

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. OBEY. I yield to the gentleman from Virginia, the ranking member of the subcommittee of jurisdiction.

Mr. MORAN of Virginia. Mr. Speaker, I thank the ranking member of the Committee on Appropriations. As the gentleman said, I am the ranking member on the Subcommittee on Legislative branch appropriations, and the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. KINGSTON) is the Chair of the Subcommittee on Legislative branch appropriations.

One of the most objectionable things about this, and I know the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. NEY) recognizes this at this point, is that we had a full set of hearings; Mr. Egan testified, as did all of the officers of the House. At no point was it ever mentioned that this provision was going to be added. So neither the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. KINGSTON) nor I were aware that this was part of the bill.

I grant my colleagues, it is not a whole lot of money, but it could have a whole lot of political impact if we get hit with a 30-second ad, and any of us on either side of the aisle are liable for this, that here we just passed a prescription drug benefit, and there are a lot of people complaining about limited coverage under Medicare, and then, within the same week, we take care of ourