities of health care, Medicare is facing a looming external problem. The largest generation in American history, the baby boomers, are aging. These Americans—over 75 million of them—will be added to the Medicare rolls over the next few years. The baby boom generation has changed and shaped every market it has ever entered. Medicare will be no exception. We have a responsibility to address this demographic pressure now or risk the system collapsing under its own weight in the future.

Senator ENSIGN and I have come to the floor to offer an amendment to substitute only title I of the Finance Committee's bill, providing a prescription drug benefit for seniors. We believe any Medicare drug benefit must be sustainable for future generations. The benefit must deal with the realities that people are living longer and better and have higher health care expectations than ever before. We believe we can do better with our amendment.

Our amendment is a simple amendment. Seniors will be able to understand it clearly. Unlike the underlying bill, our amendment contains no premiums, no deductibles, and no gaps in coverage. Our modified amendment addresses three of the major issues we have tried to deal with in constructing this plan. First, it helps low-income seniors, those who need it the most. Two, it protects seniors from high out-of-pocket expenses, and it eases the burden prescription drug costs have placed on the States.

Our modified amendment would replace the prescription drug benefit in the Finance Committee plan with, No. 1, a prescription drug discount card for all seniors on Medicare with $30 billion in added funds for low-income seniors; No. 2, catastrophic coverage for all seniors; No. 3, $35 billion in cost-sharing for catastrophic drug costs with the States for the lowest income seniors eligible for both Medicare and Medicaid.

We give the Secretary of Health and Human Services the discretion to divide $65 billion for seniors and for help with drug costs at the State level. With our amendment, the Secretary will provide low-income seniors with money on a drug discount card to help defray their drug expenses.

States would also benefit under our amendment, and $35 billion is available to help States cover the catastrophic drug expenses for the dual eligibles. These are the very poorest of seniors.

These modifications to the amendment make it stronger by targeting aid to those who need it the most. This bill has been scored. We fall within the $400 billion budget number that is required.

This is a commonsense plan that is workable and responsible, and it addresses prescription drug concerns in the right way.

AMENDMENT NO. 1026, AS MODIFIED

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I have a modification at the desk to amendment No. 1026. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be modified.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is so modified.

“(B) INFLATION ADJUSTMENT.—For purposes of subparagraph (A)(ii), the inflation adjustment for any calendar year is the percentage (if any) by which—

“(i) the average per capita aggregate expenditures for covered drugs in the United States for medicare beneficiaries, as determined by the Secretary for the 12-month period ending in July of the previous year; exceeds “(ii) such aggregate expenditures for the 12-month period ending with July 2005.

“(1) NEGOTIATED PRICES.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), each prescription drug card plan offering a discount card program by an eligible entity with a contract under this part shall provide each eligible beneficiary enrolled in such plan with access to negotiated prices (including applicable discounts) for such prescription drugs as the eligible entity determines appropriate. Such discounts may include discounts for nonformulary drugs. If such a beneficiary becomes eligible for the catastrophic benefit under subsection (b), the negotiated prices (including applicable discounts) shall continue to be available to the beneficiary for those prescription drugs for which payment may not be made under section 1860H(b). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term ‘prescription drugs’ is not limited to covered drugs, but does not include any over-the-counter drug that is not a covered drug.

“(B) LIMITATIONS.—

“(i) FORMULARY RESTRICTIONS.—Insofar as an eligible entity with a contract under this part uses a formulary, the negotiated prices (including applicable discounts) for nonformulary drugs may differ.

“(ii) AVOIDANCE OF DUPLICATE COVERAGE.—The negotiated prices (including applicable discounts) for prescription drugs shall not be available for any drug prescribed for an eligible beneficiary if payment for the drug is available under part A or B (but such negotiated prices shall be available if payment under part A or B is not available because the beneficiary has not met the deductible or has exhausted benefits under part A or B).

“(2) DISCOUNT CARD.—The Secretary shall develop a uniform standard card format to be issued by each eligible entity offering a prescription drug discount card plan that shall be used by an enrolled beneficiary to ensure the access of such beneficiary to negotiated prices under paragraph (1).

“(3) ENSURING DISCOUNTS IN ALL AREAS.—The Secretary shall develop procedures that ensure that each eligible beneficiary that resides in an area where no prescription drug discount card plans are available is provided with access to negotiated prices for prescription drugs (including applicable discounts).

“(b) CATASTROPHIC BENEFIT.—

“(1) TEN PERCENT COST-SHARING.—Subject to any formulary used by the prescription drug discount card program in which the eligible beneficiary is enrolled, the catastrophic benefit shall provide benefits with cost-sharing that is equal to 10 percent of the negotiated price (taking into account any applicable discounts) of each drug dispensed to such beneficiary after the beneficiary has incurred costs (as described in paragraph (3)) for covered drugs in a year equal to the applicable annual out-of-pocket limit specified in paragraph (2).

“(2) ANNUAL OUT-OF-POCKET LIMITS.—For purposes of this part, the annual out-of-pocket limits specified in this paragraph are as follows:

“(A) BENEFICIARIES WITH ANNUAL INCOMES BELOW 200 PERCENT OF THE POVERTY LINE.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary whose income (as determined under section 1860I) is below 200 percent of the poverty line, the annual out-of-pocket limit is equal to $1,500.

“(B) BENEFICIARIES WITH ANNUAL INCOMES BETWEEN 200 AND 400 PERCENT OF THE POVERTY LINE.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary whose income (as so determined) equals or exceeds 200 percent, but does not exceed 400 percent, of the poverty line, the annual out-of-pocket limit is equal to $3,500.

“(C) BENEFICIARIES WITH ANNUAL INCOMES BETWEEN 400 AND 600 PERCENT OF THE POVERTY LINE.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary whose income (as so determined) equals or exceeds 400 percent, but does not exceed 600 percent, of the poverty line, the annual out-of-pocket limit is equal to $5,500.

“(D) BENEFICIARIES WITH ANNUAL INCOMES THAT EXCEED 600 PERCENT OF THE POVERTY LINE.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary whose income (as so determined) equals or exceeds 600 percent of the poverty line, the annual out-of-pocket limit is an amount equal to 20 percent of that beneficiary’s income for that year (rounded to the nearest multiple of $1).

“(3) APPLICATION.—In applying paragraph (2), incurred costs shall only include those expenses for covered drugs that are incurred by the eligible beneficiary using a card approved by the Secretary under this part that are paid by that beneficiary and for which the beneficiary is not reimbursed (through insurance or otherwise) by another person.

“(4) ANNUAL PERCENTAGE INCREASE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—In the case of any calendar year after 2006, the dollar amounts in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraph (2) shall be increased by an amount equal to—

“(i) such dollar amount; multiplied by

“(B) ROUNDING.—If any increase determined under subparagraph (A) is not a multiple of $1, such increase shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of $1.

“(5) ELIGIBLE ENTITY NOT AT FINANCIAL RISK FOR CATASTROPHIC BENEFIT.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, and not the eligible entity, shall be at financial risk for the provision of the catastrophic benefit under this subsection.

“(B) PROVISIONS RELATING TO PAYMENTS TO ELIGIBLE ENTITIES.—For provisions relating to payments to eligible entities for administering the catastrophic benefit under this subsection, see section 1860H.

The entity shall submit the administrative fee bid in a form and manner specified by the Secretary, and shall include a statement of projected enrollment and a separate statement of the projected administrative costs for at least the following functions:

“(i) Enrollment, including income eligibility determination.

“(ii) Claims processing.

“(iii) Quality assurance, including drug utilization review.

“(iv) Beneficiary and pharmacy customer service.

“(v) Coordination of benefits.

“(vi) Fraud and abuse prevention.

“(B) NEGOTIATED ADMINISTRATIVE FEE BID AMOUNTS.—The Secretary has the authority to negotiate regarding the bid amounts submitted. The Secretary may reject a bid if the Secretary determines it is not supported by the administrative cost information provided in the bid as specified in subparagraph (A).

“(C) PAYMENT TO PLANS BASED ON ADMINISTRATIVE FEE BID AMOUNTS.—The Secretary shall use the bid amounts to calculate a benchmark amount consisting of the enrollment-weighted average of all bids for each function and each class of entity. The class of entity is either a regional or national entity, or such other classes as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate. The functions are the discount card and catastrophic components. If an eligible entity’s combined bid for both functions is above the combined benchmark within the entity’s class for the functions, the eligible entity shall collect additional necessary revenue through 1 or both of the following:

“(i) Additional fees charged to the beneficiary, not to exceed $25 annually.

“(ii) Use of rebate amounts from drug manufacturers to defray administrative costs.

“(d) AWARDING OF CONTRACTS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall, consistent with the requirements of this part and the goal of containing medicare program costs, award at least 2 contracts in each area, unless only 1 bidding entity meets the terms and conditions specified by the Secretary under paragraph (2).

“(2) TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—The Secretary shall not award a contract to an eligible entity under this section unless the Secretary finds that the eligible entity is in compliance with such terms and conditions as the Secretary shall specify.

“(3) REQUIREMENTS FOR ELIGIBLE ENTITIES PROVIDING DISCOUNT CARD PROGRAM.—Except as provided in subsection (e), in determining which of the eligible entities that submitted bids that meet the terms and conditions specified by the Secretary under paragraph (2) to award a contract, the Secretary shall consider whether the bid submitted by the entity meets at least the following requirements:

“(A) LEVEL OF SAVINGS TO MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.—The program passes on to medicare beneficiaries who enroll in the program discounts on prescription drugs, including discounts negotiated with manufacturers.

“(B) PROHIBITION ON APPLICATION ONLY TO MAIL ORDER.—The program applies to drugs that are available other than solely through mail order and provides convenient access to retail pharmacies.

“(C) LEVEL OF BENEFICIARY SERVICES.—The program provides pharmaceutical support services, such as education and services to prevent adverse drug interactions.

“(D) ADEQUACY OF INFORMATION.—The program makes available to medicare beneficiaries through the Internet and otherwise information, including information on enrollment fees, prices charged to beneficiaries, and services offered under the program, that the Secretary identifies as being necessary to provide for informed choice by beneficiaries among endorsed programs.

“(E) EXTENT OF DEMONSTRATED EXPERIENCE.—The entity operating the program has demonstrated experience and expertise in operating such a program or a similar program.

“(F) EXTENT OF QUALITY ASSURANCE.—The entity has in place adequate procedures for assuring quality service under the program.

“(G) OPERATION OF ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.—The entity meets such requirements relating to solvency, compliance with financial reporting requirements, audit compliance, and contractual guarantees as specified by the Secretary.

“(H) PRIVACY COMPLIANCE.—The entity implements policies and procedures to safeguard the use and disclosure of program beneficiaries' individually identifiable health information in a manner consistent with the Federal regulations (concerning the privacy of individually identifiable health information) promulgated under section 264(c) of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

“(I) ADDITIONAL BENEFICIARY PROTECTIONS.—The program meets such additional requirements as the Secretary identifies to protect and promote the interest of medicare beneficiaries, including requirements that ensure that beneficiaries are not charged more than the lower of the negotiated retail price or the usual and customary price.

The prices negotiated by a prescription drug discount card program endorsed under this section shall (notwithstanding any other provision of law) not be taken into account for the purposes of establishing the best price under section 1927(c)(1)(C).

“(4) BENEFICIARY ACCESS TO SAVINGS AND REBATES.—The Secretary shall require eligible entities offering a discount card program to pass on savings and rebates negotiated with manufacturers to eligible beneficiaries enrolled with the entity.

“(5) NEGOTIATED AGREEMENTS WITH EMPLOYER-SPONSORED PLANS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the Secretary may negotiate agreements with employer-sponsored plans under which eligible beneficiaries are provided with a benefit for prescription drug coverage that is more generous than the benefit that would otherwise have been available under this part if such an agreement results in cost savings to the Federal Government.

“(e) REQUIREMENTS FOR OTHER ELIGIBLE ENTITIES.—An eligible entity that is licensed under State law to provide the health insurance benefits under this section shall be required to meet the requirements of subsection (d)(3). If an eligible entity offers a national plan, such entity shall not be required to meet the requirements of subsection (d)(3), but shall meet the requirements of Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 that apply with respect to such plan.

“(2) LIMITATIONS.—

“(A) FORMULARY RESTRICTIONS.—Insofar as an eligible entity with a contract under this part uses a formulary, the Secretary may not make any payment for a covered drug that is not included in such formulary, except to the extent provided under section 1860D(a)(4)(B).

“(B) NEGOTIATED PRICES.—The Secretary may not pay an amount for a covered drug furnished to an eligible beneficiary that exceeds the negotiated price (including applicable discounts) that the beneficiary would have been responsible for under section 1860F(a) or the price negotiated for insurance coverage under the Medicare+Choice program under part C, a medicare supplemental policy, employer-sponsored coverage, or a State plan.

“(C) COST-SHARING LIMITATIONS.—An eligible entity may not charge an individual enrolled with such entity who is eligible for the catastrophic benefit under this part any copayment, tiered copayment, coinsurance, or other cost-sharing that exceeds 10 percent of the cost of the drug that is dispensed to the individual.

“(3) PAYMENT IN COMPETITIVE AREAS.—In a geographic area in which 2 or more eligible entities offer a plan under this part, the Secretary may negotiate an agreement with the entity to reimburse the entity for costs incurred in providing the benefit under this part on a capitated basis.

“(i) the coverage for prescription drugs available under such benefit package is replaced with coverage for prescription drugs that complements but does not duplicate the benefits for prescription drugs that beneficiaries are otherwise entitled to under this title;

“(ii) a uniform format is used in the policy with respect to such revised benefits; and

“(iii) such revised standards meet any additional requirements imposed by the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003;

SEC. . ADDITION OF DOLLAR AMOUNT TO PRESCRIPTION DRUG DISCOUNT CARDS; EFFECTIVE DATE.

(a) ADDITION OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS TO PRESCRIPTION DRUG DISCOUNT CARDS.—Section 1860F (as added by section 101) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(1) AMOUNT OF ANNUAL ASSISTANCE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the succeeding provisions of this subsection, each eligible entity with a contract under this section shall provide coverage for the applicable amount of expenses for prescription drugs incurred during each calendar year by an eligible beneficiary enrolled in a prescription drug discount card plan offered by such entity.

“(B) APPLICABLE AMOUNT DEFINED.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term 'applicable amount' means the total amount that the Secretary determines will not cause expenditures under this part to exceed the total amount that would have been expended under this title if this part had not been enacted by more than $30,000,000,000 during the period beginning on January 1, 2005, and ending on September 30, 2010.

“(2) REDUCTION FOR LATE ENROLLMENT.—For each month during a calendar quarter in which an eligible beneficiary is not enrolled in a prescription drug discount card plan offered by an eligible entity with a contract under this part, the amount of assistance available under paragraph (1) shall be reduced by $50.

“(5) APPLICATION OF FORMULARY RESTRICTIONS.—A drug prescribed for an eligible beneficiary that would otherwise be a covered drug under this section shall not be so considered under a prescription drug discount card plan if the program excludes the drug under a formulary and such exclusion is not successfully resolved under the grievance or appeals processes provided for under this part.

“(6) PAYMENTS TO PLANS.—The Administrator shall reimburse each eligible entity for any costs incurred under this subsection.”

(b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—Part D is amended by adding at the end the following new section:

“EFFECTIVE DATE

“Sec. 1860L. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the Voluntary Medicare Prescription Drug Discount and Security Program under this part shall apply only during the period beginning on January 1, 2005 and ending on December 31, 2010.”

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I now ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

Mr. HAGEL. I thank the Chair and yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who yields time?

The Senator from Nevada is recognized.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, the prescription drug bill, Medicare reform bill combination that we have before us today, as we all know, is a freight train coming through this place and there is no stopping it.

What is very unfortunate is that we have a very legitimate amendment on the floor today that is getting 20, 30 minutes' worth of debate. I put up some examples on the chart here of how this amendment we are offering is superior. I have tried to be objective, to say that above 200 percent of poverty, between 200 and 400 percent of poverty they are pretty equal plans. For the very low income, our amendment is slightly less generous, but it keeps the low-income people with something at stake so they will shop. We have heard nothing about that from the other side. There has been no debate, in other words. It is because there is an agreement to defeat any substantive amendment. It is unfortunate.

This is probably the most important vote, as far as an entitlement program, that any of us in our careers will ever take, and this bill is being rushed through so that we can get a "bill" to conference, where all of the improvements are going to be made.

We have an amendment before us that I believe should be debated. If you disagree, fine, but let's debate it and vote on it up or down. But I don't think this kind of a process is healthy for the Senate.

I reserve the remainder of my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana is recognized.

Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, I yield myself whatever time we have in opposition to the amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Of whose time?

Mr. BREAUX. Off of the chairman, Senator GRASSLEY's time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is recognized.

Mr. BREAUX. Mr. President, I start off by commending the authors of the amendment for a real serious effort to try to improve the bill. But I rise in opposition because there is not any segment of the senior population that you could not isolate and target and say we can make, for this particular group, a better deal than they have in this bill. That is not the purpose of this legislation.

The purpose of Medicare is that it is universal. It is not a welfare bill. It is not just for low-income individuals. It is for every American citizen who has reached the age of 65, or older, and qualifies for the program. That is one of the greatest features of the Medicare Program—that everyone is essentially treated equal.

So it is easy, if you want to isolate a low-income group and say we are going to give them a better deal. But when you are looking at the entire population of almost 40 million Americans with whom we have to deal, that, indeed, is the real challenge, and that is why the content of this bill is far superior than to narrowly isolate only low-income people and say we can do a better deal for them. Of course, but you are not going to be able to do that in keeping with the general theme of what Medicare is all about and taking care of all Medicare seniors with the best possible deal.

I think that is what the goal of this Congress should be, and that is why what we have in the provisions here to give them prescription drugs, which would be within the Medicare Program, that people can voluntarily continue to accept the traditional Medicare or, if they would like, move into an expanded Medicare Advantage and get all of the benefits through a private, competitively delivered system.

What we have is the beginning of a program that can be improved upon and will be. But we have essentially an insurance-type program, similar to what we have as Federal employees, which can be improved upon. But it is for everybody. We, too, give special attention to lower income individuals, and maybe they can do it better, but it is going to have to come from somewhere else, and the somewhere else is the vast number of other seniors who would have some of their benefits diluted and reduced in order to make this a little better than what is in this bill.

The goal is to try to create a universal program across the board, and one that is fair to everyone. I think that is what is in the bill as it now stands.

Mr. GREGG. Will the Senator yield for a question?

Mr. BREAUX. Yes, I am happy to yield.

Mr. GREGG. Would the Senator agree that there wasn't, in the original program set up as an insurance program, which you would pay into during your working life under the Part A part of the insurance program, with the concept that when you retired, you would have paid for your health insurance. That is why everyone is covered under it. But is it not also true that under this drug benefit as proposed, nobody will have paid into the Medicare insurance plan for the purposes of this drug program? This drug program will be a new entitlement, and therefore it is reasonable that since it is going to be borne not by the people who worked for it but by the people who are working—it is going to be borne by them rather than the recipients—then it should be set up in a different structure along the lines that are proposed, which is you benefit the low income and you benefit people who have a catastrophic event rather than have a program that puts the benefit out to everyone and forces 37 percent of the population off private insurance plans and on to a public plan.

Mr. BREAUX. I am not sure whose time this is on. I will respond to the Senator's question. We have a health delivery system supervised by the Federal Government, and the beneficiaries are going to contribute to it. Those benefiting from it are going to have an average premium of $35 a month, a $275 deductible, and 50 percent copayment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator's time has expired.

Mr. BREAUX. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Montana.

Mr. BAUCUS. Parliamentary inquiry: Will the Chair inform the Senate as to the time allowable on this amendment?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nebraska has 4 minutes 30 seconds remaining. No time remains in opposition.

Mr. BAUCUS. I wonder if I can get consent to speak for 1 minute on this amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, two points: One, this amendment is totally new. We have not seen the language. We have been asking for the language for days. It has been filed in various forms. This is new language. The Senate has no idea what is in this amendment. We saw it for the first time maybe 15, 20, 30 minutes ago. It is impossible to know what this amendment does.

Point No. 2, essentially what we can tell by a cursory glance at the amendment is the amendment enters a whole new concept in Medicare that has not been done before, and that is means testing. It means tests those at the catastrophic levels.

I do not think we want to begin to go down that road tonight. It makes more sense to stay with the underlying bill which essentially gives a 44-percent rate to those beneficiaries with lower income.

The problem is it does not help, as our bill does, up to catastrophic, and then catastrophic is means tested. That is not the right thing to do, certainly at this hour after looking at it 30 minutes ago.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator's time has expired.

The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent for whatever time I consume from Senator HAGEL's time to respond.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I understand I have 4 minutes 20 seconds.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. HAGEL. I yield to my colleague whatever time he requires from my time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, means testing and universal have been mentioned. The Senator from New Hampshire mentioned that this is a brand new benefit, and that is why we are only talking about the prescription drug part—a brand new benefit for which young people in America are going to be paying for years and years. It seems to make sense that we try to control those costs.

Yes, our bill means tests. So does the underlying bill. To sit up here and say their bill does not means test is completely disingenuous. They have several levels in the low-income areas they means test. They are just means testing in a different area. If you means test one, why is calling our bill means testing when their bill means tests as well? How can they say our bill means tests and theirs does not? That is disingenuous.

It is critical that we have this debate. There was a complaint that they just saw this amendment tonight. Part of the reason is that we are trying to rush this bill through what is supposed to be the most deliberative body in the world, and we have this false deadline that we must get this bill passed before the July break. I submit, this deserves more debate. The debate cannot happen when it goes to conference because most of the Senate is cut out then and there is no debate when it comes back here.

With all due respect, I think we have a superior portion of the prescription drug plan, and I hope our colleagues vote for this plan.

I reserve the remainder of our time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nebraska.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, how much time is remaining?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Two and a half minutes.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, in addition to what my colleague from Nevada has said in response to the distinguished Senator from Montana, there is nothing new about this bill except two features.

This bill, the Hagel-Ensign bill, last year received more bipartisan votes on the floor of this Senate than any other bill. There is nothing new in this bill except two features. One is the $30 billion for low-income seniors' additional coverage, and the other is the $35 billion in cost sharing for catastrophic drug costs with Medicare and Medicaid to dual eligibles. That is what is new in the bill.

To say this is new and we have just sprung this on the Senate is a bit disingenuous. This bill has been around for almost 4 years in its current form. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Does the Senator yield back his time?

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, I yield back all of my time.

AMENDMENT NO. 1111

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There are 2 minutes evenly divided on the Levin amendment No. 1111. Who yields time on the Levin amendment No. 1111?

Mr. BAUCUS. It is my understanding the sponsor, Senator LEVIN, is in the Chamber.

Mr. LEVIN. I have already spoken on the amendment.

The question is on agreeing to amendment No. 1111.

Mr. BAUCUS. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. McCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from New Mexico (Mr.

DOMENICI) and the Senator from Oklahoma (Mr. INHOFE) are necessarily absent.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) would vote "yea."

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. GREGG). Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 42, nays 54, as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1026, AS MODIFIED

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Before we can go to the next amendment, we will have to have order in the Senate.

There are 2 minutes equally divided. Who seeks recognition? The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I will use 30 seconds and Senator HAGEL will use 30 seconds on this side.

The Hagel-Ensign amendment corrects several problems in the bill. Let me go over those real briefly.

We have no monthly premiums. We do not make middle-class taxpayers pay for prescription drugs for wealthy seniors. We preserve the State and the private plans that are already out there, which the underlying bill does not do. We give most of our help to low- and moderate-income seniors but we still control costs in our bill.

I encourage a "yes" vote on this amendment.

Mr. HAGEL. Mr. President, to summarize our amendment is simple: It helps those who need it most. It helps the States provide a discount drug card. It is affordable, with no monthly premiums, no deductibles, catastrophic coverage, and accountable market-based tools. It is a complete, affordable, discount drug plan that the next generation of this country can support. We can be proud of what we are doing for our seniors.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Montana.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, the major fatal problem with this amendment is it dispenses with the underlying principle of the underlying bill. That is universality. We are, in the legislation before us, providing for universal benefits.

This amendment violates that principle by saying no, not across the board for Americans but, rather, it introduces a whole new means testing provision for catastrophic. I just think it fatally violates the spirit of the legislation we are about to pass.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. All time has expired. The question is on agreeing the amendment No. 1026, as modified. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. McCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from New Mexico (Mr. DOMENICI) and the Senator from Oklahoma (Mr. INHOFE) are necessarily absent.

NOT VOTING—

Domenici	Kerry
Inhofe	Lieberman

The amendment (No. 1026), as modified, was rejected.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, for the information of Senators, we have made tremendous progress today, and we are on the final leg. In conversations with the managers, it appears we will have one more series of stacked votes tonight and that will include final passage. That series will be it. The bill will be done.

We need somewhere between 45 minutes and an hour—hopefully 45 minutes, and hopefully people can yield back their time—before we can begin those votes. I think that is all we can say at this juncture, working in good faith. There are a lot of details. We are waiting for some of the final wording to come through in terms of the managers' package. Once we have that, we will be able to proceed with the voting.

I don't know how many amendments it will be. It could be two amendments; it could be four amendments; it could be one amendment or passage. But it is going to be probably two or four amendments beginning in about 45 minutes to an hour.

Mr. BYRD. Will the leader yield?

Mr. FRIST. Yes.

Mr. BYRD. On the preceding rollcall vote, 28 minutes were required. On this rollcall vote, 22 or 23 minutes were required. So we have over 50 minutes on two rollcall votes. Now, time is worth a little something around here to many of us who don't have much time left. I wonder if we can't do better than that.

I think the Senate ought to treat itself better than that. Senators owe to it other Senators to not just lag and cause rollcall votes to last so long. Twenty-eight minutes on a rollcall vote? Why can't we go over to tomorrow? We are going to be here anyhow. Why can't we go over? Here it is 15 minutes after 10. Do I have the floor, Mr. President?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader has the floor.

Mr. BYRD. Very well.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, we can do better, and I think we ought to do our best to try to do maybe 10 minutes on the last series. It is late at night. We have all been working about 12, 13 hours nonstop. It is an important bill. We set out this morning to finish tonight. People are here. They are ready to finish it. It is late. After talking to the managers and the leadership on both sides, there is a general consensus that we ought to push ahead, get this bill done for the American people.

We can do it. Things have gone very well. We have had adequate time for debate and amendment. The distinguished Senator from West Virginia told me from day one: My advice to you as the majority leader is to make sure you give time for debate and amendment. He did forget to tell me that it is sometimes hard dealing back and forth as you are waiting for language to come, as you are trying to get the order for amendments in these last hours on a very complex bill, a bill that is as big as any bill we have passed this year and as complex, and it has taken a little bit more time.

I would have liked to have finished at 9 o'clock tonight. I think at this juncture, if we proceed over the next 45 minutes—let's do those rollcall votes in 10 minutes—we will be out of here. People will be able to leave tomorrow or stay and come to the floor and talk. I think that is the general sense of where we should go.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. FRIST. The Senator is happy to yield to the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, we are falling into this way of doing things. Three-day work weeks. I will tell you, Mr. Leader, one night I am going to get the floor and Senators will be planning on finishing and going home the next day. They won't get to do that. I have seen this happening over and over and over more recently. Three-day work weeks, and we don't come in on Friday and work and vote.

If the Senator will continue to yield, just briefly?

Mr. FRIST. If the Senator will yield for a first more minutes because we do have people who want to get on to the business. I certainly do yield for a few more minutes.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I don't want to overtax the leader at this point or overtax other Senators. Just suffice it to say, we had better get out of this habit of just having 3-day workweeks, staying here until 10, 11, 12 on Thursday night so that people can go out on Friday. I started this thing of having a week at home every 4 weeks, but we worked the 5 days. We worked 5 days in each of the 3 weeks in between, and we started voting early on Mondays and we voted a full day on Friday. I know things have changed. I am not majority leader. I don't mean to be a problem to the majority leader. But this is getting to be a problem with some of us.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, let me just reply and say: Last Friday, you and I were on the floor at 3 in the afternoon. Just because we are not voting doesn't mean we are not working. Some of us do have constituents we go back to and spend time with. Some of us are working on bills and reading. Just because we are not voting does not mean we are not working.

Mr. BYRD. I understand that.

Mr. FRIST. Again, I suggest that we go back so we can work and debate and get these two or four amendments finished. I would be happy to talk to the Senator. I understand he wants us to be efficient and work 5 days a week. I would like to work 6 days a week.

Mr. BYRD. I have a wife at home and she needs me there. I ought to be there. I have stopped early on two occasions lately just to go be with her and let the Senate run its course. There is going to come a time when this Senator is going to keep the Senate in session a while. He can still do it.

I say this in the very best of spirit to the leader—and he is doing the best he can—there comes a time when some of us have duties elsewhere and we would like to keep our rollcall records clean. Soon I will have cast 17,000 rollcall votes. So I have been here for my share of the votes. I am getting a little bit fed up staying around here. This last rollcall vote was 23 minutes and the one before that was 28 minutes. There is a lot of hooping and hollering. What do the American people think of us? It is time we went home if we don't work.

I hope, Mr. Leader, that those of you who are so good at working out these things can get people to have voice votes or maybe cut down the time on their amendments.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I suggest that, since we have our colleagues here and ready to work, we go back to work now. I think the Senator made his point. I am listening and I will heed that advice and counsel. I suggest we go back to work so we can get home tonight to our families as well.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Who seeks recognition? The Senator from Oklahoma is recognized.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I believe we are in the process of trying to wrap up debate on a few amendments. I believe momentarily Senator FEINSTEIN and Senator CHAFEE and I will be discussing our amendment. I will make my comments very brief. I know Senator FEINSTEIN wishes to speak on it. I hope we can conclude debate. I think there will only be two more amendments. I urge colleagues to make their comments brief and let's vote and finish action on this bill. I will defer my comments on the amendment because I believe the Senator from California is ready to speak.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I call up amendment No. 1060, as modified.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment, as modified, is now the pending business.

The amendment (No. 1060), as modified, is as follows:

At the end of title IV, insert:

SEC. ____ . INCOME-RELATED INCREASE IN MEDICARE PART B PREMIUM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1839 (42 U.S.C. 1395r) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(1) AMOUNT OF INCREASE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (4), if the modified adjusted gross income of an individual for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year (as initially determined by the Secretary in accordance with paragraph (2)) exceeds the threshold amount, the amount of the premium under subsection (a) for the individual for the calendar year shall, in lieu of the amount otherwise determined under subsection (a), be equal to the applicable percentage of an amount equal to 200 percent of the monthly actuarial rate for enrollees age 65 and over as determined under subsection (a)(1) for the calendar year.

“(B) APPLICABLE PERCENTAGE.—The term ‘applicable percentage’ means the percentage determined in accordance with the following tables:

More than $100,000	100 percent.

“(ii) INDIVIDUALS FILING JOINT RETURNS.—

More than $100,000 but not more than $200,000	75 percent
More than $200,000	100 percent.

“(C) DEFINITION OF THRESHOLD AMOUNT.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘threshold amount’ means—

“(i) except as provided in clause (ii), $100,000; and “(ii) $200,000 in the case of a taxpayer filing a joint return.

“(D) INFLATION ADJUSTMENT FOR THRESHOLD AMOUNT.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of any calendar year beginning after 2006, the dollar amount in clause (i) of subparagraph (C) shall be increased by an amount equal to—

“(II) the percentage (if any) by which the average of the Consumer Price Index for all urban consumers (United States city average) for the 12-month period ending with June of the preceding calendar year exceeds such average for the 12-month period ending with June 2005.

“(ii) JOINT RETURNS.—The dollar amount described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (C) for any calendar year after 2006 shall be increased to an amount equal to twice the amount in effect under clause (i) of subparagraph (C) (after application of this subparagraph).

“(iii) ROUNDING.—If any dollar amount after being increased under clause (i) is not a multiple of $1,000, such dollar amount shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of $1,000.

“(E) DEFINITION OF MODIFIED ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘modified adjusted gross income’ means adjusted gross income (as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986)—

“(i) determined without regard to sections 135, 911, 931, and 933 of such Code; and “(ii) increased by the amount of interest received or accrued by the taxpayer during the taxable year which is exempt from tax under such Code.

“(F) JOINT RETURN.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘joint return’ has the meaning given such term by section 7701(a)(38) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

“(2) DETERMINATION OF MODIFIED ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME.—The Secretary shall make an initial determination of the amount of an individual’s modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year for purposes of this subsection as follows:

“(A) NOTICE.—Not later than September 1 of the year preceding the year, the Secretary shall provide notice to each individual whom the Secretary finds (on the basis of the individual’s actual modified adjusted gross income for the most recent taxable year for which such information is available or other information provided to the Secretary by the Secretary of the Treasury) will be subject to an increase under this subsection that the individual will be subject to such an increase, and shall include in such notice the Secretary’s estimate of the individual’s modified adjusted gross income for the year. In providing such notice, the Secretary shall use the most recent poverty line available as of the date the notice is sent.

“(B) CALCULATION BASED ON INFORMATION PROVIDED BY BENEFICIARY.—If, during the 60-day period beginning on the date notice is provided to an individual under subparagraph (A), the individual provides the Secretary with appropriate information (as determined by the Secretary) on the individual’s anticipated modified adjusted gross income for the year, the amount initially determined by the Secretary under this paragraph with respect to the individual shall be based on the information provided by the individual.

“(C) CALCULATION BASED ON NOTICE AMOUNT IF NO INFORMATION IS PROVIDED BY THE BENEFICIARY OR IF THE SECRETARY DETERMINES THAT THE PROVIDED INFORMATION IS NOT APPROPRIATE.—The amount initially determined by the Secretary under this paragraph with respect to an individual shall be the amount included in the notice provided to the individual under subparagraph (A) if—

“(i) the individual does not provide the Secretary with information under subparagraph (B); or “(ii) the Secretary determines that the information provided by the individual to the Secretary under such subparagraph is not appropriate.

“(3) ADJUSTMENTS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines (on the basis of final information provided by the Secretary of the Treasury) that the amount of an individual’s actual modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year ending with or within a calendar year is less than or greater than the amount initially determined by the Secretary under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall increase or decrease the amount of the individual’s monthly premium under this part (as the case may be) for months during the following calendar year by an amount equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the difference between—“(ii) the total amount of all such premiums which would have been paid by the individual during the previous calendar year if the amount of the individual’s modified adjusted gross income initially determined under paragraph (2) were equal to the actual amount of the individual’s modified adjusted gross income determined under this paragraph.

“(i) the total amount of all monthly premiums paid by the individual under this part during the previous calendar year; and

“(B) INTEREST.—

“(i) INCREASE.—In the case of an individual for whom the amount initially determined by the Secretary under paragraph (2) is based on information provided by the individual under subparagraph (B) of such paragraph, if the Secretary determines under subparagraph (A) that the amount of the individual’s actual modified adjusted gross income for a taxable year is greater than the amount initially determined under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall increase the amount otherwise determined for the year under subparagraph (A) by an amount of interest equal to the sum of the amounts determined under clause (ii) for each of the months described in such clause.

“(ii) COMPUTATION.—Interest shall be computed for any month in an amount determined by applying the underpayment rate established under section 6621 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (compounded daily) to any portion of the difference between the amount initially determined under paragraph (2) and the amount determined under subparagraph (A) for the period beginning on the first day of the month beginning after the individual provided information to the Secretary under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) and ending 30 days before the first month for which the individual’s monthly premium is increased under this paragraph.

“(iii) EXCEPTION.—Interest shall not be imposed under this subparagraph if the amount of the individual’s modified adjusted gross income provided by the individual under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) was not less than the individual’s modified adjusted gross income determined on the basis of information shown on the return of tax imposed by chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 for the taxable year involved.

“(C) STEPS TO RECOVER AMOUNTS DUE FROM PREVIOUSLY ENROLLED BENEFICIARIES.—In the case of an individual who is not enrolled under this part for any calendar year for which the individual’s monthly premium under this part for months during the year would be increased pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the individual were enrolled under this part for the year, the Secretary may take such steps as the Secretary considers appropriate to recover from the individual the total amount by which the individual’s monthly premium under this part for months during the year would have been increased under subparagraph (A) if the individual were enrolled under this part for the year.

“(D) DECEASED BENEFICIARY.—In the case of a deceased individual for whom the amount of the monthly premium under this part for months in a year would have been decreased pursuant to subparagraph (A) if the individual were not deceased, the Secretary shall make a payment to the individual’s surviving spouse (or, in the case of an individual who does not have a surviving spouse, to the individual’s estate) in an amount equal to the difference between—“(ii) the amount (if any) by which the individual’s premium was decreased for months during the year pursuant to subparagraph (A).

“(i) the total amount by which the individual’s premium would have been decreased for all months during the year pursuant to subparagraph (A); and

“(4) WAIVER BY SECRETARY.—The Secretary may waive the imposition of all or part of the increase of the premium or all or part of any interest due under this subsection for any period if the Secretary determines that a gross injustice would otherwise result without such waiver.

“(5) TRANSFER TO PART B TRUST FUND.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall transfer amounts received pursuant to this subsection to the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund.

“(B) DISREGARD.—In applying section 1844(a), amounts attributable to subparagraph (A) shall not be counted in determining the dollar amount of the premium per enrollee under paragraph (1)(A) or (1)(B) thereof.”

(b) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—(1) Section 1839 (42 U.S.C. 1395r) is amended—

(A) in subsection (a)(2), by inserting “or section subsection (h)” after “subsections (b) and (e)”;

(B) in subsection (a)(3) of section 1839(a), by inserting “or subsection (h)” after “subsection (e)”;

(D) in subsection (f), by striking “if an individual” and inserting the following: “if an individual (other than an individual subject to an increase in the monthly premium under this section pursuant to subsection (h))”.

(2) Section 1840(c) (42 U.S.C. 1395r(c)) is amended by inserting “or an individual determines that the estimate of modified adjusted gross income used in determining whether the individual is subject to an increase in the monthly premium under section 1839 pursuant to subsection (h) of such section (or in determining the amount of such increase) is too low and results in a portion of the premium not being deducted,” before “he may”.

(c) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (1) of section 6103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (relating to confidentiality and disclosure of returns and return information) is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph:

“(19) DISCLOSURE OF RETURN INFORMATION TO CARRY OUT INCOME-RELATED REDUCTION IN MEDICARE PART B PREMIUM.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may, upon written request from the Secretary of Health and Human Services, disclose to officers and employees of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services return information with respect to a taxpayer who is required to pay a monthly premium under section 1839 of the Social Security Act. Such return information shall be limited to—

“(i) taxpayer identity information with respect to such taxpayer,

“(ii) the filing status of such taxpayer,

“(iii) the adjusted gross income of such taxpayer,

“(iv) the amounts excluded from such taxpayer’s gross income under sections 135 and 911,

“(v) the interest received or accrued during the taxable year which is exempt from the tax imposed by chapter 1 to the extent such information is available, and “(vi) the amounts excluded from such taxpayer’s gross income by sections 931 and 933 to the extent such information is available.

“(B) RESTRICTION ON USE OF DISCLOSED INFORMATION.—Return information disclosed under subparagraph (A) may be used by officers and employees of the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services only for the purposes of, and to the extent necessary in, establishing the appropriate monthly premium under section 1839 of the Social Security Act.”

(B) Paragraph (4) of section 6103(p) of such Code is amended by striking “or (16)” and inserting “(16), or (19)”.

(1) IN GENERAL.—The amendments made by subsections (a) and (b) shall apply to the monthly premium under section 1839 of the Social Security Act for months beginning with January 2006.

(2) INFORMATION FOR PRIOR YEARS.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services may request information under section 6013(l)(19) of the Social Security Act (as added by subsection (c)) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2002.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, this amendment is presented on behalf of myself, Senators NICKLES, CHAFEE, LINDSEY GRAHAM, ALEXANDER, and MCCAIN.

This amendment provides that Medicare beneficiaries with an annual adjusted gross income of over $200,000, or above, pay the full cost of the Medicare Part B premium. The amendment uses a sliding scale to ramp up the beneficiary’s share of the Part B premium.

The amendment we are offering would hold Medicare beneficiaries with annual adjusted gross incomes between $100,000 and $150,000 a year responsible for 50 percent of the cost of the premium. In 2003, this amounts to $116.40 a month, or $1,396 annually, rather than $58.20 monthly, or $698 annually, which is what the beneficiary pays today for the benefit.

Medicare beneficiaries with incomes between $150,000 a year and $200,000 a year—that is $300,000 to $400,000 for a couple—would be responsible for 75 percent of the total cost of the Part B premium. In 2003, this amounts to $174 or $2,095 annually.

Medicare beneficiaries with annual incomes above $200,000—that is $400,000 for couples—would be responsible for 100 percent of the total cost of the premium. In 2003, this amounts to $232.80 a month, or $2,793 annually. Now, for a beneficiary with an annual income of $200,000, this amounts to less than 1.4 percent of their annual income. For the vast majority of Medicare beneficiaries, some 37 million of the 38 million beneficiaries, Part B premiums would remain the same as they are today.

According to the Census Bureau, about 98 percent of all Medicare beneficiaries have annual incomes below $100,000. So the amendment we are proposing will affect about 2 percent of the most affluent and well off Medicare beneficiaries.

Let me be clear. This amendment does not deprive any Medicare beneficiary of any benefit. What this amendment says is that if you can afford to pay the price for the Medicare Part B premium, you should. Those Medicare beneficiaries who have annual incomes below $100,000 a year will still be able to receive a 75-percent Government subsidy for their premium.

Now, I strongly believe the time has come to begin to income-relate some of these benefits. The Federal Government should not be subsidizing the Part B premiums of those beneficiaries who can afford to pay for the cost of the premiums themselves.

Much has changed since the creation of Medicare in 1965. People are living longer, due in large part to improved diagnostic tools and treatment. There is no way Congress could have predicted the number of people who would come to rely on Medicare or the rate at which medical expenses would grow. When Medicare was established in 1965, the Part B premium was set at a level to cover about 50 percent of program costs. With medical inflation, the dollar amount of the premium has declined to cover only 25 percent of program costs.

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 established the Medicare Part B premium to equal 25 percent of the program cost from 1996 to 1998. The Balanced Budget Act of 1997 permanently established the Part B premium at 25 percent. The bill to balance the budget in 1997 that passed out of the Senate Finance Committee included a provision to income relate the Medicare Part B premium. So this is nothing new.

The provision included in 1997 would have had beneficiaries with incomes over $50,000 for an individual and $75,000 for a couple paying a greater share of the premium. This provision was stripped out during conference.

Well, we were in a different financial situation when Congress made the decision to set the beneficiary’s share of the Part B premium at 25 percent in 1997. At that time, we had only a $22 billion deficit. The next year the budget was in surplus to the tune of $69 billion.

With a Federal budget deficit of over $400 billion in the year 2003 and an increase in the Federal debt of $5.3 trillion, for a total of $12 trillion in debt expected by 2013, I believe that now is the time to rethink the premium structure of Medicare Part B.

As the baby boomers age, there will be an increasing reliance on and demand for the Medicare Program.

The number of people age 65 and older will more than double over the coming decades, rising from 37 million today to 70 million in 2030 and 82 million in 2050. Over the next 75 years, the Medicare program will cost 71 percent more than that provided under current law in order to meet its needs.

It is predicted the Medicare hospital trust fund will be insolvent by 2030. The CBO projects Medicare spending will nearly quadruple by 2075 in order to meet the growing need for the program, with budget outlays of $277 billion in 2003. This means spending for the program could reach $1.1 trillion by 2075.

With the legislation currently before the Senate, Congress is proposing some major changes to the Medicare Program. I am in full support of adding a drug benefit, but Congress should also rethink the financing mechanisms of the program, and this bill is short in that direction. High-income beneficiaries can afford to pay a larger share of Medicare’s costs, at least of the premium. They can afford to pay for the benefits they receive.

In light of the fact the Federal Government has just provided tax cuts in the range of $1,841 for people with incomes between $77,000 and $154,000 and up to $30,000 for people with incomes above $374,000, it seems to me people with annual incomes above $200,000 can afford to pay $2,793, which is the annual premium for Medicare Part B this year.

We should focus funding so that 98 percent of Medicare beneficiaries who have an annual adjusted gross income of less than $100,000 can continue to access benefits. I think it is reasonable to ask those who can afford it to pay a greater share of the premium. We are still waiting for an official cost savings score from CBO, but I believe this amendment could save billions of dollars.

Once again, Mr. President, this amendment affects less than 2 percent and only those with incomes of more than $200,000 a year adjusted gross income would pay the full premium of about $2,900 a year. We think this is a reasonable proposal. It is scaled up. It impacts no one below $100,000 adjusted gross income a year, and at the maximum for people of over $200,000 a year in adjusted gross income, the premium would be just $2,900.

The income limits would be indexed to medical inflation and, according to current population survey data from 2002, only 2 percent, or about 1 million people of the 38 million Medicare beneficiaries, have incomes of over $100,000 a year. This would protect the tax subsidy for people who need it by encouraging those who have the dollars simply to pay either a greater share of the premium cost or the full premium cost.

I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. ENSIGN). The Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. CHAFEE. Mr. President, I join with Senator FEINSTEIN, Senator NICKLES, and others in presenting this amendment this evening. I believe this income-related Part B premium for only the wealthiest of seniors, a little over 1 percent of the entire Medicare population, is necessary to sustain the long-term solvency of the Medicare Program.

I wish to make just three points on this issue. First, as Senator FEINSTEIN has said, previous Congresses have worked on this issue. In 1997, the Senate voted 70 to 30 to do exactly what we are doing here, and most of those Senators are still here today.

Second, many of these seniors can afford this added premium. Most seniors, it is safe to say, who are making over $100,000 a year have already paid off their mortgages. They have paid off their loans. They have educated their children. They can afford these higher premiums which would go from only $1,400 a year to $2,800 a year, at the most, depending on the income they make. So seniors who are making $100,000 at the most will pay only $1,400 a year, and those making $200,000 will pay $2,800 a year. I do not think that is too much to ask to help keep this program solvent.

Finally, if we do not do this today, some other Congress is going to do it. In 1997, the National Bipartisan Commission on the Future of Medicare was created to resolve the long-term insolvency facing the system. That was in 1997 and it was known as the Breaux-Frist Commission. They did not report their work to Congress. They fell short of the votes necessary to report their work to Congress.

However, it is interesting to note that one of the reasons they failed to get the votes to report to Congress was the President at the time, President Clinton, called for putting aside 15 percent of budget surpluses the next 15 years to pay down the debt and to shore up Medicare. Fifteen years of budget surpluses—when will we see those again?—to shore up Medicare. Because the Breaux-Frist plan did not include that, they did not get the votes necessary.

Mr. President, now is the time to adopt this amendment. If we do not adopt it, future Congresses will have to wrestle with this dilemma.

I thank the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, for the information of our colleagues, I am going to make a couple comments on this amendment. There may be an amendment by the Senator from Pennsylvania that will require a vote on or in relation to Senator CORZINE's amendment. I think we are close to finishing. I hope we can. I just make those comments.

I compliment Senator FEINSTEIN and also Senator CHAFEE, Senator ALEXANDER, Senator MCCAIN, and others for supporting this amendment. Senator CHAFEE mentioned we passed the income-related Part B premium several years ago with 70 votes. I believe the majority of people, a strong majority—looking at the people who voted for it—are still here. I hope we vote for it again.

Medicare has some big problems long term. The bill before us has a lot of new subsidies but does not have a lot of reform to make it affordable for future generations.

Part B right now is subsidized by general revenues 3 to 1 Federal Government and individuals. The amendment before us on Part B says if individuals have income above $100,000, they should pay at least 50 percent. If they have income above $200,000, they should pay it all. For couples, that would be $400,000. A couple could make $400,000 before they pay all their Part B premium.

Surely we can do that. Why should we ask our kids and/or our grandkids, who might have incomes of $20,000 or $30,000, to be subsidizing individuals to that degree?

I compliment my colleagues for this amendment. I will read from the annual report of the board of trustees of the HI trust fund. It says:

Similarly, SMI general revenues in the year 2002 were equivalent to about 7.8 percent of personal and corporate Federal income tax collected in that year. If such tax is to remain at the current level relative to the national economy, then SMI—general revenue financing in 2077 would represent roughly 32 percent of total income taxes.

That is almost one-third of total income taxes. That is not affordable. That is not sustainable. So I think the amendment we have before us by Senator FEINSTEIN and Senator CHAFEE and others is a small step in the right direction to try to make this system more affordable for future generations.

I compliment my colleagues for this amendment. I urge our colleagues to support this small step toward reform.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF STROM THURMOND

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, a few moments ago we were made aware that at 9:45 tonight a close friend, a confidant, a colleague to most of us in this body, Strom Thurmond, passed away.

It was a century ago when Mark Twain was alive and Teddy Roosevelt was President that James Strom Thurmond was born in South Carolina and at that time began a life unmatched in public service. Just about all of us in this body have had the real privilege of serving alongside Strom Thurmond. A long-time friend of Senator Thurmond, Hortense Woodson, once said of him:

Everything he's done has been done in the full. There's no halfway doings about Strom.

Indeed, Strom Thurmond will forever be a symbol of what one person can accomplish when they live life, as we all know he did, to the fullest. To his family and his friends, we offer our sincerest sympathies.

It was unexpected that he would die this evening while we are in the middle of completing a very historic bill, and it would be clearly appropriate for us to make recognition of his passing for a moment now, with plans, either after completion of the bill tonight or tomorrow, for people to make more extended statements.

Again, we extend to his family our deepest sympathies and our continued prayers.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Democratic leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I join with the majority leader in expressing our heartfelt condolences to the family and to the State of Strom Thurmond. In many respects, he was a legend. Many of us had the good fortune to serve with him as a Senator. He was a Governor, a Presidential candidate, a soldier, a father, a citizen. In many respects, he fought, lived, contributed, and legislated in a way that will be written about and commented on for years and decades to come.

Much more will be said, but I think as we consider his contribution tonight we can say, as we consider the opportunity that we had to serve with him, Republicans and Democrats, that it was our privilege to do so.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from South Carolina.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, my friend and colleague of 36 years in the Senate is gone. A giant oak in the forest of public service has fallen.

I started with Senator Thurmond as a young law student in 1946 when he first ran for Governor and have been more or less with him over these many, many years. I will have a real recount of our work together later. That is the way it was even though we ended up on other sides of the aisle. There was never any doubt about the interests of South Carolina.

We have all this argument going on now with respect, for example, to judges. He and I got together very early. We agreed when his President was in office from his particular party that he had the appointment, but he always asked me about it and, of course, I in turn asked him about it. We checked with each other. That is the kind of way we worked together over the some 36 years.

I can say just a living legend of South Carolina now has been terminated. But I want to give Nancy and the children my heartfelt condolences. Peatsy and I have known them and been with them over the many, many years. I will have more to say at a later time. I thank the leadership for their recognition. I hope, perhaps, when we complete our work tonight, we might adjourn out of respect for our colleague.

Mr. FRIST. Why don't we take just a moment of silence in honor of Strom Thurmond.

Mr. FRIST. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I call up amendment No. 1132 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Pennsylvania [Mr. SANTORUM] proposes an amendment numbered 1132.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment is as follows:

(Purpose: To allow eligible beneficiaries in Medicare Advantage plans to elect zero premium, stop-loss drug coverage protection)

On page 343, between lines 15 and 16, insert the following:

“(f) ZERO PREMIUM STOP-LOSS PROTECTION AND ACCESS TO NEGOTIATED PRICES FOR ELIGIBLE BENEFICIARIES ENROLLED IN MEDICARE ADVANTAGE PLANS.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any provision of this part or part D, a Medicare Advantage plan shall be treated as meeting the requirements of this section if, in lieu of the qualified prescription drug coverage otherwise required, the plan makes available such coverage with the following modifications:

“(A) NO PREMIUM.—Notwithstanding subsection (d) or sections 1860D-13(e)(2) and 1860D-17, the amount of the Medicare Advantage monthly beneficiary obligation for qualified prescription drug coverage shall be zero.

“(B) BENEFICIARY RECEIVES ACCESS TO NEGOTIATED PRICES AND STOP-LOSS PROTECTION FOR NO ADDITIONAL PREMIUM.—Notwithstanding section 1860D-6, qualified prescription drug coverage shall include coverage of covered drugs that meets the following requirements:

“(i) The coverage has cost-sharing (for costs up to the annual out-of-pocket limit under subsection (c)(4) of such section) that is equal to 100 percent.

“(ii) The coverage provides the limitation on out-of-pocket expenditures under such subsection (c)(4), except that in applying such subsection, ‘$5000.00’ shall be substituted for ‘$3,700’ in subparagraph (B)(i)(I) of such subsection.

“(iii) The coverage provides access to negotiated prices under subsection (e) of such section during the entire year.

“(i) Subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1).

“(ii) Subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) of paragraph (2).

“(iii) Clauses (i), (ii), (iii), and (iv) of paragraph (3)(A).

“(2) PENALTY FOR ENROLLING IN A ZERO PREMIUM STOP-LOSS PROTECTION PLANS AFTER INITIAL ELIGIBILITY FOR SUCH ENROLLMENT.—In the case of an eligible beneficiary that enrolled in a plan offered pursuant to this subsection at any time after the initial enrollment period described in section 1860D-2, the Secretary shall establish procedures for imposing a monthly beneficiary obligation for enrollment under such plan. The amount of such obligation shall be an amount that the Administrator determines is actuarially sound for each full 12-month period (in the same continuous period of eligibility) in which the eligible beneficiary could have been enrolled under such a plan but was not so enrolled. The provisions of subsection (b) of such section shall apply to the penalty under this paragraph in a manner that is similar to the manner such provisions apply to the penalty under part D.

“(3) PROCEDURES.—The Administrator shall establish procedures to carry out this subsection. Under such procedures, the Administrator may waive or modify any of the preceding provisions of this part or part D to the extent necessary to carry out this subsection.

“(4) NO EFFECT ON MEDICARE DRUG PLANS.—This subsection shall have no effect on eligible beneficiaries enrolled under part D in a Medicare Prescription Drug plan or under a contract under section 1860D-13(e).”

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, one of the key components that many Members on this side of the aisle would like to see accomplished is to draw as many people as possible into the competitive model set up in this bill. We believe it is the more efficient, higher quality delivery of health care services, the Medicare Advantage plan.

Unfortunately, through negotiations, a lot of the incentives the President has to encourage people to get into those plans and thereby make them work have been taken out in the current version on the floor. That is to the great consternation, I know, of the White House and many Members on this side of the aisle.

For quite some time I have been trying to think how they can create incentives—carrots, if you will, as opposed to sticks—to encourage people to get into these kinds of plans. Originally, I intended to offer a differential benefit—in other words, a benefit that would have what I call a standard benefit in the fee-for-service option and an enhanced benefit in the Medicare Advantage option. I was fairly convinced, in discussing with the people on my side of the aisle, we probably would not have a chance to succeed; that there were people who had made commitments that a differential benefit was not something for this time.

I went about trying to figure out, could we create incentives to people to come into Medicare Advantage, which I believe is the future of Medicare and the best way to run the system without creating a differential benefit. The amendment before the Senate does that. The amendment before the Senate creates an option for beneficiaries who participate in Medicare Advantage. It is a pharmaceutical option. Instead of just having no pharmaceutical benefit, which you could if you do not get into the Medicare Advantage Program, we have the standard benefit which is required if you participate in the PPOs, HMOs, and POSs that will be created here.

What I will do with this amendment is create another option for seniors who select Medicare Advantage. That option would be a zero premium catastrophic benefit. So you could choose between the standard benefit, the $35 premium, and the 50 percent copay, and the donut hole, and all the things described over and over again, or if you did not want to pay a premium but wanted some catastrophic coverage, wanted some benefit, no premium, no cost, you could join this.

The CBO scored this as attracting twice as many people into the PPOs and HMOs as the underlying bill. It would make those plans much more desirable for beneficiaries. I believe that should be one of the goals of this legislation, to make the new and improved and stronger plan a more robust plan.

Unfortunately, according to the Congressional Budget Office, when people move from the fee-for-service plan into the Medicare Advantage plan, the Congressional Budget Office assumes those plans will be more expensive. And because they will be more expensive, this amendment costs money. It doubles the participation but costs $20, to $25 billion, which is the back of the envelope. And God bless the CBO; that is the best they could do at this late hour.

I firmly believe this is a reasonable compromise between those who would not want to have the differential benefit and those who would because it is unfair to the fee-for-service participants and those who believe we need to have an incentive for people to get into the Medicare Advantage Program. This strikes the compromise. This is where we could go.

There are all sorts of things we have done to eliminate adverse selection and all the other problems inherent in offering two different benefits. We believe we actually address the vast majority of those problems in this amendment. Nevertheless, we have run into the roadblock that this bill has run into the entire time when it comes to the competitive model and CBO and their estimation of costs.

For the record, the White House does not see it that way. The White House sees the competitive model as saving money. Under their scoring, this would probably actually save money and move people into a higher quality, more efficient system.

As a result of the fact of the score which is $20 to $25 billion, and we do not have that, I am going to withdraw my amendment and hope this idea which I believe is in the center here is a compromise between two competing ideas of how to structure this bill.

It will be considered in conference as a way of trying to bring the two sides together in something that does not disadvantage the fee-for-service plan but creates an opportunity for incentives to go to the Medicare Advantage plan.

Mr. President, with that I ask unanimous consent to withdraw my amendment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment is withdrawn.

The Senator from Oklahoma.

Mr. NICKLES. I compliment my colleague from Pennsylvania. Especially this late at night, when a lot of us are thinking about our departed friend and colleague, Senator Thurmond, I appreciate his withdrawing this amendment.

For the information of our colleagues, I think we are very close to finishing this bill. We may have one or two rollcall votes. I think we are just about ready to vote on the Feinstein-Chafee amendment and possibly one other amendment, and I think we are very close to be able to vote on final passage, for the information of our colleagues.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

AMENDMENT NO. 1060

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I will just take a moment to address the amendment of the Senator from California, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, and her colleagues, in terms of means testing the Medicare system. That is what we would be doing, changing what is effectively an insurance system into a welfare system. There is, really, no question about that.

The fact is, the Part B of the Medicare system is basically a progressive system as it is at the present time. Wealthy people are paying a great deal more into that system than they are taking out.

My concern is, if this passes, it is only a question of time before the healthiest individuals who can qualify under the Part B premium are going to leave the Medicare system and it is going to deteriorate into a general welfare system. The kind of Medicare system seniors relied on, day in and day out, would be destroyed. Make no mistake about it.

That is why the AARP is strongly opposed to it, as well as the National Committee to Preserve Social Security.

I hope this amendment is not accepted. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENT NO. 1115

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate concerning Medicare payments to physicians and other health professionals)

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING MEDICARE PAYMENT UPDATE FOR PHYSICIANS AND OTHER HEALTH PROFESSIONALS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) The formula by which Medicare payments are updated each year for services furnished by physicians and other health professionals is fundamentally flawed.

(2) The flawed physician payment update formula is causing a continuing physician payment crisis, and, without Congressional action, Medicare payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2 percent in 2004.

(3) A physician payment cut in 2004 would be the fifth cut since 1991, and would be on top of a 5.4 percent cut in 2002, with additional cuts estimated for 2005, 2006, and 2007; from 1991-2003, payment rates for physicians and health professionals fell 14 percent behind practice cost inflation as measured by Medicare's own conservative estimates.

(4) The sustainable growth rate (SGR) expenditure target, which is the basis for the physician payment update, is linked to the gross domestic product and penalizes physicians and other practitioners for volume increases that they cannot control and that the government actively promotes through new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities and other initiatives that, while beneficial to patients, are not reflected in the SGR.

AMENDMENT NO. 1045

(a) DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.—The Secretary shall conduct a demonstration project under part B of title XVIII of the Social Security Act under which brachytherapy devices shall be excluded from the prospective payment system for outpatient hospital services under the medicare program and, notwithstanding section 1833(t) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395l(t)), the amount of payment for a device of brachytherapy furnished under the demonstration project shall be equal to the hospital's charges for each device furnished, adjusted to cost.

(b) SPECIFICATION OF GROUPS FOR BRACHYTHERAPY DEVICES.—The Secretary shall create additional groups of covered

OPD services that classify devices of brachytherapy furnished under the demonstration project separately from the other services (or group of services) paid for under section 1833(t) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395l(t)) in a manner reflecting the number, isotope, and radioactive intensity of such devices furnished, including separate groups for palladium-103 and iodine-125 devices.

AMENDMENT NO. 1121

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate concerning the structure of Medicare reform and the prescription drug benefit to ensure Medicare’s long-term solvency and high quality of care)

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. ____ . SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING THE STRUCTURE OF MEDICARE REFORM AND THE PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) America’s seniors deserve a fiscally-strong Medicare system that fulfills its promise to them and future retirees.

(2) The impending retirement of the “baby boom” generation will dramatically increase the costs of providing Medicare benefits. Medicare costs will double relative to the size of the economy from 2 percent of GDP today to 4 percent in 2025 and double again to 8 percent of GDP in 2075. This growth will accelerate substantially when Congress adds a necessary prescription drug benefit.

(3) Medicare’s current structure does not have the flexibility to quickly adapt to rapid advances in modern health care. Medicare lags far behind other insurers in providing prescription drug coverage, disease management programs, and host of other advances. Reforming Medicare to create a more self-adjusting, innovative structure is essential to improve Medicare’s efficiency and the quality of the medical care it provides.

(4) Private-sector choice for Medicare beneficiaries would provide two key benefits: it would be tailored to the needs of America’s seniors, not the government, and would create a powerful incentive for private-sector Medicare plans to provide the best quality health care to seniors at the most affordable price.

(5) The method by which the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program have been reimbursed has proven to be a reliable and successful mechanism for providing Members of Congress and federal employees with excellent health care choices.

(6) Unlike the Medicare payment system, which has had to be changed by Congress every few years, the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program has existed for 43 years with minimal changes from Congress.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the Sense of the Senate that Medicare reform legislation should:

(1) Ensure that prescription drug coverage is directed to those who need it most.

(2) Provide that government contributions used to support Medicare Advantage plans are based on market principles beginning in 2006 to ensure the long and short term viability of such options for America's seniors.

(3) Develop a payment system for the Medicare Advantage preferred provider organizations similar to the payment system used for the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

(4) Limit the addition of new unfunded obligations in the Medicare program so that the long-term solvency of this important program is not further jeopardized.

(5) Incorporate private sector, market-based elements, that do not rely on the inefficient Medicare price control structure.

(6) Keep the cost of structural changes and new benefits within the $400 billion provided for under the current Congressional Budget Resolution for implementing Medicare reform and providing a prescription drug benefit.

(7) Preserve the current employer-sponsored retiree health plans and not design a benefit which has the unintended consequences of supplanting private coverage.

(8) Incorporate regulatory reform proposals to eliminate red tape and reduce costs.

(9) Restore the right of Medicare beneficiaries and their doctors to work together to provide services, allow private fee for service plans to set their own premiums, and permit seniors to add their own dollars beyond the government contribution.

AMENDMENT NO. 989, AS MODIFIED

(Purpose: To increase Medicare payments for home health services furnished in a rural area)

At the appropriate place in subtitle C of title IV, insert the following:

SEC. ____ INCREASE IN MEDICARE PAYMENT FOR CERTAIN HOME HEALTH SERVICES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1895 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395fff) is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(f) INCREASE IN PAYMENT FOR SERVICES FURNISHED IN A RURAL AREA.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—In the case of home health services furnished in a rural area (as defined in section 1886(d)(2)(D)) on or after October 1, 2004 and before October 1, 2006, the Secretary shall increase the payment amount otherwise made under this section for such services by 10 percent.

“(2) WAIVER OF BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall not reduce the standard prospective payment amount (or amounts) under this section applicable to home health services furnished during any period to offset the increase in payments resulting from the application of paragraph (1).”

(b) PAYMENT ADJUSTMENT.—Section 1895(b)(5) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395fff(b)(5)) is amended by adding at the end the following: “Notwithstanding this paragraph, the total amount of the additional payments or payment adjustments made under this paragraph may not exceed, with respect to fiscal year 2004, 3 percent, and, with respect to fiscal years 2005 and 2006, 4 percent, of the total payments projected or estimated to be made based on the prospective payment system under this subsection in the year involved.”

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to services furnished on or after October 1, 2003.

AMENDMENT NO. 1126

(Purpose: To provide for the treatment of certain entities for purposes of payments under the Medicare program)

At the end of subtitle A of title IV, add the following:

SEC. ____ TREATMENT OF CERTAIN ENTITIES FOR PURPOSES OF PAYMENTS UNDER THE MEDICARE PROGRAM.

(a) PAYMENTS TO HOSPITALS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, effective for discharges occurring on or after October 1, 2003, for purposes of making payments to hospitals (as defined in section 1886(d) and 1833(t) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395(d)) under the Medicare program under title XVIII of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1395 et seq.), Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, are deemed to be located in the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina, South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area.

(2) BUDGET NEUTRAL WITHIN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Secretary shall adjust the area wage index referred to in paragraph (1) with respect to payments to hospitals located in North Carolina in a manner which assures that the total payments made under section 1886(d) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C., 1395(w)(4)) in a fiscal year for the operating cost of inpatient hospital services are not greater or less than the total of such payments that would have been made in the year if this subsection had not been enacted.

(b) PAYMENTS TO SKILLED NURSING FACILITIES AND HOME HEALTH AGENCIES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, effective beginning October 1, 2003, for purposes of making payments to skilled nursing facilities (SNFs) and home health agencies (as defined in sections 1861(j) and 1861(o) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x(j); 1395x(o)) under the Medicare program under title XVIII of such Act, Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, are deemed to be located in the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina, South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area.

(2) APPLICATION AND BUDGET NEUTRAL WITHIN NORTH CAROLINA.—Effective for fiscal year 2004, the skilled nursing facility PPS and home health PPS rates for Iredell County, North Carolina, and Rowan County, North Carolina, will be updated by the prefloor, prereclassified hospital wage index available for the Charlotte-Gastonia-Rock Hill, North Carolina, South Carolina Metropolitan Statistical Area. This subsection shall be implemented in a budget neutral manner, using a methodology that ensures that the total amount of expenditures for skilled nursing facility services and home health services in a year does not exceed the total amount of expenditures that would have been made in the year if this subsection had not been enacted. Required adjustments by reason of the preceding sentence shall be done with respect to skilled nursing facilities and home health agencies located in North Carolina.

(c) CONSTRUCTION.—The provisions of this section shall have no effect on the amount of payments made under title XVIII of the Social Security Act to entities located in States other than North Carolina.

AMENDMENT NO. 996

(Purpose: To modify the GAO study of geographic differences in payments for physicians' services relating to the work geographic practice cost index)

In section 445(a) of the bill, strike paragraph (6) and insert the following:

“(6) an evaluation of the appropriateness of extending such adjustment or making such adjustment permanent;

“(7) an evaluation of the adjustment of the work geographic practice cost index required under section 1848(e)(1)(A)(iii) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395w-4(e)(1)(A)(iii)) to reflect ¼ of the area cost difference in physician work;

“(8) an evaluation of the effect of the adjustment described in paragraph (7) on physician location and retention in higher than average cost-of-living areas, taking into account difference in recruitment costs and retention rates for physicians, including specialists; and

AMENDMENT NO. 1118

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding the establishment of a nationwide permanent lifestyle modification program for Medicare beneficiaries)

At the end of title VI, insert the following:

SEC. ____ SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATION-WIDE PERMANENT LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM FOR MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

(1) Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year.

(2) The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $58,000,000,000 annually.

(3) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been operating throughout 12 States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

(4) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36,000,000,000 annually.

(5) Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

(6) Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

(7) The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17,000,000 Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

(8) Lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes.

(9) Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state.

(10) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

(11) Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

(12) These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the demonstration project known as the Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration, as described in the Health Care Financing Administration Memorandum of Understanding entered into on November 13, 2000, on a permanent basis;

(2) the project should include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis; and

(3) the project should be conducted on a national basis.

AMENDMENT NO. 1085

(Purpose: To express the sense of the Senate regarding payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule)

At the end of title VI, insert the following:
SEC. ____ . SENSE OF THE SENATE ON PAYMENT REDUCTIONS UNDER MEDICARE PHYSICIAN FEE SCHEDULE.

- (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—
- (1) the fees Medicare pays physicians were reduced by 5.4 percent across-the-board in 2002;
 - (2) recent action by Congress narrowly averted another across-the-board reduction of 4.4 percent for 2003;
 - (3) based on current projections, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) estimates that, absent legislative or administrative action, fees will be reduced across-the-board once again in 2004 by 4.2 percent;
 - (4) the prospect of continued payment reductions under the Medicare physician fee schedule for the foreseeable future threatens to destabilize an important element of the program, namely physician participation and willingness to accept Medicare patients;
 - (5) the primary source of this instability is the sustainable growth rate (SGR), a system of annual spending targets for physicians' services under Medicare;
 - (6) the SGR system has a number of defects that result in unrealistically low spending targets, such as the use of the increase in the gross domestic product (GDP) as a proxy for increases in the volume and intensity of services provided by physicians, no tolerance for variance between growth in Medicare beneficiary health care costs and our Nation's GDP, and a requirement for immediate recoupment of the difference;
 - (7) both administrative and legislative action are needed to return stability to the physician payment system;
 - (8) using the discretion given to it by Medicare law, CMS has included expenditures for prescription drugs and biologicals administered incident to physicians' services under the annual spending targets without making appropriate adjustments to the targets to reflect price increases in these drugs and biologicals or the growing reliance on such therapies in the treatment of Medicare patients;
 - (9) between 1996 and 2002, annual Medicare spending on these drugs grew from $1,800,000,000 to $6,200,000,000, or from $55 per beneficiary to an estimated $187 per beneficiary;
 - (10) although physicians are responsible for prescribing these drugs and biologicals, neither the price of the drugs and biologicals, nor the standards of care that encourage their use, are within the control of physicians; and
 - (11) SGR target adjustments have not been made for cost increases due to new coverage decisions and new rules and regulations.
- (b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—
- (1) the Center for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) should use its discretion to exclude drugs and biologicals administered incident to physician services from the sustainable growth rate (SGR) system;
 - (2) CMS should use its discretion to make SGR target adjustments for new coverage decisions and new rules and regulations; and
 - (3) in order to provide ample time for Congress to consider more fundamental changes to the SGR system, the conferees on the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003 should include in the conference agreement a provision to establish a minimum percentage update in physician fees for the next 2 years and should consider adding provisions that would mitigate the swings in payment, such as establishing multi-year adjustments to recoup the variance and creating "tolerance" corridors for variations around the update target trend.

AMENDMENT NO. 960

(Purpose: To Require a Streamlining of the Medicare Regulations)

At the end of subtitle A of title V, add the following:

SEC. ____ . STREAMLINING AND SIMPLIFICATION OF MEDICARE REGULATIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall conduct an analysis of the regulations issued under title XVIII of the Social Security Act and related laws in order to determine how such regulations may be streamlined and simplified to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of the medicare program without harming beneficiaries or providers and to decrease the burdens the medicare payment systems impose on both beneficiaries and providers.

(b) REDUCTION IN REGULATIONS.—The Secretary, after completion of the analysis under subsection (a), shall direct the rewriting of the regulations described in subsection (a) in such a manner as to—

(1) reduce the number of words comprising all regulations by at least two-thirds by October 1, 2004, and

(2) ensure the simple, effective, and efficient operation of the medicare program.

(c) APPLICATION OF THE PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT.—The Secretary shall apply the provisions of chapter 35 of title 44, United States Code (commonly known as the "Paperwork Reduction Act") to the provisions of this Act to ensure that any regulations issued to implement this Act are written in plain language, are streamlined, promote the maximum efficiency and effectiveness of the medicare and medicaid programs without harming beneficiaries or providers, and minimize the burdens the payment systems affected by this Act impose on both beneficiaries and providers. If the Secretary determines that the two-thirds reduction in words by October 1, 2004 required in (B)(1) is not feasible, he shall inform Congress in writing by July 1, 2004 of the reasons for its unfeasibility. He shall then establish a feasible reduction to be received by January 1, 2005.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I ask unanimous consent that these amendments and the following pending amendments be adopted en bloc and that the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table: Amendment No. 1017, Allard; No. 968, Harkin; No. 948, Graham of South Carolina; No. 960, Dayton; No. 1054, Feingold; No. 1030, Enzi.

Mr. GRAHAM of South Carolina. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

STROM THURMOND

Mr. GRAHAM of South Carolina. Mr. President, I rise to make a brief statement, like my colleague from South Carolina, Senator HOLLINGS, about the passing of Senator Thurmond. This is something I really don't know how to put in words. All of us from South Carolina knew Senator Thurmond in so many ways. But his colleagues in this body, the vast majority of you, have served with him for many years. You have great admiration and fondness for Senator Thurmond but I stand before you as his successor. I often state back home that we change Senators every 50 years and that so many people have been waiting to take Senator Thurmond's place. The jokes just go on and on about what a rich life he has lived.

Tonight his family is mourning his passing. Whether a person lives to be 100 or 200, it is difficult to lose your father. If you lose someone you love, it is always difficult. But when you think about Senator Thurmond, you always have a smile on your face.

He lived a rich life. He lived at times a controversial life. But the biggest testament I can give to Senator Thurmond is that he changed. He changed with the times.

Those of you who embraced him during difficult times your love was much appreciated. Recently people have tried to freeze Senator Thurmond in time which is unfair to him or anyone else. Those who knew him best understood that he changed with the times. And his legacy in my State across party lines, across racial lines, and across regional lines was that he was the go-to guy. If you had a problem with your family or with your business, the first thought in your mind, if the Government was involved, or if somebody was treating you unfairly, was get on the phone and call Senator Thurmond. You would get a phone call back, and he would go to bat for you. Whether you owned the company, or you were the janitor, whether you were black, white, rich or poor, his office and he as a person had a reputation of going to bat for individuals. To me, that is his greatest legacy.

I stand before you as his successor—but not only that, as his friend. He embraced my campaign in 1995. He came to campaign for me when he was 93 years of age. And I was worried to death about if he could make it through the day. Three days later I was glad to see him leave because he about killed me.

He had enthusiasm and passion like no one I have ever met in my life. He did things he didn't have to do. He was a sitting judge in South Carolina in his 40s. He left the judgeship to go volunteer for the Army. He landed in a glider on D-Day, he was shot up, the pilot was killed, and he fought the Germans until they quit, and then he went over to Japan and fought until they quit.

This man, your friend, my friend, South Carolina's favorite son, is gone but he will never be forgotten. His biggest legacy is in the small things he did—not the large things he did. There are so many large things he accomplished. But he lives on in families.

Great relationships were established, and good constituent service. He won his last election by getting more African-American votes than any Republican in the South.

All I can say about Senator Thurmond is that we pray for his family, we mourn his loss, but we thank God that He provided us a great public servant.

Well done, Senator Thurmond.

Thank you, Mr. President.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, will the Chair identify the sponsors of that amendment?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Senator BAUCUS for Senator FEINSTEIN, amendment No. 1060, Part B premium, subtitle (d).

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, the Senate is ready to vote.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on agreeing to the amendment.

The amendment (No. 1060), as modified, was rejected.

Mr. BAUCUS. I move to reconsider the vote.

Mr. REID. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Iowa.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I have a unanimous consent request to correct a previous unanimous consent request. In a previous unanimous consent request, I referred to amendment No. 990 when I meant to refer to the previously adopted Murray amendment No. 961.

I ask unanimous consent to make that change.

I referred to the Kyl amendment No. 1128 when I meant to refer to Kyl amendment No. 1121.

I also ask unanimous consent to make that change.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDMENT NO. 1133

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The clerk will report.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Iowa [Mr. GRASSLEY] proposes an amendment numbered 1133.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that reading of the amendment be dispensed with.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

(The amendment, No. 1133, is printed in today's RECORD under "Amendments Submitted.")

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, is there no discussion necessary on the amendment?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Who seeks recognition?

The Senator from Texas.

Mrs. HUTCHISON. Mr. President, I would just like to say that we have help for our teaching hospitals in the managers' amendment. It is not much. But I am working with all of the managers, the ranking member as well as the chairman, to try to increase funding for teaching hospitals.

I want to point out our teaching hospitals must have the support that is in this bill at a higher percentage if we are going to keep the young physicians trained and if our country will keep the greatest health care system in the world.

I thank the managers for helping me put that in the managers' amendment.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Senator from Pennsylvania.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I oppose the managers' amendment because of an amendment that is in the managers' amendment, the Corzine amendment which provides three States the opportunity to basically opt out of the Medicare Program for prescription drugs and have an entitlement flow of funding going to the States for the States to develop their own stand-alone drug benefit. As a result of that, States like mine and two others will not have the advantage of an integrated drug benefit which I fought very strongly for on this floor and which I believe will also lead potentially to this unlimited entitlement flow of funds to the States because of the way this language is drafted, the potential for lots of mischief in respect to double dipping, inter-government transfers, disproportionate share payments. We could be opening a virtual Pandora's box. Yes. For my States and two others. But I think, frankly, it is not good policy and does not do the kind of improvement of the overall Medicare program which my State should participate in as well as the other States represented here.

There is no Federal oversight by the Secretary of Health and Human Services for this plan.

There are a host of other problems with this amendment. It is my understanding that the managers gave a commitment that this amendment be included in the package. And so to honor the chairman's commitment, I will not object to this amendment nor call for a vote to strike the amendment. But I, unfortunately, will have to vote against this bill.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there further debate?

Mr. GRASSLEY. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be agreed to.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendment (No. 1133) was agreed to.

AMENDMENTS EN BLOC WITHDRAWN

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the pending amendments.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendments (Nos. 953, 958, 934, 964, 965, 980, 979, 973, 986, 990, 977, 993, 962, 1004, 1019, 1020, 1021, 999, 954, 1037, 1039, 1051, 1012, 1061, 1075, 1076, 1077, 1024, 1073, 1088, 1089, 1090, 1091, 1110, and 1041) were withdrawn.

ADULT DAY CARE

Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, during consideration of this bill in the Finance Committee, I submitted language regarding adult day care which I and my staff were told by Finance Committee staff was acceptable and included in S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003, as part of the base bill to be considered on the Senate floor. I was very thankful for your consideration and approval of my language, Chairman GRASSLEY.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Yes, Senator BUNNING, I remember your submitted language regarding Adult Day Care.

Mr. BUNNING. After we voted to pass S. 1 out of the Finance Committee, I have since learned that the adult day care language accepted and made part of the bill is not the language I submitted at all, but instead it is language based on a bill introduced by Senator SANTORUM related to the same issue.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Yes, this is true, and I apologize for the inaccurate information and misunderstanding provided to you and your staff from the Finance Committee on this issue. The language included in the base bill instead is based on Senator SANTORUM's bill.

Mr. BUNNING. While Senator SANTORUM's adult day care proposal and my adult day care language are different, they both share the same goal of providing services to those special and needy adults who require extra attention and care. However, I have some differences with Senator SANTORUM's proposal, and he has some differences with my proposed language.

Mr. SANTORUM. Yes, we do share the same goal on this adult day care issue, and we do have some fundamental differences with one another's proposals and language on the matter.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Yes, that is my understanding, as well.

Mr. BUNNING. I am hopeful that once this bill gets to conference, we and our staffs can work out our differences on this adult day care issue and find a solution that is amenable to all of us. It is also my understanding the current version of the House of Representative's prescription drug benefit bill includes the adult day care language which is identical to my language.

Mr. SANTORUM. I am willing to work on this matter further, and do agree that since the Senate's and House of Representative's versions on the adult day care language will be different, we will have to find a solution to our differences on this important issue.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I will be happy to work with both of you and our staffs to rectify this problem. Adult day care is an important issue, and being that the Senate and House of Representatives will have different language on this issue, it must be conferred in a way to ensure that all with interests in this matter, including interested provider and senior organizations, are involved and approving of the final adult day care language. I am looking forward to further working with both of you on this matter.

Mr. BUNNING. Thank you, Mr. Chairman and Senator SANTORUM. I appreciate both your willingness to revisit this matter and your leadership on this important legislation for our seniors.

FEE FOR SERVICE

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I believe in assuring the ability of seniors who choose to do so to add their own funds on top of the government contribution in order to participate in private fee-for-service plans under Medicare. I also believe that private fee-for-service plans should be able to provide an unmanaged form of the subsidized prescription drug benefit.

Accordingly, I am committed to ensuring that the bill reported from the conference committee that will consider S. 1 and H.R. 1 incorporates the functional equivalent of those provisions in H.R. 1 that permit private fee-for-service plans to provide the subsidized prescription drug benefit as an unmanaged benefit whose premium amount, just like the premium amount such plans charge for the core Medicare benefit under current law, is not subject to governmental review or approval.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I agree.

REPEAL OF THERAPY CAPS

Mr. ENSIGN. Mr. President, I will withdraw my amendment to repeal the arbitrary beneficiary caps on therapy. However, I would urge my colleague from Iowa, the Chairman of the Finance Committee, to work in conference to find a way to delay this law. As you know, the beneficiary caps will have one of three results—beneficiaries will either: (1) pay 100 percent out-of-their own pocket once the caps are exceeded; (2) self-ration therapy care; or (3) forgo medically necessary care altogether. Mr. President, I recognize that the Chairman has been a voice to eliminate these caps and hope that a final Medicare bill further delays implementation of them.

Mrs. LINCOLN. Mr. President, I would like the opportunity to join my colleague from Nevada to speak in support of repealing the caps on outpatient physical therapy, occupational therapy, and speech-language pathology.

The current therapy cap discriminates against the most vulnerable of Medicare beneficiaries. While the majority of enrollees will not exceed an annual $1,590 limitation on rehabilitation services, approximately 13 percent of seniors and individuals with disabilities covered by Medicare will be forced to pay for medically necessary services out of pocket.

This is a particularly burdensome situation for beneficiaries living in rural communities. Most likely to be harmed are beneficiaries who have experienced a stroke or hip fracture or who have Parkinson's disease or other conditions that require extensive rehabilitation following injury or illness.

I urge the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Finance Committee to work with me and my colleague, the Senator from Nevada, on repealing this cap or at least suspending it for 1 or 2 years. My colleague and I have sponsored legislation (S. 569) to permanently repeal this cap. Our bill has

Again, I appreciate the opportunity to join my colleagues from Nevada today. It is my sincere hope, Mr. President, that we will be able to address the issue of the burdensome $1,590 cap on outpatient therapy services.

Mr. GRASSLEY. I thank both the Senator from Nevada and the Senator from Arkansas for their comments and for withdrawing the amendment. As you may know, I asked CMS Administrator Scully at the Finance Committee markup to further delay implementation of these beneficiary caps. Unfortunately, as a result of the Senate Budget Resolution constraints, I do not have Medicare dollars to repeal the beneficiary cap on therapy services. I agree that this arbitrary limit does not make sense and have sought to address this issue in the past. I will work in conference to enact a therapy cap moratorium and appreciate your hard work and passion on this issue.

Mr. ENSIGN. I appreciate the Chairman's leadership on this issue and I thank my colleague for agreeing, at a minimum, to work toward another moratorium on implementation of the therapy cap. I would also like to thank the Senator from Arkansas for her words of support. Mr. President, I yield the floor.

I ask unanimous consent that this full statement be included in the RECORD as if read.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I strongly support Senator KYL's sense of the Senate resolution to S. 1. His resolution asks Congress to rectify problems with the formula that is used to update Medicare physician reimbursement.

Due to flaws in this formula, payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2 percent in 2004. This cut in physician compensation would be the fifth since 1991 including a 5.4 percent decrease in 2002. According to Medicare's own conservative estimates, between the years 1991 and 2003, reductions for physicians and other health professionals resulted in Medicare physician reimbursement that equates to 14 percent below their actual practice costs. The 2004 reduction would decrease Utah physician income by $13 million which translates to $3003 per physician in 2004. And this is in addition to the $9 million decrease in reimbursement that Utah physicians received in 2002. Furthermore, unless we correct this formula, it is estimated that more cuts will occur in 2005, 2006, and 2007.

The Medicare Payment Advisory Commission, MedPAC, has stated that these reimbursement reductions are the result of a problem with the Sustained Growth Rate that is used as part of the calculation to adjust rates each year. The SGR expenditure target is linked to gross domestic product. Therefore, the formula may decrease Medicare reimbursement for physicians and other practitioners when health care volume increases outstrip increases in the gross domestic product. The problem is magnified when gross domestic product decreases. Essentially, the formula penalizes physicians for factors over which they have no control.

It is true that as the population of our country ages, the volume of Medicare health care services consumed increases. However, physicians have no control over this and our Medicare system penalizes them because of it. As a result, some physicians no longer take new Medicare patients, some decline to participate in the Medicare program altogether, and young people are considering other professions.

I would submit that as the baby-boomer generation ages and increasing numbers of Americans become Medicare beneficiaries, we need physicians and other health care providers more than ever. If anything, we should be rewarding our physicians, not penalizing them.

An additional problem with the Sustained Growth Rate calculation is that it does not account for many changes in health care that improve quality but increase physician work also. The federal government actively promotes new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities and other initiatives that benefit patients but are not taken into account by the Sustained Growth Rate calculation.

MedPAC's recommendation to Congress is that annual updates in physician payments should reflect increases in the Medicare Economic Index or MBI rather than the gross domestic product. Using the Medicare Economic Index would eliminate the penalty that physicians and other practitioners currently experience when the volume of health care services increases due to factors that they are unable to control.

What we have before us is a flawed formula that is threatening the health of Americans and the future of our country. Congress has addressed this problem before, but it seems that we were only putting a bandage over the wound; we never cured the disease that caused it. The wound continues to fester and it will continue to do so until we cure the problem. And the cure, it seems, is to revise the formula.

I for one, am tired of applying bandages to this wound. I believe that it is time to address this problem directly and definitively. I urge my colleagues to join with me in supporting this resolution and in working to correct this problem.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I joined my colleague, the distinguished Senator from Oregon, Mr. SMITH, in offering an amendment to promote better care for frail elderly and disabled. This amendment will allow the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to designate health plans that disproportionately serve special needs beneficiaries as specialized Medicare Advantage plans.

A number of States have successfully chosen to serve seniors and the disabled by combining Medicare and Medicaid services through a waiver approved by the Department of Health and Human Services that integrates services under Medicare and Medicaid capitated financing arrangements. These programs provide beneficiaries with a comprehensive benefit package that combines the services traditionally provided by Medicare, Medicaid, and home and community based waiver programs.

In my home State of Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Partnership Program is one such success, a community-based program that has improved the quality, access, and cost-effectiveness of the care delivered to its beneficiaries. Perhaps most important to the beneficiaries, these programs help the disabled and the frail elderly remain in their own community, and avoid institutionalized care. Wisconsin is lucky to have four such programs across our State: Elder Care and Community Living Alliance of Dane County, Community Care for the Elderly of Milwaukee County, and Community Health Partnership Eau Claire, Dunn, and Chippewa Counties.

In order to qualify for these programs, a person must be Medicaid-eligible, have physical disabilities or frailties of aging, and require a level of care provided by nursing homes. Through programs such as the Wisconsin Partnership Program, these frail elderly and disabled beneficiaries are able to receive quality preventive care upfront, which allows more beneficiaries to stay in their communities and reduces the rate of hospitalization.

In Wisconsin, about 26 percent of all Medicaid recipients age 65 or older are in nursing homes. This rate drops dramatically for those enrolled in the Wisconsin Partnership Program, where only 5.9 percent of recipients age 65 or older are in nursing homes.

While the Wisconsin Partnership Program is a success, we must ensure that the Federal Government continues to support these State-based solutions to our long-term care needs and other specialty managed care programs that focus on frail, chronically ill seniors. Last year I introduced the Frail Elderly Act of 2002, which promoted specialty managed care programs and helped those already in existence to continue to operate. This amendment will work to accomplish both goals by providing a population-based designation that allows plans to be recognized for specialization in services for special needs beneficiaries. By establishing this specialized designation, we hope to be able to more easily move specialized plans from demonstration status to mainstream provider status, helping to promote a more effective way of caring for the frail elderly and disabled.

Mr. President I also want to point out that this amendment does not change payments, does not change administrative rules, and therefore does not have a fiscal effect.

Fundamental long-term care reform is vital to any health care reform that Congress may consider. As part of these reforms, we must support State and local efforts to encourage care for the most vulnerable populations. We must provide our seniors and disabled with real choices. They are entitled to the opportunity to continue to live in the homes and communities that they helped build and sustain. I urge my colleagues to support this amendment that will help provide a measure of support for the most frail elderly and disabled to allow them to stay in their own homes.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that two letters of support for this amendment, from the Community Health Partnership and Elder Care of Dane County be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

COMMUNITY HEALTH PARTNERSHIP, INC.,
Eau Claire, WI, June 26, 2003.

Hon. RUSSELL FEINGOLD,
U.S. Senate,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR FEINGOLD: I am writing to express my support for the amendment you will be offering with Senator Gordon Smith to create a designation for Medicare Advantage plans that target special needs beneficiaries. Community Health Partnership, Inc. (CHP) is one of four Wisconsin Partnership Program demonstration sites that has developed innovative models of care specifically for frail seniors and people with physical disabilities that would benefit from a specialty designation.

The Wisconsin Partnership Program (WPP) is an integrated program of acute and long-term care services designed to improve access to needed care, reduce fragmentation of care across providers and settings, and help people remain independent in the community, while achieving cost savings. The target populations for WPP include both elderly and physically disabled individuals who meet nursing home level of care criteria. CHP serves both populations in a 3 county, rural area. Participants must be Medicaid eligible or dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid services. A hallmark of this program is the use of an inter-disciplinary care team comprised of a physician, nurse practitioner and social worker that help coordinate beneficiaries' care across all health care settings. The WPP also participates in the Medicare/Medicaid Integration Program, a demonstration to test strategies for integrating Medicare and Medicaid services. The goal of this program is to create a seamless system of care for beneficiaries and to reduce costs related to duplication of services and administrative functions across programs.

Like a number of other specialty Medicare+Choice programs, the WPP currently operates under demonstration authority, which expires at the end of next year. And, like virtually all Medicare demonstration programs, there is no mechanism for transitioning from demonstration status into the mainstream of Medicare. I understand that The Medicare Prescription Drug and Reform Act of 2003 begins to address this problem by establishing a special designation for specialized Medicare Advantage plans that exclusively serve special needs beneficiaries. Your amendment would allow the Secretary also to designate as specialized Medicare Advantage plans those that disproportionately serve special needs beneficiaries.

The expansion of the specialized Medicare Advantage designation would provide CHP and other WPP members additional flexibility in expanding our unique program to other beneficiary groups such as those who are eligible for Medicare, but not Medicaid and "pre-duals"—those who are at risk of spending down to Medicaid based on health status and/or income limitations. Targeting healthy beneficiaries before they become frail or disabled would reduce long-run Medicare and Medicaid costs by preventing or delaying health care decline and the need for costly medical or long-term care services. Your amendment also would offer CHP a mechanism to serve non-special needs beneficiaries as a strategy for expanding our membership under a mainstream model or reducing our risk through a more representative cross-section of Medicare beneficiaries in West Central Wisconsin.

Your compassion for seniors, disabled and other special needs beneficiaries has been evident since you served as the Chair of the Senate Aging Committee in the State of Wisconsin. The amendment you are offering to the Senate Medicare bill only provides further evidence that you continue to be hard at work on behalf of Wisconsin's most vulnerable populations. Thank you for all of your work on behalf of Wisconsin's seniors.

Sincerely,

KAREN A. BULLOCK,
CEO.

ELDER CARE OF DANE COUNTY,
Madison, WI, June 24, 2003.

Hon. RUSSELL FEINGOLD,
U.S. Senate,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR FEINGOLD: I am writing to express my support for the amendment you will be offering with Senator Gordon Smith to create a designation for Medicare Advantage plans that target special needs beneficiaries. Elder Care of Dane County is one of four Wisconsin Partnership Program demonstration sites that has developed innovative models of care specifically for frail seniors and people with physical disabilities that would benefit from a specialty designation.

The Wisconsin Partnership Program (WPP) is an integrated program of acute and long-term care services designed to improve access to needed care, reduce fragmentation of care across providers and settings, and help people remain independent in the community, while achieving cost savings. The WPP also participates in the Medicare/Medicaid Integration Program, a demonstration to test strategies for integrating Medicare and Medicaid services. The goal of this program is to create a seamless system of care for beneficiaries and to reduce costs related to duplication of services and administrative functions across programs.

Like a number of other specialty Medicare+Choice programs, the WPP currently operates under demonstration authority, which expires at the end of next year. And, like virtually all Medicare demonstration programs, there is no mechanism for transitioning from demonstration status into the mainstream of Medicare. I understand that The Medicare Prescription Drug and Reform Act of 2003 begins to address this problem by establishing a special designation for specialized Medicare Advantage plans that exclusively serve special needs beneficiaries. Your amendment would allow the Secretary also to designate as specialized Medicare Advantage plans those that disproportionately serve special needs beneficiaries.

Thank you for all of your work on behalf of Wisconsin's seniors.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I rise to speak on the Gregg-Schumer amendment which was adopted last week. This amendment was based on a piece of legislation, S. 1225, the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act of 2003, reported by the HELP Committee on June 11th.

I want to take this opportunity to explain why I cast the lone vote against this amendment. It is my hope that when my colleagues consider my explanation that they may be open to making additional changes to this very important amendment as the process moves forward.

Let me start by commending Senators GREGG, SCHUMER, MCCAIN, and KENNEDY for their work in developing this provision which I believe is a significant improvement on legislation that was adopted by the Senate last Congress, S. 812.

The Gregg-Schumer amendment relates to a complex and often admittedly confusing law I coauthored with my friend, Representative HENRY WAXMAN of California in 1984 the Drug Price Competition and Patent Term Restoration Act.

I chaired a hearing of the Senate Judiciary Committee in May of 2001 that helped document some abuses that were occurring in the law. Since our last hearing on this issue, much has happened.

Both the Federal Trade Commission and the Food and Drug Administration played a constructive role in attempting to end several mechanisms by which some research-based and generic drug firms were attempting to game the system put in place by the 1984 and subsequent court decisions to avoid competition in the marketplace.

The FTC succeeded in achieving several widely-publicized consent decrees with a variety of offending firms under the existing antitrust statutes.

In addition, the FTC conducted an exhaustive survey and study of how certain provisions of the 1984 Waxman-Hatch Act affected competition in the pharmaceutical industry.

The FTC study contained two major recommendations. The first addressed the use of the statutory 30-month stay granted by the 1984 law in situations where patents are challenged by generic competitors. The FTC recommended that the law:

Permit only one automatic 30-month stay per drug product per ANDA to resolve patent infringement disputes over patent listed . . . prior to the filing date of the generic applicant's ANDA.

This was precisely the position that I suggested in testimony before the HELP Committee on May 8, 2002 and argued for last year during the Senate debate on the Edwards-Collins substitute amendment to the McCain-Schumer legislation.

I would note that the 30-month stay provision in the McCain-Schumer bill last year, S. 812, and in the Edwards-Collins substitute, were both at variance with this central recommendation of the FTC report.

The second major FTC recommendation responds to those situations in which R&D and generic firms were entering into agreements not to impede generic competition. The FTC recommended that Congress:

Pass legislation to require brand-name and first generic companies applicants to provide copies of certain agreements to the Federal Trade Commission.

Senator LEAHY, working very closely with the FTC, developed legislation, the Drug Competition Act, S. 946, that squarely addressed this second recommendation.

During the 107th Congress, I worked with Senator LEAHY on refining that bill. I supported it in committee, and worked with him to pass it through the Senate late last year. I supported his efforts to have it attached to the Medicare vehicle earlier this week. I expect that the 108th Congress will adopt this measure.

The FTC study served an important purpose of cataloging the facts surrounding certain abuses of the 1984 act. In formulating public policy, the facts should matter and a legislative or regulatory response should be tailored to fit the problem.

Unfortunately, the timing of the issuance of FTC study did not allow the report to get the attention it deserved by the Senate. The FTC report was published only one day before the Senate adopted S. 812, the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act of 2003, last July 31st.

The GAAP Act, developed by Senators MCCAIN and SCHUMER, was substantially altered by the Edwards-Collins substitute, with active involvement of Senator KENNEDY.

While there is no question my colleagues were motivated by their goal of making drugs more affordable for seniors and all Americans, and despite the fact that it garnered 78 votes in the Senate, there were significant shortcomings in the bill.

Let me briefly review a few of the most troublesome provisions of the Edwards-Collins substitute to S. 812. The proposed legislation would have created for the first time a private right of action in the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The last thing the already overburdened FDA staff needs is a bunch of trial lawyers bringing the agency to a screeching halt by second-guessing its judgment calls.

The bill that passed last year would have resulted in the waiver of patent rights apparently against even third parties—if pioneer drug firms did not file its patents with the FDA and, if challenged by a generic drug applicant, pursue expensive litigation within tight time frames.

In sharp contrast to the FTC recommendation, S. 812 basically made any patents listed with the FDA after a month from the date the pioneer drug application was approved by the FDA ineligible for the 30-month stay. In most cases, this is at least four years earlier than what I and the FTC recommended—freezing the Orange Book to patents listed before a generic drug application was filed.

The American Intellectual Property Law Association opposed S. 812. The patent-dependent biotech industry worked against the bill. The Patent and Trademark Office found that “S. 812 would forfeit unnecessarily the core right of patent holders—the right to exclude others from practicing the inventions for the entire patent term. After years of research and development and significant investment, the patent right is extinguished for the mere failure to satisfy an administrative task or respond in a timely manner.”

Here is what the July 18, 2002 Statement of Administration Policy said about the Edwards-Collins-McCain-Schumer legislation:

. . . the Administration opposes S. 812 in its current form because it will not provide lower drug prices. S. 812 would unnecessarily encourage litigation around the initial approval of new drugs and would complicate the process of filing and protecting patents on new drugs. The resulting higher costs and delays in making new drugs available will reduce access to new breakthrough drugs. Moreover, the new cause of action is not necessary to address patent process abuses. Clearly, the bill would benefit from consideration by the Senate's experts on Hatch-Waxman law on the Judiciary Committee, the proper committee of jurisdiction for this bill.

While S. 812 passed by a very wide margin, it was certainly not without its critics.

Comes now S. 1225. This bill emerged from the HELP Committee. Once again, it is entitled the Greater Access to Affordable Pharmaceuticals Act. Once again, it is cosponsored by Senators MCCAIN, SCHUMER, and KENNEDY.

Due in large part to the leadership of Chairman GREGG, there are significant changes in the bill compared with last year's legislation.

While I have significant concerns over certain aspects of S. 1225 as adopted in its amended form on June 19, 2003, I must acknowledge Chairman GREGG and Majority Leader FRIST for their roles in working with the cosponsors of last year's bill to make substantial improvements in the legislation.

Likewise, I commend Senators SCHUMER, MCCAIN and KENNEDY for abandoning many of the troublesome features of a bill that garnered 78 votes last Congress.

I can only believe that the factual presentation, analysis, and recommendations contained in the FTC report and subsequent public notice and comment process surrounding the recently-issued FDA final rule on patent listings and the application of the statutory 30-month stay both played a constructive role in helping to form the basis of the Gregg-Schumer legislation.

It is appropriate to recognize the efforts of the Bush administration for tackling the problem of multiple, successive 30-months stays through rulemaking. Secretary Thompson, Commissioner McClellan, and FDA Chief Counsel Dan Troy, should be saluted for their roles in so promptly completing a rulemaking regarding patent listing that generally embraced the one-and-only-one 30-month stay policy recommended in the FTC Report. Chairman Muris and the FTC staff deserve credit for a report that helped shape a more carefully targeted policy response.

There can be no doubt that this year's vehicle, S. 1225, is superior to S. 812. This new Gregg-Schumer bill, S. 1225, embraces exactly the type of one-and-only-one 30-month stay policy that I suggested to the HELP Committee last May, argued for on the floor last July, and was ultimately recommended by the FTC.

The Gregg-Schumer legislation, S. 1225 in the form adopted by the Senate, also addresses some problems that the FDA rule perhaps did not resolve satisfactorily. As FDA Chief Counsel Dan Troy stated at the June 17th Judiciary Committee hearing:

We tried as best we could to cut down on all opportunities for gaming. We did not succeed in cutting down all opportunities for gaming, because nothing, no legislation is so good, no rule could be so good as to cut down all opportunities for gaming, because there are unforeseen circumstances and unintended consequences.

I think Mr. Troy is correct about the nature of the inherent limitations of regulatory and legislative fixes for complex problems where there are powerful incentives to game the system to gain financial advantage. We need to keep this in mind as we analyze further the amendment the Senate adopted last week.

As I stated at the June 17th hearing, it was unfortunate that the PTO was unable to present a witness. Admittedly, the invitation was issued on short notice. I have asked PTO for its formal comments on the Gregg-Schumer amendment. I would also be interested in the PTO's comments on whatever language the House adopts. We would also be wise to hear from the Office of the United States Trade Representative if USTR finds that the legislation raises any concerns for international trade and intellectual property under the TRIPS provisions.

It is my understanding that FDA and FTC staff provided a great deal of what is known as "technical assistance" on the Gregg-Schumer amendment, a good deal of it between the markup on June 11th and the time the amendment was offered on June 19th. I am not aware whether PTO or USTR were consulted.

PTO and USTR should understand that this is a fast moving train, so they should be prepared to give us any comments they may have in short order. President Bush and the congressional leadership have made it plain that they expect the conference report on the Medicare bill to be completed as soon as possible.

One special area of concern to me as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee is that one provision of the amendment overwhelmingly adopted by the Senate raises significant issues with respect to civil justice policy, including a constitutional concern. Specifically, proposed section 271(e)(5) of title 35, would make the failure of a patentee to file a patent infringement action within a specified time frame sufficient to establish "an actual controversy" for the purpose of establishing subject matter jurisdiction for a declaratory judgment action by a generic drug firm challenging a patent.

Whether the Congress can, or should, by statute grant subject matter jurisdiction for a declaratory judgment based on the failure to bring a suit raises some interesting questions, particularly in light of manner in which the U.S. Courts of Appeals, including the Federal Circuit, have developed and applied the "reasonable apprehension" test. At our June 17th hearing, DOJ did not present the Judiciary Committee with its final opinion on the matter but Mr. Sheldon Bradshaw, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Counsel, noted, "that the actual case of controversy requirement is constitutionally compelled rather than statutorily required. And as a result, Congress can't simply create a case or controversy by statute but the plaintiffs must establish the constitutional requirement for bringing the case." The committee has received a spirited correspondence that takes differing views on the case or controversy provision of the Gregg-Schumer amendment.

I have requested the Department of Justice for its formal views on this language. At this point, I think it premature to embrace this language. It is my understanding that the bill that the House will take up does not contain the controversial case or controversy language. I stand prepared to work with the sponsors of the amendment, DOJ and others on this important issue.

Yet another improvement of S. 1225 over the bill adopted by the Senate last year relates to the manner in which the 180-day rule is addressed. In short, I am pleased that the policy embraced last year, the rolling exclusivity policy, was replaced in favor of a "use it or lose it" approach. I have long stated a preference for the consumer friendlier "use it or lose it" rule over the too open-ended rolling exclusivity.

The Waxman-Hatch law provides an incentive for generic firms to challenge patents. To encourage generic competitors to pursue patent challenges in a vigorous fashion, the 1984 law provided 180 days of marketing exclusivity in situations where a generic drug firm could show the pioneer's patents were invalidated or not infringed. For many years it was thought, as intended, that this valuable 180-day period of exclusive marketing would be granted to the first generic firm to successfully invalidate or invent around the pioneer's patents.

FDA regulations issued in 1994 required that the first generic applicant had to defend successfully against a patent claim made by a brand name company to receive the 180-day exclusivity. In a 1998 D.C. Circuit case, Mova v. Shalala, the court construed the plain language of the statute to strike down the successful defense requirement. As a result FDA now makes 180-day exclusivity decisions by applying the literal words of the statute. This results in a system that rewards first filers, not necessarily successful challengers.

The Gregg-Schumer amendment retains the preference for first filers. I believe that re-instating the successful defense requirement may prove preferable than intentionally sanctioning a first filer regime.

Frankly, I am uncertain of the policy justification for S. 1225's retention of granting the 180-day reward to the first filer rather than the first successful defendant. I believe that there is a lot to be said for giving the reward to the actual winner in court or the first not to be sued, not just the first one to enter the Parklawn Building with an application.

The amendment places a high premium on being a first filer. At our hearing last week, FTC Chairman Muris characterized the rush to be a first filer as "the shantytown problem of people in line to file." FDA Chief Counsel Troy described that "... right now, there are sometimes limousines, sometimes vans, sometimes cars, sometimes even tents in the Metro North parking lot that come days, weeks, and in some cases even months in advance of a particular date. Why we should reward someone because they camp out longer in the parking lot is a good question?"

I am concerned that the language that passed the Senate could allow some unintended and, in fact, counterproductive, results. Changes in current law with respect to the court decision and commercial marketing triggering mechanisms for the 180-day exclusivity provision demand careful attention and analysis. The amendment does not appear to adopt all the FTC recommendations in this area.

Other questions should be raised. What if, for example, the generic applicant that successfully challenges the validity of the patent is not also a first filer? Why should such a non-first filing but successful invalidity challenger not be granted the 180 days exclusivity? Stated another way, why should the first filer—or in Chairman Muris' "shantytown" situation, a whole group of first-day, exclusivity-sharing, first-filers, gain while the actual successful challenger waits out the 180-days? I am not sure that such an outcome is fair or even rational. Moreover, such a system may not result in the most efficient or aggressive pursuit of patent challenges.

One thing is for sure: You can expect a lot more first filers to appear at the door of the FDA building on the first day that successful drugs become eligible for patent challenges. As I pointed out at the Judiciary Committee hearing, some have already suggested that the first to file system might result in an increase in willful infringement cases. In fact, there was a decision last month by a Federal court in Chicago that ruled against a generic firm which filed a generic drug challenge before obtaining the opinion of outside counsel on either non-infringement or invalidity.

Another type of potential problem could arise, and frankly I am not certain how it can be avoided, if a non-first filing generic drug challenger wins a court decision on grounds of non-infringement. Unless I am wrong in my understanding of the Gregg-Schumer amendment, a generic challenger that prevailed on a non-infringement theory would have to wait for the 180-days granted the first filer, or a group of first-day, first-filers, to expire before the non-infringing firm could enter the market. Such an outcome only hurts consumers by needlessly delaying introduction of the non-infringing generic product for 180 days.

Unlike a determination of patent invalidity, a finding of non-infringement does not accrue to third parties. It is important to understand that there are two ways for a generic firm patent challenger to be awarded the 180-day exclusivity under the law. First, the generic challenger can show that the pioneer's patent is invalid. And second, the generic challenger can demonstrate that its product will not infringe a pioneer's patent.

These are two very different theories. Al Engelberg, a highly successful and highly respected attorney engaged by generic drug firms to attack pioneer patents, has made the following observation about the difference between invalidity and non-infringement challenges:

In cases involving an assertion of non-infringement, an adjudication in favor of one challenger is of no immediate benefit to any other challenger and does not lead to multi-source competition. Each case involving non-infringement is decided on the specific facts related to that challenger's product and provides no direct benefit to any other challenger. In contrast, a judgment of patent invalidity or enforceability creates an estoppel against any subsequent attempt to enforce the patent against any party. The drafters of the 180-day exclusivity provision failed to consider this important distinction.

As one of the drafters of the 1984 law, I must accept a measure of responsibility for this problem. It is not clear, however, that S. 1225 has addressed this issue in a satisfactory fashion. The language adopted in the Gregg-Schumer amendment does not appear to solve the problem created by the 1998 Mova decision that effectively eliminated the successful defense requirement.

Frankly, I think we need further thought on how best to address the implications of the distinction between invalidity and non-infringement claims in the context of Hatch-Waxman patent challenges and 180-day exclusivity awards. Specifically, I question the appropriateness of continuing to group together patent invalidity and patent non-infringement challenges, particularly in light of the fact that the latter may in practice extend longer than the purported 180-day award. From what I know now, there are strong arguments to prefer the reinstatement of the successful defense requirement over the establishment of a new system based on first filing.

Let me close by once again commending Senators GREGG, SCHUMER, MCCAIN, and KENNEDY for all their hard work in reaching the compromise amendment that was so overwhelmingly adopted by the Senate. The Gregg-Schumer amendment represents significant improvement over the legislation passed by the Senate last year. I am pleased that the amendment adopts the one-and-only-one 30-month stay policy that I, and the FTC, advocated last year.

I am also pleased that the Senate has adopted Senator LEAHY's Drug Competition Act, which also addressed a major recommendation of the FTC. I have worked with Senator LEAHY to perfect and pass this measure.

As a co-author of the 1984 Drug Price Competition and Patent Term Restoration Act, I support efforts to bring affordable and innovative drugs to the American public. While I support the spirit and much of the letter of the Gregg-Schumer amendment, for the reasons I have set forth, I was unable to fully support this measure at this time.

Mr. BUNNING. Mr. President, during consideration of S. 1, an amendment was introduced by Senators SANTORUM and SCHUMER dealing with payments to the Medicare+Choice program. This amendment would have increased payments to the M+C plans over the next 2 years, to make sure they are still viable when the MedicareAdvantage program takes effect in 2006.

I realize the amendment was withdrawn because of the lack of funding in the Senate bill, but it is still an important issue I would like to lend my support to.

The Medicare+Choice program already provides a good prescription drug benefit to many seniors across the country, and gives these seniors another option to the Medicare fee-for-service program.

Unfortunately, many Medicare+Choice plans are pulling out of the program because their reimbursement levels are too low. This is leaving many seniors scrambling for a new Medicare+Choice plan or having to go back into fee-for-service Medicare which doesn't offer them the same types of benefits as their old M+C plan.

In fact, it seems like every year, more and more Medicare+Choice plans leave the market.

I am concerned if we do not provide these plans with enough funding over the next two years while the MedicareAdvantage program is being implemented, these M+C plans will continue to leave the program and more seniors will be left in the lurch.

This isn't fair to our seniors.

I had hoped we could provide some additional funding for the Medicare+Choice plans over the next 2 years so the plans currently in the program will remain and we might actually attract new plans to other areas that have not been served.

In Kentucky, we have a limited number of Medicare+Choice plans. In fact, only seniors in certain counties in Northern Kentucky and around Louisville have access to these plans. With higher payments to Medicare+Choice plans, we might actually get some more plans to come into our state and cover more counties.

We shouldn't give up on the Medicare+Choice plans, or the seniors enrolled in them. I hope this is an issue we can resolve during the conference with the House, and I commend Senators SANTORUM and SCHUMER for bringing this issue before the Senate.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I am pleased that late last night the Senate again supported lowering drug prices and maintaining a fair generic drug approval process by adding the Drug Competition Act of the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003, S. 1. Last November, the Drug Competition Act passed the Senate by unanimous consent. On Monday, Senator GRASSLEY and I, along with Senators CANTWELL, DURBIN, FEINGOLD, KOHL, and SCHUMER, offered our bill as an amendment to the larger Medicare bill. I hope that in this Congress it is actually enacted into law as part of the larger effort to improve the health care of millions of Americans. Prescription drug prices are rapidly increasing, and they are a source of considerable concern to many Americans, especially senior citizens and families. Generic drug prices can be as much as 80 percent lower than the comparable brand-name versions.

While the Drug Competition Act is small in terms of length, it is large in terms of impact. It will ensure that law enforcement agencies can take quick and decisive action against companies that are driven more by greed than by good sense. It gives the Federal Trade Commission and the Justice Department access to information about secret deals between drug companies that keep generic drugs off the market. This is practice that hurts American families, particularly senior citizens, by denying them access to low-cost generic drugs, and further inflating medical costs.

Last July, the Federal Trade Commission released to comprehensive report on barriers to the entry of generic drugs into the pharmaceutical marketplace. The FTC had two recommendations to improve the current situation and to close the loopholes in the law that allow drug manufacturers to manipulate the timing of generics' introduction to the market. One of those recommendations was simply to enact our bill, as the most effective solution to the problem of "sweetheart" deals between brand name and generic drug manufacturers that keep generic drugs off the market, thus depriving consumers of the benefits of quality drugs at lower prices. Indeed, at a hearing just yesterday in the Judiciary Committee, Chairman Timothy Muris of the FTC praised the Drug Competition Act in his testimony and urged its passage. In short, this bill enjoys the unqualified endorsement of the current FTC, which follows on the support by the Clinton administration's FTC during the initial stages of our formulation of this bill. We can all have every confidence in the commonsense approach that our bill takes to ensuring that our law enforcement agencies have the information they need to take quick action, if necessary to protect consumers from drug companies that abuse the law.

Under current law, the first generic manufacturer that gets permission to sell a generic drug before the patent on the brand-name drug expires, enjoys protection from competition for 180 days—a head start on other generic companies. That was a good idea, but the unfortunate loophole exploited by a few is that secret deals can be made that allow the manufacturer of the generic drug to claim the 180-day grace period to block other generic drugs from entering the market, while at the same time, getting paid by the brand-name manufacturer not to sell the generic drug.

Our legislation closes this loophole for those who want to cheat the public but keeps the system the same for companies engaged in true competition. I think it is important for Congress not to overreact and throw out the good with the bad. Most generic companies want to take advantage of this 180-day provision and deliver quality generic drugs at much lower cost for consumers. We should not eliminate the incentive for them. Instead, we should let the FTC and Justice look at every deal that could lead to abuse, so that only the deals that are consistent with the intent of that law will be allowed to stand. The Drug Competition Act accomplishes precisely that goal, and helps ensure effective and timely access to generic pharmaceuticals that can lower the cost of prescription drugs for seniors, for families, and for all of us.

The effects of this amendment will only benefit the effort to bring quality health care at lower costs to more of our citizens. The Drug Competition Act enjoyed the unqualified support of the Senate last year, and I am pleased that my colleagues have recognized that it fits well within the framework of the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. It is a good complement to the larger bill and does nothing to disrupt the bill's balance. I sincerely hope that this commonsense legislation is a part of any final agreement with the House on the larger Medicare prescription drug bill.

(At the request of Mr. DASCHLE, the following statement was ordered to be printed in the RECORD.)

• Mr. KERRY. Mr. President, I wish to express my enthusiastic support for the amendment Senators SCHUMER and SANTORUM offered to increase funding for the Medicare+Choice Program in 2004 and 2005. This amendment addresses a critically important issue that has far-reaching implications affecting the health care benefits of millions of low-income and minority seniors. I am pleased to be a cosponsor of this amendment to ensure that this urgently needed funding increase is included in the Medicare bill.

I believe we must take bold action to address the fact that Congress has not provided adequate funding for the health care of Medicare beneficiaries who select HMOs and other private sector health plans. In many parts of Massachusetts, and in other parts of the country, funding for Medicare+Choice plans has been limited to annual increases of only 2 percent in most years since 1998. These increases are inadequate at a time when health care costs are rising by 8 to 10 percent annually. This level of inadequate funding is unfair to the 170,000 Medicare beneficiaries in Massachusetts who have selected private health plan options. I am a strong supporter of the wonderful health plans we have in Massachusetts—Harvard, Tufts, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, and Fallon Community Health Plan. We must step up to the plate to help these plans—nonprofit plans in my State—in their time of need.

The Schumer-Santorum-Kerry amendment takes important steps to address this problem. By providing funding now to stabilize existing private health plan options for Medicare beneficiaries, we can help ensure that the proposed Medicare Advantage Program will be successful in the future. Our amendment lays the groundwork for successful long-term efforts to provide beneficiaries with high-quality health care choices.

As the Senate continues to debate changes in Medicare, it is important for us to remember that, for more than 4.5 million Medicare beneficiaries across America, Medicare+Choice is an essential program that provides high-quality, comprehensive, affordable coverage that is not always available, or affordable under the Medicare fee-for-service program. These seniors and disabled Americans have voluntarily chosen to receive their health coverage through Medicare HMOs and other private sector plans because they recognize the value they offer.

Seniors in Massachusetts have come to rely on the high-quality health care they receive through their Medicare+Choice plans. Prescription drugs coverage, disease management services, physician exams, vision benefits, and hearing aids are examples of the additional benefits that are routinely offered by their Medicare+Choice plans.

These additional benefits are valued by all seniors, but they are particularly important to low-income seniors who cannot afford other Medicare supplementary plans that might provide them such benefits but at a greater cost.

As the Medicare debate moves forward, it is important for Congress to remember that Medicare+Choice serves as a vital safety net for many of our Nation's most vulnerable seniors. For millions of beneficiaries who cannot afford to purchase a Medigap policy, Medicare+Choice is their only hope for obtaining comprehensive health coverage.

The Schumer-Santorum-Kerry amendment focuses on protecting this important option for seniors who have nowhere else to turn for the quality health coverage they need. I urge my colleagues to support the additional funding that is urgently needed to strengthen the Medicare+Choice Program for seniors. This should be among our highest priorities in this year's Medicare debate. •

Mr. CARPER. Mr. President, when I ran for the U.S. Senate, I promised Delawareans that I would work in a bipartisan fashion to provide a Medicare prescription drug benefit for our Nation's seniors. I pledged that I would seek consensus around what is right with competing Republican and Democratic colleagues, I would support voluntary coverage that is available and affordable for all seniors. Along with my Republican colleagues, I would support choice and competition to constrain costs. And to the extent we found ourselves constrained by limited resources, I would seek to provide the greatest assistance to those with the greatest needs.

The bill before us today achieves some of that vision. It is bipartisan. It will provide a benefit available to all seniors on a voluntary basis. It will harness market forces to strengthen the integrity of the Medicare Program for the future. And it will provide comprehensive health security to our most vulnerable, low-income seniors.

Still, the bill we have before us today is not everything I would have hoped for. The overriding priority of the current majority here in Congress has been to make dramatic reductions in Federal revenues without corresponding reductions in Federal spending. As a result, there is insufficient money in the budget under which we are currently operating to provide the kind of comprehensive coverage that all seniors—not just low-income seniors—truly deserve. This is an unfortunate choice of priorities, I think, but it is the choice that this President and this Congress have made.

Unfortunately, the consequences of the majority's misguided priorities are evident in this legislation. When Medicare was created, the idea was to provide seniors with health coverage that was similar to the coverage available to most working Americans through their employers. This is what seniors expect when we say that we are providing them with a Medicare prescription drug benefit. However, the majority has only set aside for this bill about half of what it would take, according to the Congressional Budget Office, to provide seniors a benefit comparable to standard employer-provided coverage. Thus, there is a very noticeable gap in this bill's coverage, reflective of a substantial hole in our Nation's budget.

When seniors reach $4,500 in prescription drug costs, the coverage in this bill gives out. It does not kick back in until total spending reaches $5,800. It is widely acknowledged that this makes no sense. It makes no sense from an insurance perspective. It certainly is not reflective of the standard either in private employer-provided coverage or in the coverage provided to those of us who are fortunate enough to serve as Members of Congress. Nobody likes this gap in coverage. Nobody, so far as I can tell, defends it. However, because the root of problem is the majority's failure to set aside sufficient resources for this program, efforts to deal with the problem have only created new and potentially more serious difficulties.

For example, the authors of this legislation have attempted to narrow the coverage gap by not allowing employer contributions to count towards the calculation of seniors' out-of-pocket spending in the gap. To see how this works, we need to understand how the coverage gap works. Once seniors reach $4,500 in total drug costs, they fall into the coverage gap. They then have to spend a certain amount of their own money—in the final bill reported out of the Finance Committee it is $1,300—before their coverage resumes, or they get out of the coverage gap.

The effect of not allowing seniors to count payments made by their retiree health plans toward this out-of-pocket requirement is to ensure that seniors will remain in the gap longer and fewer will get out of it. This allows the level of spending at which the gap ends to be set at a lower level than would otherwise be possible for the same budgetary cost. The problem with this, however, is that it also provides an unintended incentive for employers to drop or scale back their retiree drug coverage.

Thankfully, contributions from State prescription drug plans, like our Delaware Pharmacy Assistance Program, count toward the out-of-pocket requirement, which should encourage States to “stay in the game.” Employers, though, are effectively barred from wrapping their coverage around Medicare in the way that would be most beneficial for their retirees, which would be by filing Medicare’s coverage gap.

In the course of our consideration of this legislation here on the floor of the Senate, I have urged my colleagues to address these shortcomings in the bill, even if that means reconsidering the majority’s budget plan and the resource allocation for this program. I supported an amendment by Senator BOXER to eliminate the gap in coverage. And I cosponsored an amendment offered by Senator ROCKEFELLER to allow employer-provided coverage to wrap around the Medicare benefit and thus to eliminate the incentive for employers to drop coverage for their retirees.

The majority has made clear, however, that they are unwilling to reorder their priorities or to explore the possibility of finding the necessary resources elsewhere in the budget to fix what they acknowledge are shortcomings in this legislation. Thus, the rest of us are left to choose between a prescription drug benefit that provides some, but not all, of the assistance that seniors deserve, or no prescription drug benefit at all.

Congress has been debating this issue for more than a decade. In many ways, it has been debating the issue since Medicare was first created back in 1965. I ran for the Senate in part because I was frustrated at the inability or unwillingness of the parties in Washington to come together to do what they could to solve problems and get things done. I am unwilling to walk away from the table this year with nothing for Delaware’s seniors. They have waited too long and the need is too great.

In light of the budgetary priorities of the Republican majority, I am also very concerned about our future prospects. Should we let the present opportunity pass us by? I am concerned that if we do not act to get started with prescription drug coverage this year, even the limited resources that now remain may go out the door for other purposes—most likely another round of top-heavy, upper bracket tax cuts.

This is a first step. It is a downpayment. Just as I pledged when I ran for the Senate to work in a bipartisan fashion to get results, I pledge today to continue to work to build on these results. I continue to believe that we should provide our seniors with quality coverage without caps or gaps. I will work to ensure that filling the gap of coverage that exists in the present bill is given greater priority in future budgets than it was in this year’s Republican budget. I also believe that it is a mistake to shun rather than welcome employer efforts to wrap around the new Medicare benefit, and I will work to rectify that mistake as we move toward implementation of this program over the next few years.

Mr. President, it is often said that politics is the art of the possible. The bounds of the possible are a bit narrower now than they need, thanks to our Republican friends. But, as the ranking member of the Budget Committee has said, this may be the best bill that could be written under the constraints of the Republican budget. For that reason, I commend the authors of this legislation—Chairman GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS, among others—for their work. I urge my colleagues to support this compromise as an important, if limited, first step toward addressing what clearly is a pressing priority, not just for our elderly population, but for our Nation as a whole.

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, as we debate the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Plan of 2003, I would like to take a few minutes today to speak in support of the overall bill, but I would also like to highlight several provisions in the bill that are of particular importance to me and my State of Vermont.

Over the last several days, we have focused much of our discussion on the aspects of this bill related to prescription drugs and the Medicare Advantage Program. These are clearly among the most important provisions of this bill and these issues warrant the attention and debate they are receiving. I especially appreciate the close relationship this bill has to last year’s tripartisan effort—which effectively is the parent of the current bill. Last year, my friends—Senators GRASSLEY, SNOWE, HATCH, and BREAU— and I set out to design a bill that provided a prescription drug benefit along with other improvements, what we called “enhancements,” to the basic operations of the Medicare Program. The tripartisan bill was good legislation—something all of its original cosponsors were very proud to work on together.

This year, I am pleased to say that the Grassley-Baucus bill is even better than our effort from last year, and I commend Chairman GRASSLEY and Ranking Member BAUCUS for their leadership and initiative in bringing it to the Senate floor.

One of the most important reasons that the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act is stronger than the tripartisan plan from last year is because it includes provisions that begin to resolve longstanding inequities in payments to rural doctors, hospitals, and other provisions. This problem can be stated simply. Rural health care providers are paid less than providers in more densely populated areas for the same exact services. Earlier this year, I joined with my colleagues, Senators HATCH, GRASSLEY, LINCOLN, and BINGAMAN, in introducing the legislation that addressed geographic inequities for physician services by changes to the physician reimbursement formulas.

As many of our colleagues are aware, Senator GRASSLEY fought to include these rural provisions in the recent tax bill that was signed by the President. And although I strongly disagreed with enacting further tax cuts, I was doubly disappointed to see the rural health provisions stripped out in the conference with the House. These unfair geographic differences in reimbursement rates have gone on far too long, and I am especially pleased to see reimbursement issues for rural providers getting the attention they deserve—including the commitment from the President to my friend from Iowa pledging his support for rural health relief as part of the effort we have underway. I am, therefore, very pleased to see that these provisions are included in the chairman’s mark and are now part of this bill.

I am also glad that Chairman GRASSLEY and Ranking Member BAUCUS have worked with me to address another inequity in the system. Critical access hospitals provide care in the most remote regions of my State of Vermont and all other rural States. These hospitals are small, yet serve as critical resources to their communities. The managers have agreed to include a provision in their amendment that will make a technical correction to current law, allowing hospitals like the Mt. Ascutney Hospital in Windsor, VT, to expand access to psychiatric and rehabilitative services to the most vulnerable citizens in that community.

I would also like to speak today in support of a provision in this bill that establishes Medicare demonstration programs to improve health care quality. I heard my friend from Montana speak yesterday about quality and geographic disparities, and I know how committed he is to improving the quality of services delivered under Medicare. Earlier in this Congress, I was pleased that Senators FRIST, BEAU, and GREGG joined me in introducing S. 1148, the Medicare Quality Improvement Act. I want to thank Chairman

GRASSLEY and Ranking Member BAUCUS for including this provision in this bill.

I became concerned about the issue of health care quality after reading the work of Dr. Jack Wennberg of Dartmouth, which has shown that higher levels of Medicare spending do not lead to better health outcomes. Let me repeat this finding. Higher levels of Medicare spending do not lead to better health outcomes. Instead, spending tends to vary by region—generally reflecting the availability of physicians and hospitals—rather than the health or needs of the population.

I have followed Dr. Wennberg's work for a very long time. One of his early studies looked at rates of surgical procedures at Vermont hospitals. He found that communities in Vermont that had many more medical procedures were not necessarily healthier. I saw how this result led Vermont health care providers to join with the business community in achieving high quality, supportable outcomes. I also saw how our State government used this effort to improve health care across our State. Today, I am happy to say that Vermonters enjoy some of the highest quality health care in the United States, at a cost that is among the lowest in the country.

As we prepare to vote for the bill before us, I think it is critically important for us to consider some of the lessons learned from Vermont. Some of my colleagues have expressed concern about the costs of the bill before us. Others have expressed concern that the bill does not go far enough. The quality demonstration program in this bill will give us some of the answers we need to these funding questions.

The need for these demonstrations is critical. RAND Health published a study today in the New England Journal of Medicine that describes the problems with overuse and underuse of needed medical care services in the United States. The RAND study will make it clear that every American is at risk—not only for failing to receive needed medical care, but also for receiving care that is not needed and may even be harmful. This is a problem that belongs to each and every one of us, and we must find ways to fix it.

The legislation before us closes a significant gap in the health benefit package available to our Nation's seniors. However, providing coverage for health care services is not enough. We must do a better job of ensuring that people are getting the care they need, and also that they need the care they get.

In closing, I would like to urge my colleagues from both sides of the aisle to support this bill as we move forward. This bill will establish a drug benefit that is universal, comprehensive, affordable, and sustainable. This bill restores necessary and long-needed fairness to our physicians and providers in rural areas. And, the bill will improve the quality of care offered under Medicare.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, over the last 2 weeks the Senate has debated the most significant changes to the Medicare Program since it was created in 1965. Today, we passed this legislation by a 76 to 21 vote, and I would like to take a few minutes to explain why I supported this bill.

This bill will, for the first time, provide the option of modest prescription drug coverage for nearly 39 million Medicare beneficiaries, including about 103,000 beneficiaries in North Dakota. It is also intended to give Medicare beneficiaries more choices of health plans. And it takes significant steps towards equalizing the Medicare payments that rural health care providers receive, compared to their urban counterparts.

There is no question that, if Medicare were being created today, it would include prescription drug coverage. Prescription medicines are a vital part of modern medicine. Last year alone, pharmaceutical companies introduced 26 new prescription medicines into the marketplace. But these advancements in medicine mean little if Americans cannot afford to access them. That is especially true for senior citizens who have reached their declining income years.

For years now, Congress has been debating proposals to add a prescription drug benefit to Medicare. Unfortunately, however, in past years we have not been able to reach agreement on just how to do this. With each passing year, older Americans continue to struggle to pay for their medicine. In North Dakota, about 48,000 Medicare beneficiaries have no prescription drug coverage, and many more have limited drug coverage. I hear from North Dakota seniors regularly who tell me that they have to choose between taking the medicines their doctor prescribed for them and other necessities such as food and heat.

These older North Dakotans say that they want and need Medicare drug coverage, and they want and need it now. If Congress doesn't enact legislation this year, chances are that several more years will go by before there is another serious opportunity to consider this issue. In other words, we could pass the legislation before the Senate today or we could do nothing for yet another year. In my judgment, doing nothing is not an option.

The prescription drug benefit in this bill is not as helpful to seniors as I would like or as generous as I think Medicare beneficiaries deserve—but it is a start.

Frankly, I think our budget priorities have been wrong. If I had my way, Congress would have reduced the size of the tax cuts for the very wealthy and instead set aside more money for improving and modernizing Medicare. During the Senate's debate earlier this year on the budget, I offered an amendment to set aside a total of $620 billion over the next 10 years for a Medicare prescription drug benefit. This is the amount of funding I felt was needed to provide a more generous and reliable benefit. Unfortunately, the majority in the Senate rejected my amendment, so we are limited to a package of just $400 billion over 10 years. When you consider that Medicare beneficiaries are projected to spend $1.8 trillion on prescription drugs over the next 10 years, it is impossible to develop a robust benefit within the $400 billion budget constraint, in my judgment.

The benefit provided for in this legislation is better than that which President Bush proposed in several key respects. Most importantly, this bill will not force seniors to leave the traditional Medicare Program—and the doctors they depend on—in order to get the prescription drug coverage they also need. I could not support a bill that coerces seniors out of the traditional Medicare Program that virtually all of North Dakota's Medicare beneficiaries rely on.

In addition, this bill provides extra assistance above the basic drug benefit for those older or disabled beneficiaries who have low incomes or very high drug expenses. Medicare beneficiaries with incomes below about $14,400 for individuals and $19,400 for couples—about 40 percent of North Dakota's beneficiaries—would qualify for extra assistance. And those with the highest drug costs—totaling more than about $5,800—would qualify for the catastrophic drug coverage. About 7 percent of North Dakota Medicare beneficiaries would reach this threshold.

Despite these improvements over the President's proposal, there are other concerns that I worked to address during the Senate's debate. In some instances, we were able to make changes to address these concerns, and in other cases, those efforts were rejected. In those instances where concerns still exist, I intend to continue working to fix them in conference with the House of Representatives.

For instance, as I have already mentioned, I am concerned that this coverage is not as generous as it should be, and in fact, there are some holes in the coverage. Under this benefit, seniors will have to reach a $275 deductible before their Medicare drug coverage starts. In addition, seniors whose drug expenses reach $4,500 will have to pay 100 percent of their drug costs between $4,501 and $5,800. Then, when their drug spending reaches $5,800, the catastrophic drug coverage will kick in and Medicare will pay 90 percent of their drug expenses after that. This means that there could be periods—in some cases as much as 3 months—when Medicare beneficiaries will have paid a premium for drug coverage but will be getting no benefit.

That makes no sense to me. No other insurance plans that I am aware of include such gaps in coverage. I supported various amendments on the Senate floor to close these coverage gaps or at least ensure that seniors don't have to pay premiums for the periods when they aren't receiving coverage. Regrettably, however, those efforts were rejected.

I am also concerned that rural Medicare beneficiaries may not receive a benefit that is as stable or as generous as other beneficiaries receive. This bill envisions that seniors will basically have two options for receiving drug coverage. First, this bill creates a new Medicare Advantage Program through which beneficiaries could choose to get their drug coverage, as well as the rest of their medical care, through an HMO or a PPO. Frankly, however, I am very skeptical that HMOs or PPOs will want to serve rural areas, and even if they do, I don't think most North Dakota beneficiaries will want to leave the traditional Medicare Program.

Those seniors who want to remain in the traditional Medicare Program will be able to do so and get their prescription drug coverage through private "drug only" insurance plans. Budget experts estimate that Medicare beneficiaries who sign up for these drug-only plans will pay an average monthly premium of about $35. However, this is only an estimate, and the actual premium that seniors pay could vary substantially from area to area. That is already the case in the current Medicare HMO program—for instance, a Medicare HMO with drug coverage currently charges $99 per month in Connecticut and only $16 a month in Florida. I am worried that it would be rural seniors who would pay the highest premiums, even though they paid the same Medicare payroll taxes as other beneficiaries.

To address this concern, I supported an amendment by Senator DASCHLE that would have limited the variation in premiums to only 10 percent above the national average, no matter where beneficiaries live. In other words, insurance companies could charge beneficiaries a lower premium but they couldn't charge them more than 10 percent above the national average. Unfortunately, however, Senator DASCHLE's amendment was rejected.

In areas where there are not at least two private drug-only plans offered to Medicare beneficiaries in any given year, Medicare would step in and ensure that there is a "fallback" plan available. This is a vital guarantee for beneficiaries in rural States like North Dakota where I believe it is unlikely that there will be two stable drug-only plans available. But even with this fallback plan, seniors could still be bounced back and forth between different plans, depending on how private plans move in and out of an area.

I supported an amendment that would have addressed this concern by allowing all Medicare beneficiaries to choose the fallback option, no matter how many private plans are available where they live. When that amendment failed, I cosponsored an amendment with Senator CONRAD that would at least allow seniors who have the fallback option to remain in that plan for 2 years, not just 1 year. That amendment was also rejected.

Even though this bill doesn't require Medicare beneficiaries to leave traditional Medicare, I know there are some concerns that Medicare beneficiaries will be getting their drug coverage through private plans. I, too, would strongly have preferred that all seniors be able to choose from a Medicare-administered benefit.

However, let me say this if I felt that by structuring the drug coverage the way it is in this bill, we were undermining the entire underlying Medicare Program, I would not support it. Medicare has been a wonderful success, and in our efforts to modernize it, we should exercise extreme caution not to undermine it. However, virtually all of the major Medicare prescription drug proposals would have used a private entity in some way to provide the drug benefit. Indeed, the traditional Medicare Program currently contracts with private insurance companies to pay the millions of Medicare claims that come in each year. Furthermore, the Congressional Budget Office estimates that only 1 to 2 percent more beneficiaries will choose the new Medicare Advantage option, so it seems clear that the vast majority of seniors will continue to rely on the traditional Medicare Program for the bulk of their medical care.

One area where we had some success in improving the bill during the Senate's debate is in the area of reducing drug costs. This bill relies largely on private insurance companies to negotiate lower drug prices. However, we have seen from prior experience that insurance companies have not been able to keep drug spending from increasing by nearly double digits every year 9.7 percent in 2002, 17 percent in 2001, 18.8 percent in 2000, and 16 percent in 1999.

To help put downward pressure on drug prices, I offered an amendment that was passed by the Senate by a 62-to-28 vote to allow for the reimportation of lower-priced, FDA-approved medicines from Canada. As many North Dakotans know first hand, the same FDA-approved prescription drug that costs $1 in the United States costs only 62 cents in Canada, even though it is the exact same drug, in the same bottle, made by the same manufacturer.

It is not my intention with this amendment to require Americans to go to Canada in order to get lower drug prices. Rather, by allowing U.S. licensed pharmacists and drug distributors to do the importing for them, Americans can stay at home, and by breaking the monopoly that the drug companies currently have on drug pricing in this country, we will force a repricing of drugs here in the United States.

I also supported an amendment that will help to make more affordable generic drugs more readily available. Generic drugs are safe, effective, and lower priced alternatives to heavily advertised brand-name prescription drugs. Unfortunately, however, some of the big brand-name drug companies use loopholes in the patent laws to keep generic drugs off the market for longer than intended. This amendment, which passed the Senate by a 94-to-1 vote, will close these loopholes and thereby speed consumers' access to generic medicines.

I am also pleased that this bill improves Medicare's coverage of preventive services, especially by including a provision that I authored to provide for a cholesterol screening benefit for Medicare beneficiaries. I have felt for a long time that Medicare needs to do a better job of preventing disease, rather than just paying to treat it. In the case of cholesterol screening in particular, high cholesterol is one of the major, changeable risk factors for heart attacks, stroke and other cardiovascular diseases. Yet when Americans turn 65 and enter the Medicare Program, their coverage for cholesterol screening stops unless they already have cardiovascular disease. That makes no sense, and I am glad the Senate has taken steps to provide this coverage.

Finally, I am very happy that this bill includes a range of provisions that will make Medicare reimbursement more fair and equitable for our rural hospitals, physicians, and other health care providers. It is simply not right that Medicare has historically reimbursed urban health care providers at a much higher rate than their urban counterparts. This inequity in Medicare reimbursement has very real consequences for hospitals and clinics in rural States like ours. They have to reduce services, have greater difficulty recruiting staff, are less able to make capital improvements, struggle to give their patients access to the latest innovations in medical care, and in some instances, they even have to close.

I have been fighting for a long time to correct this inequity. In fact, some of the provisions in this bill are similar to legislation that I introduced in the Senate earlier this year, and I am glad they have been included in this bill.

I know there will be some who feel that this bill should have been rejected by the Senate because it relies too heavily on private plans and others because it does not place enough emphasis on enrolling seniors in private plans. Others will feel that the Medicare benefit is not generous enough, and some feel its coverage is too liberal. I agree that this legislation isn't perfect—far from it, in fact. In the coming months and years, I will continue working to improve it. But it is a start in the right direction, and that is why I have supported it.

The House of Representatives is also expected to pass its version of Medicare legislation this week. The House and the Senate will now need to have a conference committee to work out the differences between the two bills. I have some serious concerns about the House-passed bill. I hope these concerns and the concerns that I have with the Senate bill can be resolved in the final bill, so that we can send a bill to the President for his signature this year.

Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. I applaud my colleagues in working toward enactment of legislation to provide prescription drug coverage under Medicare. However, I am deeply concerned that the bill before us today would not ensure an affordable, guaranteed benefit that would cover seniors' outpatient prescription drug expenses.

Under this legislation, the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services would temporarily issue prescription drug discount cards for seniors until the drug benefit begins in 2006. At that time, all Medicare beneficiaries would receive a standard prescription drug benefit whether they remained in traditional fee-for-service or in a private plan. For a $275 deductible and an estimated $35 per month, 50 percent of a beneficiary's drug costs would be covered up to $4,500. A beneficiary would receive no coverage for drug costs between $4,501 and $5,800, though they are still responsible for paying the monthly premium during this coverage gap. Furthermore, any assistance provided by employer-sponsored plans or third parties on behalf of the beneficiary does not count toward the out-of-pocket costs. After drug expenses reach $5,801, the plan would cover 90% of drug expenses.

The bill creates a new Medicare Advantage program, which would replace Medicare+Choice, and create a new agency, the Center for Medicare Choices, CMC, with authority parallel to the existing Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The CMC would administer the Medicare Advantage program and the prescription drug plans. The drug plans would be administered through private plans, but when no private plans exist, the government would provide a fallback plan for seniors in fee-for-service. However, if a new private plan decides to enter an area, beneficiaries would again be forced to receive their coverage through that plan.

If this sounds terribly confusing, it is. One hundred Senators and their staffs found it difficult to work through this bill and understand exactly how the benefit would work. Seniors who don't sign up as soon as they are eligible are subject to a penalty similar to the penalty imposed on those who delay enrollment in Part B. It is unfair to expect seniors and their families to work through this web to make an informed decision.

The complexity of this drug plan is only one of numerous flaws with this bill. S. 1 does not provide a national fixed premium. The bill sets out an estimate of a $35 monthly premium, but there is no guarantee for seniors that they will not have to pay much more than that estimate.

The bill has the serious potential to cause a number of retirees to lose existing employer-sponsored prescription drug coverage. CBO estimates that as many as 37 percent of Medicare beneficiaries would lose existing coverage. This is an unacceptable consequence of legislation that is supposed to make life easier for seniors. This serious deficiency is the number one concern of constituents who have called into my office about this bill.

The bill before us leaves a large gap in coverage and forces seniors to continue premium coverage during that gap period. Seniors may have to face months without any assistance, waiting to reach the limit where catastrophic coverage begins. The seniors who fall into this coverage gap are among the most ill, with severe chronic conditions and prescription needs. It is difficult to support legislation that would cease coverage for prescription drugs for seniors at the very time when it is needed most.

Finally, because this proposal relies on private plans to deliver the drug benefit, seniors could be forced to shift from plan-to-plan, year-to-year as they did when Medicare+Choice HMOs pulled out of the Medicare program a few years ago. In my own State of Maryland, insurance companies left the Medicare program, abandoning more than 100,000 seniors.

This legislation makes our Nation's seniors the subject of an experiment to which none of us should be willing to subject our parents and grandparents. We don't know what the benefit is under this bill. We don't know how much it will cost. We don't know how private plans will participate and make a profit. We don't know how many seniors would lose existing coverage. What we know is we are prepared to spend approximately $400 billion over 10 years to create an inadequate drug benefit, a new bureaucracy, and subsidies for private insurance companies.

With modest additional resources, we could have closed the coverage gaps in this bill. Amendments offered by my colleagues to provide stability for seniors, move up the start date of the drug benefit, eliminate beneficiary premiums during the coverage gap period, and improve a variety of shortcomings have been defeated. We have lost so many opportunities to make this bill something all Medicare beneficiaries can support. I am hopeful that in the future we can improve upon this and create a system that is easier for seniors to understand, more affordable, and more reliable than what is offered today.

I want to highlight one amendment that would have provided Medicare beneficiaries with a substantial, reliable and straight-forward prescription drug benefit. I cosponsored and voted for this amendment offered by my colleague from Illinois, Senator DURBIN.

His alternative would have provided a Medicare-delivered drug benefit that allows the Secretary of HHS to employ negotiating strategies used by the VA and other government entities to bring down drug prices. Under Senator DURBIN's plan, seniors would have no deductible, pay only 30 percent of costs until reaching the catastrophic limit, and face no coverage gap. In addition, employer contributions would count toward out-of-pocket limits so there would be much less risk of employers dropping retiree coverage. This was the proposal we should be working from today, but unfortunately the Durbin alternative was defeated by a vote of 56 to 39.

Those opposed to providing a richer benefit argue we don't have the money. The selective amnesia of these so-called fiscal conservatives is baffling. Not too long ago, this body passed a tax cut that primarily benefited the wealthiest Americans. Where was their sense of fiscal responsibility then? As my colleagues Senators DURBIN and HARKIN noted yesterday, this is about priorities. I'm sure others have raised this very good point as well. We can risk greater budget deficits to give huge tax cuts to Americans who are already prospering, but we cannot provide the necessary resources for millions of Medicare beneficiaries to get an affordable, reliable drug benefit that they can understand?

I have long been a strong supporter of providing older Americans and disabled individuals who rely on Medicare an affordable, comprehensive, reliable and voluntary prescription drug benefit. However, I want to ensure we do so in a way that does not worsen the situation in which many seniors find themselves as they face rapidly rising drug costs. As we consider proposals to expand our Nation's major health entitlement programs, it is appropriate to follow a guiding principle in the practice of medicine—do no harm. Our seniors deserve a drug benefit that is a real improvement, not a complex experiment that may cause more trouble than it's worth. We must not enact a law intended to help that might eventually harm millions. The American people deserve better.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, for over 35 years, Medicare has been a savior for our seniors citizens. It has helped pay their doctor bills, their hospital bills, and their home health bills.

But it has not paid for their prescription drug bills, and millions of seniors across the country have been waiting a long time for the day when prescription drug coverage is offered through Medicare. That day is getting closer.

I am supporting—and the Senate will soon pass—a Medicare prescription drug benefit.

Let me tell you why this is important. In California, four million people are enrolled in Medicare. Every day, far too many of them are forced into the difficult choice of paying for their prescriptions or putting food on the table.

I want to tell you a few of their stories.

I recently heard from a California woman who told me she struggles to survive on $950 a month income. She cannot, she says, afford all of her prescription drugs. She is, unfortunately, all too typical.

A constituent from San Marcos, CA told me that her annual costs for prescription drugs this year will top $10,000.

Another constituent from Indio, CA told me that she has made five trips to Mexico over the last several years to purchase her prescriptions. She drives all day long to Mexico in order to purchase affordable heart medication. She wanted me to remind my colleagues that "thousands of seniors are forced to do this."

A retired physician from Marina Del Rey told me that a pill he takes for his heart disease has gone up 600 percent from $15 per month to $85.

These seniors—all of our seniors—need and deserve to have Medicare help pay for their prescription drugs. We need to end this situation where seniors are cutting their pills in half or forgoing their medications altogether or skipping meals in order to pay for their prescription drugs. That is unacceptable.

Today, we are making a prescription drug benefit a part of Medicare. And that is why I am supporting this bill—because, at long last, it puts a Medicare prescription drug benefit on the books.

But, this bill is wanting. It has problems. And I have voted for amendment after amendment to fix those problems.

I offered an amendment to close the benefit shutdown. Under this bill, even when seniors have paid and continue to pay premiums, Medicare stops covering prescription drugs, forcing seniors to pay the entire cost. When that failed, I offered an amendment to ensure that seniors with cancer would never have their benefit stopped.

I supported an amendment by Senator STABENOW to ensure that all seniors could get prescription drug coverage from Medicare itself—the tried and proven system—rather than from a private insurance company.

I supported an amendment by Senator GRAHAM to stop charging seniors premiums when they are not getting any benefits.

I supported an amendment by Senator LAUTENBERG to start this benefit next year not 2 and a half years from now.

I supported an amendment by Senator DODD to encourage employers not to drop their retiree health coverage so seniors who have good coverage can keep it. And the Levin amendment, which I also supported, would have ensured that if employers did drop such coverage, Medicare would be there to provide prescription drugs.

I supported an amendment by Senator DORGAN to reduce the premiums that beneficiaries must pay each month. And I supported an amendment by Senator DASCHLE to limit the disparities in premiums so that seniors in different parts of the country are not paying different premiums for the same benefit.

These amendments would have made the Medicare drug benefit a better drug benefit for seniors. Unfortunately, none of them passed.

But we should not—and I will not—stop trying to make it the best benefit it can be.

The good news is that Medicare will soon, for the first time ever, cover prescription drugs. The better news will be when we fix the problems with this bill and improve the coverage for our seniors. I look forward to the day when enough of my colleagues will join me in that effort.

Finally, let me say that I hope the conference report on this bill—the final version of the bill before it goes to the President—does not come back to the Senate in a way that would provide even less help to seniors or in a way that would undermine the entire Medicare program.

Ms. MIKULSKI. Mr. President, senior citizens are facing a crisis—a crisis in affording health care and a crisis in affording prescription drugs.

I have been in communities all over Maryland. Listening to seniors who are desperate. Listening to their families in the diners—who want to help their parents, yet face stresses of their own. Listening to the employers in the boardrooms—who want to help their retirees, but can no longer afford to.

Here is what they tell me. They say: We need a prescription drug benefit in Medicare. We need a safety net for seniors and families. Congress must enact a Medicare prescription drug benefit, and must do it now.

I absolutely agree. It is time Congress made Medicare prescription drug coverage a national priority.

For so many years, Congress has talked about prescription drugs and Medicare. Talk, talk, talk. You can't talk yourself out of high cholesterol; you need Lipitor. You can't talk your way out of diabetes; you need insulin.

The problem with the Senate is—when all gets said and done—more gets said than gets done. Finally—the Congress is acting.

Here are my principles. These principles are the yardstick by which I measure any proposal.

The benefit must be for seniors, not for insurance companies. That means the cornerstone must be Medicare. This bill does that. It does not force seniors to give up the Medicare they love to get the drugs they need.

It must help the majority of Marylanders. I work for Marylanders. So I did the numbers—570,000 Marylanders are on Medicare. According to Johns Hopkins, 68 percent of these seniors would benefit from this legislation. That means 394,000 would benefit from this bill.

It must be voluntary. And the answer is, yes, this bill is voluntary. No one should be coerced or forced into a private program or forced to give up coverage they currently have.

It must be affordable. I am not so sure. I am concerned about the significant deductible—$275 a year and the hefty premiums—almost $400 a year. It also has a coverage gap. Once you spend $4,500 a year—you get no help until you spend $5,800. This will cost too much. That is why I supported the Durbin amendment, which would have provided a better benefit at less cost to seniors.

It must be accessible. It must be available to all seniors, regardless of where they live. This bill does that.

It must be meaningful. It must cover the kind of drugs your doctor says you need, not what an insurance executive thinks you should get. This bill does that by creating a medical necessity override. This means your doctor has the final say on which drugs you get, not an insurance company. I feel pretty good about that.

I tried to improve the bill. I voted for amendments to improve the bill. For example: For the Durbin substitute which would have created a stronger, more comprehensive benefit at a lower cost to seniors.

For an amendment to get rid of the coverage gap. This would guarantee that seniors would have continuous coverage for their prescription drug costs.

For an amendment to provide seniors with a guaranteed prescription plan that is under Medicare. This would allow seniors to stay in a prescription drug plan that is operated by Medicare and not have to move in and out of private plans and a Medicare fallback plan that is only available when the private plans leave the market.

For amendments to protect the benefits of retirees who already have drug coverage. These amendments would help employers to continue to be able to offer quality health care to their retirees.

For an amendment to implement the drug benefit next year—instead of waiting until 2006 to start these benefits.

I am sorry all these amendments failed on party line votes.

This legislation is a beginning. It is something we can build on. What it comes down to for me is—will it help the majority of seniors in Maryland? The answer is, yes; it will help over 394,000 people. For people who spend at least $1,110 a year on prescription drugs—it will help. For someone who is facing a catastrophic disease like cancer and has very high drug costs—it will help. So I will vote for this bill. It is not the bill I want. Yet we can't let the perfect be the enemy of the good. We can't do nothing—as seniors struggle to pay for the drugs they need.

But let me be very clear, this is as far as I will go. If this bill comes back from conference and it is a benefit for insurance companies—say goodbye to my vote. If it increases costs for seniors, say goodbye to my vote. If it cuts benefits, say goodbye to my vote.

So I will vote for this legislation tonight because I don't want to say goodbye to this opportunity to provide a Medicare prescription drug benefit for seniors.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I rise today in opposition to the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003.

The Senate has spent the last 2 weeks debating how to help our Nation's senior citizens afford their prescription drugs. The Kaiser Family Foundation estimates that average annual out-of-pocket drug spending for Medicare beneficiaries grew from $644 3 years ago to $999 this year and will reach $1,454 by the time this bill takes effect in 2006. As a result, 25 percent of seniors without drug coverage declined to fill a prescription and 27 percent of seniors without drug coverage skipped doses to make their prescriptions last longer. This is unacceptable. These citizens deserve affordable, comprehensive, and reliable drug coverage. Unfortunately, the legislation now before us fails to provide sufficient coverage.

From the outset this proposal will confuse seniors. Enrollees in private plans better not get too comfortable because their plans could be gone in 2 years if the HMOs find them unprofitable just like they have with Medicare+Choice in my state of South Carolina. The same goes for enrollees in fallback plans. They will be kicked out of their plan in as early as a year if enough private plans enter their area. This volatile system could force seniors to move in between three separate plans, with three separate formularies, in 3 years. This bill should create a sense of stability in the system and reduce the confusion over coverage. That is why I supported first the Stabenow amendment and then the Lincoln-Conrad amendment, which would have extended the availability of fallback plans to ensure that seniors will have access to stable drug coverage.

Senior citizens will need to hire an accountant just to comprehend the benefits available to them under this legislation. Once seniors select their Medicare drug plan, they will have to maneuver a maze of premiums, deductibles and copayments for benefits that contain huge gaps in coverage. On top of their premiums, which will vary from region to region and plan to plan, seniors will get no help for the first $275 of their drug costs, pay half of costs from $276 to $4,500, pay all the costs from $4,501 to at least $5,813, and then pay a tenth of costs above $5,288. With a breakeven point of $1,115, many healthier Medicare beneficiaries will opt not to participate. With a coverage gap of $1,302, many of the sickest patients will still have to continue paying premiums even though they may have to resort to rationing their care until they can spend their way out of the "doughnut."

Once again, the Senate defeated a number of amendments that I supported that would have brought much needed simplicity and fairness to the bill including the Boxer amendment, which would have closed the coverage gap for all seniors, and the Daschle amendment, which would have limited the regional variation among premiums to 110 percent of the national average. Finally, we chose to provide $13 billion in new subsidies to PPOs and HMOs instead of using that money to reduce premiums or fill in the coverage gap for cancer or Alzheimer's patients. All in all, the bill provides Medicare beneficiaries with a benefit valued at about $1,000 less than the drug coverage available to Federal employees.

This is a plan only Washington could dream up. It should come as no surprise that the authors of this convoluted mess and their friends in the White House have decided to wait until after the 2004 election before allowing Medicare beneficiaries to see what they are in for.

I should also note that this Nation is more than $6.6 trillion in debt. This bill is part of budget resolution and economic plan that will run up an average deficit of $600 billion a year for the next 10 years. Make no mistake about it, we will borrow every red cent to pay for this program. And what do we get in return? Massive subsidies for HMOs, spotty drug coverage for senior citizens, and a lack of attention to the factors driving the rapid increase of health care costs in this country. If we are going to borrow from future generations to pay for this benefit, we should get it right.

Now that we have disposed of all amendments and final passage appears imminent, I have concluded taxpayers and Medicare beneficiaries would be better served if we go back to the drawing board. We should come back with a proposal with affordable premiums and cost sharing requirements with no gaps in coverage that is administered in a manner that gives seniors the same sense of security they receive under the current Medicare program. I have heard many of my colleagues say this is an important first step and it is important that we get something on the books. Nonsense. Thirty months will pass before the first beneficiary receives coverage. That was enough time to draft and ratify the Constitution. It was enough time to complete the Manhattan Project. Thirty months should be more than enough time for us to create a real, meaningful prescription drug benefit for our senior citizens.

I hope this body will have the wisdom to vote no and do this right.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I will vote for passage of the Medicare prescription drug bill that has been debated over the past several weeks.

I do so, however, with great reservations about many of the provisions in the bill.

I am voting for this measure for two principal reasons.

First, I believe that we owe our seniors a Medicare prescription drug benefit. I believe such a benefit is long overdue for our Nation's seniors. For years we have promised them we would give them the crucial help they need with their skyrocketing prescription drug costs. And I believe that it is finally time to deliver on that promise.

It has taken Congress too many years to act on this pressing need. We have been debating for years about the best way to provide this benefit, and I am afraid that if we do not take the opportunity in front of us today, it will take us even longer to provide seniors the help they deserve. Our seniors cannot wait any longer.

The costs of prescription drugs are soaring, and the financial toll they take on our seniors means that too often seniors must choose between eating and taking the medication that will help them live productive, healthy lives. Our seniors should not have to make that choice. They contributed to the Medicare system over their lifetimes. That system, which is supposed to provide health care to all seniors, needs to be able to help them obtain the prescription drugs they need to preserve their health.

The second reason I am voting for this benefit is that it takes a big step in addressing what I see as one of the biggest flaws of the current Medicare system—the geographic inequities within the Medicare reimbursement system. We need to end Medicare's continued discrimination against Wisconsin's seniors. As I have previously discussed on this floor, Wisconsin seniors already receive the short end of the stick when it comes to Medicare. Wisconsinites pay the same payroll taxes to Medicare as all American workers do, but receive fewer benefits in return. Instead, Wisconsin's Medicare dollars are used to subsidize higher reimbursements in other parts of the country.

Wisconsin Medicare beneficiaries receive on average $4,318 in Medicare benefits per year, the eighth lowest in the country. By contrast, beneficiaries in the State with the greatest per capita reimbursement receive $7,209. This distribution of Medicare dollars among the 50 States is grossly unfair to Wisconsin. I thank the leadership of the Finance Committee for including provisions to begin to address this inequity in this prescription drug bill. But I know that we still have more to do to reverse the Medicare discrimination against States like Wisconsin.

I am pleased that key provisions have been accepted that greatly improve this bill. The Senate adopted the Gregg-Schumer-McCain-Kennedy amendment, which I was proud to co-sponsor and support, which will bring more competition to the prescription drug market by preventing pharmaceutical companies from blocking generic drugs from entering the market. This amendment is one of the only provisions that will help to bring cost savings to seniors.

By adopting Senator DORGAN's amendment relating to the reimportation of prescription drugs from Canada, the Senate will help seniors obtain affordable prescription drugs. This legislation helps both consumers who buy prescription drugs and businesses which sell them. I supported this provision, both in its earlier legislative form and in this amendment, because it is the right thing to do. Our seniors and other Americans in need of affordable prescription drugs deserve no less.

I also supported Senator ENZI's amendment, which passed overwhelmingly, that will make sure that community pharmacies, like the ones in my home State of Wisconsin, can still operate within this new prescription drug program. Smaller pharmacies will be protected from being shut out by larger pharmacies through this amendment, and that means helping seniors to access the prescription drugs they need in their own communities.

I also worked with Senator ALLARD on an amendment to provide regulatory relief for home health care providers that the Senate adopted. Our amendment enables home health care providers to spend more time with patients and less time on paperwork. This is particularly important at a time when some home health care providers are leaving the home health industry because of burdensome paperwork requirements.

And I am pleased that an amendment I offered to bring some clarity to the Medicare Program for our seniors was adopted. The Medicare Program is already full of bureaucratic red tape, often creating barriers for seniors looking for basic information about their health care options. This prescription drug benefit is the biggest expansion of the Medicare Program since its inception in 1965. We are adding an entire new part to the program, and we need to help guide our seniors through it.

My amendment is simple. It establishes a Medicare Beneficiary Advocate Office within the Department of Health and Human Services, with the sole function of providing clear information to all Medicare beneficiaries. The office will serve as a one-stop information source on all of Medicare for our seniors.

This new office will provide a toll-free phone number, a regularly updated website and regional publications that will give our seniors all of the information they need to make informed health care decisions.

That is the good news. But as I said earlier, I have many reservations about this bill. This is not the bill I would have proposed.

This bill does not go far enough to deliver on our promise to give seniors a meaningful prescription drug benefit. It fails to provide any assistance after a senior's prescription drug costs total $3,450, until they spend another $1,850 on prescription drugs, or $5,300 total. And it adds insult to injury by making beneficiaries continue to pay a premium even during the time they receive no benefit.

I am also troubled that this bill does not provide clear, uniform benefits and premiums for all seniors. Many aspects of the benefits provided in the bill remain uncertain, and will continue to remain uncertain after the plan goes into effect. Under this bill, the premiums are not defined. The premiums for the Medicare prescription drug plan will be dictated by the private insurers who will offer the plans. The only thing we know for sure is that the Congressional Budget Office estimates that the national average for premiums will be $35. However, those premiums may vary dramatically. Just look at Medicare HMO premiums. Medicare HMO premiums in Connecticut are $99, but in Florida they are only $16.

Who will offer the plans is also uncertain. There is no guarantee that plans will be offered in regions where there may not be enough profit. History again shows us that private companies do not always find rural and smaller urban areas profitable enough to move in. All too often, private companies that do move into less desirable Medicare markets end up deciding to leave the region, leaving Medicare beneficiaries scrambling to figure out where they will turn for coverage.

Furthermore, my understanding is that this plan only offers a guaranteed Medicare-administered plan, or "fallback plan," if there are less than two private plans in a region. This means that, if only one private plan offers a prescription drug benefit in the region that includes Almena, WI, a Medicare beneficiary living in Almena may instead choose the Medicare-administered fallback plan. While on the fallback plan, my Almena constituent would become familiar with the medications that are included in their formulary and the cost of their premiums. If a second private plan subsequently decides to move into that region, my understanding is that my constituent will be dropped from the Medicare fallback plan, and forced to join one of the private plans even if those plans have higher premiums, or do not include their prescriptions in their formularies.

Further, my Almena constituent can be forced to leave the plan that he or she has come to know, if that plan leaves the region. This leads to instability and uncertainty for seniors.

Benefits are also uncertain under this proposal. Again, benefit packages will be determined by the private insurers who offer the plans. And we can assume, from experience with the Medicare+Choice Program, that the benefits will vary widely. I am concerned about what this may mean for States like my home State of Wisconsin, States that have had a difficult time attracting and keeping private Medicare plans. Some Medicare prescription drug plans may be able to offer more brand name drugs at a lower cost to beneficiaries, while others in less profitable areas may limit the amount of brand name drugs they can offer at affordable rates.

I fear that as with Medicare HMOs, Wisconsin seniors may be faced with little choice with Medicare prescription drug plans.

And I am concerned that the uncertainty in this bill regarding monthly premiums, the possible differences in benefits packages and the stability of private plans that will deliver these benefits may lead to more inequity for Wisconsin seniors.

I was disappointed that Senator DURBIN's amendment, the MediSAVE Act, was not adopted in the Senate. Senator DURBIN's amendment, which I strongly supported, would have fixed most of the errors that exist in this bill. The MediSAVE Act would have made this benefit one that would truly help all seniors with all of their prescription drug benefit. Senator DURBIN's proposal offered a meaningful, enhanced prescription drug benefit that would have covered all seniors regardless of whether their prescription drug costs are high, low, or somewhere in between.

The MediSAVE Act not only put forth cost controls so that taxpayers as well as seniors could save money, but it also would have given seniors certainty. Seniors would have known exactly what their premiums and benefits were and would have the certainty of knowing that a Medicare-administered prescription drug benefit would be available to them, no matter what private plans were offered to them. Most importantly, the MediSAVE Act provided the certainty that a senior would have assistance with their prescription drug costs year-round and would never be caught in the so-called "donut hole" of coverage that this bill provides.

I am voting for this bill because something, some help for our seniors with their pressing prescription drug costs, is better than nothing. I will support this legislation with the intention of working with my colleagues over the next 2 years to improve this bill and finally deliver on our promise to give seniors a meaningful prescription drug benefit under Medicare.

Mr. JEFFORDS. Mr. President, this bill is a landmark piece of legislation the most significant modernization of the Medicare Program since its inception in 1965. Its passage by the Senate is a major accomplishment on the path toward enacting a prescription drug benefit for our Nation's seniors. It is the result of years of bipartisan, I might even say tripartisan, effort and it puts in place many long-sought changes. It has many significant features for the citizens of my home State of Vermont. It provides a sustainable, universal, and comprehensive prescription drug benefit. It guarantees access to traditional Medicare for all beneficiaries. It allows Medicare beneficiaries to participate, if they choose, in new systems of care that better reflect today's dynamic health care environment. The bill recognizes the high cost of providing quality care in rural settings and closes the reimbursement gap between rural providers and their urban counterparts. Finally, it contains a provision that will allow us to better understand how to provide quality health care—not care driven by using more and more resources, but instead one based on ensuring quality patient outcomes.

Over the past 2 weeks, I have applauded the work of my colleagues who have labored over this bill. Today, I have the pleasure of congratulating them on their success and thanking them for their efforts.

I have worked for more than 3 years with my good friends, Chairman GRASSLEY and Senators SNOWE, BREAUX, and HATCH. In many meetings over many months, we delved into the details of what came to be called the Tripartisan Bill. This has been one of the finest experiences of my many years in Congress. I am very proud to have been a part of that group and that our efforts led the way to our success today.

I especially want to salute the efforts of Senator BAUCUS and Senator KENNEDY without whose hard work and commitment to working through an agreement we would not have accomplished this remarkable victory, and they deserve our accolades.

A bill such as this is the result of great effort on the part of many different people who are not elected to this body, but upon whom we all rely. I would like to recognize the staff members who have worked so hard on this bill and deserve much of the credit for its successful passage.

On Senator GRASSLEY's staff: Ted Tottman, Linda Fishman, Colin Roskey, Mark Hayes, Jennifer Bell, and Leah Kegler, and on Senator BAUCUS' staff Jeff Forbes, Liz Fowler, Jon Blum, Pat Bousliman, Kate Kirschgraber, and Andrea Cohen deserve considerable recognition for their tireless efforts. Catherine Finley, Tom Geier, and Carolyn Holmes from my friend Senator SNOWE's staff; Patricia DeLoatch and Trechia Knight of Senator HATCH's office; and most especially Senator BREAUX's legislative director Sarah Walters deserve enormous credit for this bill. Finally, we would not be claiming a victory today if it were not for the contributions of Senator KENNEDY's staff, especially, David Nexon and Michael Meyers.

On my own staff, I particularly want to recognize the contributions of Paul Harrington during the last Congress, and most especially the work of Sean Donohue who took up that effort on the tripartisan bill and who has continued to see it through to today's success, with the recent assistance of Daniel Crimmins, our Robert Wood Johnson Health Policy Fellow. Each and all have worked tirelessly to gather the input, analyze the issues, and build a consensus toward achieving this final product.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I support making a prescription drug benefit available to seniors. Most Members of the Senate do. However, there are honest disagreements about how to get it done and whether the bill before us will strengthen or weaken Medicare.

My principles are simple. The benefit should be voluntary, guaranteed, universal, and affordable.

Perhaps my greatest concern with the bill before us is the effect its passage is likely to have on retirees who currently have prescription drug coverage provided by their former employers. Many retirees currently enjoy good prescription drug coverage from their former employer. However, the Congressional Budget Office has indicated that if we adopt the legislation before us approximately 37 percent of retirees who are currently receiving prescription drug coverage from their former employers will lose that coverage. Specifically, on June 12, the Director of the Congressional Budget Office, CBO, Mr. Douglas Holtz-Eakin, who previously served for 18 months as chief economist for President Bush's Council of Economic Advisers, testified at a Finance Committee markup that 37 percent of retirees would be dropped from their former employers coverage. At that same markup, the Administrator of HHS' Center of Medicare and Medicaid Services, CMS, Mr. Tom Scully, stated that for current retirees "who have employer-sponsored insurance, our estimate is consistent with 37 percent having their coverage dropped." During the debate so far, amendments to strengthen incentives for employers to maintain their prescription drug coverage for their retirees have failed.

Also very troubling is what I call the yo-yo effect. To participate in the proposed plan, a senior in any service area where two or more private plans are offered, no matter what the premium, would only have the option of purchasing private insurance. The reason is that only if there are not two private plans offered in the region is the so-called Medicare fallback plan available. So let's assume that there are two plans offered in 2006 in a particular service area and a senior opts in. Assume further that in 2008, one of the two insurance companies pulls out of the service area and the so-called Medicare fallback plan is then available. So the senior opts for the Medicare fallback plan. However, if two private plans become available a later time, say 2009, the Medicare fallback plan is no longer available to the senior and she would then be required to again enroll in one of the private plans to retain coverage. This yo-yo effect could be repeated forcing seniors to deal again and again with different programs with different costs and different benefits and lots of paperwork. This is totally unacceptable. Seniors want stability and continuity in their Medicare Program. They want a program on which they can trust and rely.

In addition, the legislation we are considering has a large gap in the prescription drug coverage. Once a senior's total drug spending reaches $4,500 for the year, she will have to pay 100 percent of the cost of their prescriptions until her total drug spending reaches $5,800. This has come to be called the donut hole. This coverage gap will leave many seniors to pay the full cost of prescriptions at a time when they most need assistance. I know of no other insurance program that is so unfairly structured in that way. There is a gaping hole in coverage but no gap in the requirement to pay premiums. That obligation continues even during the period that benefits are halted.

The bill before the Senate also has an unspecified premium that could fluctuate from service area to service area as well as from year to year. Premium amounts are left up to the insurance companies. I believe there should be a cap on those premiums. The effort to adopt one failed.

Adding a prescription drug benefit to Medicare is one of the most important things Congress can do this or any other year. We spend more on prescription drugs than we do on hospital costs. Members of Congress have been promising for years that we would pass a Medicare prescription drug benefit for seniors. The only way to assure that the benefit will be available reliably and without complications to our seniors is to make it a guaranteed part of Medicare. The bill before us falls short of that. We should at least do no harm. When CBO estimated 37 percent of seniors currently receiving a prescription drug benefit from their former employer are going to lose the benefit because of this legislation, that is real harm.

I hope the major flaws of this bill are somehow corrected in conference so I can vote for a conference report. But I cannot vote for the version before us.

Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I was pleased to join my colleagues, Senators BOXER, COLEMAN, LANDRIEU, KOHL & MURRAY in offering an amendment to authorize a Medicare demonstration project on pancreatic islet cell transplantation to help advance this tremendously important research that holds the promise of a cure for more than 1 million Americans with Type 1 or juvenile diabetes.

As the founder and cochair of the Senate Diabetes Caucus, I have learned a great deal about this serious disease and the difficulties and heartbreak that it causes for so many Americans and their families as they await a cure. Earlier this week, I had the privilege of chairing a hearing featuring young delegates from the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation's Children's Congress who had traveled to Washington from every State in the country to tell Congress what it is like to have diabetes, just how serious it is, and how important it is that we find a cure.

Diabetes is a devastating, lifelong condition that affects people of every age, race, and nationality. It is the leading cause of kidney failure, blindness in adults, and amputations not related to injury. Moreover, a study released by the American Diabetes Association earlier this year estimates that diabetes cost the Nation $132 billion last year and that health spending for people with diabetes is almost double what it would be if they did not have diabetes.

The burden of diabetes is particularly heavy for people with juvenile diabetes. Juvenile diabetes is the second most common chronic disease affecting children. Moreover, it is one that they never outgrow.

In individuals with juvenile diabetes, the body's immune system attacks the pancreas and destroys the islet cells that produce insulin. While the discovery of insulin was a landmark breakthrough in the treatment of people with diabetes, it is not a cure, and people with juvenile diabetes face the constant threat of developing life-threatening complications as well as a drastic reduction in their quality of life.

Thankfully, there is good news for people with diabetes. We have seen some tremendous breakthroughs in diabetes research in recent years, and I am convinced that diabetes is a disease that can be cured and will be cured.

I am encouraged by the development of the Edmonton Protocol, an experimental treatment developed at the University of Alberta involving the transplantation of insulin-producing pancreatic islet cells, which has been hailed as the most important advance in diabetes research since the discovery of insulin in 1921. Of the 257 patients who have been treated using variations of the Edmonton Protocol, all have seen a reversal of their life-disabling hypoglycemia, and 80 percent have maintained normal glucose levels without insulin shots for more than 1 year. Amazingly, many of the transplant recipients have even reported a reversal of some of their complications, such as improved vision and less pain from neuropathy.

Earlier this year, I joined with my colleague from Washington, Senator PATTY MURRAY, as well as my colleague and cochair of the Senate Diabetes Caucus, Senator JOHN BREAU, in introducing the Pancreatic Islet Cell Transplantation Act of 2003, which will help to advance this significant research that holds the promise of a cure for the more than 1 million Americans with juvenile diabetes. The amendment we are introducing today is based on one of the provisions of that bill, which currently has 43 Senate cosponsors.

Diabetes is the most common cause of kidney failure, accounting for 40 percent of new cases, and a significant percentage of individuals with Type 1 diabetes will experience kidney failure and become Medicare-eligible before they are 65. Medicare currently covers both kidney transplants and simultaneous pancreas-kidney transplants for these individuals. To help Medicare determine whether it should cover pancreatic islet cell transplants, the amendment authorizes a 5-year demonstration project to test the efficacy of pancreatic islet cell transplantation for individuals with Type 1 diabetes who are eligible for Medicare because they have end-stage renal disease, ESRD.

The cost of this demonstration would not be high. The Health Strategies Consultancy LLC, a highly regarded independent health policy firm, estimates that the net Federal cost of the proposal would be about $6.2 million in 2004 and about $84 million over 10 years.

The cost of the demonstration project is low because the number of islet cell transplants that could be performed is limited. Islet cells are extracted from a donated pancreas, and the number of pancreas donors is extremely small when compared to the number of Medicare beneficiaries who could benefit from islet cell transplants. In 2002, there were 1,875 pancreas donations, but there were over 27,000 Medicare beneficiaries who have diabetes as the primary cause of their end-stage renal disease and who might potentially benefit from islet cell transplants.

The Health Strategies' cost estimate does not include the financial benefits that would accrue to Medicare for the reduced medical care costs that would occur for beneficiaries who receive islet cell transplants and, as a result, suffer fewer diabetes-related complications such as kidney failure, heart disease, blindness and amputation. Since diabetes currently accounts for one out of every four Medicare dollars, I believe that this amendment actually holds much promise for reducing Medicare spending in the future.

I understand this demonstration project has been included in the Medicare prescription drug legislation that is being considered by the House. I hope that the Senate demonstrates similar wisdom, and I urge all of my colleagues to support it.

Mr. KOHL. Mr. President, I rise to oppose S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act. This bill is good for drug companies, insurance companies, and people who make TV ads for politicians—but it is not good for Wisconsin seniors.

I know that many of my colleagues will vote for this legislation and that it will pass the Senate. I know that many of my colleagues believe that this is a first step, if an imperfect one. I would like to agree with them. I would like to vote for a bipartisan compromise that delivers even a part of the drug benefit our seniors rightly demand. But this is not that bill. This is, instead, an empty promise of straightforward help for seniors struggling with crippling drug costs. When they figure out the details—when they see the costs—when they understand the limited benefit provided—when they work through the complicated formulas determining whether they ought to sign up—when they see the drug industry continue to raise their prices and reap record profits—they will—rightly, rightly—revolt.

I warn my colleagues, this is no bird in the hand—it is a vulture. And I cannot support it.

I cannot support a so-called benefit that asks many seniors, for months at a time, to pay premiums but receive absolutely no help with their drug costs. I cannot support a “benefit” that could cause up to 37 percent of retirees to lose their retiree health plans, leaving their former employees worse off than before we passed this bill. And I cannot support a “benefit” which is denied to low-income seniors eligible for both Medicaid and Medicare. A “benefit” of no benefit for seniors above average drug costs, for seniors with decent retiree plans, for seniors who are poor.

I also cannot support a plan that neither I nor anyone in this body can explain because its details depend on the vagaries of a private market that doesn't exist yet. Under this system, seniors could be forced into a different plan, pay a different premium, and have different medicines covered every year. Insurance companies can come in and out, leaving seniors lost and confused in a maze of paperwork and choices every year. And we know that for those insurance companies that do participate, premiums are sure to increase because there is no limitation on premiums in this law.

I also cannot support a plan that relies so heavily on the private sector to offer something they have never been willing to offer before. Drug-only plans are virtually nonexistent in today's marketplace. And the Medicare+Choice experiment, which also uses private insurance companies, has not worked in Wisconsin and in many other States. I cannot support a plan that has to pay insurance companies huge subsidies in order to offer a drug benefit. Not only is there no guarantee that they will participate; but precious Medicare dollars that could be used to pay directly for medicines are wasted, funneled to a drug industry that, last I checked, was not in need of a Federal handout. Even worse, this plan does not take advantage of the potential for controlling drug costs by utilizing the purchasing power of the millions of Medicare beneficiaries.

I do not want to point out that aside from the Medicare drug benefit, there are several provisions that I strongly in this bill. I am very pleased that the bill includes long-needed reforms that will finally take a strong step toward fixing the distorted Medicare system we have today—a system that penalizes Wisconsin health care providers by paying them less than other States, and a system that penalizes Wisconsin seniors by offering them fewer benefits than seniors in other States enjoy. Not only is this unfair for people in the Medicare system; it also increases costs for Wisconsin businesses, employees, and families, who pay higher costs to make up the Medicare shortfall. The bill before us changes many of Medicare's payment systems, especially for rural areas, and goes a long way toward making Medicare fair for seniors and providers, no matter where they live.

I am also pleased that the bill includes provisions to make generic drugs more available to all Americans. It will close loopholes in our current law that keep generics off the market and keep drug prices too high for too long. The CBO estimates that this provision will save Americans $60 billion over 10 years.

I hope, but don't expect, that these two important provisions will survive the upcoming conference with the House of Representatives. And while I continue to hope that the conference will come back with a better Medicare drug benefit, I regret that it is unlikely to be the case. The House bill is in many ways even worse than the Senate bill before us.

Mr. President, I regret that none of the amendments that I supported during this debate prevailed. These amendments would have greatly improved this bill and provided a real prescription drug benefit to seniors—a benefit we could all have been proud of. Instead, this bill is an empty promise to seniors and the disabled on Medicare. This is not the kind of plan they have been asking for or have a right to expect. We could and should have done better. But at minimum, we could and should be able to hold our work here to the standard set in the Hippocratic Oath: do no harm. And we have failed. I yield the floor.

Ms. COLLINS. Mr. President, I want to thank the chairman of the Finance Committee for including provisions in S. 1 that will provide a measure of relief to rural health care providers, and in particular to home health agencies serving patients in rural areas. I am concerned, however, that the underlying bill does not go quite far enough and have filed an amendment with Senator BOND to increase the rural add-on payment for home health agencies to 10 percent. This was the amount of the payment prior to its expiration on April 1, and I believe it is the amount that is necessary to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services that they need.

Home health has become an increasingly important part of our health care system. The kinds of highly skilled—and often technically complex—services that our Nation's home health agencies provide have enabled millions of our most frail and vulnerable older persons to avoid hospitals and nursing homes and stay just where they want to be—in the comfort and security of their own homes.

Surveys have shown that the delivery of home health services in rural areas can be as much as 12 to 15 percent more costly because of the extra travel time required to cover long distances between patients, higher transportation expenses, and other factors. Because of the longer travel times, rural caregivers are unable to make as many visits in a day as their urban counterparts. Saundra Scott-Adams, the executive director of the Visiting Nurses of Aroostook in Aroostook County, ME, where I am from, tells me her agency covers 6,600 square miles with a population of only 72,000. Her costs are understandably much higher than the average agency due to the long distances her staff must drive to see clients. And, her staff is not able to see as many patients.

Agencies in rural areas are also frequently smaller than their urban counterparts, which means that their relative costs are higher due to smaller scale operations. Smaller agencies with fewer patients and fewer visits mean that fixed costs, particularly those associated with meeting regulatory requirements, are spread over a smaller number of patients and visits, increasing overall per-patient and per-visit costs.

Moreover, in many rural areas, home health agencies are the primary caregivers for homebound beneficiaries with limited access to transportation. These rural patients often require more time and care than their urban counterparts, and are understandably more expensive for agencies to serve. If the rural add-on payment is not reinstated, agencies may be forced to make decisions not to accept rural patients with greater care needs, and access will suffer further.

The loss of the rural add-on has already caused many agencies to reduce their service areas. Some are eliminating services altogether in remote areas. There are some counties in Montana, for example, that have no home health services. And agencies in my home State of Maine have had to eliminate delivery of services to some of our outlying islands.

If the 10 percent rural add-on payment is not restored, it will only put more pressure on rural home health agencies that are already operating on very narrow margins and could force more of these agencies to close. Many home health agencies operating in rural areas are the only home health providers in a vast geographic area. If any of these agencies are forced to close, the Medicare patients in that region will lose complete access to home care.

There is strong support in the Senate for restoring the rural add-on. Earlier this month, 55 Senators joined me in sending a letter to the chair and ranking member of the senate Finance Committee urging that they extend the 10 per cent rural add-on for home health agencies, and I ask unanimous consent that this letter be printed in the RECORD.

The chairman of the Finance Committee and his staff have been working with us to try to accommodate my amendment, and I am very appreciative of their efforts. I am hopeful that we will be able to work this out so that we will be able to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services that they need.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. SENATE,

Washington, DC, June 5, 2003.

Hon. CHARLES E. GRASSLEY, Chairman,
Hon. MAX BAUCUS, Ranking Member,
Senate Committee on Finance, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATORS GRASSLEY AND BAUCUS: Home health has become an increasingly important part of our health care system. The kinds of highly skilled and often technically complex services that our nation's home health agencies provide have enabled millions of our most frail and vulnerable older persons to avoid hospitals and nursing homes and stay just where they want to be—in the comfort and security of their own homes.

By the late 1990s, home health was the fastest growing component of Medicare spending. The rapid growth in home health spending understandably prompted the Congress and the Administration—as part of the Balanced Budget Act of 1997—to initiate changes that were intended to slow this growth in spending and make the program more cost-effective and efficient. These measures however, produced cuts in home health spending far beyond what Congress intended. Home health spending dropped to $10 billion in FY 2002, nearly half the 1997 amount, and it is clear that the savings goals set for home health in the Balanced Budget Act have not only been met, but far surpassed.

According to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO), the post-Balanced Budget Act reductions in home health spending totaled more than $72 billion between fiscal years 1998 and 2002. This is over four times the $16 billion that the CBO originally estimated for that time period and is a clear indication that the Medicare home health cutbacks have been far deeper than Congress intended.

As a consequence of these cutbacks, over 3,400 home health agencies nationwide have either closed or stopped serving Medicare beneficiaries. Moreover, the number of Medicare patients receiving home health care nationwide has dropped by 1.3 million—more than one-third. Which points to the central and most critical issue—cuts of this magnitude simply cannot be sustained without ultimately affecting patient care.

On October 1, 2002, home health agencies received an additional across-the-board cut in Medicare home health payments, and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services has dramatically reduced projections for home health spending under the Medicare program over the next ten years. We are concerned that any further cuts in payments for home health services simply cannot be sustained without affecting patient care, particularly for those Medicare beneficiaries with complex care requirements.

As you begin consideration of a Medicare modernization package, we urge that you avoid any further cuts in payments for home health services and preserve the full market basket update for payments for home health services for 2004. In addition, we urge that you extend the 10 percent add-on payment for home health services in rural areas that expired on April 1, 2003. Surveys have shown that the delivery of home health services in rural areas can be as much as 12 to 15 percent more costly because of the extra travel time required to cover long distances between patients, higher transportation expenses, and other factors. Extension of this add-on payment will therefore help to ensure that Medicare patients in rural areas continue to have access to the home health services they need.

Thank you for your consideration, and we look forward to working with you to ensure that elderly and disabled Americans continue to have access to quality home health services.

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I rise today to speak in support of S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act of 2003. However, I do so with great trepidation. While I intend to vote for the bill that is presently before the Senate, I believe that drastic changes are still necessary to make the benefit created by this legislation one that meets the needs of our senior citizens.

I am also deeply concerned that Members on the other side of the aisle—as well as those in the House of Representatives, and the administration—will attempt to move this bill in a destructive direction during conference. Let me reiterate what I said in an earlier statement on this issue: we must not approve any Medicare reform measure that would force seniors to join private plans in order to receive a more generous prescription drug benefit. Such a measure would signal an end to the Medicare Program as we know it and should be rejected out of hand. I urge my colleagues to protect the Medicare that our seniors have come to rely on, and I urge the President not to sign any bill that privatizes Medicare. If such changes are made, I will not hesitate to oppose the conference report.

Given these concerns, it is reasonable to ask why I am supporting this bill. The answer is quite simple—seniors in my home State of Connecticut and across the country have been waiting far too long for a prescription drug benefit under Medicare. And it is time that we in Congress heard them.

Over the past month I had the opportunity to convene a series of forums on senior health care in Connecticut in an attempt to frame the scope of this debate. At these forums I heard from my constituents on many matters regarding their health care. But the present lack of coverage for prescription drugs under the Medicare program was by far the issue raised most often.

At these forums I heard from seniors who literally could not afford to fill prescriptions called for by their doctors. I heard from elderly Medicare beneficiaries forced to choose between purchasing groceries or filling their prescriptions. I heard from seniors who were forced to skip dosages of their medicines in an attempt to stretch their limited supplies of needed medicines. I heard from Medicare beneficiaries requiring more than 10 prescribed medicines a day unable to afford even half of these prescriptions. Clearly, what I heard from hundreds of Connecticut's more than 500,000 Medicare beneficiaries is their grave concern over the present lack of a prescription drug benefit under the Medicare Program.

I believe that the legislation about to be approved by this body offers an answer to those concerns. It is not the most complete answer, but it is a start—based on which we can improve in the future. It is a start because it will make so many seniors better off than they are today. And that should be our ultimate goal as legislators—to make people's lives better. Often this must be done incrementally, in steps. This bill is a positive first step.

What do I mean when I say that it will make people better off? In Connecticut, one-third of all Medicare beneficiaries have incomes below 160 percent of poverty. For many of these seniors, drug costs can be crippling. They are forced to choose between putting food on the table, and buying the medicines that they need to live healthy lives. With the passage of this bill, these seniors will no longer have to make this choice. The new Medicare prescription drug benefit will cover most, if not all, of their drug costs. I congratulate Senator GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS, and other members of the Senate Finance Committee for including in this bill such a generous benefit for those low-income seniors.

This legislation is not as clear cut for those seniors who have incomes above 160 percent of poverty. However, I believe that the majority will be helped by passage of this bill. The break even for this benefit—the point where an individual is better off with the benefit rather than just paying for all prescription drugs out of their own pocket—is about $1,100 in total annual drug costs. The average Medicare beneficiary spends approximately $2,300 on prescription medicines today. That number will undoubtedly be higher when this new benefit goes into effect in 2006. With the benefit created by this bill, that average beneficiary will realize nearly $600 in savings. The savings will be even greater for the 11 percent of beneficiaries who spend more than $5,000 per year on prescription drugs.

These are the seniors facing the most severe health problems, and most in need of financial assistance. That is what this bill provides—even if it is not to the extent that many of us would have liked.

I am voting for this bill because so many seniors in Connecticut and throughout the country stand to benefit. However, no bill is perfect and S. 1 clearly still leaves much room for improvement even as it moves toward final Senate passage. I am particularly disheartened that, despite numerous attempts over the past 2 weeks, we have failed to address concerns over the present bill's lack of adequate provisions to ensure that those companies presently providing their retirees with prescription drug coverage receive adequate Federal support for their laudable efforts. While the creation of a prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program is laudable, it should not come at the price of displacing the employer-based benefits that so many seniors have come to rely on.

Additionally, I remain concerned that the gap in coverage in the present bill, the so-called donut hole, will leave many Medicare beneficiaries facing high prescription drug costs with no assistance at the very time when it is most needed. Over the past 2 weeks, I have both offered and supported amendments designed to provide assistance to those with prescription drug costs within the hole, especially those with lower incomes who can least afford any gap in coverage, that have failed to win support by the Senate. Failure to close this gap, in my view, constitutes a glaring failure, one that I hope can be reversed as this bill moves into conference.

I also am concerned that S. 1 fails to adequately protect Medicare beneficiaries from the very understandable confusion and uncertainty that may surround them just as they begin to navigate the intricacies of a brand-new program. Specifically, if enacted the underlying bill will require Medicare beneficiaries choosing a prescription drug plan to stay with that plan for a minimum of 1 year. With the enactment of such broad and weeping changes to the Medicare program, I am fearful that many Medicare beneficiaries will face great uncertainty trying to find the best plan to meet their particular needs. For this reason, I offered an amendment to S. 1 that would have simply granted Medicare beneficiaries navigating this new benefit for the very first time the ability to switch plans as they seek to determine which plan fits their particular health care needs in the first 2 years of the bill's benefit. Unfortunately, this amendment was not agreed to and I remain concerned that without its protections, senior Medicare beneficiaries will be unfairly locked into plans that do not meet their needs.

Mr. President, I am pleased that S. 1 represents a significant departure from previous plans supported by the administration that would have required Medicare beneficiaries to leave the traditional fee-for-service Medicare Program in order to receive coverage for their prescribed medicines. Such a move would be unconscionable as 89 percent of all Medicare beneficiaries today are in the traditional program. To force these beneficiaries to leave their present system of coverage, and most likely the doctor that they have come to know and trust, would not only create great disruption, it would also for the first time since the program's inception create a tiered benefit system under Medicare that would more greatly reward those who choose to join a private preferred provider organization, PPO, or health maintenance organization, HMO.

And while I am pleased that the bill before us soundly rejects a tiered benefit system, I am deeply concerned that the plan presently taking shape in the House of Representatives appears to rely on such a flawed plan. As I said earlier, such a measure should be soundly rejected.

So it is with great caution that we come to the final moments of debate on this important issue. Medicare's nearly 41 million beneficiaries clearly need assistance in affording their needed medicines. The result of our efforts over the past 2 weeks, and more important, the result of the coming conference committee on this legislation will greatly determine to what extent we assist our Nation's Medicare beneficiaries to afford their needed medicines.

Clearly, a great opportunity is presently before us. As the underlying bill moves to conference committee. I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure that we seize this opportunity by strengthening the underlying bill. With passage of the bill presently before us, we now face a choice. We can insist on the good start that we have made here with passage of S. 1, and work to strengthen its provisions. Or, conversely, we can accede to the House legislation that in my view unfairly jeopardizes the traditional Medicare Program by tilting the system in favor of risky privatization schemes and against seniors.

I ask my colleagues to join with me in working to ensure that any Medicare prescription drug legislation passed by this Congress is at least as strong as the bill we are about to vote on. A tilt toward the House-drafted language would signify not a strengthening of Medicare, but rather a weakening of this vital program's foundation and must be avoided at all costs.

Nearly 38 years ago on July 9, 1965, this body passed the legislation creating the Federal Medicare Program sending it to a conference committee with the House. On that day, President Lyndon Baines Johnson remarked, "This is a great day for older Americans. And it is a great day for America. For we have proved, once again, that the vitality of our democracy can shape the oldest of our values to the needs and obligations of today." Nearly four decades later, we are on the cusp of a similar challenge. Let us move Medicare toward the future without threatening its proven ability to provide for the health and well being of this Nation's senior citizens.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I am proud to mark this extraordinary day by coming to the floor of the Senate to celebrate the imminent passage of a prescription drug benefit for Medicare. This is a triumph not for a party or a President, but for America's seniors and their families. This is an incredibly hopeful day for all Americans who long for a national government that can get things done for people.

Thirty-eight years ago Congress voted to create a health care program that would be the primary source of health insurance for this Nation's seniors. Most people would agree that this program has served us well for almost four decades. However, the practice of medicine has changed. Drug therapies, medical devices, and human genome research all hold great hope for breaking through physical limitations that hinder many seniors' ability to enjoy the later years of life.

The question we now ask is what level of care are we going to provide our seniors and is the current system equipped to provide the type of care our seniors need and deserve.

The benefits provided under Medicare, considered generous at its inception in 1965, pale in comparison to those enjoyed by Federal employees and most workers in the private sector today. A recent report submitted by the Joint Economic Committee found that Medicare has the least generous benefit package among leading forms of insurance. Medicare covers 56 percent of total health care expenses, while typical employment-based health insurance covers 70 percent.

Seniors need prescription drug coverage. Seniors need better access to preventative care and disease management. Seniors need more choices in their health care options than they have today. Without updating, it may take years to add this kind of care to the current program—after all, it has taken over 30 years to add a prescription drug benefit.

The Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement bill is a step toward meeting the needs of this Nation's seniors.

This bill provides a solid drug benefit that will provide assistance to every senior struggling to pay for prescription drugs as well as the security of knowing they are covered for unforeseen drug expenses.

Under this plan, the average senior's annual drug costs will be reduced by 53 percent each year. That amounts to $1,677 each year back in the pocket of our seniors. And seniors with the greatest needs will receive additional assistance through increased cost-sharing, and reduced or waived monthly premiums and deductible.

Equally important, this plan provides seniors with the security of knowing that they are covered in the event something happens and they find themselves facing exorbitant drug costs. At $3,700 in out of pocket drug costs, stop-loss coverage kicks in and the senior is only responsible for 10 percent of costs beyond this amount.

This bill is also about expanding options for this generation and future generations of seniors. The incremental improvements to the Medicare program have largely been the result of legislative action over the last 40 years. The legislative process, however, is not a quick process, and it is simply not possible to keep the program current in the first parcel environment we currently live.

The Medicare Advantage program included in this bill offers seniors the choice of receiving their health care benefits in a Preferred Provider Organization, PPO, the same type of health plan enjoyed by many families.

Under this health care option—not mandate—seniors will have increased access to the latest advances in care such as desire management and better preventive screenings. Additionally, seniors who chose this option will also have a lower deductible for inpatient and hospital care than those in traditional Medicare.

This bill lays the foundation for a Medicare program that is better able to respond to an evolving health care system by harnessing the efficiencies of the health care market, while preserving traditional Medicare for those seniors who are satisfied with their current coverage.

This bill is about expanding options for seniors so our parents and grandparents have access to the type of care best suited for them.

Is this bill everything everyone wants? Of course not. Are there decisions still to be made as it is implemented and we see how it actually works in the marketplace? Certainly. But this bill says we are not going to let the lack of perfection stop us from doing real good for people as soon and as effectively as we practically can.

I would be remiss if I didn't express my appreciation to Senators GRASSLEY and BAUCUS for their leadership in including many provisions in this bill to strengthen rural health care.

The availability of health care in rural areas in Minnesota is absolutely critical to the stability and viability of many communities.

The provisions in this bill to improve payments to hospitals in rural areas and reduce the geographic disparity in physician payments are critical to ensuring that these hospitals that threat not only seniors, but entire communities continued to receive care.

I am pleased that we did not allow perfect to be the enemy of good as we considered this package.

This is a substantial and dependable benefit for America's seniors. Again, it's not everything everyone wants. There are still decisions to be made as it is implemented and we monitor how it works in the marketplace. But today we are delivering on a promise to provide quality care to our seniors.

I am hopeful that with bipartisan support this landmark legislation will pass the Senate and the House of Representatives by the July 4th holiday. When it does, there may not be any fireworks and parades but millions of seniors will be able to declare their independence from worrying about getting the prescription drugs they need to live a quality life.

Mr. BIDEN. Mr. President, after many years of preparation and deliberation, and following weeks of debate and discussion on the floor this year and last, we in the Senate are about to vote on a bill providing some prescription drug benefits for Medicare beneficiaries that is widely expected to pass.

Seniors have been demanding prescription drug coverage for many years now. They need it and they deserve it, and I believe what we should be passing here today is a bill that will bring the American people the type of prescription drug benefit they have been seeking—one that is easy to understand and use, one that covers a substantial portion of all their costs, and one that is affordable.

But to the many Medicare beneficiaries who will read the details of this bill and say, "there isn't much in here for me and it will cost me more than I am now paying for drugs," I would say: I hear you. This bill is not enough, not nearly enough.

I have a lot of concerns about this bill. There is no uniformity from region to region in the benefit package or beneficiary payments. Seniors in the East could be paying far higher premiums than their relatives in the Midwest.

The drug plan relies on private insurance companies to provide a type of insurance policy that they have already said they are unwilling to sell. I am skeptical that these private plans will stay, and that could mean seniors will have no stability in their coverage. The bill does allow traditional Medicare to step in and fill the gap but seniors might have to move back to a private drug plan if new ones come to the region.

There is also a gap in coverage which I think is unfair and will surprise a lot of people.

Finally, the bill falls short in its efforts to induce employers not to abandon their retiree prescription drug coverage, a situation that too many retirees have already faced in recent years.

In summary, I view this bill not as a situation where we would say that the glass is half full and half empty; to my thinking, the glass is only about one-quarter full. In 2003, prescription drugs are as important in medical care as surgery; consequently, it seems logical to me that if Medicare pays for the bulk of the cost of a heart bypass operation for all beneficiaries, it should similarly pay the bulk of the cost of the drugs used to lower the cholesterol, and which would prevent the need for the bypass operation, for all beneficiaries. This bill does not achieve that commonsense goal. Not even close.

But we need to start somewhere. This is the first step in gradually moving the health plan that covers nearly 40 million seniors and disabled individuals into the 21st century. And it is, very frankly, the best that we can expect to pass this Congress and that the President will sign.

There are some good provisions in this bill. All Medicare beneficiaries will have access to a prescription drug plan. Individuals with low incomes, below 160 percent of Federal poverty level, will have access to prescription drug coverage at very little cost. Those with very high prescription drug expenses, in the many thousands of dollars, will have stop-loss protection to help protect them against catastrophic drug costs. And no one is forced to abandon the traditional Medicare Program for their basic health care, with which they are so familiar, in order to obtain prescription drug coverage.

During the Senate deliberation on this bill, I have voted for amendments that would improve the prescription drug coverage and decrease the cost to beneficiaries. Almost all of these amendments were not adopted, mostly with the rationale that there was not enough money. I do not feel constrained by some arbitrary $400 billion cost limit on this bill. I never agreed to such a limit. In fact, my sense of values tells me that prescription drug benefits are a high priority, and I would be willing to spend more than $400 billion for a good prescription drug plan, while cutting budget items of lower priority, such as tax cuts for the very wealthy.

In the end, I decided to vote for this bill, despite its severe limitations. Given the many past years of fruitless discussions on this matter, I feel it is critical to put something into law now that can serve as a starting point for development of a true prescription drug plan. But that is not to say that I will accept any lesser of a bill, and my colleagues should not count on my continued support, if the final version of this bill that comes out of negotiations with the House of Representatives undercuts the Medicare Program or moves toward reducing protections for beneficiaries.

We also need to remember, this bill comes with a warning to all of us: the public is a lot smarter than they are sometimes given credit for, and if we do not work diligently to improve what we have begun, they will rightly take out their anger on us. We need to ensure that this bill is the first step, not the last step.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. Are we now ready for third reading?

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on agreeing to the committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended.

The committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, as amended, was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The question is on engrossment and third reading of the bill.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading and was read the third time.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that following passage of S. 1, the bill be held at the desk; further, when the Senate receives from the House the companion measure to S. 1 the Senate proceed to its consideration, all after the enacting clause be stricken, and the text of S. 1 as passed be inserted in lieu thereof; the bill then be read a third time and passed with the motion to reconsider laid upon the table; further, that the Senate then insist on its amendments and request a conference with the House, and the Chair be authorized to appoint conferees with a ratio of 5 to 4; finally, with that action, I ask unanimous consent that passage of S. 1 be vitiated and the bill be placed back on the calendar.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I want to take a few moments to return to the basics of what this bill is all about. Let's keep our eyes on the ball.

We are working here to make a meaningful improvement in health care for seniors. We are working to bring prescription drug coverage to Medicare beneficiaries.

Too many seniors do without drug coverage. The Congressional Budget Office reports that roughly a quarter of Medicare beneficiaries have no drug coverage. Ten million people. They have to pay all of their drug costs out of their own pockets. They pay full price.

Lack of coverage means poorer health. Seniors who get along without drug coverage get fewer of the healing benefits that prescription drugs provide. CBO reports that when seniors do not have drug coverage, they fill about a quarter fewer prescriptions, on average, than do those who have coverage.

But whether seniors have coverage or not, they still need a significant amount of prescription drugs. CBO says that in 1999, Medicare beneficiaries who had coverage filled an average of 32 prescriptions a year. Those without coverage still filled an average of 25 prescriptions a year.

These prescriptions cost seniors a good deal of money. The average Medicare beneficiary spends about $2,500 a year on prescription drugs. That's a big number—especially as the median income for all elderly households in 2001 was less than $19,000.

Those costs are rising fast. CBO projects that the average Medicare beneficiary's drug costs will rise at a rate of more than 10 percent a year over the next decade. That is far faster than the cost of living. That means that without this legislation, seniors will need to devote larger and larger shares of their income to paying prescription drug bills.

So we are here to try to make prescription drugs more affordable for seniors. And we are here to extend coverage to the roughly 10 million seniors who have no prescription drug coverage at all.

We are here to try to end seniors' painful choice between filling prescriptions and buying food. Seniors should not have to choose among the necessities to maintain their health. We are here to do something about that today.

Let me review what this bill would do.

This bill would make available prescription drug insurance to all seniors.

This bill would ensure that 44 percent of Medicare beneficiaries—those with the lowest incomes—would have truly affordable prescription drug coverage with minimal out-of-pocket costs. For these lower-income seniors, with incomes up to 160 percent of the poverty level, copayments would never exceed 20 percent of the cost of drugs.

Let me take some examples. Let's look at what this bill would do for beneficiaries with what will likely be average drug spending of $3,155 in 2006.

For seniors with average drug expenses, even with higher incomes, this bill would save them $1,677. That is a 40 percent savings in out-of-pocket costs.

The savings would be greater for lower income seniors. For an individual making $14,000 or a couple making $19,000 a year, with average drug spending, they would save $2,842. That is a 90 percent savings in out-of-pocket costs.

For an individual making $12,000 or couple making $16,000 a year with average drug spending, they would save $2,842 in out-of-pocket costs. That would be a savings of 96 percent in out-of-pocket costs.

This bill would thus ensure that those who have been least able to receive the healing benefits of prescription drugs would now be able to do so. Millions of people would have a better quality of life. Lives would be saved.

This bill would create a strong Government fallback. Seniors would have access to at least two private plans for a prescription drug benefit, or the Government would provide a standard fallback plan. If there is not true competition, then traditional Medicare would provide a fallback.

The Department of Health and Human Services would continue to oversee these plans. The plans would operate within tightly controlled limits. This bill includes strong consumer protections.

And this bill does not tilt the playing field. This bill does not make private plans a better deal than traditional Medicare.

This bill would make a nearly $400 billion expansion of a major entitlement program. This is a historic opportunity to make a fundamental change for the better for millions of Americans.

In so doing, this bill would finally do something that the overwhelming majority of industrialized nations have already done.

This is a broad compromise. This is not a bill of the left or a bill of the right. This is a weaving together of approaches, in the finest American tradition.

This is a historic opportunity. Let us finally seize that opportunity, and improve health care for our seniors. Let us finally seize the opportunity, and bring prescription drug coverage to all.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, we are about to take a historical vote.

Since 1965, Medicare hasn't covered prescription drugs. Now, 38 years later, we're changing that—on a strong bipartisan basis.

Because of this bill, on January 1, 2004, seniors across America will have immediate help with prescription drug costs. Moreover, on January 1, 2006, seniors will have access to affordable, comprehensive drug coverage as a permanent part of Medicare.

No longer will seniors have to make hard choices when it comes to paying for prescription drugs.

This bill also strengthens and improves Medicare, giving seniors more choices and better benefits than they have today.

At the same time, it brings long overdue Medicare equity to the people of Iowa and to other rural States.

We are on the verge of a major victory.

I urge my colleagues to support S. 1.

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, we are about to vote. I want to thank all Senators for their tremendous patience. It is not an easy task. I particularly thank the chairman of the committee but also all Senators.

Second, I thank the staff who have not had any sleep in the last two or three weeks. I don't know how they are still standing. A lot of people have been working on this bill. My thanks. I know I speak for all the Senators in thanking all the staff that worked so hard to help achieve this end.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The bill having been read the third time, the question is, shall it pass?

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Is there a sufficient second?

There is a sufficient second. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from Oklahoma (Mr. INHOFE) is necessarily absent.

Mr. REID. I announce that the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) and the Senator from Connecticut (Mr. LIEBERMAN) are necessarily absent.

I further announce that, if present and voting, the Senator from Massachusetts (Mr. KERRY) would vote "nay".

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Are there any other Senators in the Chamber desiring to vote?

The result was announced—yeas 76, nays 21, as follows:

The bill (S. 1), as amended, was passed.

(The bill will be printed in a future edition of the RECORD.)

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, the title amendment is agreed to.

The title was amended so as to read: "A bill to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for a voluntary prescription drug benefit under the medicare program and to strengthen and improve the medicare program, and for other purposes."

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair, in my capacity as a Senator from the State of Alaska, moves to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. INHOFE. Mr. President, because of urgent business back in my State of Oklahoma, I will be unable to be in attendance to vote on S. 1. It makes no difference, however, because I would have voted against it.

Last week, I addressed this Chamber regarding S. 1, the Prescription Drug and Medicare Improvement Act. At that time, I said I could not support the legislation in its current form and expressed my hope that it could be improved on the floor. Unfortunately, that has not occurred. I am restating my opposition to this legislation.

This is simply another Federal entitlement program designed to balloon past expected costs of $400 billion. For example, in the past, Medicare expenses have soared nearly five times the projected costs. I remember that well because I remember in 1965 when it was passed. This trend will only escalate if we continue to add unfunded obligations without ensuring the long-term solvency of the entire program.

We must examine the necessity of such obligations prior to placing the burden on the backs of the future taxpayers. And is a full prescription drug benefit necessary? Currently, 76 percent of seniors already have some form of prescription drug coverage. A recent Zogby poll found that three-fourths of seniors thought the coverage offered under this plan would be no better than what they currently have. In fact, less than one-half would even purchase the option if given the choice. However, with the passage of S. 1, those individuals may not be given that choice. CBO estimates that one-third of Medicare beneficiaries with employer-sponsored coverage will lose those benefits once the bill takes effect. Seniors who currently have private coverage that they like will be forced to buy the Government-sponsored benefit simply because it is the only thing that will be available.

There is something wrong with that picture. The Government should not be replacing coverage that already exists. However, this legislation opens the door for continued Government intervention. With the inclusion of the fallback provision, this benefit has the potential to become fully federalized if private plans do not surface. Once again, we are placing more and more expense at the door of the taxpayers, our children, and our grandchildren.

I am concerned about the effect this bill could have on the future of the entire Medicare Program. I have worked with my colleagues to support improvements to this legislation. I and many of my colleagues have signed letters to both Senator FRIST and President Bush outlining the principles that need to be included in the final version of this bill. I also cosponsored an amendment with Senators ENSIGN, HAGEL, and LOTT to provide a more reasonable prescription drug benefit that does not create a massive entitlement program. I believe the House of Representatives is on the right track with this issue.

I am hopeful that with the passage of S. 1, the conferees will work to see that the final legislation adheres to the principles stated in the letters to President Bush and Senator FRIST and the proposal supported by the House. At that time, I will look forward to supporting this legislation.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The majority leader.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, for years Congress has debated providing prescription drug coverage to seniors and how to strengthen and improve the Medicare Program. Tonight we have acted. Tonight America is one step closer to being a more caring society for millions of seniors and individuals with disabilities. Tonight seniors and individuals with disabilities, through this bill, will get relief from high prescription drug costs and outdated, often inadequate medical care. Tonight we are one step closer to providing real health care security to seniors all across the Nation.

We stand on the shoulders of many in this body and in the House of Representatives who have labored mightily to improve the Medicare Program. We have reached this point of success because of the commitment of the leadership in the House as well as the Senate. Above all, we are indebted to the bold leadership of the President of the United States without whom we would not be transforming or improving the system.

Indeed, the bill we have just passed is nothing less than historic. By dramatically expanding opportunities for private sector innovation, it offers genuine reform that will dramatically improve the quality of health care for all seniors. At the same time, the legislation preserves traditional Medicare so that those who wish can remain in traditional Medicare and keep exactly what they have today.

This bill combines the best of the public and private sectors and positions Medicare to evolve with the medical treatments of the future. It is entirely voluntary.

I am very pleased by the overwhelming majority of this body who tonight voted to move this legislation towards a more competitive private model but a partnership between the public and private sector.

I am also pleased that the amendment maintained the balance that has been so important in what I set out a few weeks ago, to be a truly bipartisan effort. The bill devotes increased resources and expands opportunities within the traditional Medicare Program for chronic care coordination, for disease management, for preventive care.

As many people have stated, it is not a perfect bill, but we will continue to move this legislation forward now to conference once, later in the evening or in the hours of the morning, after the House passes its legislation, we will have the opportunity to make the private sector provisions more flexible, indeed more competitive, and more like the Federal Employees Health Benefits Plan. All of us in this body are familiar with the impressive record of that plan, the Federal employees plan. Every Member of Congress and over 8 million other Federal workers and retirees enjoy the ability to choose the plan that best suits their medical needs.

Indeed, as we go through conference and once the bill is signed by the President of the United States, all seniors will have that same opportunity to voluntarily choose the plan that best meets their medical needs.

I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to improve this legislation and to make sure that it does not inadvertently displace good private health care coverage that exists today—options that are available to millions of Medicare beneficiaries, including employer-sponsored health coverage.

Compromise and debate are the cornerstone of this great democratic system of government. I commend my colleagues for their admirable show of bipartisan spirit. Thanks to the leadership of our colleagues in the Senate and the commitment of President Bush, America's seniors will finally receive the health coverage they need and the security they deserve.

I want to take a brief moment to thank all of my colleagues for their hard work and dedication over the last several weeks. It has been about 3 months ago that I set out that we would address Medicare for these 2 weeks—the 2 weeks prior to the July 4 recess. Many people said we were trying to do too much in too short a period of time. Others said it is something that has been debated for weeks and months, and indeed years, and there is no way we can finish it before July 4.

Yet through the hard work of our colleagues—again, on both sides of the aisle—we have fulfilled that vision. Again, it is a first step, a step that will be improved in that conference before us. Nevertheless, we succeeded in what we set out to do with the legislation that is built upon the work of many Members of the Senate, as well as the House of Representatives and, in particular, the members of the Senate Finance Committee. I do want to thank especially Senators HATCH, NICKLES, LOTT, SNOWE, KYL, THOMAS, SANTORUM, SMITH, BUNNING, and BREAUX for their hard work and leadership.

In particular, of course, I thank Chairman GRASSLEY and Senator BAUCUS, the managers, who for the last 2 weeks have so capably managed the bill on the floor. Their cooperation and their leadership has been invaluable. Without it, we would not be here so close to the finish line.

I would like to recognize all of the staff who have contributed to this effort:

First, I would like to thank my chief of staff, Lee Rawls; my policy director, Eric Ueland; and my health policy director, Dean Rosen. Paul Jacobson, Bob Stevenson, Nick Smith, Bill Hoagland, and Amy Holmes of my Leadership office also made important contributions. I also would like to recognize the other members of my health team who worked so hard to help make possible the passage of this legislation: Elizabeth Scanlon, Craig Burton, Susan Goelzer, Shana Christrup, Allison Winnike, and Jennifer Romans.

The Majority Whip's staff deserves special recognition, especially Kyle Simmons, Michael Solon, and Amy Swonger, for the long hours they put in and for the guidance they provided to our Finance Committee Chairman and our entire Republican leadership team.

As I have said, passage of this legislation was made possible in the United States Senate because of the genuine spirit of bipartisan cooperation. Both the Republican and Democratic staff of the Senate Finance Committee worked incredibly hard, long hours these past several weeks and months. Their expertise, support, and stamina has been invaluable.

I would like to thank Kolan Davis, Ted Totman, Linda Fishman, Colin Roskey, Leah Kegler, Mark Hayes, Jennifer Bell, and Alicia Ziemiecki of Chairman GRASSLEY's staff.

And I would also like to thank Jeffrey Forbes, Elizabeth Fowler, Bill Dauster, John Blum, Pat Bousilman, Kate Kirchgraber, and Andrea Cohen of Senator BAUCUS' staff for their contributions.

Hazen Marshall, Stacey Hughes, and Megan Hauck of the Senate Budget Committee staff are also commended for their efforts.

Thank you to you all.

I look forward to working with Chairman GRASSLEY and our colleagues in the House of Representatives to produce a conference report that can pass both Houses and be signed by the President in a timely manner later this year.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to a period for morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mr. BYRD. Madam President, the Senate is poised to adjourn, but before we adjourn, I want to call us away from the onrushing press of Senate business and impending airline schedules to pay tribute to Independence Day. Next Friday is the glorious Fourth of July, that most patriotic and star-spangled of holidays. With the Fourth of July holiday, summer is at its Halcyon best, with temperatures still enjoyable, skies richly blue, and trees and lawns still lush and green, and gardens coming into bewildering abundance. In fields and along the roadsides, wildflowers bloom in profusion, and wild blackberries earn our forgiveness for their thorns by offering the tender treasures of their glossy berries.

It is a golden period of enjoyment for students on summer holiday, the respite still feels luxuriously long, full of golden days of enjoyment.

The Fourth of July this year falls on a Friday, easily making a long weekend for summer pleasure. With luck, the Fourth will be clear and cooler, comfortable for marching bands and hometown parades, bathed in glorious sunshine for family picnics and perfect for evening symphonies and fireworks to compete with the glittering stars above.

If the weather is sweltering, however, then we might be better able to empathize with the Delegates to the Second Continental Congress, who met in Philadelphia in the spring and summer of 1776. In hot and muggy summer weather, clad in heavy styles that were designed for a cooler European summer, the Delegates debated and amended, reportedly fending off flies from a nearby stable that swarmed the Hall and bit the Delegates through the silk hose on their lower legs. But they persevered in their momentous task.

On June 7, 1776, Richard Henry Lee of Virginia offered a motion to declare independence from England. His resolution declared:

These United Colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent States.

His resolution passed on July 2 by a 12-0 vote, with New York temporarily abstaining.

The next day, on July 3, John Adams wrote to his wife, Abigail, rejoicing over the decision to secede. To Abigail, he wrote:

The 2nd of July will be a memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the Great Anniversary Festival.

He further suggested that it ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.

This is John Adams speaking. This is not some rustic boob like I was when I came to the House more than half a century ago. Listen to him again:

It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty.

It ought to be solemnized with pomp, shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, illuminations, from one end of this Continent to the other, from this time forward, forever.

How remarkably prescient. Adams was off on the date, as we celebrate the approval of the Declaration of Independence rather than of the adoption of the motion, but he certainly knew how Americans like to celebrate. As well, he accurately predicted the explosive growth of an embryonic nation into a continent-spanning colossus.

That vision took great courage, coming as it did on the eve of putting his signature to a document that could easily become his death warrant. Every signer of that Declaration of Independence committed treason against England, against the King of England, against the crown. Every signer could have been arrested, put in chains and sent by boat to England; tried, convicted, and hanged. The delegates to the Continental Congress had, with this act, committed treason against the crown and set their nascent nation-state on the road to war. After the failed Jacobite uprising against England in 1745 under Bonnie Prince Charles, only 31 years before the delegate met in Philadelphia, the Scottish leaders had been beheaded in public ceremonies.

One Delegate to the Congress, John Witherspoon, put it thus:

There is a tide in the affairs of men, a nick of time. We perceive it now before us. To hesitate is to consent to our own slavery. That noble instrument upon your table, that insures immortality to its author, should be subscribed this very morning by every pen in this house. He that will not respond to its accents, and strain every nerve to carry into effect its provisions, is unworthy of the name of free man. For my own part, of property, I have some; of reputation, more. That reputation is staked, that property is pledged on the issue of this contest; and although these grey hairs must soon descend into the sepulcher, I would infinitely rather that they descend thither by the hand of the executioner than desert at this crisis the sacred cause of my country.

What beautiful words. The signers knew full well what risks they were running.

The first anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence took place in a nation at war, with our battle fortunes at low ebb. But Americans still celebrated in Philadelphia, U.S. ships of war were decked in red, white, and blue. At 1 o'clock, each ship fired a salvo of 13 cannons to honor the 13 States. Members of Congress dined in state with other civil and military dignitaries and made toasts to liberty and to fallen patriots. After dinner, the Members and officers of the Army reviewed the troops, followed by a ringing of bells and a show of fireworks.

In 1788, Philadelphia was serving as the U.S. Capital. On that year, not only was the Declaration of Independence celebrated, but also the U.S. Constitution, which had recently been ratified by 10 States. This July Fourth celebration included another new feature—a parade with horse-drawn floats. One float, that of an enormous eagle, carried the Justices of the Supreme Court in lieu of today's beauty pageant queens.

In 1826, the Nation achieved a milestone when the 50th Independence Day celebration was being planned. The mayor of Washington wrote to invite the surviving ex-Presidents and Signers of the Declaration to attend the festivities. The five men, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, James Monroe, and Charles Carroll, were unable to attend. Why? Because of age or infirmity, or other reasons. Indeed, at 10 minutes before 1 o'clock on July 4, 1826, Thomas Jefferson, principal drafter of the Declaration, passed away.

John Adams, too, breathed his last on the same day. In his 90s and gravely ill, he had determined to hold on until the 50th anniversary of independence. That morning, he roused long enough to confirm to a servant that he knew that "it is the glorious Fourth of July. God bless it. God bless you all," before fading into unconsciousness. Rousing later that afternoon, he confided unknowingly as he passed on to that other shore that "Thomas Jefferson still survives." He did not know that Jefferson had died earlier that day.

James Monroe, who fought in the Revolutionary War and became the fifth President of the United States, also died on July 4, in 1831. James Madison, the fourth President, died a week short of the 60th anniversary of Independence Day, on June 28, 1836.

The last living Signer of the Declaration of Independence, Charles Carroll, performed one of his last public acts on July 2, 1828. He participated in a ground breaking ceremony initiating construction of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway, the first important railroad in the Nation. He died in 1832, at the age of 95. Also in 1828, President John Quincy Adams led an unusual 4th of July parade, up the Potomac River and the old Washington Canal to the site where construction was to start on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. These two acts underscore the vital link between the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution which followed it, and the vibrant economy which has made and kept the United States economy vibrant and strong for so many years.

Our Nation is a union of disparate States, each of which has considerable power within its boundaries. But across those boundaries, linking the Union into a seamless web of bustling commerce and economic might, is the national infrastructure. Just as the Constitution provides for the common defense, so it promotes the common good by linking markets and people across States. Over the Years, Federal support for great infrastructure projects, from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to the National Highway System, have woven the Nation into a unified economic structure. Federal support for rural electrification and rural telephone and Internet access have spread opportunity and progress from border to border and coast to coast, just as John Adams foretold in 1776.

This 4th of July, as we all visit national parks, tour Federal monuments, drive on interstate highways, call friends and family around the country, and buy picnic goods grown all over the United States—as we celebrate a national Federal holiday under the protective watch of the U.S. military and Federal law enforcement agencies—we unconsciously enjoy the benefits of the Federal Government and of belonging to a union that is the United States.

Each star on the flag, the flag beside the Presiding Officer's desk, we salute so proudly represents a single state, but only when they are aligned together in the constellation of 50 do we feel the strength and the glory that were won for us, beginning on July 4, 1776. This Independence Day, we would all do well to read and cherish the Declaration of Independence. Even more, we would do well as a Nation to study and cherish our Constitution, by which our freedom, so dearly won and so cost-ly held, lives on.

Too often in recent years and months have I seen unwise attempts to erode the checks and balances of the Constitution, unknowing or unthinking efforts to dissolve the institutions and practices established to make our Nation the free and representative government by our Founding Fathers. Attacks on the United States from without are met with instant, unhesitating defense by all Americans, but we are not so knowledgeable vigilant against the insidious weakening from within, even within this Chamber. We are all of us, with our voices and our votes, the last, best guardians of American freedom and independence. We lack only the weapons of knowledge and awareness.

Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
We know what Master laid thy keel!
What Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
Who made each mast, and sail, and rope,
What anvils rang, what hammers beat,
In what a forge and what a heat
Were shaped the anchors of thy hope!
Fear not each sudden sound and shock,
'Tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
And not a rent made by the gale!
In spite of rock and tempest's roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee.
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee—are all with thee!

Mr. President, I yield the floor and suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

THANKING SENATOR BYRD

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I wish that I were able to express myself in a manner that is worthy of my feelings about the Senator from West Virginia. I can't do that, but I can do the best I can.

There isn't a day that goes by that I don't recognize personally how fortunate I am to live in this country and to represent the sovereign State of Nevada and to be a Member of the Senate. It is a blessing that I have had, for whatever reasons. Whether I am worthy or not, that is for someone else to determine. But one of the most important aspects of my life has been my association, my friendship, my service with the Senator from West Virginia, a man who served in the Congress for more than 50 years, who, like clockwork, comes to the Senate floor on special occasions like the Fourth of July or Thanksgiving, and makes us all feel better for having had the opportunity to listen to a speech by the Senator from West Virginia.

As I look back over the time I spent here on the Senate floor, listening to the Senator from West Virginia, I am drawn to a number of things I will never forget. I remember the speeches—and I sat with every one of them. I missed a couple of them, but I watched them in my office—the speeches on the fall of the Roman Empire that were based on the line-item veto. The Senator from West Virginia was indicating the line-item veto would be the beginning of the end of the Senate.

The Senator delivered those speeches without a note. I didn't realize at the time, but the Senator knew every word he intended to say. They were not extemporaneous in the sense I would give an extemporaneous speech. He knew before he gave the speech, beforehand, every word he was going to deliver.

I was so impressed with that series of speeches that I sent them to the head of the political science then at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas, Andrew Tuttle. Tuttle was so impressed—I sent him the speeches so he could watch them—he started a course at UNLV based on the lectures of Senator BYRD.

I am not going to go on, other than to say our country is so much better as a result of the service granted by the people of West Virginia to the Senator from West Virginia. People may not always agree with the Senator from West Virginia, but no one can take away the fact he is the epitome of the Senate. And when the history books are written—and they will be written—there will be a place where they will list the great Senators of this body, and in the top two or three will be the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I thank my dear friend, the distinguished Senator from Nevada, who is also the Democratic whip here in the Senate.

Tennyson in Ulysses says:

I am a part of all that I have met.

Mr. President, I don't know how long the great God of the universe will spare me. But however long it may be, the distinguished Senator from Nevada, Mr. REID, will always be a part of me.

HONORING SENATOR STROM THURMOND

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I wish to take a minute to say a few words in honor of Strom Thurmond, our friend and former colleague, who passed away today.

From the moment Strom Thurmond set foot in this Chamber in 1954, he has been setting records. He was the only person ever elected to the U.S. Senate on a write-in vote. He set the record for the longest speech on the Senate floor, clocked at an astounding 24 hours and 18 minutes. He was the longest serving Senator in the history of the Senate. He was also the oldest serving Senator. Many of my colleagues will recall the momentous occasion in September of 1998 when he cast his 15,000th vote in the Senate. With these and so many other accomplishments over the years, he has appropriately been referred to as "an institution within an institution."

In 1902, the year Strom Thurmond was born, life expectancy was 51 years—and today it is 77 years. Strom continued to prove that, by any measure, he was anything but average.

He saw so much in his life. To provide some context, let me point out that during his lifetime, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona, Alaska and Hawaii gained Statehood, and 11 amendments were added to the Constitution. The technological advancements he witnessed, from the automobile to the airplane to the Internet, literally spanned a century of progress. Conveniences we have come to take for granted today were not always part of Strom Thurmond's world. Perhaps this explains why, during Judiciary Committee hearings, he was often heard asking witnesses who were too far away from the microphone to "please speak into the machine."

The story of his remarkable political career truly could fill several volumes. It began with a win in 1928 for the Edgefield County Superintendent of Schools. Eighteen years later, he was Governor of South Carolina. Strom was even a Presidential candidate in 1948, running on the "Dixiecrat" ticket against Democrat Harry Truman.

I must admit, he came a long way in his political career, given that he originally came to the Senate as a Democrat. I was happy to say that wisdom came within a few short years when Strom saw the light and joined the Republican Party.

When I first arrived in the Senate in January of 1977, he was my mentor. As my senior on the Judiciary Committee, it was Strom Thurmond who helped me find my way and learn how the committee functioned. He was not only a respected colleague, but a personal friend.

During his tenure as chairman of the Judiciary Committee, Strom Thurmond left an indelible mark on the committee and the laws that came through it. He became known and respected for many fine qualities and positions—his devotion to the Constitution, his toughness on crime, his sense of fairness.

He was famous for his incredible grip. Many of us in this Chamber had the experience of Strom Thurmond holding our arm tightly as he explains a viewpoint and asked for our support. I might add that this proved to be a very effective approach.

Strom was also known to have a kind word or greeting for everyone who came his way, and for being extremely good to his staff. Despite his power and influence, he never forgot the importance of small acts of kindness. For example, whenever he ate in the Senate dining room, he grabbed two fistfuls of candy. When he returned to the floor of the Senate, he handed the candy out to the Senate pages. Unfortunately, it was usually melted into a keleidoscope of sugar by then. I have a feeling that the pages preferred it when Strom took them out for ice cream.

Strom Thurmond was truly a legend—someone to whom the people of South Carolina owe an enormous debt of gratitude for all his years of service.

Clearly, the people of South Carolina recognize the sacrifices he made and are grateful for all he did for them. In fact, you cannot mention the name Strom Thurmond in South Carolina without the audience bursting into spontaneous applause. He truly was an American political icon.

Abraham Lincoln once said that "The better part of one's life consists of friendships." With a friend like Strom Thurmond, this sentiment could not be more true. I am a great admirer of Strom Thurmond, and I am proud to have called him my friend.

One final note about Strom Thurmond. He was a great patriot. A decorated veteran of World War II who fought at Normandy on D-day, Strom Thurmond loved this country. Let me close by saying that this country loved him, too.

A SALUTE TO PAUL GALIS

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, the great State of West Virginia has produced numerous individuals who have dedicated their lives to the service of the Nation. These sons and daughters of West Virginia have contributed to the betterment of their communities, their State and their country. One such public servant is Paul L. Galis, who for 35 years has served admirably in the Federal Aviation Administration, and has contributed to the development of an aviation system unsurpassed in the world.

Mr. Galis retires in July as the Deputy Associate Administrator for Airports in FAA. In this position as well as his previous position of Director of the Office of Airport Planning and Program, Mr. Galis has overseen the planning and development of over 3,000 airports in the national plan for airports. This has been no small task and Mr. Galis has served with distinction.

All of us in the State of West Virginia salute Mr. Galis for his career and wish him the best in his future endeavors. Our country is better for the work he has done and the example of public service he has provided. His able leadership and steady hand will be missed.

OREGON'S TANF WAIVER

Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President, on June 12, 2003, I published a notice in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD of my intent to object to moving to H.R. 2350, a bill to extend the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, or "TANF," our Nation's welfare program. My good friend from Oregon, Senator SMITH, joined in this effort because the legislation does not contain a provision critical to Oregon's welfare program: a waiver of certain provisions that gives Oregon flexibility to operate a successful welfare program. Because of its waiver, which expires on June 30, 2003, Oregon has reduced its welfare rolls nearly 60 percent since 1994. It is clear that the waiver has allowed Oregon to meet local needs and craft what has been heralded as one of the best welfare programs in the country.

Since Senator SMITH and I announced our public holds, the distinguished chairman of the Finance Committee, Senator GRASSLEY, and the ranking member, Senator BAUCUS, have worked closely with us to find a way so that Oregon can continue to operate under its waiver until TANF is fully reauthorized. They have helped obtain a letter from Department of Health & Human Services Secretary Tommy Thompson to Oregon Governor Ted Kulongoski, myself and Senator SMITH assuring us that Oregon can continue to operate without penalty under its waiver. I believe this letter provides Oregon the assurances necessary to continue to operate as if the waiver were still in place, and ask unanimous consent to insert the letter in the RECORD.

Mr. SMITH. I join Senator WYDEN in expressing deep pride in Oregon's TANF program and in thanking the chairman and ranking member of the Finance Committee, on which I serve, for their cooperation. I share his assessment that this letter will enable Oregon to maintain its TANF program without penalty until the program is reauthorized.

I also express my appreciation to Senators GRASSLEY and BAUCUS for their efforts on TANF reauthorization. We have been working together for months to ensure that all TANF proposals, including those elements which have made Oregon's TANF program so successful, are carefully considered as we move toward TANF reauthorization.

Oregon's TANF program, often called the Oregon Option, works because it recognizes local barriers to work and works with individuals to assess their needs and get them onto a path toward independence. For example, Oregon allows individuals with severe substance abuse problems to seek treatment. This helps people address the root of their problems—not just the symptoms. The Oregon Option has put people into real work situations—not just make work—and this has helped Oregon move people off the welfare rolls and into real, sustainable jobs. I believe the Senate can learn from the lessons of Oregon's program, and I will continue to work with my colleagues to ensure that all state TANF programs have the flexibility they need to operate successfully.

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, I understand the concerns of the Senators from Oregon, and look forward to working with them to reauthorize the TANF program in the coming months. I appreciate their concern for the need for Oregon to retain flexibility in TANF. I hope the Senator from Montana will agree that the Finance Committee, on both sides of the aisle, should discuss this issue as we move to reauthorize the TANF program.

Mr. BAUCUS. I agree with the chairman and look forward to moving on these issues. My home State of Montana is currently operating under a waiver that expires on December 31st of this year. I know that Montana, like Oregon, has been able to craft a successful TANF program because of its waiver, and I look forward to working with my distinguished colleagues to see that it is retained.

RECOGNIZING SENATOR TED STEVENS, THE RECIPIENT OF THE ARLEIGH BURKE AWARD FROM THE CENTER FOR STRATEGIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Mr. INOUE. Mr. President, our distinguished colleague, the Honorable TED STEVENS, was presented with the Arleigh Burke Award on June 11, 2003, by the Center for Strategic and International Studies. The award, named after the famed Admiral, who was the longest serving Chief of Naval Operations, recognizes Senator STEVENS's leadership in the fields of strategy, resources, and maritime affairs, as well as his hard work and selfless dedication to promote public service and the ideals of freedom.

When Senator STEVENS accepted the Burke Award, he delivered a thoughtful speech that underscored Admiral Burke's conviction that duty to country is more important than duty to the Commander-in-Chief, and that we should oppose the concentration of power.

I ask unanimous consent that Senator STEVENS's speech be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SPEECH BY SENATOR TED STEVENS AT THE CSIS ARLEIGH BURKE MEMORIAL DINNER ON JUNE 11, 2003, IN WASHINGTON, DC

Good evening. Thanks to my good friend and colleague Senator Warner for that warm introduction.

My congratulations to General Keene, the Army's new Acting Chief of Staff. I wish him success in the coming months.

It is a tremendous honor to receive an award named after Admiral Burke. Like many of you, I am familiar with the Admiral's distinguished life of dedication, service, and achievement. When I served in China during World War II, he was an admiral in the Navy, and the battles that made him one of that war's greatest combat leaders were well-known.

I met Admiral Burke during the Eisenhower Administration. I was working on statehood for Alaska and Hawaii in the Department of Interior in those days. Admiral Burke was the Chief of Naval Operations. Like everything he did, Admiral Burke served as CNO with tremendous distinction. He was the youngest and longest serving CNO in history, and during his tenure he fought for technologies and strategies that continue to form the foundation of our Armed Services.

To refresh my memory of Admiral Burke's accomplishments, I went back to E.B. Potter's book about him.

Potter reported that in January of 1958, the year Alaska's Statehood Bill was enacted, Burke opposed the Gaither Report, which recommended streamlining and centralization of defense. At the National Press Club he warned against control of all U.S. forces by "one man, a military Solomon."

Notwithstanding that position of the CNO, in April 1958, and I quote from Potter's book on Arleigh Burke:

"... Eisenhower sent to Congress a special message on reorganization of the Department of Defense. Its chief recommendations were (1) to remove the Service Chiefs from the operation chain of command; (2) to restrict Service Secretaries to administration, relieving them of responsibility for military operations; (3) to restrict duties of Joint Chiefs of Staff mainly to advising the Secretary of Defense; (4) to enlarge the Joint Staff; and (5) to limit control of operating forces to the President and the Secretary of Defense."

Eisenhower sent word through Secretary of Defense McElroy that he wanted all senior officers and officials to support his plan.

Arleigh was called before the Senate Armed Services Committee. As Potter stated, Admiral Burke "put duty to country over duty to the Commander-in-Chief," and opposed this concentration of power in the Secretary of Defense.

The Defense Reorganization Act of 1958 did not rubber stamp the Gaither Report. It followed many of Admiral Burke's suggestions.

To his great credit, Ike appointed Admiral Burke to a third term as CNO in August 1959.

It is my hope that in reviewing the current proposals from D.O.D. before Congress, senior officers and officials of D.O.D. and all members of Congress will follow the great traditions Admiral Burke upheld.

Arleigh Burke lived his life by principles which guided him through the perils of World War II and still pertain today.

He once described his philosophy as:

"An old-time philosophy—a philosophy of realism. You must always ask yourself the question, 'What is important in life?' . . . I don't think it's very important to be remembered. . . . The ideas I stood for should be remembered."

Admiral Burke also demonstrated his loyalty to the men under his command. The spirit of Admiral Burke's commitment to his sailors is reflected in the steps the Congress has taken to support our troops and honor our promises to our veterans.

Admiral Burke was a hero and a visionary, and I can think of no greater honor than to be your guest at this evening's event. Thanks again for this award.

LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACT OF 2003

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today to speak about the need for hate crimes legislation. On May 1, 2003, Senator KENNEDY and I introduced the Local Law Enforcement Act, a bill that would add new categories to current hate crimes law, sending a signal that violence of any kind is unacceptable in our society.

I would like to describe a terrible crime that occurred in New Bedford, MA. On June 22, 2003, Saurabh Bhalerao, a 24-year-old graduate student, was ambushed by four men and savagely beaten when the assailants mistook the student for a Muslim. Mr. Bhalerao, a Hindu Indian, works part-time as a pizza delivery man. One of the suspects placed a phone order at the local pizzeria where Mr. Bhalerao is employed. When Mr. Bhalerao arrived with the order, two men shoved him into the apartment and pushed him to the floor. After Mr. Bhalerao was lying on the floor, the attackers kicked and beat him. At one point, one suspect hit him with a kitchen chair. The perpetrators also burned Mr. Bhalerao's body with lit cigarettes. According to court documents, one of the attackers told Mr. Bhalerao to "Go back to your own country." Mr. Bhalerao eventually escaped from the trunk of an assailant's car after he managed to loosen the fisherman's rope binding his hands and feet. He is currently in the intensive care unit at a local hospital.

I believe that Government's first duty is to defend its citizens, to defend them against the harms that come out of hate. The Local Law Enforcement Enhancement Act is a symbol that can become substance. I believe that by passing this legislation and changing current law, we can change hearts and minds as well.

NOMINATION OF JOSHUA BOLTEN TO BE DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, I rise in support of Joshua Bolten as Director of the Office of Management and Budget, and to urge Mr. Bolten to do everything within his power to help put the Federal budget back on sound footing.

The position of OMB Director is always one of the most demanding posts in our Government, but it is especially so right now. The tax cuts pushed through by the President over the last 2½ years, combined with the continuing economic slowdown and increased spending to respond to the September 11 terrorist attacks and prosecute the military efforts in Afghanistan and Iraq, have pushed the budget deep into deficit. And despite the fact that we desperately need to get our fiscal house in order to be ready for the imminent retirement of the baby-boom population, this administration and its allies in Congress have not yet accepted that the policies they have advocated are leading us in the wrong direction.

I support the nomination of Joshua Bolten as OMB Director because I believe he is a very capable and honorable man, with a distinguished record both in public service—including service as a Senate staffer—and in the private sector. I sincerely hope he will take to heart the duty of the OMB Director to be an advocate for fiscal responsibility—to be willing to present the President with the facts where the budget is heading even if those facts are unpleasant, and to recommend policies to the President that will put the budget back on a sustainable path even if those policies may be politically difficult.

In a written response to a question by the Governmental Affairs Committee, Mr. Bolten reiterated the position of the Bush administration about the deficits facing us, stating that: “Our current deficit—as measured as a percentage of gross domestic product (GDP)—is not large by historical standards and is manageable within the overall context of our economy.”

I hope when Mr. Bolten assumes his post as head of OMB, he recognizes the reality of the budget situation and leads the administration to reassess that position. That reality is that the deficit we are currently facing is enormous by any standard. According to CBO, the total deficit will exceed $400 billion this year, more than $100 billion higher than the all-time record deficit of $290 billion recorded in 1992. As a percentage of GDP, the deficit will be about 4 percent, a level that has been reached only eight times in the 57 years since the end of World War II. More troubling, when Social Security is excluded from the calculation, this year’s deficit is likely to total about 5.5 percent—a level reached only twice in the last 57 years.

I hope Mr. Bolten accepts how serious the budget situation is and how important it is that we do not delay beginning to deal with the situation. I hope that he will advise the President to work with the Congress in a truly bipartisan way to reach agreement on and enact policies that will put the budget back on track.

COMBATING TORTURE AND ASSISTING VICTIMS OF TORTURE

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. President, I rise to address the barbaric practices that constitute torture as we mark the United Nations Day in Support of the Victims of Torture. Astonishingly, an estimated 500,000 victims of torture live in the United States today, including many in my home State of Colorado. The United States has provided vital leadership in the campaign to prevent torture around the world. The United States must not equivocate on this most basic of human rights.

While the United States has consistently spoken out forcefully against the use of torture around the world, serious questions have been raised suggesting U.S. complicity in torture as part of the war against terrorism. This prompted me to join other members of the Helsinki Commission in writing to the White House recently urging an investigation of “serious allegations that the United States is using torture, both directly and indirectly, during interrogations of those suspected of terrorism.” Against this backdrop, I urge the administration to issue a forthright statement on torture. In his State of the Union Address, President Bush described the horrific forms of torture employed by the Hussein regime and concluded, “If this is not evil, then evil has no meaning.” Even as experts document the scope of torture in Iraq, there must be no doubt concerning U.S. policy and practice.

As Cochairman of the Helsinki Commission, I am particularly concerned that torture remains a tolerated if not promoted practice by some countries, even within the membership of the 55-nation Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, OSCE.

In some places, like Uzbekistan, members of the political opposition or religious minorities are especially likely to be the victims of torture. Tragically, two more people there have joined the long list of those who have died in custody amid credible allegations of abuse and torture, just weeks after the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development hosted a prestigious meeting in Tashkent, and days after the Secretary of State determined Uzbekistan is eligible for continued U.S. assistance. Moreover, the shortsighted practice of making martyrs out of Islamic extremists may have exactly the opposite effect the government claims to be seeking in its efforts to combat terrorism.

In Georgia, torture and abuse comes hand in hand with police corruption. In the most recent State Department Country Report on human rights in Georgia, the Department stated: “[s]ecurity forces continued to torture, beat, and otherwise abuse detainees. . . . NGOs also blamed several deaths in custody on physical abuse, torture, or inhumane and life-threatening prison conditions.” Even President Shevardnadze has, in the past, acknowledged the prevalence of abuse against detainees and prisoners. I welcome a new initiative of the OSCE Mission in Georgia to combat torture, but I would also note that antitorture initiatives have come and gone in Georgia with little to show for it. Without real political will, I am afraid this latest initiative may end up like the others.

In Turkey—a country which has been given particular attention by the Helsinki Commission—even the doctors who treat the victims of torture have become targets themselves. Their offices have been raided, records seized, and even some doctors have been arrested and tortured. Moreover, the patients of these doctors, all of whom have already suffered at the hands of the authorities, have often been re-arrested, retortured and recharged based on their testimonies given to the medical authorities.

As a result of these practices, Turkey has been repeatedly sanctioned by the European Court of Human Rights. The Turkish nongovernmental organization, the Human Rights Foundation, appears to be making some headway in defending these doctors. Last year, Turkey’s Grand National Assembly has passed significant legislation with severe penalties for those convicted of torture. A major effort still needs to be made to conform the application of the law in the regional courts of Turkey with the intent of the parliamentarians. The Helsinki Commission will continue to monitor developments in Turkey and the implementation of this law.

In the 1999 OSCE Istanbul Charter, the participating States committed themselves to “eradicating torture and cruel, inhumane or degrading treatment or punishment throughout the OSCE area. To this end, we will promote legislation to provide procedural and substantive safeguards and remedies to combat these practices. We will assist victims and cooperate with relevant international organizations and nongovernmental organizations, as appropriate.”

Clearly a strategy to confront and combat torture must emphasize prevention of torture, prosecution of those who commit torture, and assistance for the victims of torture. As we mark the United Nations Day in Support of the Victims of Torture, I note the good work being done by the Rocky Mountain Survivors Center, located in Denver. The center is part of a nationwide network committed to assisting the victims of torture living in the United States.

HONORING PRIVATE FIRST CLASS MICHAEL DEUEL

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. President, I am saddened to report the passing of Private First Class Michael Deuel of Nemo, SD. Pfc. Deuel was killed on June 18, 2003, while serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Michael moved from his home in Cheyenne, WY to attend school at Boxelder Job Corps in South Dakota in May 2000. His friends and teachers described him as an unassuming, yet confident student. Focused and hard working, Michael was determined to perform well in school. He received his general education diploma and certification from the culinary arts program shortly before enlisting in the Army. Following service in the military, he dreamed of becoming a chef and owning his own restaurant.

After enlisting in the Army, Michael entered airborne school to become an Airborne Ranger. He went on to Army Ranger School and became a member of the Army’s 325th infantry regiment of the 82nd Airborne Division, which is based in Fort Bragg, NC.

On February 13, 2003, he was deployed to Iraq. While protecting a propane-distribution center in Baghdad, he was killed by enemy fire.

The lives of countless people were enormously enhanced by Michael's goodwill and service. Although he did not live to see his dreams realized, he continued to inspire all those who knew him. Our Nation and South Dakota are far better places because of his life, and the best way to honor his life is to emulate his commitment to our country.

I join with all South Dakotans in expressing my sympathies to the family of Private First Class Deuel. I know he will always be missed, but his service to our Nation will never be forgotten.

NEW HOMESTEAD ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY ACT

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I rise today with great concern. As you are aware, President Bush named June National Homeownership Month 2003. I am proud that our President has seen fit to promote an aggressive homeownership campaign, and I support this administration's efforts to see more Americans reach the American Dream of homeownership. As a member of the Finance Committee, I have had the opportunity to learn of important ways that we can make that a reality. In January I introduced the New Homestead Economic Opportunity Act, better known as the Homeownership Tax Credit. This legislation will create a single-family housing tax credit for developers who build in low income areas, and allow more Americans to reach their dreams of homeownership. It will also encourage developers of single family units to invest in low income areas and improve our communities.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has stated that one of its goals is to allow every citizen—regardless of race, creed, color, or place of birth—the opportunity to own their own home. To reach this goal, there must be affordable homes to purchase.

In his testimony before the Senate Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Arrairs earlier this month, James Rayburn, the Vice President of the National Association of Home Builders stated that the Homeownership Tax Credit proposal seeks to close the gap in homeownership rates among Americans. While 82 percent of households earning 100 percent or more of the national median income now own homes, only 53 percent of households earning less than the national median are homeowners. The homeownership rate for families earning 80 percent or less of the national median is only 40 percent to 45 percent. Homeownership for whites is 75 percent, while the ownership rate for African Americans is just below 48 percent and 48 percent for Hispanics.

We can all agree that the quality of life in distressed neighborhoods can be improved dramatically by increasing home ownership. Existing buildings in these neighborhoods often need extensive renovation before they can provide decent owner-occupied housing. It is also difficult for renovations to occur because the costs involved exceed the prices at which the housing units could be sold. Similarly, the costs of new construction may exceed its market value. Properties sit vacant and neighborhoods remain devastated. The New Homestead Economic Opportunity Act bridges the gap between development costs and market prices and will revitalize these areas.

I would like to see every American given the opportunity to succeed at the goal of owning their own home. I am proud to be the sponsor of this legislation, and I plan to continue to work to see it become law. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting the American Dream by supporting S. 198.

HONORING MAYNARD H. JACKSON, JR.

Mr. CHAMBLISS. Mr. President, as Atlanta's first black mayor, Maynard Jackson dedicated his career and his life to healing the racial inequalities that surrounded him and ensuring that the city of Atlanta was a thriving, inclusive community.

Working to expand Hartsfield International Airport, Maynard fought for equal treatment for minority workers and businesses. He sought to bring diversity to government as well as Atlanta's business community. Through the equality he sought for all racial groups, he was able to foster economic expansion and growth for Atlanta and greater equality for her citizens.

Working to secure the 1996 Olympics, Maynard ensured that Atlanta shined for the world and was recognized as a city that offered opportunity for everyone regardless of race or socio-economic class.

Serving as the president of the National Conference of Democratic Mayors and the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials, he became a role model for young African Americans hoping to someday make their mark on this world and worked tirelessly to improve interracial relationships in the South's largest city.

His contributions and accomplishments to help our State thrive economically and to expand opportunities for minorities will be remembered for generations to come. The legacy he leaves behind is one of a greater respect for all people, greater opportunity for all people and greater hope for the world.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones left behind, and his memory will forever be with us.

IN SUPPORT OF THE PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. President, recently, I visited with Reverend Jacob

Bazzel Mull and his wife, Elizabeth, in Knoxville, TN. They host the Mull Singing Convention, a popular gospel radio program.

Reverend Mull is a legend with an interesting story to tell. He was born in 1914 in Burke County, NC, into a musical family. When he was 11 months old, he lost his eyesight after falling into an open-pit fireplace. As a child, he played in a gospel group made up of his mother, father, brothers and sisters.

He began preaching in 1939 and hasn't stopped since. In 1942, he moved to Knoxville to start his first radio program, and the rest is history. He became well-known nationwide during the 25 years he sold Chuck Wagon Gang Records on several 50,000-watt radio stations.

This year, all of his many accomplishments were recognized when he was honored by the Gospel Music Association for his "outstanding contributions to gospel music."

During our visit in April, Reverend Mull gave me 2,000 letters and a number of petitions with thousands of names on them from Americans angry over the Ninth Circuit's decision declaring the Pledge of Allegiance unconstitutional. Reverend Mull solicited these letters from his listeners across the country, and I was delighted to see the passion people across America have for the Pledge. It made me proud to answer all of those letters.

It is inspiring to me that every day Reverend Mull brings out the best in America. He challenges us to think, and he encourages us to be involved in issues. He also reminds us to turn to our religious faith for guidance. I ran for the U.S. Senate because I wanted to find out how to bring out the best in people in Tennessee and across this country, all day, every day.

I believe the answer to how we do that lies with the people. In August of 2002, I spent the night with Jim Coley, a Tennessee Government high school teacher, and his family. One idea that came out of that visit was the importance of putting the teaching of American history and civics back into our classrooms. From that discussion, we came up with the framework for the American History and Civics Act of 2003 that just passed the Senate.

The bill establishes summer residential academies for teachers and students to encourage the teaching and learning of American history and civics in a more inspired way than is happening today. We can't expect our students to learn what it means to be an American if we don't teach them.

I would also like to see students in every classroom across this Nation beginning each schoolday with the Pledge of Allegiance. That could be followed with a student or teacher explaining in his or her own words what it means to them to be an American.

After the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, we saw how quickly we Americans could come together as one people, united in purpose, despite our diverse backgrounds. Although we are almost 2 years removed from that time, there is no reason this sense of unity and purpose cannot continue as part of our lives every day. Americans have a reputation for being resourceful, resilient, and having common sense. These are good qualities for helping to bring out the best in the entire Nation.

I thank Reverend Mull for his commitment to this country, for inviting me to visit with him, and for sharing American's outpouring of support in favor of the basic values and principles on which this Nation was founded. I also appreciate the opportunity to bring Reverend Mull's good work to the attention of our country.

WELCOME BACK TO ALASKA, MR.
CONSUL GENERAL

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, next week the people of Alaska will welcome Mr. Yossi Amrani, the Consul General of the State of Israel for the Pacific Northwest, back to our State. He will begin his trip in Fairbanks, meeting with students and members of the community at the University of Alaska, visiting with members of Congregation Or Hatzafon, which has the northernmost synagogue building in the world, and speaking to the Greater Fairbanks Chamber of Commerce. He will also visit Anchorage on this trip and I look forward to meeting with him then.

This is not Mr. Amrani's first visit to my State, but it is his first visit to Fairbanks, the "Golden Heart City." Although the Fairbanks Jewish community is small in numbers, the fundamental Jewish values of tikkun olam, making the world a better place; zedakah, charity; and chesed, kindness, are deeply ingrained in the Fairbanks culture, as they are in the culture of Alaska as a whole.

Like the Fairbanks Jewish community, the Alaska Jewish community is small in numbers, but large in spirit. In the late 1990s, Professor Bernard Reisman from Brandeis University visited Alaska on several occasions to learn more about our Jewish community. He concluded that in virtually all areas, the Alaska Jewish community has a higher level of identity than do American Jews generally. He found this to be true not only in places like Anchorage, Fairbanks and Juneau, which have functioning congregations, but also in the smaller communities, where "conveners" organize regular get togethers, especially on Jewish holidays.

Members of the Jewish community occupy a prominent role in the social, economic, cultural and political life of Alaska. A few weeks ago, I welcomed the internationally known holocaust scholar, Dr. Michael Schuldiner of the University of Alaska Fairbanks, to my office in Washington. Dr. Schuldiner discussed his work with the United States Holocaust Memorial. Another UAF scholar, Dr. Michael Krauss, has worked closely with the Alaska congressional delegation for many years in efforts to preserve Alaska Native languages. And let us not forget the many contributions of the Gottstein family to virtually every aspect of Alaska's fabric.

This is not a new phenomenon. The beautiful municipal library in Anchorage is named for Zachary J. Loussac, a Russian Jewish immigrant, who served as Mayor of Anchorage. The Girl Scout camp in Fairbanks is named for Jessie Bloom, who along with her husband Robert, are regarded as the founding leaders of the Fairbanks Jewish community. In 1926, Jessie started the first Girl Scout troop in Alaska, while Robert was a founder of what was later to become the University of Alaska. Our striking new courthouse in Fairbanks is named for Jay Rabinowitz who served for many years on the Alaska Supreme Court.

The survival of the State of Israel is important to the people of Alaska as it is to the American Jewish community and the American people. In Washington, I stand shoulder to shoulder with my colleagues in praying for peace in the Middle East while standing firm on the principle that terrorism is morally and politically unacceptable. Terrorism will not undo Israel's future. When the Senate returns in July, it will consider comprehensive energy legislation and I am hopeful that my amendment to guarantee that Israel will have a secure source of petroleum in the event it cannot independently acquire it due to an embargo will be in the bill when it passes the Senate.

During this visit to Alaska, as on previous visits, the Consul General will encounter the vast natural beauty of our state. But he will also discover, as in previous visits, that it is the people of Alaska that make this place truly special. Shalom, Mr. Consul General. I hope that you will visit with Alaskans often.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the message of Consul General Yossi Amrani be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

MESSAGE OF CONSUL GENERAL YOSSI AMRANI TO THE PEOPLE OF ALASKA

The friendship and alliance between the United States and Israel have many varied faces, moral, political, economic and strategic. The partnership is on the federal and state level alike. Israeli consulates in the country, local Jewish communities together with state level administrations aim at fostering and nurturing the relationship for the benefit of both countries. In the state of Alaska, thousands of miles apart, the Consulate General of Israel to the Pacific Northwest Region works with state leaders and the Jewish community to bring the two nations together in sharing the values, ideals and concerns of both people. The Consulate provides seminars and speaking engagements in different campuses, churches and temples to educate public opinion on the complexity of the situation in the Middle East and the importance of the U.S. role in that region. The Consulate also promotes Israeli culture and business opportunities. Mutual values are the corner stones of the relationship and affinity between the people of Alaska and Israel. As we maintain U.S. support for Israel's existence and well being, we aspire to continue building stronger relations.

HONORING THE LATE DAVID
BRINKLEY

Mrs. DOLE. Mr. President, I am honored today to talk about a pioneer for North Carolina in the field of journalism . . . the late David Brinkley. David died on June 12, at the age of 82, from complications resulting from a fall. He was laid to rest in his beloved home, Wilmington, North Carolina . . . beside his father—William Graham Brinkley and mother—Mary MacDonald West Brinkley.

David was born in Wilmington . . . He attended high school at New Hanover High School. While there . . . and after several long hours pouring over books in the Wilmington Library . . . David got an itch for journalism.

He didn't wait. He took a part-time job while still in high school, working for the Wilmington Morning Star and its afternoon edition, the Wilmington News. He said he made about $11 a week.

But the young boy, who once made extra money by changing light bulbs and running a soft-drink stand at Wrightsville Beach's Lumina Pavillion, went on to become an icon for millions of viewers who watched him each night. He and co-anchor Chet Huntley had the highest rated news program on American television during the 1960's with "The Huntley-Brinkley Report." Many of us still remember their familiar sign-off of "Good night, Chet," "Good night, David."

David went on to host "This Week With David Brinkley," until he retired in 1996.

Mr. President, at a time when we often get news that is too short, too sensationalized and sometimes too slanted, David Brinkley was the consummate newsman. He knew the issues, and his intelligence, quick wit and thirst for answers kept us all glued to the television.

I had the pleasure of personally knowing David Brinkley, and in addition to sharing a distinctive Southern twang, we shared a fondness for our home state. David wrote about Wilmington in his 1995 memoirs and even with all this success, all his fame, David and his wife, Susan, returned to his home in North Carolina often and supported his hometown. He was an ardent supporter of downtown Wilmington preservation. The University of North Carolina at Wilmington presented him with an honorary Doctor of Letters degree in 1974. He was added to Wilmington's Walk of Fame in 2001.

As much as David loved North Carolina—North Carolina loved him, too.

His life has been a model for so many North Carolinians—the local boy doing good . . . remembering his roots.

We will forever be indebted to David Brinkley for solid Washington reporting and his wry sense of humor. The Senate passed a resolution, which I co-sponsored, honoring the life and accomplishments of David Brinkley. May his legacy live on and inspire those who follow in his footsteps.

In an interview 11 years ago, David said this of his profession, “People go and find out what is happening, and then tell what they have seen. That’s all a reporter ever did. I think it’s a very honorable thing to do.”

Indeed, it is, David, indeed, it is.

Mr. President, I send out my heartfelt condolences—and those of all North Carolinians—to Susan and to David Brinkley’s family.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

WIND RIVER INDIAN RESERVATION’S 140TH ANNIVERSARY

• Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the 140th Anniversary of the Wind River Reservation.

On July 2, 1863, the U.S. Government and the Shoshone people signed the Fort Bridger Treaty, creating the Shoshone Reservation, which included over 44 million acres in what is now Colorado, Utah, Idaho, and Wyoming. This area was reduced to roughly 3 million acres by the second Fort Bridger Treaty of July 3, 1868, and was later renamed the Wind River Reservation during the 1930s. Today, the reservation is roughly more than 2 million acres, one of the largest in the country, and is located in central Wyoming’s beautiful Wind River Basin. It remains the contemporary home of the Eastern Shoshone and Northern Arapaho tribes.

Chief Washakie, a distinguished statesman of the Shoshone people, was one of the few Indian leaders to successfully negotiate with the U.S. Government in determining the reservation’s location. For centuries, American Indians who traveled through this area referred to it the Warm Valley of the Wind River because of surrounding hot springs. Renowned for his courage on the battlefield, and talent in diplomacy, the people of Wyoming selected Chief Washakie to represent our State, in the U.S. Capitol Building, as one of our two contributions to Statuary Hall.

The northern band of Arapahos began to make the Wind River Reservation a more permanent home during the last 1870s, though they were not signatories to either of the Fort Bridger Treaties. Under the leadership of men such as Black Coal, Sharp Nose, Little Wolf and White Horse, the Northern Arapahos settled in Wyoming, while the southern band of Arapahos was moved to a reservation in western Oklahoma. Wind River country encompasses mountains, streams, lakes and forests, and was favored by the Northern Arapaho over the hot and arid Oklahoma landscape.

The Wind River Indian Reservation is one of Wyoming’s great historical, cultural, and natural treasures. A grave site for Sacajawea, the young Shoshone woman who helped guide the Lewis and Clark expedition through Shoshone lands in the early 1800s, can be visited on the reservation. Both tribes continue to host several powwows during the spring and summer months that draw visitors and members of tribes from across the country. Later this week, the Eastern Shoshone will be celebrating the Treaty Days Powwow.

As we look back on the past 140 years, I would like to pay tribute to the important contribution American Indians have made to our history and our culture. Throughout my time in Congress, I have had the pleasure to work with tribal leaders from both tribes on the Wind River Reservation. I would like to thank Vernon Hill, chairman of the Eastern Shoshone Business Council and Burton Hutchinson, Sr., chairman of the Northern Arapaho Business Council, for their leadership as we work to ensure the prosperity of the Wind River Reservation for future generations.●

A GREAT MONTANAN—ANTHONY J. PREITE

• Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I rise today in celebration of a great Montanan and American, Anthony J. Preite.

Today, Mr. Preite, the director of the Denver Regional Office of the U.S. Department of Commerce Economic Development Administration is retiring. I have known Tony Preite for about 30 years. He was raised on Montana’s “High Line” in Havre, MT. After a short time as a high school teacher and coach, he was lured by the Bear Paw Development Corporation, an EDA designated economic development district, to come to work for them in 1968. A year later, he became the executive director of that fledgling organization and thus began a career in economic development that is virtually unparalleled today. Under Tony’s leadership, Bear Paw Development Corporation quickly developed a reputation as one of this Nation’s premiere economic development organizations. Tony spearheaded literally hundreds of economic and community development projects and programs in that part of northern Montana. These projects resulted in hundreds of jobs, scores of infrastructure improvements, and other activities that have improved the lives of people in that area. Among his other accomplishments at Bear Paw, he was a founding member of the Montana Economic Developer’s Association, served on the Montana Private Industry Council, and was chairman of the Governor’s Economic Development Council.

Tony’s work at Bear Paw Development Corporation was so successful that I felt the need to bring the benefit of his expertise and enthusiasm to more Montanans. That is why, in 1993, I recommended his appointment by President Clinton as State Director of the Montana Farmers Home administration. Through a reorganization at the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Tony led a successful transformation of the Farmers Home Administration Agency to the current Rural Development agency. While at the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Tony served on many national committees within the rural Development Agency, helping to guide the agency during its formative years. The success of the Rural Development Agency and the value of its programs today are largely due to the efforts that Tony made during his tenure there.

In December 1999, Tony accepted the position as Regional Director for the economic Development Administration. In this position, Tony has continued to impart his expertise and enthusiasm to a 10 State region. In his professional life, Tony has received accolades and awards too numerous to mention here. Instead, let me say that I have not met anyone as dedicated to public service as Tony Preite. Tony does not leave his work at the office. He lives and breathes “public service” every day, all day. It’s immediately apparent to anyone who meets him that he always cares about the people he serves. His works has made an enormous difference for Montana and for all of us who work and play there.

While Tony’s retirement is a sad occasion to all of us who work with him, it is well deserved. I can take comfort that he will be returning to Montana and that he will find some other way to continue to serve his State. I wish Tony and his wife Betty all the best and I thank him for more than 35 years of public service. Good luck, Tony, and welcome back to Montana!●

AL BRAIMAN: DEPAUL UNIVERSITY CLASS OF 2003

• Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I rise today to honor Al Braiman, graduate of DePaul University’s Class of 2003. Al was the oldest graduate of DePaul’s Class of 2003 when he graduated on June 14. Al completed a degree in liberal arts at DePaul’s College of New Learning with a grade point average of 3.92 out of a possible 4.0.

Born in Kiev, Russia, in 1920, Al immigrated to the United States at the age of one. His family took up residency in Chicago, where he lived most of his life. After high school, Al turned down an academic scholarship for college to support his family. Al joined the Army and served with distinction in World War II, spending most of his time on Guadalcanal.

After leaving the Army, Al owned and operated Lakeview Grocerland until the mid 1960s when he became an insurance salesman with Equitable Life Insurance Company. He became a certified life underwriter and chartered financial consultant. Al won many awards in the industry, including induction into the Equitable Hall of Fame.

After retiring in 1985, Al decided to earn a college degree, something he promised his mother earlier in his life. Al's interest in politics led him to take many political science and history courses at DePaul University. Some of his favorites included a class on American presidents and a course on race relations. He also enjoyed learning many new things such as use of the Internet, photography, and art. Al has proven that it is never too late to learn and we could all learn a great deal from his perseverance.

I know my fellow Senators will join me in congratulating Al Braiman, DePaul Class of 2003. His story contains all the elements of a great American life and I am honored to share it with my colleagues in the Senate.●

HONORING SUPERINTENDENT GERALD WAYNE COBB, ED.D

● Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, every session in Congress we spend a large amount of time discussing education in this country. Debates range from accountability to school construction to teacher recruitment. While our discussions are of the utmost importance, it is the implementation of our decisions by the individuals within the education system that changes how our children learn. Today I rise to honor a man who had dedicated his life to improving education for children in Louisiana, Dr. Gerald Wayne Cobb.

In 1960, Dr. Cobb received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Louisiana Tech University. Since that time he has been a crucial part of school improvements within the Lincoln Parish School System. Dr. Cobb has served as principal of Hillcrest Elementary School, Simsboro High School, and Ruston High School. He has worked as visiting associate professor at Louisiana State University and Louisiana Tech University.

Dr. Cobb has also served in the Louisiana Department of Education, working as the director of secondary education, the executive director of academic programs, and the executive assistant to the superintendent. While with the Louisiana Department of Education, Dr. Cobb was instrumental in developing the Compensatory Education Program in Louisiana which provided remediation for students not meeting the passing scores on the State's Basic Skills Testing Program. Dr. Cobb also revised Bulletin 741, which is the Louisiana Handbook for School Administration and served as the basis for the State's accreditation program. Dr. Cobb worked to increase in-service training for principals by co-authoring the Louisiana Academy for School Administrators Program and representing Louisiana at the Leadership Training for Principals.

After working with the Department of Education and serving as principal for schools throughout Lincoln Parish, Dr. Cobb continued his public service in the area of education by serving as superintendent for the Lincoln Parish School System. For the past 15 years, Dr. Cobb has immensely helped the 14 schools and 6,865 students in the Lincoln Parish School System. During his tenure, Dr. Cobb helped to construct the Lincoln Parish Secondary Alternative School at no cost to local taxpayers. He saw the students in Lincoln Parish receive the highest ACT scores throughout the State in 1996. In 2000, Ruston High School graduated seven National Merit Finalists, the most of any public, nonmagnet high school in the State. Dr. Cobb helped to expand the preschool program, implement the Even Start Program, construct a Parental Involvement Center, initiate the Career Options Program, wire all schools with the Internet, and implement 4x4 block scheduling in high schools.

The gifts that Dr. Cobb has given the Lincoln Parish School System and all of Louisiana go far beyond those that I have named above. Dr. Cobb has spent the past 43 years giving his kindness, his leadership, his vision, his service. It is to educators like Dr. Cobb that we owe many of the successes of our education policy. My best wishes are with Dr. Cobb and his family as he enters retirement.●

HONORING LOUIS AND LUJUANNA CARNEY

● Mr. CRAPO. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate my good friend, Louis Carney and his wife LuJuanna. Just last week, the Carneys, who live near my family's home in Idaho Falls, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. I am honored to know them and pleased that I was asked to join the celebration.

I can think of no better way to commemorate their 50 years together than to mention that they are the proud parents of eight children, six who are still with us—Don, Nancy, Bob, Terry, Kevin, and Kenneth; and two who have rejoined their Heavenly Father—Laurie Ann and Jean Marie; the even prouder grandparents of fifteen; and the great grandparents of one. It speaks very highly of their commitment to each other and their family that so many of their family members were on hand to mark the occasion. Louis has been a very good friend to me over the years, and I appreciate his wisdom and guidance on many matters. He has been a strong supporter of the Boy Scouts of America program, and I share his enthusiasm for this program which can be so important in helping young men to learn new skills and achieve goals.

Louis and LuJuanna have been important members of our community. They are always available for those who are in need. They radiate happiness and contentment, and can be counted on by not only their friends, but so many others. I am proud to mark their anniversary, and even more pleased to call them friends.●

TRIBUTE TO GARY R. COOPER

● Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize and commend Gary R. Cooper upon his retirement after serving for 20 years as Executive Director of SEARCH, the National Consortium for Justice Information and Statistics.

SEARCH is a national organization dedicated to enhancing the use of information and identification technology in law enforcement. SEARCH provides invaluable no-cost technical assistance, training and support to criminal justice agencies all over the country. The organization's members are Governors appointees from each State and their common goal is to ensure that the criminal justice community has access to services that will allow them to use the best technology for communications, information sharing, and criminal identification. SEARCH has been a tremendous asset to our Nation's law enforcement and this is due in no small part to the work of Gary Cooper.

Under Gary's leadership over the past 20 years, SEARCH has truly become a leader in encouraging States to participate in national information and identification technology programs. For instance, under Gary's leadership, SEARCH made a profound contribution to the States' effective participation in the Interstate Identification Index and the National Fingerprint File, and the National Crime Information Center 2000 (NCIC 2000) program.

Through SEARCH, Gary has also helped to implement policies on the national level. While Gary has headed SEARCH, it has made a profound contribution to the development and implementation of the National Criminal Background Check System. SEARCH also played a pivotal role in the development and enactment of the Crime Identification Technology Act which today creates the legal and funding platform for the Federal /State criminal justice technology partnership. Because of Gary, SEARCH was, and is, the primary State voice in support of the successful and ongoing national adoption of the Interstate Identification Index and Privacy Compact and the development of the Compact Council.

At every important moment in the past 20-year history of criminal justice information and identification technology, Gary Cooper has been a courageous leader, an untiring champion and an insightful and influential national voice.

On the occasion of his retirement, I thank Gary R. Cooper for all that he has accomplished on behalf of criminal justice in the United States.●

HONORING HUGH BRADY

• Mr. CRAPO. Mr. President, I rise today to congratulate Mr. Hugh Brady of Boise Idaho who will be inducted into the Idaho High School Activities Hall of Fame on August 6th, 2003. In 1954 Mr. BRADY started working at Idaho Sporting Goods, and he has been dedicated to helping young people in Idaho participate in athletics ever since. Mr. BRADY, who later became the owner of the sporting goods store, has sponsored Little League baseball teams, football teams, basketball teams, soccer teams, softball teams, and bowling teams. He also took the time to coach many teams over the years.

Mr. BRADY has demonstrated extraordinary support for athletics and the youth of Idaho. There have been numerous instances when a student could not afford the cost of equipment to participate in a sport and Mr. BRADY made sure that they got it. Mr. BRADY, you make Idaho proud!

For the past 4 years, Mr. BRADY has battled lung cancer. My wife, Susan, and I along with many Idahoans will keep him in our thoughts and prayers.●

HONORING VICTIMS OF GUN VIOLENCE

• Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, earlier this week, more than 35 dedicated cyclists with People Pedaling Peace made the 200-mile trip from Hampton, VA, to Washington, DC, to honor and remember victims of gun violence. In partnership with the Alliance for Justice, the People Pedaling Peace cyclists rode not only in honor of the victims of gun violence, but for stronger, more sensible gun safety laws in America and to raise awareness of violence against children in this country.

Pedaling for Peace was started in 2001 by Sandra and Mike McSweeney whose daughter, Stephanie, was killed while walking out of a roller rink in Hampton, VA. Mr. and Mrs. McSweeney, as well as several other individuals affected by gun violence and violence against children made the journey this year. Others who made the trip include Craig Scott, whose sister Rachel is a Columbine survivor; Amber Hensley, a student at Thurston High School in Eugene, OR, who witnessed the shootings; and Lorraine Reed, mother of two daughters, one of whom was murdered and one of whom was seriously assaulted. Unfortunately, the total number of people like them who have lost family and friends to gun violence continues to grow.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the total number of gun deaths in the United States has been dropping since 1993, when it peaked at nearly 40,000, to around 28,000 annually 1999 through 2001. However, guns still kill more young people in America than the most common diseases of our time. Thousands more children are injured, lose a loved one, or live in fear of gun violence.

I hope my colleagues will join me in commending all of the cyclists who pedaled for peace, and join me in supporting sensible gun safety legislation.●

• Mr. VOINOVICH. Mr. President, I rise today on behalf of a bill considered by the Senate, H.R. 985, to designate a post office in Bowling Green, OH, as the Delbert L. Latta Post Office Building. I strongly support this bill honoring a long-time member of the Ohio congressional delegation. Naming this post office after Del Latta is a fitting way to honor him. The building that houses this post office also served as a district office for Mr. Latta during his 30 years of service in Congress.

Delbert Latta is a native and lifelong resident of Ohio. Born in the small northwestern town of Weston, OH, Mr. Latta attended Findlay College and Ohio Northern University Law School.

Mr. Latta began his service to our Nation as a member of the Ohio National Guard. During World War II, Mr. Latta served with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves.

After his military service, Mr. Latta practiced law in Bowling Green, but in 1953, he again answered the call to public service by running for the State legislature. Mr. Latta was elected to the Ohio State Senate. After serving three terms, Mr. Latta was elected by the people of Ohio's fifth congressional district to the U.S. House of Representatives. During his long and distinguished career in Congress, Mr. Latta fought hard against wasteful government spending and to balance the Federal budget, a passion that I share.

During his 30 years in Congress, Mr. Latta earned prominent committee assignments in the House, including serving as the ranking member of the Budget Committee, and as a member of the powerful Rules Committee, and the Agriculture Committee.

Naming this post office the Delbert L. Latta Post Office Building is a wonderful tribute to a man who served Ohio and our Nation with distinction throughout his life.

I thank my colleagues for their consideration of this matter.●

TRIBUTE TO ARTHUR G. STEPHENSON

• Mr. SHELBY. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the outstanding accomplishments and distinguished career of Mr. Arthur G. Stephenson upon his retirement as the Director of the NASA Marshall Space Flight Center. It has been a privilege for me to get to know Art. While retirement announcements are things that we do not like to hear when it involves someone who has been as vital to the success of an organization as Art has been to Marshall's, I would like to say how much I have enjoyed working with Art and his staff during his tenure as the Director of the Marshall Space Flight Center.

As the Director of one of NASA's largest field installations, with more than 6,500 civil service and contract employees and an annual budget in excess of $2 billion, Art successfully managed a very broad range of activities for the U.S. space program. Some of these critical NASA initiatives included development of new reusable launch vehicles, space shuttle propulsion, advanced space transportation systems, second and third generation propulsion technology development programs, research in microgravity, and science payload operations aboard the International Space Station. He also oversaw the establishment of the National Space Science Technology Center, a partnership with universities and Federal agencies to conduct cutting-edge research. Art also oversaw the planning and establishment of the Propulsion Research Laboratory, a world-class laboratory for research into future space transportation and propulsion technology. Art has led the Marshall Center in numerous successful space shuttle launches in which Marshall was responsible for all propulsion elements. Under Art's direction, the Marshall Center has completed testing of the truss and pressurized modules for the International Space Station, and provided support for the construction and operation of the International Space Station, including Marshall's Payload Operations Center which controls all the science experiments aboard the space station.

Art brought more than 35 years of experience in the space industry to NASA and used it to the great benefit of the Marshall Center and the U.S. space program. I could list many additional achievements and professional accomplishments, and I believe that success is directly attributable to Art's record as an extraordinary leader throughout his career.

Art has been an important and respected member of the Huntsville community. I know that I speak for many people in Huntsville and everyone in the NASA family when I say that we all thank Art for his tireless commitment to NASA and to Marshall. We sincerely hope that he and his family will remain part of the Huntsville community for many years to come.●

ARTHUR LEVITT, JR.

• Mr. SARBANES. Mr. President, earlier this month the Franklin D. Roosevelt Distinguished Public Service Award was presented to Arthur Levitt, Jr., the widely respected former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The award is made annually by the Franklin D. and Eleanor Roosevelt Institute, on whose board I am privileged to serve.

The speaker at the presentation was Conrad Black, now Lord Black, chairman of the Telegraph Group, Limited. Lord Black is active in numerous non-profit boards, foundations and councils.

In his remarks Lord Black spoke vividly and in detail about Depression-era America, and the "bold experimentation," as he put it, of the New Deal years.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of Lord Black's remarks be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ADDRESS OF LORD BLACK AT FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD DINNER

On election night, 1932, unemployment stood at approximately 30%. There was minimal direct government relief for the 14 million or so unemployed. Their condition was alleviated by private sector charity, and by theft and begging.

The Soviet Union advertised in the United States for 6,000 skilled workers to go to Russia in 1932 for a period of several years; it's New York office was swamped with 100,000 applications. The natives of West Africa sent New York City $3.77 to help with relief for the poor. When the city of Birmingham, Alabama, advertised for 750 ditch-diggers to work ten-hour days for $2 per day, 12,000 applications arrived in two days.

In the coal-mining regions of Kentucky and West Virginia, over 90% of children were suffering from malnutrition. The country had suffered a general deflation of more than 20%. Millions of Americans faced the distinct possibility of death by starvation or exposure to the elements. Large numbers of people lived from the scraps and leftovers thrown out in the garbage by restaurants and hotels.

The volume of cheque transactions and of stock market transactions in the United States had declined by 60% since 1929. The amount of new capital financing had declined by over 95% since 1929. The volume of new building contracts had declined by 75%. By inauguration day in March 1933, the Dow-Jones Industrial Average was down by 90% from its high in September, 1929.

BANK FAILURES

There had been 5,000 bank failures in three years, wiping out nine million individual bank accounts. Steel production was under 20% of capacity, and United States Steel Corporation, which had had 225,000 full-time employees in 1929, now had no full-time employees, apart from those in the executive offices.

Total non-agricultural production was less than half of its 1929 level. Manufacturing income has shrunk by 65%. Agricultural production, while approximately equal in physical volume to that of 1929, had shrunk in farm income from $12 billion to slightly over $5 billion.

About 45% of the residential homes in America had been or were in danger of being foreclosed by mortgage-holders. Through the first six months of 1933, 250,000 homes were foreclosed, well over a thousand per day, the families pitched out into the streets. The money supply, deflation-adjusted, had declined by 25% in four years.

Many local and state governments, including Chicago and Georgia, could not pay their schoolteachers. Georgia closed over a thousand schools attended by 170,000 students. Most rural Alabama white schools were closed through the early months of 1933.

On the day before inauguration day, 32 states had closed all their banks indefinitely. Six other states had closed almost all their banks. In the other ten states and in the District of Columbia, withdrawals were limited to 5% of deposits and in Texas to $10 per day. The U.S. financial system had reached the last extremity before it would collapse completely, taking the life's savings of tens of millions of people and what was left of the international economic system with it.

American literature achieved a virtual golden age with writers such as John Steinbeck, Erskine Caldwell, Edmund Wilson, and John Dos Passos describing depression conditions.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT'S FIRST INAUGURAL ADDRESS

Over 400,000 people came out to hear Franklin D. Roosevelt's famous first inaugural address; they covered 40 acres of lawns adjacent to the Capitol. For the first time since the Civil War, soldiers in full combat gear and machine gun emplacements surrounded by sand-bags were visibly guarding the main public buildings of Washington.

Roosevelt promised bold experimentation. In the Hundred Days of the spring of 1933, the Roosevelt administration reorganized and reopened the banks and guaranteed their deposits, a great monetary step as bank deposits now joined most definitions of the money supply.

The legislation of the Hundred Days incentivized price and wage increases, reduced the working week, cut government salaries, increased some marginal taxes, tolerated a degree of cartelism to raise prices and avoid over-production, encouraged collective bargaining, and engaged in massive workfare schemes that employed nearly half the unemployed in projects of conservation and public works. In the first year of these programs, 500,000 miles of roads and 40,000 schools, 3,500 parks and 1,000 airfields were built or upgraded. The Civilian Conservation Corps, through the 'thirties, thinned four million acres of trees, stocked one billion fish, and built 30,000 animal shelters.

Ordinary unemployment declined by four million through 1933, partly due to the reduction in the work week. Farmers voted by category to approve production cutbacks, permitting farm price increases, and some of the agricultural surplus was taken for distribution to the needy. The Tennessee Valley Authority was launched and great progress began on rural electrification, flood control, and drought control.

The Hundred Days also refinanced the nation's mortgages, effectively departed the gold standard, exchanged embassies with the Soviet Union, and repealed Prohibition.

THE SECOND NEW DEAL

The second New Deal, in 1934 and 1935, was built around Social Security and included the Labour Relations Act, the Securities and Exchange Commission, a comprehensive modernization of the Federal Reserve, and what was called, but was not really, a Wealth Tax. It outraged William Randolph Hearst and stole the thunder of Huey Long and other radicals, as it was designed to do.

After a pause, when unemployment again began to rise, Roosevelt brought in the third New Deal in 1938 with the Fair Labor Standards Act and massive public works and conservation employment schemes. These were successful and reduced unemployment in mid-1939 to about 8%, less than two points above where it stands today, if the public sector relief workers are considered to be employed people.

Thereafter, like other countries, the United States relied on rearmament and the selective service to reduce unemployment, which fell by up to 500,000 per month coming up to the 1940 election, and had almost vanished before the entry of the United States into the war in 1941.

THE GI BILL OF RIGHTS

Finally, came the GI Bill of Rights, which greatly subsidized the education, and home and farm and business ownership of veterans. In the late 'forties, nearly half the male university students of the United States were beneficiaries of that act and the barriers to advancement for working class families were largely removed.

I yield to few people in my enthusiasm for the capitalist system, but we must all remember that in 1933, capitalism in America had failed, and the political system was in danger of failing with it.

Roosevelt developed a refrain in his later elections that served him well and was unanswerable. It went: "You are, most of you, old enough to remember what things were like in 1933.

"You remember the closed banks and the breadlines and the starvation wages; the foreclosures of homes and farms, and the bankruptcies of business; the 'Hoovervilles,' and the young men and women of the Nation facing a hopeless, jobless, future; the closed factories and mines and mills; the ruined and abandoned farms; the stalled railroads and the empty docks; the blank despair of a whole Nation, and the utter impotence of the Federal Government."

The voters did remember, as people remember a horrible nightmare; but it had not been a dream; it was the United States in 1933.●

S. 1338. A bill to decrease the matching funds requirement and authorize additional appropriations for Keweenaw National Historical Park in the State of Michigan; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the Keweenaw National Historical Park bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1338

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. FUNDING FOR KEWEENAW NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK.

(a) MATCHING FUNDS.—Section 8(b) of Public Law 102-543 (16 U.S.C. 410yy-7(b)) is amended by striking “$4” and inserting “$1”.

(b) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—Section 10(a) of Public Law 102-543 (16 U.S.C. 410yy-9(a)) is amended—

(1) by striking “$25,000,000” and inserting “$50,000,000”; and

(2) by striking “$3,000,000” and inserting “$25,000,000”.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will authorize additional judgeships in the Middle and Southern Federal Judicial Districts of Florida.

Additional judgeships are needed in these two districts in order to deal with a large volume of filings, heavy pending caseloads, the considerable number of senior judges, and a rapidly growing population. It is vital that we add two additional permanent and one temporary judgeship in the Middle District and four additional permanent judgeships in the Southern District of Florida.

Florida’s Middle District is one of the busiest Federal district courts in the Nation. In 2001 it was ranked fifth in the Nation for the number of criminal defendants charged with fraud and drug related offenses among all district courts. It handles cases filed in three of the four largest cities in the State of Florida, Jacksonville, Orlando and Tampa, which comprise 60 percent of the State’s population.

In 1999 four judges were added to the Middle District of Florida. The numbers of weighted filings and pending caseload both decreased in 2000. However, numbers quickly rose again in 2001. A biennial judgeship survey conducted in 2003 showed that in 2001 there were 553 weighted filings in this district versus the national average of 490. In addition, the United States Department of Justice has identified Central Florida as a High Intensity Drug Trafficking Enforcement Area.

The Southern and Middle Districts are parallel in some of the challenges that they face. Despite the additional judgeships that were created in the Southern District in 2001, the amount of weighted filings continues to rise. Since 1994, civil and criminal filings per judgeship have stayed above the national average, with civil filings rising by 67 percent and criminal filings increasing by 58 percent. Many of these increases in criminal filings are linked to the increase in fraud, drugs, firearms and immigration prosecutions.

The administration of justice will continue to be a challenge in Florida’s Federal courts unless adequate resources are committed. It is projected that by 2015 Florida may surpass third-ranked New York in population. As the population increases, so do the number of people seeking justice from the Federal courts in our State. I ask that my colleagues join me in supporting this important legislation.

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN:

S. 1342. A bill to amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act to give the Secretary of the Interior discretion regarding taking land into trust; to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation to amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act to give the State of California and the local communities of Sonoma, Napa, and Marin counties the opportunity for input and review of the tribe’s plan for a major casino in the Bay Area.

I am offering this legislation because the Boards of Supervisors of the local communities impacted by this planned casino have asked me to amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act. The Boards of Supervisors of Sonoma, Marin, and Napa counties have each unanimously passed resolutions seeking a change in Federal law to restore the Secretary of Interior’s discretion in approving land into trust and allowing the State and local government to have a voice in the process.

Prior to today’s introduction I have met with the Presidents of the Sonoma and Marin Boards of Supervisors, the Graton tribe, and Senators CAMPBELL and INOUE the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Indian Affairs Committee.

This week I had a very spirited and frank conversation with Graton Tribal Chairman Greg Sarris and representatives from the casino investors. During the meeting Chairman Sarris committed to work with the local Boards of Supervisors and he committed to look at alternative sites for the casino. Chairman Sarris also said the Tribe and the casino investors would conduct an environmental review based on the criteria laid out in the National Environmental Policy Act, NEPA, before a site is selected. These are positive signs and I have told both the Boards of Supervisors and the Tribe that I would like to see them continue to work together.

This legislation guarantees that the local and State officials have a voice in the process. Without this change to the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act they do not have that voice.

In 2000, Congress passed the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act to restore Federal recognition to the 355 members of the Federated Indians of the Graton Rancheria.

The Graton Tribe’s original Rancheria was in the northern Sonoma County town of Graton on land purchased by the Bureau of Indian Affairs, BIA, in 1920 for the “village home” of otherwise homeless Miwok and Pomo Indians. The Rancheria was terminated in 1958 when the BIA approved a plan to distribute the assets to resident Indians and remove the Rancheria from Federal trust.

The original version of the Graton restoration bill, H.R. 946, sponsored by Congresswoman LYNN WOOLSEY in the 106th Congress, passed the House of Representatives with a gaming restriction, to which the Tribe agreed.

In testimony before the House Resources Committee in May 2000, and in other public comments, Graton Chairman Greg Sarris stated that the Tribe had no intention of conducting gaming.

In fact, before the House Resources Committee, Chairman Sarris stated, “Many may think our motives for restoration have been influenced by the opportunity gaming affords some other recognized tribes. Because our local political constituency, both democratic and republican has opposed any sort of development for environmental reasons, we agreed with these local political forces to not develop a gaming complex. So, as proof, we voted as a tribe to include a non-gaming clause in our bill, stipulating that we will not be a gaming tribe.”

Furthermore, in an article in the Marin Independent Journal on September 21, 2000, Chairman Sarris said, “All we want is to be formally recognized as Indians and have the same rights that other Indians do for education and health care. We are not interested in gambling.” I ask unanimous consent to print a copy of this article in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the article was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GAMBLING DISPUTE THREATENS MIWOK BILL (By Gannet News Service)

WASHINGTON.—Legislation to formally reestablish the identity and standing of Marin’s band of Coast Miwok Indians appears all but dead in the face of a House-Senate dispute over how tight guarantees must be that the tribe will never allow casino gambling.

“This is insane, this is frustrating, and I just can’t see why we can’t find a way out of this,” said Greg Sarris, the tribe’s chief who is an English professor at UCLA.

Rep. Lynn Woolsey, the Petaluma Democrat who authored the original bill, said she shares the frustration but sees little hope other than the fact that "down the road there will be other Congresses."

The problem is that the bill to restore the all-but-vanquished tribe, approved by the full House in June, included specific language that waived in perpetuity any right to establish gaming on the tribe's remaining one-acre ancestral plot in the Sonoma County town of Graton.

Woolsey sought that waiver in agreement with the tiny tribe. In hearings last spring and summer, she and Sarris said the tribe was happy to agree to the waiver. They were not interested in gaming, and their acreage was too small even if they were interested. Additionally, the fine print in a state-passed referendum in California to divide gaming resources among tribes prevents them from operating any kind of casino.

Adding a federal gaming ban on top of an existing state ban was an easy and harmless layer of extra insurance to reassure the community that the tribe would not be bringing high-stakes bingo to Marin.

"All we want is to be formally recognized as Indians and have the same rights that other Indians do for education and health care," said Sarris, one of some 300 descendants of the tribe that the government declared extinct in the 1950s. "We are not interested in gambling."

But when the bill reached the Senate as an identical version of the bill sponsored by Sen. Barbara Boxer, D-Calif., numerous Indian advocates and the government's Bureau of Indian Affairs objected. The surrender of sovereignty by the Miwoks, however well-intentioned, would set a precedent that could be used against other tribes in other states—in effect a means to pressure tribes on the sensitive issue of gambling.

"It's not that we don't have sympathy with what the Miwoks want to do, or in this case don't want to do. It's a question of eroding the hard-won sovereignty that is the legal basis for the gambling that has been an important resource of many tribes," said John Sanchez, an expert on Indian sovereignty at Pennsylvania State University and a member of the Apache tribe.

Boxer's spokesman, David Sandretti, said his bill was still hopeful, but the key lawmaker on the issue is Sen. Daniel Inouye of Hawaii, vice chairman of the Indian Affairs Committee and long a powerful voice on behalf of American Indians and native Hawaiians. Without his support, the bill wouldn't survive in the Senate, Sandretti said.

Inouye made it clear this week that the bill is dead unless Woolsey agreed to drop the gambling ban in her legislation.

"If you set that precedent, that creates a lot of problems," Inouye said. "I would prefer to see a measure without the waiver, and if I do I'd be likely to support it."

Inouye added that it's a meaningless, symbolic waiver to begin with, because the tribe is already prevented from opening a casino by state law. "I just don't think this is something that the federal government should be involved in," he said.

Woolsey said she has no intention of agreeing to anything that doesn't include the anti-gaming clause as written.

"I got it out of the House, and now it's in the Senate, and I guess that's just where it is," Woolsey said. "I've heard some proposals for compromise, but I haven't seen anything that would offer the level of protection against gaming that the community and the 6th Congressional District would be prepared to accept."

Gene Buvelot of Novato, vice chairman of the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria, said his group is disappointed in Woolsey, because members believe she should allow the bill to go forward without the clause.

"We're disappointed, deeply disappointed with Woolsey because she seems to be the one who's dropped the ball on this, not Barbara Boxer," he said. "It's a shame that it's getting this far and that Woolsey is letting it bog down like this."

Coast Miwok tribal elder Joanne Campbell, a former Marin resident now living in Daly City, said she often visited her great aunt at the Miwok's Graton Rancheria in Sonoma County.

"I'm really steamed, I'm just so upset that this bill maybe will not pass," Campbell said. "I think it's a just bill and it's about time we got some recognition because we have all these other issues to deal with, Health issues, education issues, and we need this recognition to move forward."

The bill would make the tribe eligible for a wide range of U.S. and California health, education and housing grants and assistance from various federal agencies, give the tribe the right to establish a reservation and exempt the tribe from some local, state, or federal taxes and local zoning ordinances on reservation land.

If the bill is not passed by Oct. 5, when the Senate recesses, a new restoration bill would have to wait until the next Congress.

Campbell described Woolsey's refusal to drop the redundant anti-gaming clause from the reasonable version as "unrelenting" and "unreasonable."

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Senator BOXER sponsored legislation identical to Congresswoman WOOLSEY'S in the Senate, but the gaming restriction was stricken when the bill was ultimately passed as part of the Omnibus Indian Advancement Act of 2000.

The day the legislation passed on December 11, 2000, Senator BOXER stated on the Senate Floor that dropping the gaming restriction was necessary because of opposition to the no-gaming clause by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs and the Clinton Administration and because, according to Senator BOXER, "Senator INOUE asserts that the no-gaming clause is unnecessary because the Graton Rancheria have no intention of conducting gaming."

So what has changed one might ask?

Well, even though the Graton voluntarily and repeatedly took a no-gaming pledge while their restoration bill was under consideration by Congress, on April 23, 2003, the Tribe and its partner, Stations Casinos of Las Vegas, announced plans to purchase approximately 2,000 acres of land in Southern Sonoma County near Sears Point for the development of a casino.

This site is located on environmentally sensitive open space and San Francisco—North Bay tidelands which have been the subject of a decades-long conservation effort by environmentalists and local residents.

This site is roughly 30 miles from San Francisco—along the gateway to Sonoma that leads thousands of travelers into the beautiful wine country each day.

The Tribe's casino proposal has outraged local elected officials and residents who had sympathized with the Tribe's plight and supported their restoration on the condition that they not seek to develop a casino. The Sonoma and Marin County Boards of Supervisors have each passed unanimous resolutions objecting to the Graton casino proposal. In fact, even the Board of Supervisors of neighboring Napa has also passed a resolution against the casino proposal. I ask unanimous consent to print these resolutions and letters from the counties in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the materials were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

MARIN COUNTY, SAN RAFAEL, CA
AND SONOMA COUNTY, SANTA
ROSE, CA,

May 29, 2003.

Senator DIANNE FEINSTEIN,
U.S. Senate,
San Francisco, CA.

DEAR SENATOR FEINSTEIN: We write this joint letter to request your assistance with an urgent matter facing Marin and Sonoma counties. As you are aware, the Graton Rancheria Tribe has announced plans to acquire lands adjacent to the San Pablo Bay National Wildlife Refuge and to construct a major casino in partnership with Stations Casinos of Las Vegas. The proposal came as a shock to us since, at the time it sought restoration in 2000, the Graton tribe represented to Congress that it would not engage in gaming. It now appears that the Secretary of the Interior believes she must take into trust any land within our counties acquired by the tribe, and that gaming will be permitted on these lands without consultation with local governments or discretionary review by the Secretary.

We ask that you sponsor legislation to require that tribal trust land acquisitions be subject to consultation with local governments and an appropriate administrative review. We ask that restored tribal land acquired for gaming be subject to the two part test that it is not detrimental to the community and is supported by the Governor. Finally, we ask that the Secretary be given discretion with respect to accepting land into trust for the benefit of the Graton tribe. County Counsel from our two counties have prepared a letter to you providing background and supporting details regarding our proposals.

We know that you share our concern about the proliferation of casinos in California, especially those which are close to metropolitan areas or have impacts on sensitive lands.

We look forward to working with you to bring about changes in the law which can advance the economic interests of tribes without harm to the local community.

Very truly yours,

ANNETTE ROSE,
President, Marin County Board of Supervisors.

PAUL KELLEY,
Chairman, Sonoma
visors.

RESOLUTION No. 03-0512

Whereas, the agricultural lands and wetlands fronting the San Francisco Bay along Highway 37 constitute one of the most environmentally sensitive regions in the entire Bay Area in light of their proximity to and drainage directly into the Bay;

Whereas, the agricultural lands along Lakeville Highway afford an invaluable agricultural and scenic resource, not only to the people of Sonoma County but to the populace of the entire Bay Area;

Whereas, such lands provide one of the Bay Area's most cherished community separators, and represent an important scenic gateway to Sonoma County;

Whereas, these bay, agriculture and wet lands have been the focus of preservation and conservation efforts by environmentalists and local communities for many years;

Whereas, based upon press reports, approximately 2,000 acres of such lands are presently in imminent danger of being withdrawn from County land use control and placed into trust for the purposes of casino development—including the potential of an extensive gaming complex, including a hotel, parking and other support services as well as possible residential development, by Station Casinos, a Las Vegas-based developer and the Federated Indians of the Graton Rancheria ("Tribe");

Whereas, the Tribe was restored in 2000 based, in part, on its promise not to engage in Indian casino gaming;

Whereas, the federal legislation restoring the Tribe contains language that could be used to circumvent the normally required environmental review and administrative regulatory process for taking land into trust by the United States government on behalf of the Tribe;

Whereas, the Tribe's gaming plans were announced in the media without any government to government consultation with affected local communities;

Whereas, the Board and Tribe have initiated communication regarding the proposed casino but details regarding the project and siting have not yet been made available;

Whereas, the proposed project could overwhelm the local infrastructure in the area in which the casino project is proposed;

Whereas, the environmental impacts of the proposed project have the potential of being as reaching and of such a magnitude that they would negatively affect a significant portion of the North Bay, including grossly aggravating existing traffic problems along State Highways 37 and 101 (as well as County roads in the project vicinity), pose severe water quality risks, and have profound negative visual impacts in the scenic area;

Whereas, when California voters approved Proposition 1A (Indian Gaming) in March of 2000 as a means of supporting the laudable goal of Indian economic development and self-sufficiency, they were not aware that such approval would allow Nevada developers to seize prized off-reservation environmental resources of intense development without regarding to locally approved general plans or any meaningful environmental review or protection;

Whereas, under the provisions of Proposition 1A and the Tribal-State Compact, local communities have been granted no effective input into the development of proposed tribal casinos that threaten their rights and the State appears to have no effective redress for significant environmental impacts these gambling casinos impose on local communities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Sonoma County Board of supervisors, based on the information currently available, strongly opposes the creation of a gambling casino on the site proposed by the Tribe; and be it further

Resolved, That County staff is directed to enter into good faith discussions with tribal representatives for the purposes of facilitating government to government communications, exploring casino development and reviewing alternative sites, as well as minimizing and mitigating environmental impacts of any casino project; be it further

Resolved, That County staff is authorized to take all reasonably required action, including submitting comments to agencies involved in considering the trust application and casino proposal, requesting assistance from State and Federal elected representative, proposing legislation, participating in administrative proceedings, and initiating litigation to insure that any proposed gaming project in Sonoma County complies with the county General Plan and meets all federal and state environmental, public health, and public safety requirements that otherwise would apply to a non-Indian development project, and to require that any land proposed to be taken into trust goes through a thorough regulatory and environmental review process.

Whereas, the agricultural lands and wetlands fronting the San Francisco Bay along Highway 37 constitute one of the most environmentally sensitive regions in the entire Bay Area in light of their proximity to and drainage directly in to the Bay; and

Whereas, the Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria have announced their intention to acquire 2000 acres of land along Highway 37 and develop a casino, hotel, housing and related development on this precious natural resource; and

Whereas, the impact on traffic of a development of this magnitude will be felt throughout the North Bay, with this single development jeopardizing all traffic capacity with local jurisdictions have husbanded for purposes consistent with their respective General Plans; and

Whereas, when Congress passed the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act, the Federated Indians of Graton had pledged not to engage in gaming on any lands placed in trust by the federal government; and

Whereas, the Federated Indians of the Graton Rancheria take the position that under the provisions of the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act, and the tribal state compact, local residents have no effective input into the development of the proposed tribal casino, yet these residents nevertheless bear the resultant environmental, societal, traffic, infrastructure, public safety, and other burdens which these gambling casinos impose on their communities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin calls on its elected members of the United States Senate, Dianne Feinstein and Barbara Boxer, and its elected member of the House of Representatives, Lynn Woolsey, to assist the residents of Marin and the entire North Bay to preserve their environment by introducing legislation that would amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act and/or the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act to stop the unregulated creation of tribal lands and to subject any development of tribal lands in the newly acquired tribal lands by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Let me just read one part of the Resolution from Marin County which will give you an idea of the opposition to the Graton tribe's proposed casino:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin calls on its elected members of the United States Senate, DIANNE FEINSTEIN and BARBARA BOXER, and its elected member of the House of Representatives, LYNN WOOLSEY, to assist the residents of Marin and the entire North Bay to preserve their environment by introducing legislation that would amend the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act and/or the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act to stop the unregulated creation of tribal lands and to subject development of tribal lands in the Marin and Sonoma Counties at a minimum to the regulatory and approval processes applicable to newly acquired tribal lands by the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act.

While the counties acknowledge that the Graton have a right to be recognized, they object to the site selected by the tribe and they especially object to language in the Restoration Act that precludes the local community, the Governor, or the Secretary of the Interior from providing input on the suitability of this location for land taken into trust for gaming purposes.

There is a problematic section of the Restoration Act that states, "Upon application by the Tribe, the Secretary shall accept into trust for the benefit of the Tribe any real property located in Marin or Sonoma County . . ." According to the Department of the Interior, this language removes any discretion by the Secretary as well as any tribal obligations for consultation with the surrounding community or environmental review, as required by the normal process under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act for newly acquired land taken into trust for gaming purposes.

According to the Department of the Interior, the tribe must only conduct a hazardous materials review and show title to the land for land to be taken into trust. This could be completed in 9 months—and it is an inadequate review in my opinion.

Since the local communities are seeking a remedy which would restore the Secretary's discretion in approving its land trust application and allow local government to provide input in the process, I am introducing this legislation today that will change the "shall take land into trust" to "may take land into trust." This legislation will also require the two-part test that is standard under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988 to apply so that the State and local communities have input in the process.

There is precedent for this change. In 1994, legislation was passed restoring the United Auburn Tribe with the same directive to the Secretary of the Interior, requiring that land "shall" be taken into trust for the Tribe. One of the restoration act's sponsors, Congressman JOHN DOOLITTLE sponsored an amendment to change "shall" to "may" after it had been passed, thereby affording the Secretary of Interior discretion in accepting particular parcels of land into trust and local government officials an opportunity to weigh in on the Tribe's proposed site.

The result of that change was that the Auburn Tribe and Placer County officials successfully cooperated in not only identifying a mutually agreeable site, but they signed a Memorandum of Understanding to mitigate potential impacts from the proposed Thunder Valley Casino. And earlier this month, the tribe opened its casino.

Today California is home to 109 federally recognized tribes. 61 tribes have gaming compacts with the State and there are 54 tribal casinos. With more than 50 tribes seeking Federal recognition and approximately 23 recognized tribes seeking gaming compacts from the Governor, revenues from California's tribal gaming industry are expected to surpass Nevada's by the end of the decade.

The dramatic growth in tribal gaming in California has the potential to yield much needed benefits for tribal members in terms of healthcare, education and general welfare, as Congress and California voters intended. However, the question is not whether gaming should be permitted, but rather how and where. Those questions were asked and answered in the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act of 1988, IGRA. But without the modest change made by this legislation, the Graton tribe will be allowed to develop an off-reservation casino outside the requirements established in IGRA, the first time such an exception has ever been made for a California tribe. Allowing this to happen would set a dangerous precedent not only for California, but every State where tribal gaming is permitted.

The changes we are seeking today are extremely modest. We are not reversing any restoration of the tribe. We are not infringing on Native American sovereignty. We are not even blocking the casino proposal. We are only seeking to give the State and the local communities a voice in the process. They were promised the tribe would not open a casino. That promise was broken, so the least we can do is ensure a normal review will take place.

I hope my colleagues will support this legislation and I look forward to working with the Chairman and Ranking Member of the Indian Affairs Committee to pass this legislation quickly.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT TO GIVE SECRETARY DISCRETION CONCERNING LANDS TAKEN INTO TRUST.

(a) REVIEW.—Section 1404 of the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act (25 U.S.C. 1300n-2) is amended by adding at the end the following new subsection:

"(f) REVIEW.—No land taken into trust for the benefit of the Tribe shall be construed to satisfy the terms for an exception under section 20(b)(1)(B) of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (25 U.S.C. 2719(b)(1)(B)) to the prohibition on gaming on lands acquired by the Secretary in trust for the benefit of an Indian tribe after October 17, 1988, under section 20(a) of such Act (25 U.S.C. 2719(a))."

(b) LAND INTO TRUST.—Section 1405(a) of the Graton Rancheria Restoration Act (25 U.S.C. 1300n-3(a)) is amended by striking "shall" and inserting "may".

By Mr. CORZINE (for himself,
Mr. SCHUMER, Mr. AKAKA, and Mrs. BOXER):

S. 1344. A bill to amend the Electronic Fund Transfer Act to require additional disclosures relating to exchange rates in transfers involving international transactions, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

Mr. CORZINE. Mr. President, today, along with my distinguished colleagues

Senators SCHUMER, AKAKA, and BOXER, I am introducing "The Money Wire Improvement and Remittance Enhancement Act" (The "Money WIRE Act"), legislation that will protect consumers who send cash remittances through international money wire transmitters by providing them with increased disclosure of the exchange rate and service fees, as well as hidden costs, for those transactions. The legislation also expands access to mainstream money wiring, check cashing, and other important services for millions of the unbanked in America, particularly immigrants, through our Nation's credit unions.

Every year, thirty million Americans send their friends and relatives $40 billion in cash remittances through wire transfers. The majority of these transfers are remittances sent to their native countries by immigrants to the United States. For these individuals, many of whom are in low-to-minimum wage jobs, sending this money only increases their own personal financial burdens—but they do so to aid their families and their loved ones.

Unfortunately, these immigrants increasingly find themselves being preyed upon by the practices of some money wire transfer providers who not only charge consumers with an upfront charge for the money wire transfer service, but also hit them on the back end with hidden costs. Many of these charges are extracted when the dollars sent by the consumer are converted to the foreign currency value that is supposed to be paid out to the friend of the family member.

This exploitation is especially pervasive in Latin American and Caribbean countries, where much of these types of transactions occur. According to the Multilateral Investment Fund and the Inter-American Development Bank, Latin American and Caribbean immigrants sent a record $32 billion to their home countries in 2002—a dramatic increase compared with $23 billion in 2001. Many of these dollars were used to pay for basic needs, such as food, medicine, and schooling, and to alleviate the suffering of loved ones during a difficult economic year.

To bring this amount into even greater perspective, the remittances that flowed into Latin America and the Caribbean last year equaled roughly the amount of direct foreign investment that flowed into the region, and exceeded the amount of development aid to Latin America from all sources. For this decade alone, Latin America and the Caribbean could receive more than $300 billion. And experts believe that number is likely to grow significantly in coming years.

These large cash flows have proven to be a powerful incentive for greed in the case of some wire transfer companies. Customers wiring money to Latin America and elsewhere in the world lose billions of dollars annually to undisclosed "currency conversion fees," and other service costs.

In fact, many large companies aggressively target immigrant communities, often advertising “low fee” or “no fee” rates for international transfers. But these misleading ads do not always clearly disclose the fees charged when the currency is exchanged.

While large wire service companies typically obtain foreign currencies at bulk rates, they charge a significant currency conversion fee to their U.S. customers. For example, customers wiring money to Mexico are charged an exchange rate that routinely varies from the benchmark by as much as 15 percent. These hidden fees create staggering profits, allowing companies to reap billions of dollars on top of the stated fees they charge for the wire transfer services.

Last year alone, immigrants who sent money to Latin America and the Caribbean paid approximately $4 billion in transaction costs to the money wire transfer companies that dominate this business. In other words, for every $100 that an immigrant sent home, to help their family and loved ones, $12 was siphoned off by these businesses in order to “service” that transaction.

That adds up to a $20-$30 average cost, occasionally it can be considerably more, for poor, hard-working folks for whom the typical remittance—around $250 to $300 a month—represents a significant percentage of their monthly income.

Multiplied by millions, these excessive charges constitute a significant major economic force. These millions could have otherwise been used to feed children, house a family, or invest in a small business—all of which markedly improve overall quality of life.

The “Money WIRE Act” would require money wire transmitting businesses to disclose to senders, and receivers, of international money wire transfers the exchange rate used in association with the transaction; any surcharges, commissions or fees charged to the customer for the service; and the exact amount of the foreign currency to be received by the recipient in the foreign country.

It also requires that that rate and fee information be prominently displayed at the wire transmitting service location and on all receipts associated with the money wire transaction—and it ensures that those disclosures occur in the same language as that principally used by the business to advertise its money transmitting services, if that language is other than English.

The bill also requires Federal banking regulators and the Department of Treasury to conduct a study, and submit a report to Congress, of the fees and fees disclosure at traditional financial institutions compared to those that occur at money transmitting businesses for money wire transactions.

Finally, the Act includes a provision that expands the “field of membership” definition for credit unions to give non-members, particularly unbanked and immigrant communities, access to credit unions for international money transfer, money order, and check cashing services, where the costs for these services are significantly less.

This legislation does more than merely provide better information to consumers—it actually helps them and their families financially. Consumers will see increased competition among wire transfer service providers because they are better-informed and more knowledgeable. That competition will result in lower fees for the wire transfer services that will free up a greater portion of these cash remittances to go to the friends and families that they were originally intended for.

In short, this is sound public policy that empowers those who do their part to help America’s economy move forward.

I hope that my colleagues will support this legislation and I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I rise as a cosponsor of the Money Wire Improvement and Remittance Enhancement Act introduced by my colleague, Senator CORZINE. I thank Senator CORZINE for his leadership on this issue.

Immigrants often send a portion of their hard-earned wages to their relatives abroad. Remittances are often used to improve the standard of living of recipients by increasing access to health care, education, and essentials of daily life. In addition, remittances contribute significantly to the economic development of nations. For example, Philippines workers across the globe sent an estimated $6.4 billion back to the Philippines in 2001.

Despite the tremendous importance of remittances, people who send them are often unaware of the fees and exchange rates assessed in these transactions which reduce the amount of money received by their family members. Fees for sending remittances often can be ten to twenty percent of the value of the transaction. Also, the exchange rate used in the transaction can be significantly lower than the market rate.

Consumers and their families cannot afford to remain uninformed about their financial service options and the fees placed on their transactions. This legislation would ensure that each customer is fully informed of all of the fees and the exchange rates used in sending money.

I am hopeful that the enactment of this legislation will result in more people utilizing banks and credit unions for remittances because these institutions do not charge the exorbitant fees often associated with remittances processed by certain other entities. In addition, if unbanked immigrants take advantage of the remittance services offered by banks and credit unions, they will be more likely to open up an account. This would allow immigrants to take advantage of the opportunities for saving and borrowing found at mainstream financial institutions and offer them alternatives to fringe banking products, such as check cashing services.

The Money Wire Improvement and Remittance Enhancement Act has special significance to my home State of Hawaii. Hawaii is home to significant numbers of recent immigrants from many nations, including the Philippines, who send remittances to their relatives abroad. We must do what we can to ensure that their hard-earned dollars are not eroded by unnecessary fees or a lack of transparency regarding exchange rates.

I encourage my colleagues to support this much-needed legislation.

By Mrs. MURRAY (for herself, Mrs. BOXER, Ms. CANTWELL, Mrs. CLINTON, Mr. CORZINE, Mr. EDWARDS, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. LAUTENBERG, Mr. SCHUMER, and Mr. HOLLINGS):

S. 1345. A bill to extend the authorization for the ferry boat discretionary program, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

Mrs. MURRAY. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will greatly enhance Federal participation in financing and improving our Nation's ferry transportation system.

Today I am introducing the Ferry Transportation Enhancement Act. I am proud to have Senators BOXER, CANTWELL, CORZINE, CLINTON, EDWARDS, FEINSTEIN, HOLLINGS, KENNEDY, LAUTENBERG, and SCHUMER as original cosponsors. This bill will provide significantly more resources to state governments, public ferry systems, and public entities responsible for developing facilities for ferries.

Specifically, the bill would: provide $150 million a year for the Federal Highway Administration's Ferry Boat Discretionary Program for fiscal years 2004 through 2009. This is approximately four times the $38 million a year that is currently being provided under this program; add “ferry maintenance facilities” to the list of allowable use of funds under this program; add “ferries” to the Clean Fuels Program; establish a Ferry Joint Program Office to coordinate Federal programs affecting ferry boat and ferry facility construction, maintenance, and operations and to promote ferry service as a component of the Nation's transportation system; establish an information database on ferry systems, routes, vessels, passengers and vehicles carried; and establish an institute for ferries to conduct R&D, conduct training programs, encourage collaborative efforts to promote ferry service, and preserve historical information. This will parallel institutes that now exist for highways, transit, and rail.

Currently, the Federal investment in ferries is only one-tenth of one percent of the total Surface Transportation Program. There is virtually no coordination at the Federal level to encourage and promote ferries as there are for other modes of transportation.

We need better coordinated ferry services because it's the sole means of surface transportation in many areas of the country, including Hawaii, Alaska and my home State of Washington.

Ferries are also the preferred, and the only feasible, method of commuting from home to work in places like Washington State, New York/New Jersey, North Carolina, Hawaii and Alaska.

Finally, in many States—like my home State of Washington—they are an important part of the tourism industry and represent a part of our cultural identity.

The symbol of ferries moving people and vehicles on the waterways of the Puget Sound is as much a part of our cultural identity as computers, coffee, commercial aircraft and the Washington Apple.

Ferry use is growing.

In Washington State our ferry system—the Nation's largest—currently transports 26 million passengers each year and carries 11 million vehicles.

Other systems that serve New York/New Jersey, North Carolina, San Francisco, and Alaska also have significant numbers of passengers using the ferries.

The Nation's six largest ferry systems carried 73 million people and 13 million vehicles last year.

The growth projection for ferry use is very high. For these larger systems, it is projected that by 2009 there will be a 14-percent increase in passengers and a 17-percent increase in vehicles being carried by ferries compared to 2002.

In San Francisco, that projection is a 46-percent increase.

It is clear that many people are using ferries and more will be using them in the future.

This is all with very little help from the Federal Government.

Our investment in ferries pails in comparison to the Federal investments in highways and other forms of mass transit.

Our bill would provide the needed funding for these growing systems for new ferry boat construction, for ferry facilities and terminals, and for maintenance facilities.

The bill also would make ferries eligible under the Clean Fuels Program.

Like busses, ferries are a form of mass transit that is environmentally cleaner than mass use of cars and trucks. Making them eligible for the Clean Fuels Program will encourage boat makers to design cleaner and more efficient vessels in the future. This will make ferry travel an even more environmentally friendly means of transportation than it already is today.

Finally, setting up a Ferry Joint Program Office, keeping track of ferry statistics, and establishing a National Ferry Institute will increase the profile of ferries as part of our Nation's infrastructure and provide a method to analyze and research ways to improve their use.

In the end, I hope this proposal can be included in the TEA-21 Reauthorization.

Ferries are an important part of our Nation's transportation infrastructure.

This bill recognizes their importance by providing the resources and support they need to grow and serve passengers.

I urge the Senate support this bill, and I look forward to working with my colleagues to see it passed.

S. 1347. A bill to amend the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 to provide for training service and delivery innovation projects; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

By Ms. CANTWELL:

S. 1348. A bill to amend the Higher Education Act of 1965 to modify the computation of eligibility for certain Federal Pell Grants, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Ms. CANTWELL. Mr. President, I come to the floor today to discuss a topic that I believe is critical to our Nation's economic growth and future competitiveness—the training of our workforce.

We are living in tough economic times. The economy of the State of Washington and the Nation at large are suffering through a recession where jobs are scarce and workers are scrambling to pay the bills. The most recent employment data available from the Bureau of Labor Statistics have offered little comfort in Washington where the unemployment rate is 7.3 percent. Washington, along with the other Pacific Northwest States of Oregon and Alaska, continues to have among the highest unemployment rates in the nation.

Just a month ago, the Senate moved quickly to extend the temporary extension of unemployment compensation program, so that approximately four million workers across this country will not lose their Federal extended unemployment benefits. I am proud that the Senate acted quickly to extend this important program. This means that over 100,000 unemployed workers in Washington State will receive 26 weeks of Federal extended benefits. I am disappointed, however, that we were not able to pass coverage for the estimated 1.1 million unemployed workers who have entirely exhausted their State and Federal benefits. Therefore, I am fighting to pass a bill that would extend coverage to the long-term unemployed, so that help is available to the hardest hit workers in this weak economy.

Nonetheless, our efforts should not stop with an unemployment insurance extension. We must continue to pursue long-term strategies for a sustained economic recovery. The fundamental strength of our economy lies in the working men and women of this Nation whose innovation and hard work propelled the massive economic expansion of the past decade.

The competitive edge that will keep our workers ahead in this changing global economy is their skills. Our economy is global, linked by international markets and communications networks. The sustained success of U.S. companies depends on adaptability and innovation, which means that workers themselves need to remain flexible and continually update job skills.

Even in this time of high unemployment, businesses throughout the country cannot find workers with the skills they need. According to a study completed by Heldrich Work Trends Survey, American employers are finding it difficult to hire qualified workers. Nearly half, 46 percent, of American businesses say they have had trouble finding workers with the necessary skills. At the same time, over three million workers are laid off each year, but well under 500,000 receive any sort of training to learn the skills demanded by those businesses that face worker shortages. Job training is an answer to meeting those skill demands and bridging the skills gaps that persist. However, it will not occur widely without a strong financial commitment from the Federal Government to ensure access to job training programs, and ongoing efforts to maximize the effectiveness of those funds that we already invest.

Investment in job training must be our first priority not our last—the decisions we make today to invest in our workers will pay off many times over in the form of stronger local economies, healthier communities, and improved quality of life.

But the reality is that we are delivering a trickle of funding while faced with a tidal wave of need. I have traveled across my state, from Olympia to Kelso, Vancouver to Bellingham, the Tri-cities to Spokane and received a great deal of feedback from Washingtonians who are seeking training, are providing it, or are serving as employers who need to hire skilled workers. And I heard similar concerns repeated in each of these areas: first, as our economy continues to evolve, the demand for new skills has grown; second, the enormous increase in demand for skills training by individual workers who are upgrading skills or changing jobs is a trend that appears to be widespread throughout the Nation; but third, far too many of those workers seeking access to training cannot get the training they need due to limited space at training institutions and the limited tuition assistance.

Last year, my office released a study of this apparent shortfall in capacity of training systems in my State, and the results of that study were staggering to me. There are over 110,000 dislocated workers in my state, the majority of whom want to upgrade their skills but cannot do so because of budgetary limitations that prevent institutions from offering enough courses, and the limited numbers of available training vouchers.

To make things worse, this year, the State of Washington received approximately 40 percent less in Workforce Investment Act, WIA, formula funding compared to last year. This drastic cut in WIA funding means that services will be cut back at a time when the demand is at an all time high. It is imperative that during this time of State deficits, States receive additional help from the Federal Government for important services such as education and job training.

As my colleagues know, the Workforce Investment Act is up for reauthorization this year. The WIA system is clearly the centerpiece of the Federal job training programs. It provides a one-stop delivery system designed to meet a broad range of worker needs, and it emerged from years of bipartisan work by Congress to consolidate over 33 Federal programs into one system for delivering employment and training services.

Today, I am introducing three bills that are designed to build upon the existing workforce structure to expand opportunities for training and improve its effectiveness.

The first piece of legislation would change the Pell Grant program to make certain that student financial aid is available to recently laid off workers. Under current law, the standard practice in the determination of Pell Grant eligibility for student aid is to base grant awards upon the applicant's income during the previous year. The use of tax forms for this purpose, in many cases, is the most appropriate and easiest administrative method of obtaining a clear and official statement of financial need. But, as a result, many recently laid-off workers are not eligible for critical financial assistance at a time when the workers' families are experiencing a dramatic decrease in income. My legislation would explicitly provide the authority for educational institutions, after taking sufficient precautions to prevent fraud, to consider current-year income levels for applicants seeking training through Pell Grant-eligible programs. It does this in a very narrow way, by only allowing institutions in States with high unemployment rates to consider current year financial circumstances rather than previous year income.

The second bill addresses issues of distance-learning and delivery of training to hard to reach areas in a comprehensive manner. While many distance-learning technologies have been developed in recent years, those technologies have not necessarily reached many of those who are most in need of training. Many workers in need of training may not be aware of online distance learning opportunities and may not be able to take advantage of them even if they do know about them. I believe, it is not enough to create a distance learning curriculum and passively provide it through an educational institution website. Rather, comprehensive solutions need to be developed that integrate curriculum innovations, technological access, and the promotion and linkage of workers in need of training with such opportunities, especially to help workers in rural areas. That's why my bill encourages the local workforce development boards to plan a comprehensive approach to improve access to and delivery of employment training services by using technology and online resources to connect workers with the information and tools they need to upgrade their skills.

The third bill that I am introducing today is designed to help local workforce development boards better understand regional labor market dynamics and improve system performance by identifying emerging sectors and industries with chronic worker shortages. My legislation encourages local workforce development boards to target employment and training resources so that workers can get training in occupations where employers need workers.

My legislation provides new resources to the state level so that states can direct funding down to the local workforce development boards to form partnerships with employers, unions, service providers and other key players in order to develop a strategic plan for addressing regional industry and workforce needs.

I want to make clear that this legislation is not intended to reinvent the wheel for areas that are already developing sectoral approaches within existing workforce development systems. In fact, Washington State is a leader in sector approaches: in 2000, the Washington State Legislature enacted legislation to support industry skills panels known as the "Skills Initiative." The Skills Initiative provides grants to local workforce development councils to engage business and industry in strategies to close the skill gaps in my State. My legislation emphasizes this work by providing funding to support these partnerships.

This is a first step on a long journey as we work to improve Federal job training systems, and it is critical, now more than ever, that Congress increase funding for the job training programs under the Workforce Investment Act. By providing the necessary resources, we send a strong message to the American public that our government must invest in our greatest resource—the American worker. Each of these bills is an important component of that broader strategy, and I look forward to working with my colleagues as we begin to look at the reauthorization of WIA and the Higher Education Act this year and next.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of each bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bills were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1346

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Sectoral Market Assessment for Regional Training Enhancement and Revitalization Act".

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress makes the following findings:

(1) More than ⅓ of the Nation's current workforce lacks the basic skills necessary to succeed in today's labor market.

(2) Globalization of the economy is leading to losses of jobs in key domestic industries, as well as challenges to competitiveness and productivity in other domestic industries.

(3) To remain economically vital and competitive, the Nation must invest in generating jobs and train a workforce skilled enough to contribute productively to the United States economy.

(4) Strategic planning that links workforce development and economic development, and the targeting of resources to industries that can build strong regional economies and create jobs with living wages for workers, need to be priorities for the workforce investment system.

(5) States and local workforce investment boards can play lead roles in guiding a more strategic process for achieving economic growth through workforce development.

SEC. 3. SKILLS GAP CAPACITY ENHANCEMENT GRANTS.

SEC. 4. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.

Section 138 of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (29 U.S.C. 2872), as redesignated by section 3(1), is amended by adding at the end the following:

“(d) SKILLS GAP CAPACITY ENHANCEMENT GRANTS.—In addition to any amounts au-

By Mrs. FEINSTEIN:

S 1350. A bill to require Federal agencies, and persons engaged in interstate commerce, in possession of electronic data containing personal information, to disclose any unauthorized acquisition of such information; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. Mr. President, I rise to introduce the Notification of Risk to Personal Data Act of 2003. This legislation will require that individuals are notified when their most sensitive personal information is stolen from a corporate or government database.

Specifically, the bill would require government or private entities to notify individuals if a data breach has compromised their Social Security number, driver's license number, credit card number, debit card number, or financial account numbers.

In most cases, if authorities know that someone is a victim of a crime, the victim is notified. But that isn't the case if an individual's most sensitive personal information is stolen from an electronic database.

Unfortunately, data breaches are becoming all too common. Consider the following incidents which have compromised the records of hundreds of thousands of Americans.

On April 5, 2002, a hacker broke into the electronic records of Steven P. Teale Data Center, the payroll facility for California State employees. The hacker compromises files containing the first initials, middle initials, and last names, Social Security numbers, and payroll deduction information of approximately 265,000 people. Despite the breathtaking potential harm of the crime, the breach was not publicly acknowledged and State employees were not made aware of their vulnerability to identify theft until May 24, 2002—17 days later.

On December 14, 2002, TriWest Health Care Alliance, a company that provides health care coverage for military personnel and their families, was burglarized at its Phoenix, AZ offices. Thieves broke into a management suite and stole laptop computers and computer hard drives containing the names, addresses, telephone numbers, birth dates and Social Security numbers of 562,000 military service members, dependents and retirees, as well as medical claims records for people on active duty in the Persian Gulf.

In February 2003, a hacker gained access to 10 million Visa, MasterCard, American Express Card and Discovery Card numbers from the databases of a credit processor, DPI Merchant services of Omaha, NE. Company officials maintained that the intruder did not obtain any personal information for these card numbers such as the account holder's name, address, telephone number or Social Security number. However, at least one bank canceled and replaced 8,800 cards when it found out about the security breach.

And in March of this year, a University of Texas student was charged with hacking into the university's computer system and stealing 55,000 Social Security numbers.

These are just some examples of the types of breaches that are occurring today. Except for California, which as a notification law going into effect in July, no State or Federal law requires companies or agencies to tell individuals of the misappropriation of their personal data.

I strongly believe Americans should be notified if a hacker gets access to their most personal data. This is both a matter of principle and a practical measure to curb identity theft.

Let me take a moment to describe the proposed legislation.

The Notification of Risk to Personal Data Act will set a national standard for notification of consumers when a data breach occurs.

Specifically, the legislation requires a business or government entity to notify an individual when there is a reasonable basis to conclude that a hacker or other criminal has obtained unencrypted personal data maintained by the entity.

Personal data is defined by the bill as an individual's Social Security number, State identification number, driver's license number, financial account number, or credit card number.

The legislation's notification scheme minimizes the burdens on companies or agencies that must report a data breach.

In general, notice would have to be provided to each person whose data was compromised in writing or through e-mail. But there are important exceptions.

First, companies that have developed their own reasonable notification policies are given a safe harbor under the bill and are exempted from its notification requirements.

Second, encrypted data is exempted.

Third, where it is too expensive or impractical, e.g., contact address information is incomplete, to notify every individual who is harmed, the bill allows entities to send out an alternative form of notice called "substitute notice." Substitute notice includes posting notice on a website or notifying major media.

Substitute notice would be triggered if any of the following factors exist: 1. the agency or person demonstrates that the cost of providing direct notice would exceed $250,000; 2. the affected class of subject persons to be notified exceeds 500,000; or 3. the agency or person does not have sufficient contact information to notify people whose information is at risk.

The bill has a tough, but fair enforcement regime. Entities that fail to comply with the bill will be subject to fines by the Federal Trade Commission of $5,000 per violation or up to $25,000 per day while the violation persists. State Attorneys General can also file suit to enforce the statute.

Additionally, the bill would allow California's new law to remain in effect, but preempt conflicting State laws. It is my understanding that legislators in a number of States are developing bills modeled after the California law. Reportedly, some of these bills have requirements that are inconsistent with the California legislation. It is not fair to put companies in a situation that forces them to comply with database notification laws of 50 different States.

I strongly believe individuals have a right to be notified when their most sensitive information is compromised—because it is truly their information. Ask the ordinary person on the street if he or she would like to know if a criminal had illegally gained access to their personal information from a database—the answer will be a resounding yes.

Enabling consumers to be notified in a timely manner of security breaches involving their personal data will help combat the growth scourge of identity theft. According to the Identity Theft Resources Center, a typical identity theft victim takes six to 12 months to discover that a fraud has been perpetrated against them.

As Linda Foley, Executive Director of the Identity Theft Resources center puts it: "Identity theft is a crime of opportunity and time is essential at every junction. Every minute that passes after the breach until detection and notification increases the damage done to the consumer victim, the commercial entities, and law enforcement's ability to track and catch the criminals. It takes less than a minute to fill out a credit application and to start an action that could permanently affect the victim's life. Multiply that times hundreds of minutes, hundreds of opportunities to use or sell the information stolen and you just begin to understand the enormity of the problem that the lack of notification can cause."

If individuals are informed of the theft of their Social Security numbers or other sensitive information, they can take immediate preventative action.

They can place a fraud alert on their credit report to prevent crooks from obtaining credit cards in their name; they can monitor their credit reports to see if unauthorized activity has occurred; they can cancel any affected financial or consumer or utility accounts; they can change their phone numbers if necessary.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to pass this vitally needed legislation. This bill will give ordinary Americans more control and confidence about the safety of their personal information. Americans will have the security of knowing that should a breach occur, they will be notified and be able to take protective action.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

By Mr. WYDEN (for himself and Mrs. FEINSTEIN):

S. 1352. A bill to expedite procedures for hazardous fuels reduction activities and restoration in wildland fire prone National Forests and for other purposes; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

Mr. WYDEN. Mr. President: Today, I introduce, for myself and Mrs. FEIN-

STEIN, the Community and Forest Protection Act. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill to be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

(1) In 2002, approximately six and one half million acres of forest lands in the U.S. burned with varying degrees of severity, 21 people lost their lives, and over 3000 structures were destroyed. The Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management spent more than $1 billion fighting these fires.

(2) 73 million acres of public lands are classified as condition class 3 fire risks. This includes 23 million acres that are in strategic areas designated by the U.S. Forest Service for emergency treatment to withstand catastrophic fire.

(3) The forest management policy of fire suppression has resulted in an accumulation of fuel loads, dead and dying trees, and non-native species that create fuel ladders which allow fires to reach the crowns of large old trees and cause catastrophic fire.

(4) The U.S. Forest Service and the Department of the Interior should immediately undertake an emergency program to reduce the risk of catastrophic fire.

(5) This emergency program should prioritize the protection of homes and communities and the restoration of forest health on lands at the highest risk of catastrophic fire. All fuel reduction treatments should protect old growth stands and large trees to ensure a rich and continued species diversity in the nation's forests.

(3) Fire Regime I lands: Federal lands that are condition class 3; and

(4) Fire Regimes II and III lands: Condition class 3 federal lands identified by the Secretary as an area where windthrow or blow-down, or the existence of disease or insect infestation, pose a significant threat to forest health or adjacent private lands.

(e) PUBLIC NOTICE AND PUBLIC RESPONSE.—

(1) QUARTERLY NOTICE.—The Secretary shall provide quarterly notice of each hazardous fuels reduction project which uses the streamlined processes established by this Act. The quarterly notice shall be provided for all projects in the Federal Register and on an agency website and in a local paper of record for local projects. The Secretary may combine this quarterly notice with other quarterly notices otherwise issued regarding federal forest management.

(2) CONTENT.—For each hazardous fuels reduction project for which the processes established by this Act are to be used the notice required by paragraph (1) shall include at a minimum:

(2) VARIED TREATMENTS.—The Secretary shall vary the treatments and avoid clear cuts inside the wildland-urban interface to ensure forest health. The Secretary shall also protect old growth and large trees pursuant to subsection 2(h).

(3) EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES EXCEPTION.—For all hazardous fuels reduction projects implemented pursuant to this subsection, if there are extraordinary circumstances, the Secretary shall follow agency procedures related to categorical exclusions and extraordinary circumstances. For the purposes of this subsection, a project's location within a municipal watershed shall not be considered an extraordinary circumstance.

(1) extending out to a geographic feature, if there is such a feature within approximately three-quarters of a mile of the community boundary; or

(2) if there is no such geographic feature, extending out one-half mile from the community boundary.

Mrs. FEINSTEIN. I rise to introduce with Senator WYDEN a bill to reduce the risk of catastrophic fire in our country’s magnificent national forests.

No one who watched last week as Arizona’s community of Summerhaven on Mount Lemmon burned can doubt the importance of this issue. My heart goes out to the residents of Summerhaven, and to the others who will be displaced by the fires yet to come this summer.

Americans know that there is something wrong with our national forests. For too long we have suppressed fires, gradually letting brush and small trees multiply until many of our forests are now choked by a dense thicket.

Today, there are 57 million acres of Federal lands at the highest risk of catastrophic forest fires. If we do not take action now, these forests could go up in smoke. This bill we are introducing today is balancing, and it will reduce the risk of catastrophic fire in our country’s magnificent national forests.

This legislation would speed up the environmental review process—without sacrificing the most important environmental protections. It also would protect the communities which face the highest risk and safeguard old growth stands and large trees. And it would include sensible provisions on judicial review that will help projects go forward quickly without compromising our independent judiciary. These are provisions that makes sense, and I hope that my colleagues will support the bill.

We have crafted our bill around three fundamental principles:

We should focus limited Federal resources on protecting communities and on the forest lands truly most at risk;

We should speed up the environmental review process, but without sacrificing the most important environmental protections; and

We should protect old growth stands and large trees.

Let me show how the bill achieves these three goals.

First, the bill prioritizes our efforts. Many people believe that we should protect communities first. The bill does so. Seventy percent of the funding is directed to the wildland-urban interface near communities.

Of course, conditions vary by State. The bill allows Governors to adjust the percentage of work that is to be done within the wildland—urban interface for their State, up to a maximum of 75 percent, or down to a minimum of 50 percent.

By way of contrast, H.R. 1904, which passed the House, includes no focus on protecting communities. All the money can be spent far from communities under H.R. 1904, even if the Governor of a State wishes otherwise.

Senator WYDEN and I believe that in addition to protecting communities, there are some forest lands that should be thinned to ensure that catastrophic fires do not devastate the forest and eliminate habitat for the species that have there.

In the last century, Americans have rigorously suppressed fires, stamping them out whenever they start. In certain forests like ponderosa pine, these fires would naturally have cleared out the brush and small trees every 10 or 20 years or so.

In the absence of these fires, brush has grown into “doghair thickets” with dangerous levels of fuel loadings. When fires burn now in these forests, they will be so hot that they won’t just clear out the brush but will kill the large trees and often scorch the soil.

These are the forests where we need to focus our efforts. We thus target thinning projects to forests that are both Fire Regime I and Condition Class 3. Fire Regime I forests are those that used to have low-intensity, brush-clearing fires; and Condition Class 3 forests are the most altered from their natural condition. The combination of Fire Regime I and Condition Class 3 are the highest priority lands for treatment.

We also direct projects to municipal watersheds and diseased or windblown forests that are in Condition Class 3. If we don’t protect the municipal watersheds, catastrophic fires could strip off the tree cover that prevents soils from eroding into creeks and lakes. Municipalities’ water quality could suffer.

In contrast to our bill, H.R. 1904 fails to prioritize brush-clearing projects for the areas that need it the most. Instead, H.R. 1904 provides expedited processes for lands that are only moderately altered by fire suppression—Condition Class 2 lands in addition to Condition Class 3.

In many of the forests where H.R. 1904 would direct brush-clearing work, there naturally would have been severe fires that burned all the trees in the stand. After a thinning project, fires in these forests will still behave the same way, scorching and killing most of the trees. Thus, much of the thinning called for in H.R. 1904 would have little effect on the fire behavior or forest health.

Senator WYDEN and I have worked very hard to develop a bill that speeds up the review process so important work can get done without sacrificing environmental protections.

Almost everyone agrees that we need to work quickly to protect the areas immediately around communities. There is little controversy or debate over these projects.

The Forest Service has proposed an analytical short-cut for these projects, which requires very little environmental analysis and no formal public comment process or administrative appeal.

There is some uncertainty, however, over the Forest Service’s proposed approach. People can claim that laws Congress has previously passed will require some of these projects to be held up by more environmental analysis or administrative appeals.

Our bill eliminates this uncertainty. When the Forest Service works in the immediate vicinity of a community, the bill would make absolutely clear that there need to be no environmental analysis or administrative appeals. The only exception is where there might be extraordinary circumstances, such as a major threat to endangered species. We also prohibit the Forest Service from conducting clearcuts around communities, requiring them to focus on clearing out the brush.

By way of comparison, the House-passed bill does not provide any assistance to thinning projects in the immediate vicinity of communities, even though everyone agrees on the need for these projects.

Senator WYDEN and I have also sped up the process for projects outside the immediate vicinity of communities. These projects are more controversial, so we want to make sure that the public has some opportunity for input.

In the past, the Forest Service and the Department of the Interior have been able to conduct the majority of brush-clearing mechanical treatment following a National Environmental Policy Act process known as environmental assessments. Our bill simplified these environmental assessments in several ways.

The bill provides one round of public comment—the administrative appeal process—rather than two.

The bill shortens the time frame for administrative appeals from 90 to 60 days.

Finally, the appeal deciding offer can make necessary changes rather than having to send the project back to the original decisionmaker for further time-consuming review.

Together, these changes will likely speed up the process by a few months or more. We do all this without eliminating public comment or gutting core parts of the environmental analysis.

In contrast, the House-passed bill would eliminate the requirement that the Forest Service consider alternatives to the proposed project as part of its environmental analysis. In other words, the Forest Service doesn't have to study other, less damaging ways of undertaking the project—it can just do the project the way it wants.

Many people think that public debate over alternatives is the core of the National Environmental Policy Act. Our bill does not eliminate this important environmental protection.

Another important part of our bill is its protection of magnificent old growth stands. The remaining groves of these trees provide a connection to nature untrammelled by human activity, a connection that many of us cherish.

Our bill would require full protection of these old growth stands. In addition, outside old growth stands, the bill focuses on small-diameter trees and protects large trees that promote fire-resistant stands and species diversity.

By way of contrast, H.R. 1904 provides no protection for these magnificent resources.

Let me now talk about judicial review. No one wants court cases to go on too long. In addition, people should not be able to tie up projects by gaming the system and picking and choosing the friendliest courts to hear their lawsuits.

Our bill addresses these problems. The bill encourages courts, to the maximum extent practicable, to resolve lawsuits over brush-clearing projects quickly. These are important projects for the safety of our communities and our forests, and it is appropriate to give them some priority.

In addition, we require that potential litigants file suit in the same judicial district where a fuels reduction project takes place. No one can game the system by looking for a friendly judge somewhere else.

Finally, we limit temporary injunctions that are typically issued at the outset of a case to 60 days. They can be renewed if necessary—but the challengers to a projects must submit updates explaining why the injunctions should be extended. This provision prevents projects from being held up any longer than is strictly necessary.

These changes will expedite the process—but they still respect our court system's essential autonomy. As a member of the Judiciary Committee, I spend much of my time trying to make sure our court system is as fair as possible.

Americans count on a judiciary independent of the executive branch to preserve their liberties and to right any wrongs that their government commits. I think it is very important that we do not interfere with the independence of our judiciary.

The House-passed bill would require the courts to give weight to certain findings by the Forest Service and the Department of the Interior. Even if projects had been found to violate the environmental laws, courts would be told to give weight to the agencies' findings and allow many of the projects to go ahead anyway.

This is a dangerous provision for a bill to include, and I cannot support it.

I believe our bill includes more sensible provisions on judicial review that will help projects go forward quickly without compromising the independence of our judiciary.

Our bill includes several provisions to address forest health problems on private and State lands.

We authorize $50 million annually in emergency grants to States and localities where lives are at risk. The last few years have seen vast insect epidemics killing millions of trees in Southern California, Arizona, and elsewhere.

In places like Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear and Idyllwild in Southern California, communities are surrounded by dead and dying trees that are perfect kindling for a catastrophic fire. There is a real threat to people's lives that we must address.

There is now no good funding source for clearing evacuation routes and clearing around schools and other emergency shelters that are on State and private lands. The emergency grants in the bill would authorize funds for these essential purposes.

The bill also includes two measures to encourage homeowners to clear brush around their houses and install non-flammable roofs. A study of Southern California fires by Forest Service researcher Jack Cohen has shown that these measures could reduce a blaze's threat to homes by as much as 85 to 95 percent.

Our bill would encourage these home-saving practices in two ways:

The bill would prioritize grants to those communities that encourage brush-clearing and use of non-flammable roofs or develop comprehensive fire plans.

The bill would record the Sense of Congress that insurers should offer lower premiums to homeowners who take steps to protect their homes.

Our bill would also include grants to encourage the use of woody material, or biomass, for energy production. Biomass-to-energy plants serve multiple beneficial purposes: one, they are a clean and renewable source of energy; and two, they make brush-clearing projects more cost-effective, so we can protect more with the finite Federal dollars available.

Finally, our bill would also include contracting provisions to benefit rural communities. The Forest Service and the Department of the Interior would be required to use "best value contracting" for brush-clearing projects under the Act.

This contracting approach requires the agencies to consider other factors besides the price of the bid in awarding contractors. Bidders would be rewarded for such factors as their commitment to hire local workers, and their past record of environmental stewardship.

I would like to close by saying that this is truly a bipartisan issue. All of us, Democrat and Republican, have an interest in clearing out dangerous accumulations of brush in our national forests. All of us have an interest as well in protecting the magnificent old growth stands and species habitat that Americans cherish, and in upholding our environmental laws.

I look forward to working with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to pass a bill as soon as possible.

By Ms. MURKOWSKI (for herself and Mr. STEVENS):

S. 1354. A bill to resolve certain conveyances and provide for alternative land selections under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act related to Cape Fox Corporation and Sealaska Corporation, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I rise today to reintroduce a bill that passed the Senate with bipartisan support in the 107th Congress. This legislation addresses an equity issue for one of Alaska's rural village corporations.

Cape Fox Corporation is an Alaskan Village Corporation organized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, by the Native Village of Saxman, near Ketchikan, AK. As with other ANCSA village corporations in Southeast Alaska, Cape Fox was limited to selecting 23,040 acres under Section 16. However, unlike other village corporations, Cape Fox was further restricted from selecting lands within 6 miles of the boundary of the home rule city of Ketchikan. All other ANCSA corporations were restricted from selecting within 2 miles of such a home rule of city.

The 6-mile restriction went beyond protecting Ketchikan's watershed and damaged Cape Fox by preventing the corporation from selecting valuable timber lands, industrial sites, and other commercial property, not only in its core township, but in surrounding lands far removed from Ketchikan and its watershed. AS a result of the 6-mile restriction, only the mountainous northeast corner of Cape Fox's core township, which is nonproductive and of no economic value, was available for selection by the corporation. Cape Fox's land selections were further limited by the fact that the Annette Island Indian Reservation is within its selection area, and those lands were unavailable for ANCSA selection. Cape Fox is the only ANCSA village corporation affected by this restriction.

Clearly, Cape Fox was placed on unequal economic footing relative to other village corporations in Southeast Alaska. Despite its best efforts during the years since ANCSA was signed into law, Cape Fox has been unable to overcome the disadvantage the law built into its land selection opportunities by this inequitable treatment.

To address this inequity, I have introduced the Cape Fox Land Entitlement Adjustment Act of 2003. This bill will address the Cape Fox problem by providing three interrelated remedies:

(1) The obligation of Cape Fox to select and seek conveyance of the approximately 160 acres of unusable land in the mountainous northeast corner of Cape Fox's core township will be annulled.

(2) Cape Fox will be allowed to select and the Secretary of the Interior will be directed to convey 99 acres of timber land adjacent to Cape Fox's current holdings on Revilla Island.

(3) Cape Fox and the Secretary of Agriculture will be authorized to enter into an equal value exchange of lands in Southeast Alaska that will be of mutual benefit to the Corporation and the U.S. Forest Service. Lands conveyed to Cape Fox in this exchange will not be timberlands, but will be associated with a mining property containing existing Federal mining claims, some of which are patented. Lands anticipated to be returned to Forest Service ownership will be of wildlife habitat, recreation and watershed values and will consolidate Forest Service holdings in the George Inlet area of Revilla Island.

The land exchange provisions of this bill will help rectify the long-standing inequities associated with restrictions placed on Cape Fox in ANCSA. It will help allow this Native village corporation to make the transition from its major dependence on timber harvest to a more diversified portfolio of income-producing lands.

The bill also provides for the resolution of a long-standing land ownership problem with the Tongass National Forest. The predominant private landowner in the region, Sealaska Corporation, holds the subsurface estate on several thousand acres of National Forest System lands. This split estate poses a management problem which the Forest Service has long sought to resolve. Efforts to address this issue go back more than a decade. Provisions in the Cape Fox Land Entitlement Act of 2003 will allow the agency to consolidate its surface and subsurface estate and greatly enhance its management effectiveness and efficiency in the Tongass National Forest. I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SEC. 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Cape Fox Land Entitlement Adjustment Act of 2003”.

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds that:

(1) Cape Fox Corporation (Cape Fox) is an Alaska Native Village Corporation organized pursuant to the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) (43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) for the Native Village of Saxman.

(2) As with other ANCSA village corporations in Southeast Alaska, Cape Fox was limited to selecting 23,040 acres under section 16 of ANCSA.

(3) Except for Cape Fox, all other Southeast Alaska ANCSA village corporations were restricted from selecting within two miles of a home rule city.

(4) To protect the watersheds in the vicinity of Ketchikan, Cape Fox was restricted from selecting lands within six miles from the boundary of the home rule City of Ketchikan under section 22(1) of ANCSA (43 U.S.C. 1621(1)).

(5) The six mile restriction damaged Cape Fox by precluding the corporation from selecting valuable timber lands, industrial sites, and other commercial property, not only in its core township but in surrounding lands far removed from Ketchikan and its watershed.

(6) As a result of the 6 mile restriction, only the remote mountainous northeast corner of Cape Fox's core township, which is nonproductive and of no known economic value, was available for selection by the corporation. Selection of this parcel was, however, mandated by section 16(b) of ANCSA (43 U.S.C. 1615(b)).

(7) Cape Fox's land selections were further limited by the fact that the Annette Island Indian Reservation is within its selection area, and those lands were unavailable for ANCSA selection. Cape Fox is the only ANCSA village corporation affected by this restriction.

(8) Adjustment of Cape Fox's selections and conveyances of land under ANCSA requires adjustment of Sealaska Corporation's (Sealaska) selections and conveyances to avoid creation of additional split estate between National Forest System surface lands and Sealaska subsurface lands.

(9) Sealaska is the Alaska native regional corporation for Southeast Alaska, organized under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.).

(10) There is an additional need to resolve existing areas of Sealaska/Tongass split estate, in which Sealaska holds title or conveyance rights to several thousand acres of subsurface lands that encumber management of Tongass National Forest surface lands.

(11) The Tongass National Forest lands identified in this Act for selection by and conveyance to Cape Fox and Sealaska, subject to valid existing rights, provide a means to resolve some of the Cape Fox and Sealaska ANCSA land entitlement issues without significantly affecting Tongass National Forest resources, uses or values.

(12) Adjustment of Cape Fox's selections and conveyances of land under ANCSA through the provisions of this Act, and the related adjustment of Sealaska's selections and conveyances hereunder, are in accordance with the purposes of ANCSA and otherwise in the public interest.

SEC. 3. WAIVER OF CORE TOWNSHIP REQUIREMENT FOR CERTAIN LANDS.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 16(b) of ANCSA (43 U.S.C. 1615(b)), Cape Fox shall not be required to select or receive conveyance of approximately 160 acres of Federal unconveyed lands within Section 1, T. 75 S., R. 91 E., C.R.M.

SEC. 4. SELECTION OUTSIDE EXTERIOR SELECTION BOUNDARY.

(a) SELECTION AND CONVEYANCE OF SURFACE ESTATE.—In addition to lands made available for selection under ANCSA, within 24 months after the date of enactment of this Act, Cape Fox may select, and, upon receiving written notice of such selection, the Secretary of the Interior shall convey approximately 99 acres of the surface estate of Tongass National Forest lands outside Cape Fox's current exterior selection boundary, specifically that parcel described as follows:

- (1) T. 73 S., R. 90 E., C.R.M.
- (2) Section 33: SW portion of SE $\frac{1}{4}$: 38 acres.
- (3) Section 33: NW portion of SE $\frac{1}{4}$: 13 acres.
- (4) Section 33: SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SE $\frac{1}{4}$: 40 acres.
- (5) Section 33: SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of SW $\frac{1}{4}$: 8 acres.

(b) CONVEYANCE OF SUBSURFACE ESTATE.—Upon conveyance to Cape Fox of the surface estate to the lands identified in subsection (a), the Secretary of the Interior shall convey to Sealaska the subsurface estate to the lands.

(c) TIMING.—The Secretary of the Interior shall complete the interim conveyances to Cape Fox and Sealaska under this section within 180 days after the Secretary of the Interior receives notice of the Cape Fox selection under subsection (a).

SEC. 5. EXCHANGE OF LANDS BETWEEN CAPE FOX AND THE TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST.

(a) GENERAL.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall offer, and if accepted by Cape Fox, shall exchange the Federal lands described in subsection (b) for lands and interests therein identified by Cape Fox under subsection (c) and, to the extent necessary, lands and interests therein identified under subsection (d).

(b) LANDS TO BE EXCHANGED TO CAPE FOX.—The lands to be offered for exchange by the Secretary of Agriculture are Tongass National Forest lands comprising approximately 2,663.9 acres in T. 36 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M. and T. 35 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M., as designated upon a map entitled "Proposed Kensington Project Land Exchange", dated March 18, 2002, and available for inspection in the Forest Service Region 10 regional office in Juneau, Alaska.

(c) LANDS TO BE EXCHANGED TO THE UNITED STATES.—Cape Fox shall be entitled, within 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act, to identify in writing to the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior the lands and interests in lands that Cape Fox proposes to exchange for the Federal lands described in subsection (b). The lands and interests in lands shall be identified from lands previously conveyed to Cape Fox comprising approximately 2,900 acres and designated as parcels A-1 to A-3, B-1 to B-3, and C upon a map entitled "Cape Fox Corporation ANCSA Land Exchange Proposal", dated March 15, 2002, and available for inspection in the Forest Service Region 10 regional office in Juneau, Alaska. Lands identified for exchange within each parcel shall be contiguous to adjacent National Forest System lands and in reasonably compact tracts. The lands identified for exchange shall include a public trail easement designated as D on said map, unless the Secretary of Agriculture agrees otherwise. The value of the easement shall be included in determining the total value of lands exchanged to the United States.

(d) VALUATION OF EXCHANGE LANDS.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall determine whether the lands identified by Cape Fox under subsection (c) are equal in value to the lands described in subsection (b). If the lands identified under subsection (c) are determined to have insufficient value to equal the value of the lands described in subsection (b), Cape Fox and the Secretary shall mutually identify additional Cape Fox lands for exchange sufficient to equalize the value of lands conveyed to Cape Fox. Such land shall be contiguous to adjacent National Forest System lands and in reasonably compact tracts.

(e) CONDITIONS.—The offer and conveyance of Federal lands to Cape Fox in the exchange shall, notwithstanding section 14(f) of ANCSA, be of the surface and subsurface estate, but subject to valid existing rights and all other provisions of section 14(g) of ANCSA.

(f) TIMING.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall attempt, within 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, to enter into an agreement with Cape Fox to consummate the exchange consistent with this Act. The lands identified in the exchange agreement shall be exchanged by conveyance at the earliest possible date after the exchange agreement is signed. Subject only to conveyance from Cape Fox to the United States of all its rights, title and interests in the Cape Fox lands included in the exchange consistent with this title, the Secretary of the Interior shall complete the interim conveyance to Cape Fox of the Federal lands included in the exchange within 180 days after the execution of the exchange agreement by Cape Fox and the Secretary of Agriculture.

SEC. 6. EXCHANGE OF LANDS BETWEEN SEALASKA AND THE TONGASS NATIONAL FOREST.

(a) GENERAL.—Upon conveyance of the Cape Fox lands included in the exchange under section 5 and conveyance and relinquishment by Sealaska in accordance with this title of the lands and interests in lands described in subsection (c), the Secretary of the Interior shall convey to Sealaska the Federal lands identified for exchange under subsection (b).

(b) LANDS TO BE EXCHANGED TO SEALASKA.—The lands to be exchanged to Sealaska are to be selected by Sealaska from Tongass National Forest lands comprising approximately 9,329 acres in T. 36 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M., T. 35 S., R. 62 E., C.R.M., and T. 34 S., Range 62 E., C.R.M., as designated upon a map entitled "Proposed Sealaska Corporation Land Exchange Kensington Lands Selection Area", dated April 2002 and available for inspection in the Forest Service Region 10 Regional Office in Juneau, Alaska. Within 60 days after receiving notice of the identification by Cape Fox of the exchange lands under section 5(c), Sealaska shall be entitled to identify in writing to the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior the lands that Sealaska selects to receive in exchange for the Sealaska lands described in subsection (c). Lands selected by Sealaska shall be in no more than two contiguous and reasonably compact tracts that adjoin the lands described for exchange to Cape Fox in section 5(b). The Secretary of Agriculture shall determine whether these selected lands are equal in value to the lands described in subsection (c) and may adjust the amount of selected lands in order to reach agreement with Sealaska regarding equal value. The exchange conveyance to Sealaska shall be of the surface and subsurface estate in the lands selected and agreed to by the Secretary but subject to valid existing rights and all other provisions of section 14(g) of ANCSA.

(c) LANDS TO BE EXCHANGED TO THE UNITED STATES.—The lands and interests therein to be exchanged by Sealaska are the subsurface estate underlying the Cape Fox exchange lands described in section 5(c), an additional approximately 2,506 acres of the subsurface estate underlying Tongass National Forest surface estate, described in Interim Conveyance No. 1673, and rights to be additional approximately 2,698 acres of subsurface estate of Tongass National Forest lands remaining to be conveyed to Sealaska from Group 1, 2 and 3 lands as set forth in the Sealaska Corporation/United States Forest Service Split Estate Exchange Agreement of November 26, 1991, at Schedule B, as modified on January 20, 1995.

(d) TIMING.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall attempt, within 90 days after receipt of the selection of lands by Sealaska under subsection (b), to enter into an agreement with Sealaska to consummate the exchange consistent with this Act. The lands identified in the exchange agreement shall be exchanged by conveyance at the earliest possible date after the exchange agreement is signed. Subject only to the Cape Fox and Sealaska conveyances and relinquishments described in subsection (a), the Secretary of the Interior shall complete the interim conveyance to Sealaska of the Federal lands selected for exchange within 180 days after execution of the agreement by Sealaska and the Secretary of Agriculture.

(e) MODIFICATION OF AGREEMENT.—The executed exchange agreement under this section shall be considered a further modification of the Sealaska Corporation/United States Forest Service Split Estate Exchange Agreement, as ratified in section 17 of Public Law 102-415 (October 14, 1992).

SEC. 7. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) EQUAL VALUE REQUIREMENT.—The exchanges described in this Act shall be of equal value. Cape Fox and Sealaska shall have the opportunity to present to the Secretary of Agriculture estimates of value of exchange lands with supporting information.

By Mr. AKAKA (for himself, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. LEVIN, Mr. LEAHY, and Mr. DURBIN):

S. 1358. A bill to amend chapter 23 of title 5, United States Code, to clarify the disclosure of information protected from prohibited personnel practices, require a statement in non-disclosure policies, forms, and agreements that such policies, forms, and agreements conform with certain disclosure protections, provide certain authority for the Special Council, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Governmental Affairs.

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I rise today to discuss the Federal Employee Protection of Disclosures Act. I offered legislation under this title earlier this month. I am modifying that measure, S. 1229, by introducing a new bill today which is cosponsored by Senators GRASSLEY, LEVIN, LEAHY, and DURBIN. This bill, as with S. 1229, amends the Whistleblower Protection Act, WPA. These amendments are necessary to safeguard Federal employees from retaliation and protect American taxpayers from government waste, fraud, and abuse. Our bill follows S. 995 and S. 3070, the latter of which was favorably reported by the Governmental Affairs Committee in the 107th Congress. The bill we introduce today is the result of a bipartisan compromise to protect our federal whistleblowers.

Our bill would codify the repeated and unequivocal statements of congressional intent that Federal employees are to be protected when making "any disclosure" evidencing violations of law, gross mismanagement, or a gross waste of funds. The bill would also clarify the test that must be met to prove that a Federal employee reasonably believed that his or her disclosure was evidence of wrongdoing. The clear language of the WPA says that an employee is protected for disclosing information he or she reasonably believes evidences a violation. However, the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, which has sole jurisdiction over whistleblower cases, ruled in 1999 that the reasonableness review must begin with the presumption that public officers perform their duties in good faith and that this presumption stands unless there is "irrefragable proof" to the contrary. As irrefragable means impossible to refute, our bill replaces this excessively high burden with the more reasonable standard of substantial evidence.

The measure would also provide independent litigating authority to the Office of Special Counsel, OSC. Under current law, OSC has no authority to request the Merit Systems Protection Board, MSPB, to reconsider its decision or to seek review of a MSPB decision by the Federal Circuit. The limitation undermines both OSC's ability to protect whistleblowers and the integrity of the WPA. As such, our bill would provide OSC authority to appear in any civil action brought in connection with the WPA and obtain review of any MSPB order where OSC determines MSPB erred and the case will impact the enforcement of the WPA.

Our bill would codify an "anti-gag" provision that Congress has passed annually since 1988 as part of the appropriations process. The yearly appropriations language bars agencies from implementing or enforcing any non-disclosure policy, form, or agreement that does not contain specified language preserving open government statutes. In addition, the bill would make it a prohibited personnel practice to enforce a non-disclosure agreement that does not comply with open government statutes.

Enactment of the Federal Employee Protection of Disclosures Act will strengthen the rights and protections afforded to federal whistleblowers and encourage the disclosure of information vital to an effective government. Following the events of September 11, we realized that whistleblowing is even more important when our national security is at stake. In many instances, the security of our Nation depends upon those who step forward to blow the whistle on significant lapses in our efforts to protect the United States against potential terrorist attacks. Congress should act quickly to assure whistleblowers that disclosing illegal activities and mismanagement within their agencies will not be met with retaliation. I urge my colleagues to join with me in protecting our federal whistleblowers.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

(l) NONDISCLOSURE POLICIES, FORMS, AND AGREEMENTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—

(A) REQUIREMENT.—Each agreement in Standard Forms 312 and 4414 of the Government and any other nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement of the Government shall contain the following statement: “These restrictions are consistent with and do not supersede, conflict with, or otherwise alter the employee obligations, rights, or liabilities created by Executive Order No. 12958; section 7211 of title 5, United States Code (governing disclosures to Congress); section 1034 of title 10, United States Code (governing disclosure to Congress by members of the military); section 2302(b)(8) of title 5, United States Code (governing disclosures of illegality, waste, fraud, abuse or public health or safety threats); the Intelligence Identities Protection Act of 1982 (50 U.S.C. 421 et seq.) (governing disclosures that could expose confidential Government agents); and the statutes which protect against disclosure that may compromise the national security, including sections 641, 793, 794, 798, and 952 of title 18, United States Code, and section 4(b) of the Subversive Activities Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 783(b)). The definitions, requirements, obligations, rights, sanctions, and liabilities created by such Executive order and such statutory provisions are incorporated into this agreement and are controlling.”

(B) ENFORCEABILITY.—Any nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement described under subparagraph (A) that does not contain the statement required under subparagraph (A) may not be implemented or enforced to the extent such policy, form, or agreement is inconsistent with that statement.

(2) PERSONS OTHER THAN GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a nondisclosure policy, form, or agreement that is to be executed by a person connected with the conduct of an intelligence or intelligence-related activity, other than an employee or officer of the United States Government, may contain provisions appropriate to the particular activity for which such document is to be used. Such form or agreement shall, at a minimum, require that the person will not disclose any classified information received in the course of such activity unless specifically authorized to do so by the United States Government. Such nondisclosure forms shall also make it clear that such forms do not bar disclosures to Congress or to an authorized official of an executive agency or the Department of Justice that are essential to reporting a substantial violation of law.

(m) CLARIFICATION OF WHISTLEBLOWER RIGHTS FOR CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE INFORMATION.—Section 214(c) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002 (Public Law 107-296) is amended by adding at the end the following: “For purposes of this section a permissible use of independently obtained information includes the disclosure of such information under section 2302(b)(8) of title 5, United States Code.”

(n) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This Act shall take effect 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I am pleased to join Senators AKAKA, GRASSLEY, LEAHY, and DURBIN today in introducing the Federal Employees Protection of Disclosures Act. Our bill strengthens the law protecting employees who blow the whistle on fraud, waste, and abuse in federal programs.

Whistleblowers play a crucial role in ensuring that Congress and the public are aware of serious cases of waste, fraud, and mismanagement in government. Whistleblowing is never more important than when our national security is at stake. Since the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, courageous individuals have stepped forward to blow the whistle on significant lapses in our efforts to protect the United States against potential future attacks. Most notably, FBI Agent Coleen Rowley alerted Congress to serious institutional problems at the FBI and their impact on the agency’s ability to effectively investigate and prevent terrorism.

In another example, two Border Patrol agents from my State of Michigan, Mark Hall and Bob Lindemann, risked their careers when they blew the whistle on Border Patrol and INS policies that were compromising security on the Northern Border. Their disclosure led to my holding a hearing at the Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations in November 2001, that exposed serious deficiencies in the way Border Patrol and INS were dealing with aliens who were arrested while trying to enter the country illegally. Since the hearing, some of the most troublesome policies have been changed, improving the security situation and validating the two agents' concerns. Despite the fact that their concerns proved to be dead on, shortly after they blew the whistle, disciplinary action was proposed against the two agents. Fortunately in this case, whistleblower protections worked. The Office of Special Counsel conducted an investigation and the decision to discipline the agents was reversed. However, that disciplinary action was proposed in the first place is a troubling reminder of how important it is for us to both strengthen protections for whistleblowers and empower the Office of Special Counsel to discipline managers who seek to muzzle employees.

Agent Rowley, Mark Hall and Bob Lindermann are simply the latest in a long line of Federal employees who have taken great personal risks in blowing the whistle on government waste, fraud, and mismanagement. Congress has long recognized the obligation we have to protect a Federal employee when he or she discloses evidence of wrongdoing in a Federal program. If an employee reasonably believes that a fraud or mismanagement is occurring, and that employee has the courage and the sense of responsibility to make that fraud or mismanagement known, it is our duty to protect the employee from any reprisal. We want Federal employees to identify problems so we can fix them, and if they fear reprisal for doing so, then we are not only failing to protect the whistleblower, but we are also failing to protect the taxpayer.

I sponsored the Whistleblower Protection Act in 1989 which strengthened and clarified whistleblower rights, as well as the bill passed by Congress to strengthen the law further in 1994. Unfortunately, however, repeated holdings by the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit have corrupted the intent of Congress, with the result that additional clarifying language is sorely needed. The case of LaChance versus White represents perhaps the most notable example of the Federal Circuit's misinterpretation of the whistleblower law.

In LaChance, decided on May 14, 1999, the court imposed an unfounded and virtually unattainable standard on Federal employee whistleblowers in proving their cases. In that case, John E. White was an education specialist for the Air Force who spoke out against a new educational system that purported to mandate quality standards for schools contracting with the Air Force bases. White criticized the new system as counterproductive because it was too burdensome and seriously reduced the education opportunities available on base. After making these criticisms, local agency officials reassigned White, relieving him of his duties and allegedly isolating him. However, after an independent management review supported White's concerns, the Air Force canceled the program White had criticized. White appealed the reassignment in 1992 and the case has been in litigation ever since.

The administrative judge initially dismissed White's case, finding that his disclosures were not protected by the Whistleblower Protection Act. The MSPB, however, reversed the administrative judge's decision and remanded the case back to the administrative judge, holding that since White disclosed information he reasonably believed evidenced gross mismanagement, this disclosure was protected under the Act. On remand, the administrative judge found that the Air Force had violated the Whistleblower Protection Act and ordered the Air Force to return White to his prior status; the MSPB affirmed the decision of the administrative judge. OPM petitioned the Federal Circuit for a review of the board's decision. The Federal Circuit subsequently reversed the MSPB's decision, holding that there was not adequate evidence to support a violation under the Whistleblower Protection Act. The Federal Circuit held that the evidence that White was a specialist on the subject at issue and aware of the alleged improper activities and that his belief was shared by other employees was not sufficient to meet the "reasonable belief" test in the law. The court held that "the board must look for evidence that it was reasonable to believe that the disclosures revealed misbehavior" by the Air Force. The court went on to say: "In this case, review of the Air Force's policy and implementation via the QES standards might well show them to be entirely appropriate, even if not the best option. Indeed, this review would start out with a presumption that public officers perform their duties correctly, fairly, in good faith, and in accordance with the law and governing regulations. * * * And this presumption stands unless there is 'irrefragable proof to the contrary'."

It was appropriate for the Federal Circuit to remand the case to the MSPB to have it reconsider whether it was reasonable for White to believe that what the Air Force did in this case involved gross mismanagement. However, the Federal Circuit went on to impose a clearly erroneous and excessive standard for him to demonstrate his "reasonable belief"—requiring him to provide "irrefragable" proof that the Air Force had engaged in gross mismanagement.

Irrefragable means "undeniable, incontestable, incontrovertible, incapable of being overthrown." How can a Federal employee meet a standard of "irrefragable" in proving gross mismanagement? It is virtually impossible standard of proof to meet. Moreover, there is nothing in the law or legislative history that even suggests such a standard applies to the Whistleblower Protection Act. The intent of the law is not for a federal employee to act as an investigator and compile "irrefragable" proof that the Federal Government, in fact, committed fraud, waste or abuse. Rather, under the clear language of the statute, the employee needs only to have "a reasonable belief" that there is fraud, waste or abuse occurring in order to make a protected disclosure.

LaChance is only one example of the Federal Circuit misinterpreting the law. Our bill corrects LaChance and as well as several other Federal Circuit holdings. In addition, the bill strengthens the Office of Special Counsel and creates additional protections for federal employees who are retaliated against for blowing the whistle.

One of the most important issues addressed in the bill is to clarify again that the law is intended to protect a broad range of whistleblower disclosures. The legislative history supporting the 1994 Whistleblower Protection Act amendments emphasized: "[I]t also is not possible to further clarify the clear language in section 2302(b)(8) that protection for 'any' whistleblowing disclosure truly means 'any'. A protected disclosure may be made as part of an employee's job duties, may concern policy or individual misconduct, and may be oral or written and to any audience inside or outside the agency, without restriction to time, place, motive or content."

Despite this clear Congressional intent that was clearly articulated in 1994, the Federal Circuit has acted to push a number of whistleblower disclosures outside the protections of the whistleblower law. For example, in Horton versus the Department of the Navy, the Federal Circuit ruled that a whistleblower's disclosures to co-workers, or to the wrong-doer, or to a court ruled that a whistleblower's disclosures to official in the agency chain of command or those made in the course of normal job duties were not protected. In Huffman versus Office of Personnel Management, the Federal Circuit reaffirmed Horton and Willis. And in Meuwissen versus Department of Interior, the Federal Circuit held that a whistleblower's disclosures of previously known information do not qualify as "disclosures" under the WPA. All of these rulings violate clear Congressional intent to afford broad protection to whistleblower disclosures.

In order to make it clear that any lawful disclosure that an employee or job applicant reasonably believes is evidence of waste, fraud, abuse, or gross mismanagement is covered by the WPA, the bill codifies previous statements of Congressional intent. Using the 1994 legislative history, it amends the whistleblower statute to cover any disclosure of information without restriction to time, place, form, motive or context, or prior disclosure made to any person by an employee or applicant, including a disclosure made in the ordinary course of an employee's duties that the employee or applicant reasonably believes is credible evidence of any violation of any law, rule, or regulation, or other misconduct specified in the whistleblower law. I want to emphasize here that, other than the explicitly listed exceptions identified in the statute, we intend for there to be no exceptions, inferred or otherwise, as to what is a protected disclosure. And the prohibition on inferred exceptions is intended to apply to all protected speech categories in section 2302(b)(8) of the law. The intent here, again, is to make it clear that when the WPA speaks of protecting disclosures by Federal employees "any" means "any."

The bill also addresses the clearly erroneous standard established by the Federal Circuit's LaChance decision I mentioned earlier. Rather than needing "irrefragable proof" to overcome the presumption that a public officer performed his or her duties correctly, fairly, in good faith, and in accordance with the law and regulations, the bill makes it clear that the whistleblower can rebut this presumption with "substantial evidence." This burden of proof is a far more reasonable and appropriate standard for whistleblowing cases.

The Federal Circuit's repeated misinterpretations of the whistleblower law are unacceptable and demand Congressional action. In response to the court's inexplicable and inappropriate rulings, our bill would suspend for five years the Federal Circuit's exclusive jurisdiction over whistleblower appeals. It would instead allow a whistleblower to file a petition to review a final order or final decision of the MSPB in the Federal Circuit or in any other United States appellate court of competent jurisdiction and defined under 5 U.S.C. 7703(b)(2). In most cases, using another court would mean going to the federal circuit where the contested personnel action took place. This five year period would allow Congress to evaluate whether other appellate courts would issue whistleblower decisions which are consistent with the Federal Circuit's interpretation of WPA protections and guide Congressional efforts to clarify the law if necessary.

In addition to addressing jurisdictional issues and troublesome Federal Circuit precedents, our bill would also make important additions to the list of protected disclosures. First, it would subject certain disclosures of classified information to whistleblower protections. However, in order for a disclosure of classified information to be protected, the employee would have to possess a reasonable belief that the disclosure was direct and specific evidence of a violation of law, rule or regulation, gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, a substantial and specified danger to public health or safety, or a false statement to Congress on an issue of material fact. A whistleblower must also limit the disclosure to a member of Congress or staff of the executive or legislative branch holding the appropriate security clearance and authorized to receive the information disclosed. Federal agencies covered by the WPA would be required to establish a process to provide confidential advice to employees on how to lawfully make a protected disclosure of classified information to Congress.

Current law permits Federal employees to file a case at the MSPB when they feel that a manager has taken a personnel action against them in retaliation for blowing the whistle. The legislation would add three new personnel actions to the list of adverse actions that cannot be taken against whistleblowers for engaging in protected activity. These actions would include enforcement of any nondisclosure policy, form or agreement against a whistleblower for making a protected disclosure; the suspension, revocation, or other determination relating to a whistleblower's security clearance; and an investigation of an employee or applicant for employment if taken due to their participation in whistleblowing activity.

It is important to note that, if it is demonstrated that a security clearance was suspended or revoked in retaliation for whistleblowing, the legislation limits the relief that the MSPB and reviewing court can order. The bill specifies that the MSPB or reviewing court may issue declaratory and other appropriate relief but may not direct a security clearance to be restored. Appropriate relief may include back pay, an order to reassign the employee, attorney fees, or any other relief the Board or court is authorized to provide for other prohibited personnel practices. In addition, if the Board finds an action on a security clearance to have been illegal, it may bar the agency from directly or indirectly taking any other personnel action based on that illegal security clearance action. Our legislation would also require the agency to review and provide a report to Congress detailing the circumstances of the agency's security clearance decision, and authorizes expedited MSPB review of whistleblower cases where a security clearance was revoked or suspended. The latter is important because a person whose clearance has been suspended or revoked and whose job responsibilities require clearance may be unable to work while their case is being considered.

Our bill would also add two prohibited personnel practices of the whistleblower law. First, it would codify the "anti-gag" provision that has been in force since 1988, by virtue of its inclusion in appropriations bills. Second, it would prohibit a manager from initiating an investigation of an employee or applicant for employment because they engage in a protected activity, including whistleblowing.

Another issue addressed in the bill involves certain employees who are excluded from the WPA. Among these are employees who hold "confidential policy-making positions." In 1994, Congress amended the WPA to keep agencies from designating employees confidential policymakers after the employees filed whistleblower complaints. The WPA also allows the President to exclude from WPA jurisdiction any agency whose principal function is the conduct of foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities. Our legislation maintains this authority but makes it clear that a decision to exclude an agency from WPA protections must also be made prior to a personnel action being taken against a whistleblower from that agency. This provision is necessary to ensure that agencies cannot argue that employees are exempt from whistleblower protections after an employee files a claim that they were retaliated against.

Another key section of the bill would strengthen the Office of Special Counsel. OSC is the independent federal agency responsible for investigating and prosecuting federal employee complaints of whistleblower retaliation. Current law, however, limits OSC's ability to effectively enforce and defend whistleblower laws. For example, the law provides the OSC with no authority to request the Merit Systems Protection Board to reconsider one of its decisions or to seek appellate review of an MSPB decision. Even when another party petitions for a review of a MSPB decision, OSC is typically denied the right to participate in the proceedings.

Our bill would provide explicit authority for the Office of Special Counsel to appear in any civil action brought in connection with the whistleblower law. In addition, it would authorize OSC to obtain circuit court review of any MSPB order in a whistleblowing case if the OSC determines the Board erred and the case would have a substantial impact on the enforcement of the whistleblower statute. In a letter to me addressing these provisions, special Counsel Elaine Kaplan said, "I believe that these changes are necessary, not only to ensure OSC's effectiveness, but to address continuing concerns about the whittling away of the WPA's protections by narrow judicial interpretations of the law." I ask unanimous consent that the OSC letter be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

U.S. OFFICE OF SPECIAL COUNSEL,
Washington, DC, September 11, 2002.

Hon. CARL LEVIN,
U.S. Senate, Russell Senate Office Building,
Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR LEVIN: Thank you for giving me the opportunity to comment on the proposed Title VI of H.R. 5005, concerning the protection of federal employee whistleblowers.

As the head of the U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC), the independent federal agency that is responsible for investigating and prosecuting federal employees' complaints of whistleblower retaliation, I share your recognition that is crucial to ensure that the laws protecting whistleblowers are strong and effective. Federal employees are often in the best position to observe and identify official misconduct or malfeasance as well as dangers to the public health and safety, and the national security.

Now, perhaps more than ever before, our national interest demands that federal workers feel safe to come forward to bring appropriate attention to these conditions so that they may be corrected. Further, and again more than ever, the public now needs assurance that the workforce which is carrying out crucial operations is alert, and that its leaders welcome and encourage their constructive participation in making the government a highly efficient and effective steward of the public interest.

To these ends, Title VI contains a number of provisions that will strengthen the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA) and close loopholes in the Act's coverage. The amendment would reverse the effects of several judicial decisions that have imposed unduly narrow and restrictive tests for determining whether employees qualify for the protection of the WPA. These decisions, among other things, have held that employees are not protected against retaliation when they make their disclosures in the line of duty or when they confront subject officials with their suspicions of wrongdoing. They have also made it more difficult for whistleblowers to secure the Act's protection by interposing what the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit has called an "irrefragable" presumption that government officials perform their duties lawfully and in good faith.

In addition to reversing these rulings, Title VI would grant the Special Counsel independent litigating authority and the right to request judicial review of decisions of the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) in cases that will have a substantial impact upon the enforcement of the WPA. I firmly believe that these changes are necessary, not only to ensure OSC's effectiveness, but to address continuing concerns about the whittling away of the WPA's protections by narrow judicial interpretations of the law. The changes would ensure that OSC, the government agency charged with protecting whistleblowers, will have a meaningful opportunity to participate in the shaping of the law.

Further, Title VI would strengthen OSC's capacity to use its disciplinary action authority to deter agency supervisors, managers, and other officials from engaging in retaliation, and to punish those who do so. The amendment does this in two ways. First, it clarifies the burden of proof in disciplinary action cases that OSC brings by employing the test first set forth by the Supreme Court in Mt. Healthy School District v. Board of Education. Under this test, in order to secure discipline of an agency official accused of engaging in whistleblower retaliation, OSC would have to show that protected whistleblowing was a "significant, motivating factor" in the decision to take or threaten to take a personnel action. If OSC made such a showing, the MSPB would order appropriate discipline unless the official showed, by preponderant evidence, that he or she would have taken or threatened to take the same action even had there been no protected activity.

This change is necessary in order to ensure that the burden of proof in these cases is not so onerous as to make it virtually impossible to secure discipline against retaliators. Under current law, OSC bears the unprecedented burden of demonstrating that protected activity was the but-for cause of an adverse personnel action against a whistleblower. The amendment would correct the imbalance by imposing the well-established Mt. Healthy test in these cases.

In addition, the bill would relieve OSC of attorney fee liability in disciplinary action cases in which it ultimately does not prevail. The amendment would shift liability for fees to the manager's employing agency, where an award of fees would be in the interest of justice. The employing agency would indemnify the manager for these costs which would have been incurred by him in the course of performing his official duties.

Under current law, if OSC ultimately does not prevail in a case it brings against a manager whom our investigation shows has engaged in retaliation, then we must pay attorney fees, even if our prosecution decision was an entirely reasonable one. For a small agency like OSC, with a limited budget, the specter of having to pay large attorney fee awards simply because we do not ultimately prevail in a case, is a significant obstacle to our ability to use this important authority to hold managers accountable. It is, moreover, an unprecedented burden; virtually all fee shifting provisions which could result in an award of fees against a government agency, depend upon a showing that the government agency has acted unreasonably or in bad faith.

In addition to these provisions, the bill would also provide that for a period of five years, beginning on February 1, 2003, there would be multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB, just as there is now multi-circuit review of decisions of the MSPB's sister agency, the Federal Labor Relations Authority. This experiment will give Congress the opportunity to judge whether providing broader perspectives of all of the nation's courts of appeals will enhance the development of the law under the WPA.

There are several other provisions of the amendments that would strengthen the Act's coverage and remedies. The amendments, for example, would extend coverage of the WPA to circumstances in which an agency initiated an investigation of an employee or applicant in reprisal for whistleblowing or where an agency implemented an illegal non-disclosure form or policy. The amendments also would authorize an award of compensatory damages in federal employee whistleblower cases. Such awards are authorized for federal employees under the civil rights acts, and for environmental and nuclear whistleblowers, among others, under other federal statutes. Given the important public policies underlying the WPA, it seems appropriate that the same sort of make whole relief should be available to federal employee whistleblowers.

Finally, Title VI contains a provision that would provide relief to employees who allege that their security clearances were denied or revoked because of protected whistleblowing, without interfering with the longstanding authority of the President to make security clearance determinations. The amendment would allow employees to file OSC complaints alleging they suffered a retaliatory adverse security clearance determination. OSC would be given the authority to investigate such complaints and the MSPB would have the authority to issue declaratory and appropriate relief other than ordering the restoration of the clearance. Further, where the Board found retaliation, the employing agency would be required to conduct its own investigation of the revocation and report back to Congress.

This amendment provides a balance resolution of the tension between protecting national security whistleblowers against retaliation and maintaining the President's traditional prerogative to decide who will have access to classified information. Especially in light of the current heightened concerns about issues of national security, this change in the law is clearly warranted.

Thank you again for providing me with an opportunity to comment on these amendments, and for your continuing interest in the work of the Office of Special Counsel.

Sincerely,

ELAINE KAPLAN.

Mr. LEVIN. OSC currently has the authority to pursue disciplinary action against managers who retaliate against whistleblowers. However, Federal Circuit decisions, like LaChance, have undermined the agency's ability to successfully pursue such cases. The Special Counsel has said that "change is necessary in order to ensure that the burden of proof in these cases is not so onerous as to make it virtually impossible to secure disciplinary action against retaliators." In addition to it being difficult to win, if the OSC loses a disciplinary case, it has to pay the legal fees of those against whom OSC initiates disciplinary action. In its letter, OSC said that "the specter of having to pay large attorney fee awards . . . is a significant obstacle to our ability to use this important authority to hold managers accountable." Our bill addresses these problems by establishing a reasonable burden of proof for disciplinary actions and requiring the employing agency, not the OSC, to reimburse the prevailing party for attorney fees in a disciplinary proceeding.

Finally, the bill addresses a new issue that has arisen in connection with the recent enactment of the Homeland Security Act or HSA. To evaluate the vulnerability to terrorist attack of certain critical infrastructure such as chemical plants, computer networks and other key facilities, the HSA asks private companies that own these facilities to submit unclassified information about them to the government. In doing so, the law also created some ambiguity on the question of whether Federal employee whistleblowers would be protected by the WPA if they should disclose information that has been independently obtained by the whistleblower about such facilities but which may also have been disclosed to the government under the critical infrastructure information program.

While I believe it was Congress's intent to extend whistleblower protections to Federal employees who disclose such independently obtained information, the law's ambiguities are troublesome in the context of the tendency of the Federal Circuit to narrowly construe the scope of protections afforded by the WPA. Our bill would thus clarify that whistleblower protections do extend to Federal employees who disclose independently obtained information that may also have been disclosed to the government as part of the critical infrastructure information program

We need to encourage Federal employees to blow the whistle on waste, fraud and abuse in Federal Government agencies and programs. These people take great risks and often face enormous obstacles in doing what they believe is right. The Congress and the country owe a particular debt of gratitude to those whistleblowers who put their careers on the line to protect national security. Since September 11, 2001, we have seen a number of examples of how crucial people like Coleen Rowley, Mark Hall and Bob Lindermann are to keeping our country safe. I request unanimous consent that a letter from Agent Rowley be printed in the RECORD. In the letter she says that when she blew the whistle, she was lucky enough to garner the support of many of her colleagues and members of Congress. However, her letter warns that for every Coleen Rowley, "there are many more who do not benefit from the relative safety of public notoriety." It is to protect those responsible, courageous many that we offer this legislation. We need more like them.

I ask unanimous consent to print in the RECORD a section-by-section explanation of the bill.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SEPTEMBER 2, 2002.

DEAR SENATORS: I have proudly served in federal law enforcement for over 21 years. Prior to my personal involvement in a specific matter, I did not fully appreciate the strong disincentives that sometimes keep government employees from exposing waste, fraud, abuse, or other failures they witness on the job. Nor did I appreciate the strong incentives that do exist for agencies to avoid institutional embarrassment.

The decision to step forward with information that exposed my agency to scrutiny was one of the most difficult of my career. I did not come to it quickly or lightly. I first attempted to warn my superiors through regular channels. Only after those warnings failed to bring about the necessary response and congressional inquiry was initiated, did I go outside the agency with my concerns. I had no intention or desire to be in the public spotlight, so I did not go to the news media. I provided the information to Members of Congress with oversight responsibility. I felt compelled to do so because my responsibility is to the American people, not to a government agency.

Unfortunately, the cloak of secrecy which is necessary for the effective operation of government agencies involved in national security and criminal investigations fosters an environment where the incentives to avoid embarrassment and the disincentives to step forward combine. When that happens, the public loses. We need laws that strike a better balance, that are able to protect effective government operation without sacrificing accountability to the public. I was lucky enough to garner a good deal of support from my colleagues in the Minneapolis office and Members of Congress. But for every one like me, there are many more who do not benefit from the relative safety of public notoriety. They need credible, functioning rights and remedies to retain the freedom to warn.

I also need to state that I write this letter in my personal capacity, and that it reflects my personal views only, not those of the government agency for which I work.

Thank you for your consideration,

COLEEN ROWLEY.

There being no objection, the analysis was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS OF THE FEDERAL EMPLOYEE PROTECTION OF DISCLOSURES ACT

The Federal Employee Protection of Disclosures Act would strengthen protections for Federal employees who blow the whistle on waste, fraud and abuse in the Federal Government.

Protected Whistleblower Disclosures.—To correct court decisions improperly limiting the disclosures protected by the Whistleblower Protection Act, WPA, section (b) of the bill would clarify Congressional intent that the law covers "any" whistleblowing disclosure, whether that disclosure is made as part of an employee's job duties, concerns policy or individual misconduct, is oral or written, or is made to any audience inside or outside an agency, and without restriction to time, place, motive or context. This section would also protect certain disclosures of classified information to Congress when the disclosure is to a Member or legislative staff holding an appropriate security clearance and authorized to receive the type of information disclosed.

Informal Disclosures.—Section (c) would clarify the definition of "disclosure" to include a formal or informal communication or transmission.

Irrefragable Proof.—In LaChance v. White, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit imposed an erroneous standard for determining when an employee makes a protected disclosure under the WPA. Under the clear language of the statute, an employee need only have a reasonable belief that he or she is providing evidence of fraud, waste or abuse to make a protected disclosure. But the court ruled that an employee had to have "irrefragable proof"—meaning undeniable and incontestable proof—to overcome the presumption that a public officer is performing their duties in accordance with law. Section (d) would replace this unreasonable standard of proof by providing that a whistleblower can rebut the presumption with "substantial evidence."

Prohibited Personnel Actions.—Section (e)(1) would add three actions to the list of prohibited personnel actions that may not be taken against whistleblowers for protected disclosures: enforcement of a nondisclosure policy, form or agreement; suspension, revocation, or other determination relating to an employee's security clearance; and investigation of an employee or applicant for employment due to protected whistleblowing activities.

Nondisclosure Actions Against Whistleblowers.—Section (e)(2) would bar agencies from implementing or enforcing against whistleblowers any nondisclosure policy, form or agreement that fails to contain specified language preserving the right of federal employees to disclose certain protected information. It would also prohibit a manager from initiating an investigation of an employee or applicant for employment because they engaged in protected activity.

Retaliations Involving Security Clearances.—Section (e)(3) would make it a prohibited personnel practice for a manager to suspend, revoke or take other action with respect to an employee's security clearance in retaliation for whistleblowing. This section would also authorize the Merit Systems Protection Board, MSPB, to conduct an expedited review of such matters and issue declaratory and other appropriate relief, but would not empower MSPB to restore a security clearance. If MSPB or a reviewing court were to find that a security clearance decision was retaliatory, the agency involved would be required to review its security clearance decision and issue a report to Congress explaining it.

Exclusions From WPA.—Current law allows the President to exclude certain employees and agencies from the WPA if they perform certain intelligence related or policy making functions. In 1994, Congress amended the WPA to stop agencies from removing employees from WPA coverage after the employees filed whistleblower complaints. Section (f) would also require that removal of an agency from the WPA be made prior to a personnel action being taken against a whistleblower at that agency.

Attorney Fees.—The Office of Special Counsel, OSC, has authority to pursue disciplinary action against managers who retaliate against whistleblowers. Currently, if OSC loses a disciplinary case, it must pay the legal fees of those against whom it initiated the action. Because the amounts involved could significantly deplete OSC's limited resources, section (g) would require the employing agency, rather than OSC, to reimburse the manager's attorney fees.

Burden of Proof in Disciplinary Actions.—Currently, when OSC pursues disciplinary action against managers who retaliate against whistleblowers, OSC must demonstrate that an adverse personnel action would not have occurred "but for" the whistleblower's protected activity. Section (i) would establish a more reasonable burden of proof by requiring OSC to demonstrate that the whistleblower's protected disclosure was a "significant motivating factor" in the decision by the manager to take the adverse action, even if other factors also motivated the decision. This standard would be equivalent of the Mt. Healthy standard.

Disclosures to Congress.—Section (j) would require agencies to establish a process to provide confidential advice to employees on how to lawfully make a protected disclosure of classified information to Congress.

Authority of Special Counsel.—Under current law, OSC has no authority to request MSPB to reconsider a decision or seek appellate review of a MSPB decision. This limitation undermines OSC's ability to protect whistleblowers and integrity of the WPA. Section k would authorize OSC to appear in any civil action brought in connection with the WPA and request appellate review of any MSPB order where OSC determines MSPB erred and the case would have a substantial impact on WPA enforcement.

Judicial Review.—In 1982, Congress replaced normal Administrative Procedures Act appellate review of MSPB decisions with exclusive jurisdiction in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. While the 1989 WPA and its 1994 amendments strengthened and clarified whistleblower protections, Federal Circuit holdings have repeatedly misinterpreted key provisions of the law. Subject to a five year sunset, section (l) would suspend the Federal Circuit's exclusive jurisdiction over whistleblower appeals and allow petitions for review to be filed either in the Federal Circuit or any other federal circuit court of competent jurisdiction.

Nondisclosure Restrictions on Whistleblowers.—Section (m) would require all federal nondisclosure policies, forms and agreements to contain specified language preserving the right of federal employees to disclose certain protected information. This section would codify the so-called anti-gag provision that has been included in federal appropriations bills since 1988.

Critical Infrastructure Information.—Section (n) would clarify that section 214(c) of the Homeland Security Act, HSA, maintains existing WPA rights for independently obtained information that may also qualify as critical infrastructure information under the HSA.

By Mrs. BOXER:

S. 1359. A bill to allow credit unions to provide international money transfer services and to require disclosures in connection with international money transfers from all money transmitting service providers; to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, today, I am introducing the International Remittances Services Enhancement and Protection Act of 2003.

Remittances are the funds that immigrants send to their families abroad to help those relatives meet their basic needs. In the Latino community, 47 percent of all Latinos born outside the United States regularly send money to their country of origin. But since 43 percent to 58 percent of those who send remittances abroad regularly do not have a bank account, much of their hard earned money is lost in fees paid to check cashing agencies and wire transfer companies. They rely on check cashing services to cash their paychecks at hefty fees and then pay another fee to send some portion of that money through a wire service to their relatives in Latin America and elsewhere at varying exchange rates.

This legislation will increase competition and transparency in the remittances market. It will provide immigrants with access to more choices for sending remittances by allowing credit unions to provide wire transfer and check cashing services to nonmembers. It will also provide immigrants with access to information in more than one language from all money transmitters about the fees and exchange rates that they pay. That information will make it easier for consumers to compare the value of the services they can receive from different service providers.

The larger goal is to provide immigrants with more control over their finances. I believe this bill will encourage financial institutions to develop better services for immigrants and build stronger relationships with immigrant communities.

According to the Multilateral Investment Fund, immigrants living in the United States sent $23 billion to Latin America in 2001. More than $3 billion of that total was consumed in fees paid to money transfer agencies. If current growth rates in remittance transfers are maintained, cumulative remittances to Latin America could reach $300 billion for the 10-year period ending in 2010. We need to work to ensure that competition in the market and modern technology come together to lower the portion of those monies lost in fees and instead are used for productive purposes.

By Mr. GRAHAM of Florida:

S. 1360. A bill to amend section 7105 of title 38, United States Code, to clarify the requirements for notices of disagreement for appellate review of Department of Veterans Affairs activities; to the Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

Mr. GRAHAM of Florida. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce legislation that will remove a significant and arbitrary barrier to appellate review of veterans' benefits claims. In 1988, when Congress created judicial review for veterans' claims it intended to provide "an opportunity for those aggrieved by VA decisions to have such decisions reviewed by a court" and found such review "necessary in order to provide such claimants with fundamental justice."

A veteran or survivor of a veteran seeking VA benefits must file a claim for such benefits, generally at a VA Regional Office. If the VA denies the claim for benefits, the claimant must file a "Notice of Disagreement," or NOD, as defined in section 7105 of title 38 of the United States Code. This NOD initiates appellate review by the agency and begins a series of events where VA communicates the basis of the denial to the claimant and allows various levels of review of this denial at the regional office. If the claimant still disagrees with the VA decision, the claimant may file a "Substantive Appeal" that vests jurisdiction of the claim with the Board of Veterans' Appeals, the appellate arm of VA.

Section 7105 defines what is required of a valid NOD. It must be filed within 1 year from the notice of the initial denial, in writing, and filed with the regional office that issued the decision over which there is disagreement. The NOD may be filed by the claimant or the claimant's guardian or representative.

VA has promulgated regulations to implement section 7105. In Section 20.201 or title 38 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the Secretary defined a NOD to not require special wording. The regulation does require that the NOD "must be in terms which can be reasonably construed as disagreement with the determination and a desire for appellate review." The second component of that sentence—"a desire for appellate review"—is not required under the statute.

In 1997, Raymond Gallegos, a veteran, again filed an application for service connection for post-traumatic stress disorder that had been previously denied. The VA regional office granted his claim. However, Mr. Gallegos believed the effective date assigned to his claim was wrong and filed what was then thought to be a NOD. He appealed this issue to the Board, which reasoned that the letter expressing his disagreement was not a valid NOD because it did not express his desire for appellate review. Mr. Gallegos appealed the Board's determination to the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, or the CAVC.

In 2000, the CAVC determined in Gallegos v. Gober that the VA regulation was invalid because it required more of the claimant than Congress required in statute. Last year, in Gallegos v. Principi, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit reversed the CAVC and upheld the VA regulation, finding that the agency interpretation was entitled to deference because Congressional intent was not clear in limiting the requirements of a NOD to those in section 7105.

Congress never intended to require that level of formality from veterans, in this uniquely pro-claimant system. Therefore, I offer legislation that would specify that if a claimant's filing meets the criteria defined in section 7105 of title 38 of the United States Code, the document will be deemed a Notice of Disagreements with all the rights and procedures that accompany that determination. It will also ensure that claimants whose NODs were found to be defective since the court decision will have the opportunity to have their NOD reevaluated under this new provision.

This is very significant because there are two key consequences of not having a valid, timely NOD. First, if a claimant fails to file a timely, valid NOD, the VA denial becomes final. The claimant will need to submit "new and material evidence" that VA erred in order to reopen the case. If successful, the claimant will only be able to receive benefits dating to the beginning of the newly reopened claim, potentially losing years of retroactive benefits. This may affect a veteran's ability to receive VA health care, a dependent's ability to use educational benefits, and all the other benefits that flow from a finding of service-connection.

Second, if a claimant has not been deemed to file a NOD, there can be no appeal of the VA decision. A NOD is required to initiate an appeal. It is a prerequisite to review by the Board of Veterans' Appeals and ultimately judicial review at the CAVC. This contravenes Congress's intent to remove arbitrary barriers to judicial review as it did in Public Law 107-103.

We face the tragic fact that in 2002, America lost 646,264 veterans. The many aging veterans who still await justice cannot afford this debate. I ask my colleagues to support this critical measure and restore this fundamental justice to our veterans.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of this bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1360

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

By Mr. SMITH:

S. 1361. A bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide that foreign base company shipping income shall include only income from aircraft and income from certain vessels transporting petroleum and related products; to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SMITH of Oregon. Mr. President, today I am introducing legislation which would deal with a real problem facing our Nation, the decline of our U.S.-owned shipping fleet. A U.S. owned shipping fleet is essential as a matter of national and economic security. My bill would help make U.S. based shipping companies more competitive in the global market.

This is important to our country and to my state. Oregon plays a key role as a facilitator of international commerce. The Port of Portland is one of the most active ports in the world. It is a key link for trade between the United States and the Pacific Rim. In addition to its key role enabling global commerce, Portland is home to U.S. owned shipping companies, shipyards, and numerous support businesses.

As a result of tax-law changes enacted in 1975 and 1986, U.S. shipping companies must pay tax on income earned by subsidiaries overseas immediately rather than when such income is later brought back to the United States. This treatment represents a sharp departure from the generally applicable income tax principle of “deferral” and places U.S.-based owners of international fleets at a distinct tax disadvantage compared to their foreign-based competitors.

Controlled foreign corporations engaged in ocean transport are one of the only active businesses that are not eligible for general rule of deferral. My bill would amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow U.S. companies that own foreign-flagged ships to treat income earned by their controlled foreign corporations in the same manner as all other U.S. companies. In short, it would allow American shipping companies to defer the payment of tax on income that they derive from shipping activities outside the United States until that income is repatriated to the United States.

Most foreign-based carriers pay no home-country taxes on income they earn abroad from international shipping. As a result of this competitive imbalance, U.S. companies now hold precious little share of the world shipping marketplace. Indeed, U.S. ownership of international shipping trades dropped precipitously in the aftermath of the 1975 and 1986 tax-law changes. Before 1975, the U.S.-owned share of the world's open-registry shipping fleet stood at 26 percent. By 1986, the U.S. share had dropped to 14 percent. By 1996, the U.S. share had dropped to 5 percent.

Other security concerns also are raised by the decline in U.S. ownership of the international shipping trade. The U.S. military, in times of emergency, relies on the ability to requisition U.S.-owned foreign-flagged tankers, bulk carriers, and other vessels to carry oil, gasoline, and other materials in defense of U.S. interests overseas. These vessels comprise the Effective United States Control, EUSC, fleet. The sharp decline in the EUSC fleet since the 1975 and 1986 tax-law changes, and the resulting adverse strategic consequences, have been confirmed in a recent MIT study conducted for the Navy Department. The study recommended that in the short term, the most practical and cost-effective means of reversing this trend would be to “revise legislation to reflect tax deferral of income for some or all EUSC vessels.”

U.S. security also depends in no small part on our ability to maintain adequate domestic oil supplies in times of emergency. The United States consumes approximately 19.6 million barrels of oil per day, of which roughly 55 percent, mostly crude, is imported into the United States. It is estimated that 95 percent of all oil imported into the United States by sea is now imported on foreign-owned tankers. This means that one half of every gallon of oil consumed in the United States is carried on foreign-owned vessels. This growing dependence on foreign parties—who may not be sympathetic to U.S. interests—to deliver our oil in times of global crisis is cause for potential alarm. In recent years, two of the largest American shipping companies have been purchased by foreign companies, thereby making their shipping operations more competitive than the remaining American companies.

The time has come for us to make changes in the tax law that will allow our domestic companies to compete fairly in the global marketplace. I urge my colleagues to join me to enact this needed legislation. I ask unanimous consent that the text of the legislation be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1361

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “RAFT (Restore Access to Foreign Trade) Act of 2003”.

SEC. 2. ELIMINATION OF MOST VESSEL SHIPPING INCOME FROM FOREIGN BASE COMPANY INCOME.

(a) FOREIGN BASE COMPANY SHIPPING INCOME TO INCLUDE ONLY INCOME FROM AIRCRAFT AND PETROLEUM VESSELS.—Subsection (f) of section 954 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (relating to foreign base company income) is amended—

(1) by inserting “petroleum” before “vessel” each place it appears, and

(2) by adding at the end the following new sentence: “For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘petroleum vessel’ means any vessel engaged in the carriage of petroleum or related products or byproducts if the controlled group (as defined in section 267(f)(1) without regard to section 1563(b)(2)(C)) of which the taxpayer is a member is engaged principally in the trade or business of exploring for, or extracting, refining or marketing of, petroleum or related products or byproducts.”.

(b) RETENTION OF SEPARATE FOREIGN TAX CREDIT BASKET FOR ALL SHIPPING INCOME.—Subparagraph (D) of section 904(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 is amended by striking “(as defined in section 954(f))” and inserting “, as defined in section 954(f), if references in such section to petroleum vessels included references to all vessels”.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by this section shall apply to taxable years of foreign corporations beginning after December 31, 2002, and to taxable years of United States shareholders (within the meaning of section 951(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) within which or with which such taxable years of such foreign corporations end.

By Mrs. BOXER:

S. 1362. A bill to authorize the Port Passenger Accelerated Service System (Port PASS) as a permanent program for land border inspection under the Immigration and Nationality Act, and for other purposes; to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, today, I am introducing legislation that will strengthen national security, promote commerce, and provide assistance to our dedicated agents at the border.

Thousands of San Diego and Tijuana residents cross the border every day as commuters, shoppers, or visitors. Unfortunately, our border infrastructure has not kept pace with the increasing traffic volume, and travelers frequently encounter delays and congestion at the border.

The tragic events of September 11 further intensified these challenges along the border. Increased security measures severely over-extended inspection resources and resulted in longer waiting times for crossing the border.

The Secure Electronic Network for Travelers' Rapid Inspection, SENTRI, program was created to help alleviate the congestion at the border.

SENTRI is a dedicated commuter lane program. It allows pre-screened travelers to move quickly through the inspection process at the United States-Mexican border. After participants pass a background check, they can move more quickly through a dedicated lane.

SENTRI accepts only travelers who pass both an extensive background check to verify their eligibility and a thorough inspection of their vehicle.

Delays at crossing the border were often an hour or more prior to SENTRI But, with the program, the delays for participants are 5 to 15 minutes. Travelers in other lanes also benefit because the prescreened SENTRI crossers move swiftly through the border, reducing the number of motorists using general commuter lanes.

Expediting inspections through SENTRI is actually helping to improve border security, as Customs and Border Patrol agents can focus more attention on nonscreened drivers and passengers.

Unfortunately, SENTRI has become a victim of its own success. SENTRI needs a greater investment of resources to keep up with the current and future demand. Enrollment increased by more than 100 percent after September 11. Currently, prospective applicants must wait approximately 8 months to participate in the program.

For innovative programs, such as SENTRI, to work, we must provide them with the tools and resources they need to succeed. This is why I am introducing the Secure and Fast Entry at the Border Act or SAFE Border Act.

The SAFE Border Act recognizes the contribution of SENTRI to border security and the agents who administer the program. My bill would extend the length of a SENTRI pass from 1 to 2 years—enabling border agents to process more new applicants and reduce the current enrollment wait. The SAFE Border Act also recommends the appointment of dedicated SENTRI staff to expedite application processing, and encourages the creation of a dedicated commuter lane for prescreened, low-risk pedestrian crossers.

In addition, to ensure security at our borders, my legislation bans a person convicted of a felony or under active criminal investigation from participating in the program.

Our agents at the border shoulder an enormous responsibility every day. I believe we owe them the appropriate resources and support they need to carry out their duties.

Our Nation's economic and overall security is heavily linked to smooth and secure border crossings. The SAFE Border Act provides a way for trusted travelers to cross the border securely and quickly.

By Mr. REID:

S. 1363. A bill to prohibit the study or implementation of any plan to privatize, divest, or transfer any part of the mission, function, or responsibility of the National Park Service; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, as thousands of families look forward to summer vacations at our beautiful national parks, we must address an issue that could one day ruin their experience: privatization of the National Park Service.

The Park Service has worked hard to preserve Nevada's unique landscapes at the Great Basin National Park, Death Valley, and Lake Mead National Recreation Area. Instead of applauding the Park Service for a job well done, the Administration wants to study 1,800 jobs in the Park Service for privatization.

Many of these Park Service jobs have direct contact with visitors to our parks. They not only collect fees and maintain parks but also give directions, fight wildfires when necessary, and provide emergency medical assistance to injured park visitors. They are not required to do these things; they are driven by a love for the parks and a commitment to public service that contractors lack.

Privatizing the Park Service would jeopardize our national parks. Members of the Park Service have a career-long interest in maintaining the parks and perform their jobs because they are dedicated to serving the public. They often go beyond the call of duty to fix a problem in the middle of the night or change a tire for an unlucky park visitor. Can we be sure that a contractor would do the same? No.

In addition, the Park Service receives tens of thousands of hours of volunteer work every year. At the Lake Mead National Recreation Area alone, volunteers provided 92,000 hours of work, the equivalent of 44 full-time employees. Will a contractor find volunteers to provide it with 92,000 hours of assistance. Not likely.

Privatization will waste taxpayer money. Privatization studies cost about $3,000 per position studied, and privatization does not save money.

Nevadans visiting the national parks this summer want members of the Park Service, not profit-minded corporations, enriching their experience by directing them to the famous sites and best kept secrets of our parks.

I oppose privatizing the Park Service because it would hurt Nevadans, endanger our national parks, and waste taxpayer money.

This bill will keep our dedicated Park Service members running our national parks. It stops costly privatization studies and redirects the funds to address the maintenance backlog that President Bush promised to eliminate.

I am committed to protecting our parks, and I am proud to introduce this bill that will ensure that the Park Service can preserve them for generations to come.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1363

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. PARK PROFESSIONALS PROTECTION.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the "Park Professionals Protection Act".

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The National Park System is recognized throughout the world as a model for the conservation and enjoyment of natural, scenic, recreational, cultural, and historic resources.

(2) The National Park System would never have achieved such status, nor could the system maintain such status, without the professionalism, dedication, and passion of the men and women of the National Park Service.

(3) Current plans to privatize thousands of jobs within the National Park Service ignore the unique contributions made by the men and women of the National Park Service and threaten to undermine the entire National Park System.

(4) Scarce park operations and maintenance resources are being diverted to pay private consultants to study the current privatization scheme. According to the National Park Service, these studies cost approximately $3000 for each position proposed to be privatized.

(5) Despite the millions of taxpayer dollars diverted to these studies, not a single report has been published documenting any cost savings to be generated by the privatization of park operations.

(6) The current privatization scheme raises serious questions regarding the ability of temporary workers, provided by the lowest bidder, to adequately fulfill the responsibilities of professional National Park Service employees in the areas of conservation, interpretation, emergency fire and rescue, and homeland security.

(7) The current privatization scheme appears to affect minority employees disproportionately, threatening to significantly reduce the number of minority employees within the National Park Service.

(8) Pendency of the current privatization scheme is having detrimental impacts on the morale of current employees and is discouraging high quality candidates from applying for positions within the National Park Service.

(c) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary is prohibited from studying or implementing any plan to privatize, divest, or transfer any part of what is, as of the date of the enactment of this section, the mission, function, or responsibility of the National Park Service.

(d) REALLOCATION OF FUNDS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Secretary shall withhold any funds currently dedicated to the activities prohibited under subsection (c) and shall reallocate those funds to the operations and maintenance accounts within the National Park Service.

(e) NO EFFECT ON CERTAIN PLANS.—Nothing in this section shall affect the authority, as of the date of the enactment of this section, of a National Park Service Superintendent to develop and implement concessions management plans and commercial services plans covering, in whole or in part, the area managed by that Superintendent.

(f) SECRETARY DEFINED.—The term “Secretary” means the Secretary of the Interior and any person employed by the Secretary of the Interior in any capacity.

By Ms. MURKOWSKI:

S. 1364. A bill to amend the Alaska National Lands Conservation Act to authorize the payment of expenses after the death of certain Federal employees in the State of Alaska; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.

Ms. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, on the morning following the annual candlelight vigil to honor fallen law enforcement officers, I came to the floor to speak about three brave Alaskans whose names were inscribed on the National Law Enforcement Officers’ Memorial at Judiciary Square this year. One of these brave Alaskans was a National Park Service ranger who lost his life when the aircraft he was piloting crashed in a remote part of Alaska. Today, I am introducing legislation which I hope will help the surviving family members of this ranger in their recovery from this tragic loss and provide authority for the Federal Government to help the surviving family members of other similarly situated Federal employees should a similar tragedy occur in the future.

This ranger I am speaking about was assigned to the Katmai National Park and Preserve in the Bristol Bay region of Alaska and lived in the community of Naknek. Naknek is not connected to the rest of North America by road. It is what we in Alaska call a “bush” community. But it was home to the ranger and became the adopted home of his widow who did not grow up in the area. The ranger about whom I am speaking was hired under a special hiring authority in the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, ANILCA, which authorizes the Federal land managers to extend a hiring preference to those with special knowledge about a Conservation System Unit. He was regarded as a “local hire.”

Under the Federal Travel Regulation, when a federal employee dies outside of the Continental United States, the Federal Government will reimburse the members of his or her household for the cost of relocating to their permanent residence. Alaska is regarded as “outside of the Continental United States” under this regulation.

Thus, if the National Park Service ranger who died in the line of duty came from the Lower 48 before being assigned to the Katmai National Park and Preserve then the Federal Government, as I read the regulation, could reimburse the surviving family members for the cost of relocating to Anchorage. This cost can be fairly substantial since one cannot hire a moving van to ship the personal effects from South Naknek to Anchorage. There are no roads which connect the bush village of South Naknek to Anchorage. The personal effects need to be transported by air.

However, if the deceased employee is a local hire employee, the Federal Travel Regulation does not authorize the Federal Government to reimburse the surviving family members for their relocation cost because the deceased employee’s hometown is deemed to be the local hire location. This works an inequity where, as in the present case, the deceased employee’s surviving spouse does not have ties to the duty station community, but rather to another community in Alaska. In this instance, the surviving spouse desires to relocate to Anchorage, which is Alaska’s largest city, and continue to raise her three children there.

The legislation that I am introducing today is intended to cure this inequity. It would amend ANILCA, the same legislation which contains the local hire authority, to provide that if a local hire employee dies in the line of duty, the Federal Government will reimburse the surviving immediate family for the cost of transporting the remains to a location in Alaska of their choosing and will also relocate the immediate family members to a community in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household. I think that this is the least we can do for the survivors of local hire employees who go to work everyday in the harsh climate and conditions of bush Alaska but sadly sometimes do not return home.

There being no objection, the text of the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1364

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AFTER THE DEATH OF CERTAIN FEDERAL EMPLOYEES IN THE STATE OF ALASKA.

Section 1308 of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act (16 U.S.C. 3198) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subsection (c) as subsection (d); and

(2) by inserting after subsection (b) the following:

“(c) PAYMENT OF EXPENSES AFTER DEATH OF AN EMPLOYEE.—

“(1) DEFINITION OF IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBER.—In this subsection, the term “immediate family member” means a person related to a deceased employee that was a member of the household of the deceased employee at the time of death.

“(2) PAYMENTS.—If an employee appointed under the program established by subsection (a) dies in the performance of any assigned duties on or after October 1, 2002, the Secretary may—

“(A) pay reasonable expenses for the preparation and transportation of the remains of the deceased employee to a location in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household of the deceased employee;

“(B) pay reasonable expenses for transporting immediate family members and the baggage and household goods of the deceased employee and immediate family members to a community in the State of Alaska which is selected by the surviving head of household of the deceased employee.”.

By Mr. MCCONNELL (for himself, Mr. KYL, and Mr. LEAHY):

S. 1365. A bill to provide increased foreign assistance for Cambodia under certain circumstances, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, today, along with my colleagues Senators KYL and LEAHY, I offer the “Cambodia Democracy and Accountability Act of 2003”. This Act is particularly timely, given that national elections are scheduled in that country on July 27th.

Cambodia is on its third round of parliamentary elections since the 1991 Paris Peace Accords, with previous elections having been funded by the United Nations in 1993 and by the Cambodian governments in 1998. Despite the billions of dollars spent on elections in that country—over $2 billion by the U.N. alone—there has yet to be a credible poll that accurately reflects the will of the Cambodian people.

My colleagues will remember that the U.N.-sponsored elections resulted in a large voter turnout—but also an unworkable power sharing deal brokered between the winning royalist FUNCINPEC party and the hard line Cambodian People’s Party, CPP, that quickly dissolved into open hostilities, including a bloody grenade attack against a peaceful, pro-democracy rally and a CPP sponsored coup d’etat in 1997.

The debilitating hangover from this coup—destroyed party offices, dead activists, and a palpable climate of fear and repression—undermined prospects for free and fair elections in 1998 even before the first ballots were cast.

Fatigued and frustrated, the international community found it expedient to endorse the flawed elections, even as students and Buddhist monks erected a “democracy square” in Phnom Penh to protest the polls. A CPP crackdown left many of these peaceful protesters killed, beaten or harassed.

It is time that Prime Minister Hun Sen—as the self-proclaimed strongman of Cambodia—is held accountable for the murder of political activists, Buddhist monks, civilians, and students. There is no rule of law, if the leaders of the government are not subject to it.

A second “coalition” government between royalists and hard liners was cobbled together in the aftermath of the 1998 elections. This time, there was no pretext of power sharing, and for the past 5 years CPP has been firmly and completely in control of the country.

Nevertheless, in the months and weeks before the upcoming July elections, the political marriage between FUNCINPEC and CPP is fraying. In an effort to harass and intimidate his opponents, in late January Prime Minister Hun Sen whipped up nationalistic sentiment against Thailand, let loose the so-called Pagoda Boys, government-paid thugs, and destroyed $50 million worth of Thai public and private interests in Phnom Penh.

Despite frantic pleas for assistance, the Thai ambassador and other diplomatic personnel escaped injury by scaling the embassy's walls and scurrying to safety. In the aftermath of the riots, Hun Sen arrested and intimidated students, independent broadcasters, and political activists. A senior opposition figure sought—and was granted—refuge in the U.S. Embassy.

In February, former royalist parliamentarian Om Radsady was gunned down in a mafia-style murder in Phnom Penh. Well liked and respected by his colleagues from all Cambodian political parties, Radsady's assassination sent a not so subtle message that no one is immune from the black hand of CPP.

It is time Hun Sen is held accountable for his complicity in actions that grossly violate international and domestic laws, and the human rights and dignity of the people of Cambodia.

The fundamental question facing the Cambodian people today is whether the July 27th elections will be a meaningful exercise in democracy, or another lost opportunity to chart a new course for that beleaguered country.

Last week, Prime Minister Hun Sen assured Secretary of State Colin Powell that Cambodia would hold free and fair elections. Secretary Powell should not be duped by these hollow promises. A preponderance of evidence suggests that CPP is actively trying to steal the elections before July 27th: political activists continue to be murdered and intimidated, creating a chilling tone of fear and repression; the CPP continues to directly influence and manipulate the election machinery, with members of the National Election Commission, NEC, nominated in a closed manner by the co-Ministers of Interior and the NEC already failing to investigate allegations of election improprieties; and, opposition political parties continue to lack access to media, with several broadcast outlets in Cambodia unwilling to sell air time to CPP's challengers.

Let me take a moment to describe what the Cambodian Democracy and Accountability Act does—and does not—do.

The Act provides additional foreign assistance to Cambodia—an increase by half (or $21.5 million) over the fiscal year 2004 budget request of $43 million—if new leadership has been elected in free and fair elections, and if Hun Sen is no longer Prime Minister. It has been apparent to me that Hun Sen has long been part of Cambodia's problems—and not part of the solution.

The Act does not preclude the Cambodian people from voting for the political party of their choice. Ballot secrecy must be ensured—as well as transparency in the process of vote counting and tabulation—in order that the will of the Cambodian people is accurately expressed. It is my fear that CPP pre-election chicanery may already have violated the integrity of the election process.

If I wanted to interfere with the elections I would have offered legislation that restricts all assistance to Cambodia unless a specific political party or parties was elected. This Act does not do this. It does not cut any assistance—not a single penny—to Cambodia included in the fiscal year 2004 budget request. It simply provides that if the major obstacle to democracy and development in the country—namely Prime Minister Hun Sen—is out of power, additional foreign aid will be forthcoming.

It is important to recall that Hun Sen's coup resulted in severe restrictions on assistance to Cambodia—that continue to this day. If given an opportunity through free and fair elections, the Cambodian people will make the right choices that will ensure a dawn for development in that country.

Why will they make the right choice? Over the many decades he has been in power, Hun Sen has ruled Cambodia through violence, fear and repression. Under his watch, the country has become a haven for sexual predators and pedophiles, the criminal underworld, and international terrorists. Hun Sen has repeatedly abused the most basic of freedoms protected by the Cambodian Constitution, attacked his political opposition, and perpetuated a climate of impunity that stifles the advancement of freedom and free markets.

And he has never—not once—been held accountable for his actions.

In addition to increasing foreign assistance under certain conditions, the Act restricts assistance to a Khmer Rouge tribunal unless the President determines that, among other things, the tribunal is supported by democratic Cambodian political parties and is not under the control or influence of the CPP. It also requires the Federal Bureau of Investigations to resume its investigation of the March 30, 1997 grenade attack against opposition leader Sam Rainsy that killed and injured scores of Cambodians.

I should remind my colleagues that American democracy worker Ron Abney was injured in this act of terrorism, reportedly carried out by the CPP. Ron—and all the victims of this attack—are still waiting for justice.

Secretary Powell wrote in a June 24 op-ed that Zimbabwean dictator Robert Mugabe's "time has come and gone." As democracy is similarly under siege in both Zimbabwe and Cambodia, dictator Hun Sen's time has also come and gone.

By Mr. ALLARD (for himself, Mr. FEINGOLD, and Mr. CRAPO):

S. 1366. A bill to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to make grants to State and tribal governments to assist State and tribal efforts to manage and control the spread of chronic wasting disease in deer and elk herds, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

Mr. ALLARD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 1366

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Chronic Wasting Disease Financial Assistance Act of 2003".

SEC. 2. DEFINITION AND FINDINGS.

(a) CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE DEFINED.—In this Act, the term "chronic wasting disease" means the animal disease afflicting deer and elk that—

(1) is a transmissible disease of the nervous system resulting in distinctive lesions in the brain; and

(2) belongs to the group of diseases known as transmissible spongiform encephalopathies, which group includes scrapie, bovine spongiform encephalopathy, and Cruetzfeldt-Jakob disease.

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) The States retain undisputed primacy and policy-making authority with regard to wildlife management, and nothing in this Act interferes with or otherwise affects the primacy of the States in managing wildlife generally, or managing, surveying, and monitoring the incidence of chronic wasting disease in animal populations.

(2) Chronic wasting disease is a fundamental threat to the health and vibrancy of deer and elk populations, and the increased occurrence of chronic wasting disease in the United States necessitates government action to manage and eradicate this lethal disease.

(3) As the States and tribal government move to manage existing incidence of chronic wasting disease and insulate non-infected wild cervid populations from the disease, it is appropriate for the Federal Government to support their efforts with financial assistance.

SEC. 3. STATE CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE MANAGEMENT CAPACITY BUILDING GRANTS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to State wildlife management agencies to assist States in developing and implementing long term management strategies to address chronic wasting disease in wild cervids.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of a State whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan include chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) States in which chronic wasting disease has been detected and States located adjacent or in proximity to States in which chronic wasting disease has been detected.

(2) States that have expended State funds for chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research, with additional priority given to those States that have shown the greatest financial commitment to managing, monitoring, surveying, and researching chronic wasting disease.

(3) States with comprehensive and integrated policies and programs focused on chronic wasting disease management between involved State wildlife and agricultural agencies and tribal governments, with additional priority given to States that have integrated the programs and policies of all involved agencies related to chronic wasting disease management.

(4) States that are seeking to develop a rapid response capacity to address outbreaks of chronic wasting disease, whether occurring in States in which chronic wasting disease is already found or States with first infections, for the purpose of containing the disease in any new area of infection.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated $7,500,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 4. GRANTS FOR STATES WITH CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE OUTBREAKS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to State wildlife management agencies to assist States in responding to chronic wasting disease outbreaks in wild cervids.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of a State whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan include chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) State expenditures on chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research in response to management of an on-going outbreak.

(2) The number of chronic wasting disease cases detected in the State.

(3) The wild cervid population of the State.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated $10,000,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 5. TRIBAL CHRONIC WASTING DISEASE MANAGEMENT GRANTS.

(a) GRANTS AUTHORIZED.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make grants to tribal wildlife management agencies to assist Indian tribes in developing and implementing long term management strategies to address chronic wasting disease in wild cervids.

(b) ELIGIBILITY.—A wildlife management agency of an Indian tribe whose comprehensive wildlife conservation plan include chronic wasting disease management activities is eligible for a grant under this section.

(c) FUNDING PRIORITIES.—In determining the amount of grant funds to be provided to eligible applicants under this section, the Secretary shall prioritize applicants based on the following criteria:

(1) Tribal governments managing lands on which cervids with chronic wasting disease have been detected, or managing lands located adjacent or in proximity to lands on which cervids with chronic wasting disease have been detected.

(2) Tribal governments that have expended tribal funds for chronic wasting disease management, monitoring, surveillance, and research, with additional priority given to tribal governments that have shown the greatest financial commitment to managing, monitoring, and surveying chronic wasting disease.

(3) Tribal governments with cooperative arrangements with Federal and State wildlife and agricultural agencies and State governments, with additional priority given to tribal governments that are working with other involved agencies on issues of chronic wasting disease management.

(d) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There are authorized to be appropriated $3,000,000 to carry out this section.

SEC. 6. ADMINISTRATION.

The Secretary of the Interior shall carry out this Act acting through the Director, United States Fish and Wildlife Service. Funds appropriated to carry out this Act shall be administered through the Federal Assistance Program in the United States Fish and Wildlife Service. Not more than three percent of such funds may be expended for administrative expenses of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service to carry out this Act.

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, I am pleased to join with my colleague from Colorado, Mr. ALLARD, as a cosponsor of the Chronic Wasting Disease Financial Assistance Act of 2003. This legislation is similar to legislation, S. 1036, the Chronic Wasting Disease Support Act of 2003, that we introduced earlier this year.

The House Resources Committee held a hearing on June 19, 2003 on the issue of chronic wasting disease, or CWD. At that hearing, state agency representatives argued strongly that Congress should create a new grant program to provide assistance to states for the management of CWD. They also expressed an interest in having those funds distributed using an existing distribution mechanism. This legislation responds directly to these comments. In total, the bill directs the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to provide $20.5 million in Federal grants to State and tribal governments for CWD management in wild deer and elk, $10.5 million more in resources than were included in the bill Senator ALLARD and I introduced earlier this year.

The bill creates three new Federal CWD grant programs. The first program is a new nationwide CWD capacity grant, authorized at a total of $7.5 million. This program would provide grants to States so that they can fund CWD management programs. Preference would be given to States with comprehensive and integrated chronic wasting disease management programs involving all relevant state agencies.

The second grant program would provide additional $10 million in grant assistance to states like Colorado and Wisconsin that already have detected chronic wasting disease in their wild deer and elk. These States need additional help. Wisconsin has undertaken significant measures to combat CWD at significant expense, and this program acknowledges that outbreaks are expensive to manage and require Federal financial assistance.

Finally, the bill would create a third $3 million grant program to provide CWD management grants directly to tribal governments. To be eligible for these programs, States and tribes are given the ability under the bill to use an existing mechanism, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Federal Assistance Act procedures to expedite the receipt of grant funds.

This bill is needed because State wildlife departments and tribal governments do not have the financial resources to adequately confront the problem. Their resources are spread too thin as they attempt to prevent the disease from spreading. Federal help in the form of management funding is urgently needed. Federal funding will help States and tribes to protect and safeguard our valued wild deer and elk from this disease.

I look forward to working with the Senate to secure passage of this measure. This is a good bill, and it deserves the Senate's support.

By Mr. McCONNELL (for himself,

Mr. BAYH, and Mr. FITZGERALD):

S. 1367. A bill to amend the Richard B. Russell National School Act to establish programs to promote increased consumption of milk in schools and to improve the nutrition and health of children; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce a very important piece of legislation that could provide great benefits for the health of our young people while simultaneously strengthening the future viability of dairy producers throughout the United States.

My bill, the Child Nutrition Improvement Act of 2003, would provide incentives for schools to encourage the consumption of milk as part of the school lunch program and supply needed flexibility for schools to offer a wide variety of milk products and flavors.

There is no doubt that the eating habits we develop when we are young affect our habits and nutritional choices for the rest of our lives. The school lunch program has provided a key tool in promoting healthy eating habits among young people, which have both health and educational benefits.

Milk has been a critical component of the school lunch program because it is the principal source of calcium and a leading source of several other important nutrients in our diet. That was true when the federal program began in 1946 and it is still true today.

With 9 out of 10 teenage girls and 7 out of 10 teenage boys currently not getting enough calcium, milk's important is perhaps greater today than ever before. Serving milk with the school lunch is a critical step in addressing the calcium crisis. Federal child health experts who are on the frontlines fighting the calcium crisis recognize milk's central role in addressing the problem. Study after study, emphasize the need for growing children and teens to consume more milk for healthy bones, and the American Academy of Pediatrics has urged its members to recommend their patients get enough milk, cheese, yogurt and other calcium rich foods to help build bone mass.

As a result of these recommendations, we have seen a push for more milk in more places in school, like vending machines and school stores. There's a real concern about nutritious choices for school children, and many local school districts and state legislatures are pushing to add more healthful beverage choices like milk.

A large school vending test in 2001 demonstrated that kids will eagerly buy milk from vending machines in schools when it is offered. The test was heralded by school nutritionists and helped stimulate nationwide interest in getting milk vending machines into more schools.

A pilot test conducted in 146 schools with 100,000 students showed dramatic increases in milk consumption—15 percent in elementary schools and 22 percent in secondary schools—when simple improvements were made in the way milk was packaged and presented to students. The milk was served colder and kids loved the addition of a third flavor, it was usually strawberry. No only did kids drink more milk, more kids ate in the cafeteria. That meant they not only got milk, they also got improved nutrition through greater intake of vegetables, fruits and other nutritionally important foods.

Milk has an unsurpassed nutrient package for young children and teens. Milk has nine essential vitamins and minerals, including calcium, vitamins A, D and B12, protein, potassium, riboflavin, niacin and phosphorus. These nutrients are critical to good health and the prevention of chronic disease. In addition, it is the primary way that growing children get the calcium they need. In fact, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture about 75 percent of the calcium in our food supply comes from milk and foods made with milk. By about age 20, the average young person has acquired about 98 percent of his or her skeletal mass. Building strong bones during childhood and adolescence is one of the best defenses against developing osteoporosis later in life.

In addition to the bone-building benefits of milk, research indicates that a diet rich in low-fat milk may help reduce the risk of high blood pressure and heart disease and help prevent breast cancer, colon cancer and even help in the fight against obesity.

Milk's role in a nutritious diet has long been noted by the nutrition and science community, including the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Dietetic Association, the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development, the National Osteoporosis Foundation, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, and many other reputable health organizations.

As I have already mentioned, government statistics indicate that we have a calcium crisis among our children and youth. Nearly 90 percent of teenage girls and almost 70 percent of teenage boys fail to get enough calcium in their diets. During the teen years nearly half of all bone is formed and about 15 percent of your adult height is added. As a national health priority, for proper growth and development, we need to be doing all we can to encourage our children and youth to drink milk, and that is the goal of the legislation I am introducing today.

I ask my colleagues for your support of this important piece of legislation.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of the bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

SEC. 2. TRANSMITTAL OF RESOLUTION.

The Senate directs the Secretary of the Senate to transmit an enrolled copy of this resolution to General Eric Shinseki.

Mr. AKAKA. Mr. President, I rise today to honor a great American hero, General Eric Shinseki, the Army's 34th Chief of Staff. General Shinseki, a native of Hawaii, attained the Army's highest position as the Army's Chief of Staff in June 1999 and retired in June 2003.

Ric Shinseki graduated from the United States Military Academy, West Point, in 1965. He served two combat tours in Vietnam and was wounded twice in combat. Throughout his 37 years of service to this country, he has given his personal best, serving with great pride and dignity. His legacy to this Nation will live on for years to come.

Over the span of his career, I've watched his progress as a soldier and was privileged to participate in his promotion ceremony to Colonel. At that time, I thought he had a stellar career as a "soldier's soldier." I was very proud to witness his four years of service as the Army's Chief of Staff. He was the perfect soldier to lead our Army into the 21st century.

This remarkable man and distinguished decorated soldier set a new standard for the Army. With extraordinary vision, he transformed the Army into an agile, lean, flexible, and lethal fighting force. This man of honor, integrity, and courage set a higher standard for all to follow, all while embodying the spirit of aloha. With his deep sense of pride and dedication to service, he made our Army stronger, one able to achieve swift victories during Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom.

As I quoted in the Senate Resolution, President John F. Kennedy once said, "When at some future date the high court of history sits in judgment of each one of us—recording whether in our brief span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities, we will be measured by the answers to four questions—were we truly men of courage . . . were we truly men of judgment . . . were we truly men of integrity . . . were we truly men of dedication?" When history looks back at the Army's 34th Chief of Staff, it will be clear that this was truly a man of courage, judgment, integrity, and dedication.

General Shinseki is to be commended for his patriotism, unwavering commitment to this Nation, and his meritorious service to this country.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 56—EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF THE CONGRESS THAT A COMMEMORATIVE POSTAGE STAMP SHOULD BE ISSUED HONORING GUNNERY SERGEANT JOHN BASILONE, A GREAT AMERICAN HERO

Mr. CORZINE (for himself, Mr. WARNER, Mr. LAUTENBERG, and Mrs. CLINTON) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Governmental Affairs:

S. CON. RES. 56

Whereas Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone was born in 1916 in Buffalo, New York, son of Salvatore and Dora Basilone, one of 10 children;

Whereas John Basilone was raised and educated in Raritan, New Jersey;

Whereas, at the age of 18, John Basilone enlisted in the United States Army, principally seeing garrison service in the Philippines;

Whereas, after his honorable discharge in 1937, Sergeant Basilone, known by his comrades as "Manila John", returned to Raritan;

Whereas, seeing the storm clouds of war hovering over the Nation, and believing that his place was with this country's fighting forces, Sergeant Basilone enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in July 1940;

Whereas, on October 24 and 25, 1942, on Guadalcanal, Solomon Islands, Sergeant Basilone was a member of "C" Company, 1st Battalion, 7th Regiment, 1st Marine Division, and was in charge of 2 sections of heavy machine guns defending a narrow pass that led to Henderson Airfield;

Whereas, although Sergeant Basilone and his machine gunners were vastly outnumbered and without available reinforcements, Sergeant Basilone and his fellow Marines fought valiantly to check the savage and determined assault by the Japanese Imperial Army;

Whereas, for this action, Sergeant Basilone was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor and sent home a hero;

Whereas, in December 1944, Sergeant Basilone's restlessness to rejoin his fellow Marines, who were fighting the bloody island-to-island battles en route to the Philippines and Japan, prompted him to volunteer again for combat;

Whereas, on Iwo Jima, on February 19, 1945, Sergeant Basilone again distinguished himself by single-handedly destroying an enemy blockhouse while braving heavy-caliber fire;

Whereas, minutes later, an artillery shell killed Sergeant Basilone and 4 of his platoon members;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone was posthumously awarded the Navy Cross and Purple Heart, and a life-sized bronze statue stands in Raritan, New Jersey, where "Manila John" is clad in battle dress and cradles a machine gun in his arms;

Whereas, in 1949, the United States Government commissioned a destroyer the U.S.S. Basilone, and in November 1951, Governor Alfred E. Driscoll posthumously awarded Sergeant Basilone the State of New Jersey's highest decoration;

Whereas, following World War II, Sergeant Basilone's remains were reinterred in the Arlington National Cemetery;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone was the first recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor awarded in World War II;

Whereas Sergeant Basilone was also awarded the Navy Cross and the Purple Heart, giving him the distinction of being the only enlisted Marine in World War II to receive all 3 medals; and

Whereas commemorative postage stamps have been commissioned to honor other great heroes in American history: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that—

(1) a commemorative postage stamp should be issued by the United States Postal Service honoring Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone; and

(2) the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee should recommend to the Postmaster General that such a stamp be issued.

Mr. CORZINE. Mr. President, I rise today to submit a concurrent resolution calling on the United States Postal Service to issue a commemorative postage stamp honoring an extraordinary American hero: Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone. Basilone is the only person in American history to be awarded both the Congressional Medal of Honor and the Navy Cross. Only one USPS stamp has ever commemorated an individual Marine, a stamp featuring John Phillip Sousa; it bears noting that although Sousa was a Marine, he was not selected for his service on the battlefield. It is time to remember the tremendous sacrifice of at least one individual Marine, John Basilone, an American Patriot.

John Basilone was raised in Raritan, NJ, one of ten children in a large Italian-American family. Soon after he turned 18, Basilone heeded the patriotic call and enlisted in the U.S. Army. Basilone was immediately sent to the Philippines where he earned a nickname that would stick with him for the rest of his career: "Manila John."

Following his tour of duty in 1937, Basilone returned to Raritan. But he wouldn't stay there long. In July 1940—with much of Europe at war and the United States on the brink—"Manila John" left New Jersey, enlisting in the military once again, this time joining the United States Marine Corps.

On October 24, 1942, Basilone earned his Congressional Medal of Honor. He was sent to a position on the Tenaru River at Guadalcanal and placed in command of two sections of heavy machine guns. Sergeant Basilone and his men were charged with defending Henderson Airfield, an important American foothold on the island. Although the Marine contingent was vastly outnumbered and without needed support, Basilone and his men successfully repelled a Japanese assault. Other survivors reported that their success can be attributed to one man: "Manila John." He crossed enemy lines to replenish a dangerously low stockpile of ammunition, repaired artillery pieces, and steadied his troops in the midst of torrential rain. He went several days and nights without food or sleep, and the U.S. military was able to carry the day. His exploits became Marine lore, and served as a patriotic inspiration to others facing daunting challenges in the midst of war.

For his courage under fire and profound patriotism, Basilone was the first enlisted Marine to be awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor. When he returned to the United States, he was heralded as a hero and quickly sent on tour around the country to help finance the war through the sale of war bonds. The Marine Corps offered to commission Basilone as an officer and station him far away from the frontlines.

But Basilone was not interested in riding out the war in Washington, DC. He was quoted as saying, "I ain't no officer, and I ain't no museum piece. I belong back with my outfit." In December 1944, he got his wish and returned to the frontlines.

General Douglas MacArthur called him "a one-man army," and on February 19, 1945 at Iwo Jima, Basilone once again lived up to that reputation. Basilone destroyed an enemy stronghold, a blockhouse on that small Japanese island and commanded his young troops to move the heavy guns off the beach. Unfortunately, less than two hours into the assault on that fateful day in February, Basilone and four of his fellow Marines were killed when an enemy mortar shell exploded nearby.

When Gunnery Sergeant John Basilone died he was only 27, but he had already earned the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Navy Cross, the Purple Heart, and the appreciation of his Nation. Basilone is a true American patriot whose legacy should be preserved.

Now more than ever, the United States needs to honor and praise the courageous efforts put forth by the men and women of our military. I strongly urge my colleagues to support this resolution as an important message to our soldiers that we appreciate and admire all of their efforts in the war on terrorism.

SEC. ____ HEALTH CARE THAT WORKS FOR ALL AMERICANS-CITIZENS HEALTH CARE WORKING GROUP.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In order to improve the health care system, the American public must engage in an informed national public debate to make choices about the services they want covered, what health care coverage they want, and how they are willing to pay for coverage.

(2) More than a trillion dollars annually is spent on the health care system, yet—

(A) 41,000,000 Americans are uninsured;

(B) insured individuals do not always have access to essential, effective services to improve and maintain their health; and

(C) employers, who cover over 170,000,000 Americans, find providing coverage increasingly difficult because of rising costs and double digit premium increases.

(3) Despite increases in medical care spending that are greater than the rate of inflation, population growth, and Gross Domestic Product growth, there has not been a commensurate improvement in our health status as a nation.

(4) Health care costs for even just 1 member of a family can be catastrophic, resulting in medical bills potentially harming the economic stability of the entire family.

(5) Common life occurrences can jeopardize the ability of a family to retain private coverage or jeopardize access to public coverage.

(6) Innovations in health care access, coverage, and quality of care, including the use of technology, have often come from States, local communities, and private sector organizations, but more creative policies could tap this potential.

(7) Despite our Nation’s wealth, the health care system does not provide coverage to all Americans who want it.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING MEDICARE PAYMENT UPDATE FOR PHYSICIANS AND OTHER HEALTH PROFESSIONALS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) The formula by which Medicare payments are updated each year for services furnished by physicians and other health professionals is fundamentally flawed.

(2) The flawed physician payment update formula is causing a continuing physician payment crisis, and, without Congressional action, Medicare payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2% in 2004.

(3) A physician payment cut in 2004 would be the fifth cut since 1991, and would be on top of a 5.4% cut in 2002, with additional cuts estimated for 2005, 2006, and 2007; from 1991–2003, payment rates for physicians and health professionals fell 14% behind practice cost inflation as measured by Medicare’s own conservative estimates.

(4) The sustainable growth rate (SGR) expenditure target, which is the basis for the physician payment update, is linked to the gross domestic product and penalizes physicians and other practitioners for volume increases that they cannot control and that the government actively promotes through new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities and other initiatives that, while beneficial to patients, are not reflected in the SGR.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the Sense of the Senate that Medicare beneficiary access to quality care may be compromised if Congress does not take action to prevent cuts next year and the following that result from the SGR formula.

SA 1116. Mr. DAYTON (for himself, Mr. COLEMAN, and Mr. SMITH) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill S. 1, to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for a voluntary prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program and to strengthen and improve the Medicare program, and for other purposes; which was ordered to lie on the table; as follows:

SA 1118. Mr. SPECTER submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill S. 1, to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for a voluntary prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program and to strengthen and improve the Medicare program, and for other purposes; as follows:

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A NATIONWIDE PERMANENT LIFESTYLE MODIFICATION PROGRAM FOR MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that:

(1) Heart disease kills more than 500,000 Americans per year.

(2) The number and costs of interventions for the treatment of coronary disease are rising and currently cost the health care system $58,000,000,000 annually.

(3) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been operating throughout 12 States and has been demonstrated to reduce the need for coronary procedures by 88 percent per year.

(4) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program is less expensive to deliver than interventional cardiac procedures and could reduce cardiovascular expenditures by $36,000,000,000 annually.

(5) Lifestyle choices such as diet and exercise affect heart disease and heart disease outcomes by 50 percent or greater.

(6) Intensive lifestyle interventions which include teams of nurses, doctors, exercise physiologists, registered dietitians, and behavioral health clinicians have been demonstrated to reduce heart disease risk factors and enhance heart disease outcomes dramatically.

(7) The National Institutes of Health estimates that 17,000,000 Americans have diabetes and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimates that the number of Americans who have a diagnosis of diabetes increased 61 percent in the last decade and is expected to more than double by 2050.

(8) Lifestyle modification programs are superior to medication therapy for treating diabetes.

(9) Individuals with diabetes are now considered to have coronary disease at the date of diagnosis of their diabetic state.

(10) The Medicare Lifestyle Modification Program has been an effective lifestyle program for the reversal and treatment of heart disease.

(11) Men with prostate cancer have shown significant improvement in prostate cancer markers using a similar approach in lifestyle modification.

(12) These lifestyle changes are therefore likely to affect other chronic disease states, in addition to heart disease.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Secretary of Health and Human Services should carry out the demonstration project known as the Lifestyle Modification Program Demonstration, as described in the Health Care Financing Administration Memorandum of Understanding entered into on November 13, 2000, on a permanent basis;

(2) the project should include as many Medicare beneficiaries as would like to participate in the project on a voluntary basis; and

(3) the project should be conducted on a national basis.

“(B) For purposes of subparagraph (A)(ii), each care coordination agreement shall—

“(i) be entered into for a period of 1 year and may be renewed if the Secretary is satisfied that the care coordinator continues to meet the conditions of participation specified in subparagraph (A);

“(ii) contain such other terms and conditions as the Secretary may require.

“(4) For purposes of this subsection, the Secretary shall send quarterly reports to each eligible provider that inform, in aggregate, on the provider’s participating beneficiary caseload, using measures determined by the Secretary that are derived from existing Medicare data sources. In preparing the reports under this paragraph, the Secretary shall consider—

“(A) the average number of emergency room and nursing home visits relative to geographic norms for all eligible beneficiaries; and

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. . SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING THE STRUCTURE OF MEDICARE REFORM AND THE PRESCRIPTION DRUG BENEFIT.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) America's seniors deserve a fiscally-strong Medicare system that fulfills its promise to them and future retirees.

(2) The impending retirement of the “baby boom” generation will dramatically increase the costs of providing Medicare benefits. Medicare costs will double relative to the size of the economy from 2% of GDP today to 4% in 2025 and double again to 8% of GDP in 2075. This growth will accelerate substantially when Congress adds a necessary prescription drug benefit.

(3) Medicare's current structure does not have the flexibility to quickly adapt to rapid advances in modern health care. Medicare lags far behind other insurers in providing prescription drug coverage, disease management programs, and a host of other advances. Reforming Medicare to create a more self-adjusting, innovative structure is essential to improve Medicare's efficiency and the quality of the medical care it provides.

(4) Private-sector choice for Medicare beneficiaries would provide two key benefits: it would be tailored to the needs of America's seniors, not the government, and would create a powerful incentive for private-sector Medicare plans to provide the best quality health care to seniors at the most affordable price.

(5) The method by which the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program have been reimbursed has proven to be a reliable and successful mechanism for providing Members of Congress and federal employees with excellent health care choices.

(6) Unlike the Medicare payment system, which has had to be changed by Congress every few years, the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program has existed for 43 years with minimal changes from Congress.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the Sense of the Senate that Medicare reform legislation should:

(1) Ensure that prescription drug coverage is directed to those who need it most.

(2) Provide that government contributions used to support Medicare Advantage plans are based on market principles beginning in 2006 to ensure the long and short term viability of such options for America's seniors.

(3) Develop a payment system for the Medicare Advantage preferred provider organizations similar to the payment system used for the national preferred provider organizations in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

(4) Limit the addition of new unfunded obligations in the Medicare program so that the long-term solvency of this important program is not further jeopardized.

(5) Incorporate private sector, market-based elements, that do not rely on the inefficient Medicare price control structure.

(6) Keep the cost of structural changes and new benefits within the $400 billion provided for under the current Congressional Budget Resolution for implementing Medicare reform and providing a prescription drug benefit.

(7) Preserve the current employer-sponsored retiree health plans and not design a benefit which has the unintended consequences of supplanting private coverage.

(8) Incorporate regulatory reform proposals to eliminate red tape and reduce costs.

(9) Restore the right of Medicare beneficiaries and their doctors to work together to provide services, allow private fee for service plans to set their own premiums, and permit seniors to add their own dollars beyond the government contribution.

SA 1122. Mr. BROWNBACk (for himself, and Mr. NELSON of Nebraska) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill S. 1, to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for a voluntary prescription drug benefit under the Medicare program and to strengthen and improve the Medicare program, and for other purposes; as follows:

“(2) LIMITATIONS ON INITIATION OF NON-RANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW.—A medicare administrative contractor may not initiate nonrandom prepayment review of a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier based on the initial identification by that provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier of an improper billing practice unless there is a likelihood of sustained or high level of payment error (as defined by the Secretary).

“(3) TERMINATION OF NONRANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW.—The Secretary shall establish protocols or standards relating to the termination, including termination dates, of nonrandom prepayment review. Such regulations may vary such a termination date based upon the differences in the circumstances triggering prepayment review.

“(4) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing the denial of payments for claims actually reviewed under a random prepayment review. In the case of a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier with respect to which amounts were previously overpaid, nothing in this subsection shall be construed as limiting the ability of a medicare administrative contractor to request the periodic production of records or supporting documentation for a limited sample of submitted claims to ensure that the previous practice is not continuing.

“(5) RANDOM PREPAYMENT REVIEW DEFINED.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘random prepayment review’ means a demand for the production of records or documentation absent cause with respect to a claim.”.

SEC. 542. RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1874A, as added by section 521(a)(1) and as amended by sections 531(b)(1), 532(a), and 541(a), is amended by adding at the end the following new subsection:

“(h) RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.—

“(1) USE OF REPAYMENT PLANS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—If the repayment, within the period otherwise permitted by a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or other supplier, of an overpayment under this title meets the standards developed under subparagraph (B), subject to subparagraph (C), and the provider, physician, practitioner, or supplier requests the Secretary to enter into a repayment plan with respect to such overpayment, the Secretary shall enter into a plan with the provider, physician, practitioner, or supplier for the offset or repayment (at the election of the provider, physician, practitioner, or supplier) of such overpayment over a period of at least 1 year, but not longer than 3 years. Interest shall accrue on the balance through the period of repayment. The repayment plan shall meet terms and conditions determined to be appropriate by the Secretary.

“(B) DEVELOPMENT OF STANDARDS.—The Secretary shall develop standards for the recovery of overpayments. Such standards shall—

“(i) include a requirement that the Secretary take into account (and weigh in favor of the use of a repayment plan) the reliance (as described in section 1871(d)(2)) by a provider of services, physician, practitioner, and supplier on guidance when determining whether a repayment plan should be offered; and “(ii) provide for consideration of the financial hardship imposed on a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier in considering such a repayment plan.

In developing standards with regard to financial hardship with respect to a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier, the Secretary shall take into account the amount of the proposed recovery as a proportion of payments made to that provider, physician, practitioner, or supplier.

“(C) EXCEPTIONS.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply if—

“(i) the Secretary has reason to suspect that the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier may file for bankruptcy or otherwise cease to do business or discontinue participation in the program under this title; or

“(ii) there is an indication of fraud or abuse committed against the program.

“(D) IMMEDIATE COLLECTION IF VIOLATION OF REPAYMENT PLAN.—If a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier fails to make a payment in accordance with a repayment plan under this paragraph, the Secretary may immediately seek to offset or otherwise recover the total balance outstanding (including applicable interest) under the repayment plan.

“(E) RELATION TO NO FAULT PROVISION.—Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as affecting the application of section 1870(c) (relating to no adjustment in the cases of certain overpayments).

“(2) LIMITATION ON RECOUPMENT.—

“(A) NO RECOUPMENT UNTIL RECONSIDERATION EXERCISED.—In the case of a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier that is determined to have received an overpayment under this title and that seeks a reconsideration of such determination by a qualified independent contractor under section 1869(c), the Secretary may not take any action (or authorize any other person, including any medicare contractor, as defined in subparagraph (C)) to recoup the overpayment until the date the decision on the reconsideration has been rendered. If the provisions of section 1869(b)(1) (providing for such a reconsideration by a qualified independent contractor) are not in effect, in applying the previous sentence any reference to such a reconsideration shall be treated as a reference to a redetermination by the fiscal intermediary or carrier involved.

“(B) PAYMENT OF INTEREST.—

“(i) RETURN OF RECOUPED AMOUNT WITH INTEREST IN CASE OF REVERSAL.—Insofar as such determination on appeal against the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier is later reversed, the Secretary shall provide for repayment of the amount recouped plus interest for the period in which the amount was recouped.

“(ii) INTEREST IN CASE OF AFFIRMATION.—Insofar as the determination on such appeal is against the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier, interest on the overpayment shall accrue on and after the date of the original notice of overpayment.

“(iii) RATE OF INTEREST.—The rate of interest under this subparagraph shall be the rate otherwise applicable under this title in the case of overpayments.

“(C) MEDICARE CONTRACTOR DEFINED.—For purposes of this subsection, the term ‘medicare contractor’ has the meaning given such term in section 1889(e).

“(3) PAYMENT AUDITS.—

“(A) WRITTEN NOTICE FOR POST-PAYMENT AUDITS.—Subject to subparagraph (C), if a medicare contractor decides to conduct a post-payment audit of a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier under this title, the contractor shall provide the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier with written notice (which may be in electronic form) of the intent to conduct such an audit.

“(B) EXPLANATION OF FINDINGS FOR ALL AUDITS.—Subject to subparagraph (C), if a medicare contractor audits a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier under this title, the contractor shall—

“(i) give the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier a full review and explanation of the findings of the audit in a manner that is understandable to the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier and permits the development of an appropriate corrective action plan;

“(ii) inform the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier of the appeal rights under this title as well as consent settlement options (which are at the discretion of the Secretary); and

“(iii) give the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier an opportunity to provide additional information to the contractor.

“(C) EXCEPTION.—Subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall not apply if the provision of notice or findings would compromise pending law enforcement activities, whether civil or criminal, or reveal findings of law enforcement-related audits.

“(4) NOTICE OF OVER-UTILIZATION OF CODES.—The Secretary shall establish, in consultation with organizations representing the classes of providers of services, physicians, practitioners, and suppliers, a process under which the Secretary provides for notice to classes of providers of services, physicians, practitioners, and suppliers served by a medicare contractor in cases in which the contractor has identified that particular billing codes may be over utilized by that class of providers of services, physicians, practitioners, or suppliers under the programs under this title (or provisions of title XI insofar as they relate to such programs).

“(5) STANDARD METHODOLOGY FOR PROBE SAMPLING.—The Secretary shall establish a standard methodology for medicare administrative contractors to use in selecting a sample of claims for review in the case of an abnormal billing pattern.

“(6) CONSENT SETTLEMENT REFORMS.—

“(B) OPPORTUNITY TO SUBMIT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION BEFORE CONSENT SETTLEMENT OFFER.—Before offering a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier a consent settlement, the Secretary shall—

“(i) communicate to the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier in a nonthreatening manner that, based on a review of the medical records requested by the Secretary, a preliminary evaluation of those records indicates that there would be an overpayment; and

“(ii) provide for a 45-day period during which the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier may furnish additional information concerning the medical records for the claims that had been reviewed.

“(C) CONSENT SETTLEMENT OFFER.—The Secretary shall review any additional information furnished by the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier under subparagraph (B)(ii). Taking into consideration such information, the Secretary shall determine if there still appears to be an overpayment. If so, the Secretary—

“(i) shall provide notice of such determination to the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier, including an explanation of the reason for such determination; and

“(ii) in order to resolve the overpayment, may offer the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier—

“(I) the opportunity for a statistically valid random sample; or “(II) a consent settlement.

The opportunity provided under clause (ii)(I) does not waive any appeal rights with respect to the alleged overpayment involved.

“(D) CONSENT SETTLEMENT DEFINED.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘consent settlement’ means an agreement between the Secretary and a provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier whereby both parties agree to settle a projected overpayment based on less than a statistically valid sample of claims and the provider of services, physician, practitioner, or supplier agrees not to appeal the claims involved.”.

(b) EFFECTIVE DATES AND DEADLINES.—

(1) Not later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall first—

(4) Section 1874A(h)(6) of the Social Security Act, as added by subsection (a), shall apply to consent settlements entered into after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 459. SENSE OF THE SENATE CONCERNING MEDICARE PAYMENT UPDATE FOR PHYSICIANS AND OTHER HEALTH PROFESSIONALS.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) The formula by which Medicare payments are updated each year for services furnished by physicians and other health professionals is fundamentally flawed.

(2) The flawed physician payment update formula is causing a continuing physician payment crisis, and, without congressional action, Medicare payment rates for physicians and other practitioners are predicted to fall by 4.2 percent in 2004.

(3) A physician payment cut in 2004 would be the fifth cut since 1991, and would be on top of a 5.4 percent cut in 2002, with additional cuts estimated for 2005, 2006, and 2007. From 1991 through 2003, payment rates for physicians and health professionals fell 14 percent behind practice cost inflation as measured by Medicare’s own conservative estimates.

(4) The sustainable growth rate (SGR) expenditure target, which is the basis for the physician payment update, is linked to the gross domestic product and penalizes physicians and other practitioners for volume increases that they cannot control and that the government actively promotes through new coverage decisions, quality improvement activities, and other initiatives that, while beneficial to patients, are not reflected in the SGR.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that Medicare beneficiary access to quality care may be compromised if Congress does not take action to prevent cuts in 2004 and the following years that result from the SGR formula.

(1) the Expedited Funds Availability Act (12 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.)—

(A) directs the Board to consider establishing regulations requiring Federal reserve banks and depository institutions to provide for check truncation, in order to improve the check processing system;

(B) authorizes the Board to regulate all aspects of the payment system, including the receipt, payment, collection, and clearing of checks, and related functions of the payment system pertaining to checks; and

(C) directs that the exercise of such authority by the Board shall supersede any State law, including the Uniform Commercial Code, as in effect in any State; and

(2) check truncation is no less desirable in 2003 for both financial service customers and the financial services industry, to reduce costs, improve efficiency in check collections, and expedite funds availability for account holders than it was in 1987, when Congress first directed the Board to consider establishing such a process.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

(2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this subsection reduces the rights of a consumer or any other person under the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable provision of Federal or State law.

(d) EFFECT OF PRODUCING ORIGINAL CHECK OR SUBSTITUTE CHECK.—

(ii) demonstrated to the consumer that the substitute check was properly charged to the consumer account.

(2) TIMING OF RECREDIT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The bank shall recredit the subject consumer account for the amount described in paragraph (1) not later than the end of the business day following the business day on which the bank determines the claim of the consumer is valid.

(B) RECREDIT PENDING INVESTIGATION.—If the bank has not determined that the claim of the consumer is valid before the end of the 10th business day after the business day on which the consumer submitted the claim, the bank shall recredit the subject consumer account for—

(i) the lesser of the amount of the substitute check that was charged against the consumer account, or $2,500, together with interest if the account is an interest-bearing account, not later than the end of such 10th business day; and

(ii) the remaining amount of the substitute check that was charged against the consumer account, if any, together with interest if the account is an interest-bearing account, not later than the 45th calendar day following the business day on which the consumer submits the claim.

(d) AVAILABILITY OF RECREDIT.—

(1) NEXT BUSINESS DAY AVAILABILITY.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), a bank that provides a recredit to a consumer account under subsection (c) shall make the recredited funds available for withdrawal by the consumer by the start of the next business day after the business day on which the bank recredits the consumer account under subsection (c).

(2) SAFEGUARD EXCEPTIONS.—A bank may delay availability to a consumer of a recredit provided under subsection (c)(2)(B)(i) until the start of either the business day following the business day on which the bank determines that the claim of the consumer is valid, or the 45th calendar day following the business day on which the consumer submits a claim for such recredit in accordance with subsection (b), whichever is earlier, in any of the following circumstances:

(A) NEW ACCOUNTS.—The claim is made during the 30-day period beginning on the business day on which the consumer account was established.

(B) REPEATED OVERDRAFTS.—Without regard to the charge that is the subject of the claim for which the recredit was made—

(ii) on 2 or more business days during such 6-month period, the balance in the consumer account was negative or would have become negative in the amount of $5,000 or more if checks or other charges to the account had been paid.

(C) PREVENTION OF FRAUD LOSSES.—The bank has reasonable cause to believe that the claim is fraudulent, based on facts (other than the fact that the check in question or the consumer is of a particular class) that would cause a well-grounded belief in the mind of a reasonable person that the claim is fraudulent.

(3) OVERDRAFT FEES.—No bank that, in accordance with paragraph (2), delays the availability of a recredit under subsection (c) to any consumer account may impose any overdraft fees with respect to drafts drawn by the consumer on such recredited amount before the end of the 5-day period beginning on the date on which notice of the delay in the availability of such amount is sent by the bank to the consumer.

(2) notifies the consumer in accordance with subsection (f)(3).

(f) NOTICE TO CONSUMER.—

(1) NOTICE IF CONSUMER CLAIM NOT VALID.—If a bank determines that a substitute check subject to the claim of a consumer under this section was in fact properly charged to the consumer account, the bank shall send to the consumer, not later than the business day following the business day on which the bank makes the determination—

(A) the original check or a copy of the original check (including an image or a substitute check) that—

(i) accurately represents all of the information on the front and back of the original check (as of the time at which the original check was truncated); or

(ii) is otherwise sufficient to determine whether or not the claim of the consumer is valid; and

(B) an explanation of the basis for the determination by the bank that the substitute check was properly charged, including a statement that the consumer may request copies of any information or documents on which the bank relied in making the determination.

(2) NOTICE OF RECREDIT.—If a bank recredits a consumer account under subsection (c), the bank shall send to the consumer, not later than the business day following the business day on which the bank makes the recredit, a notice of—

(A) the amount of the recredit; and

(B) the date on which the recredited funds will be available for withdrawal.

(3) NOTICE OF REVERSAL OF RECREDIT.—In addition to the notice required under paragraph (1), if a bank reverses a recredited amount under subsection (e), the bank shall send to the consumer, not later than the business day following the business day on which the bank reverses the recredit, a notice of—

(A) the amount of the reversal; and

(B) the date on which the recredit was reversed.

(4) MODE OF DELIVERY.—A notice described in this subsection shall be delivered by United States mail or by any other means through which the consumer has agreed to receive account information.

(g) OTHER CLAIMS NOT AFFECTED.—Providing a recredit in accordance with this section shall not absolve the bank from liability for a claim made under any other provision of law, such as a claim for wrongful dishonor under the Uniform Commercial Code, or from liability for additional damages under section 6 or 10.

(h) SCOPE OF APPLICATION.—This section shall only apply to customers who are consumers.

SEC. 8. EXPEDITED RECREDIT PROCEDURES FOR BANKS.

(a) RECREDIT CLAIMS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A bank may make a claim against an indemnifying bank for expedited recredit for which that bank is indemnified, if—

(A) the claimant bank (or a bank that the claimant bank has indemnified) has received a claim for expedited recredit from a consumer under section 7 with respect to a substitute check, or would have been subject to such a claim had the subject consumer account been charged;

(B) the claimant bank has suffered a resulting loss or is obligated to recredit the consumer account under section 7 with respect to such substitute check; and

(C) production of the original check or a better copy of the original check is necessary to determine the validity of the charge to the consumer account or any warranty claim connected with such substitute check.

(2) 120-DAY PERIOD.—Any claim under paragraph (1) may be submitted by the claimant bank to an indemnifying bank before the end of the 120-day period beginning on the date of the transaction that gave rise to the claim.

(b) PROCEDURES FOR CLAIMS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—To make a claim under subsection (a) for an expedited recredit relating to a substitute check, the claimant bank shall send to the indemnifying bank—

(A) a description of—

(i) the claim, including an explanation of why the substitute check cannot be properly charged to the consumer account; or

(ii) the warranty claim;

(B) a statement that the claimant bank has suffered a loss or is obligated to recredit the subject consumer account under section 7, together with an estimate of the amount of the loss or recredit;

(C) the reason why production of the original check or a better copy of the original check is necessary to determine the validity of the charge to the consumer account or the warranty claim; and

(D) information sufficient for the indemnifying bank to identify the substitute check and to investigate the claim.

(2) REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO COPIES OF SUBSTITUTE CHECKS.—If the information submitted by a claimant bank pursuant to paragraph (1) in connection with a claim for an expedited recredit includes a copy of any substitute check for which any such claim is made, the claimant bank shall take reasonable steps to ensure that any such copy cannot be—

(A) mistaken for the legal equivalent of the check under section 4(b); or

(B) sent or handled by any bank, including the indemnifying bank, as a forward collection or returned check.

(3) CLAIM IN WRITING.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—An indemnifying bank may, in the discretion of the bank, require the claimant bank to submit the information required by paragraph (1) in writing, including a copy of the written or electronically submitted claim, if any, that the consumer provided in accordance with section 7(b).

(B) MEANS OF SUBMISSION.—An indemnifying bank that requires a submission of information under subparagraph (A) may permit the claimant bank to make the submission electronically, if the claimant bank has agreed to communicate with the indemnifying bank in that manner.

(B) recredit the claimant bank for the amount of the claim up to the amount of the substitute check, plus interest if applicable; or

(C) provide information to the claimant bank as to why the indemnifying bank is not obligated to comply with subparagraph (A) or (B).

(2) RECREDIT DOES NOT ABROGATE OTHER LIABILITIES.—Providing a recredit under this subsection to a claimant bank with respect to a substitute check shall not absolve the indemnifying bank from liability for claims brought under any other law or from additional damages under section 6 or 10 with respect to such check.

(3) REFUND TO INDEMNIFYING BANK.—If a claimant bank reverses, in accordance with section 7(e), a recredit previously made to a consumer account under section 7(c), or otherwise receives a credit or recredit with regard to such substitute check, the claimant bank shall promptly refund to any indemnifying bank any amount previously advanced by the indemnifying bank in connection with such substitute check.

(d) PRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL CHECK OR A SUFFICIENT COPY GOVERNED BY SECTION 6(d).—If the indemnifying bank provides the claimant bank with the original check or a copy of the original check (including an image or a substitute check) under subsection (c)(1)(A) of this section, section 6(d) shall govern any right of the indemnifying bank to any repayment of any funds that the indemnifying bank has recredited to the claimant bank pursuant to subsection (c).

SEC. 9. DELAYS IN AN EMERGENCY.

Delay by a bank beyond the time limits prescribed or permitted by this Act is excused if the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of a bank, and if the bank uses such diligence as the circumstances require.

SEC. 10. MEASURE OF DAMAGES.

(a) LIABILITY.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in section 6, any person who, in connection with a substitute check, breaches any warranty under this Act or fails to comply with any requirement imposed by or regulation prescribed pursuant to this Act with respect to any other person shall be liable to such person in an amount equal to the sum of—

(b) COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—If a person incurs damages that resulted in whole or in part from the negligence or failure of that person to act in good faith, then the amount of any liability due to that person under subsection (a) shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of negligence or bad faith attributable to that person.
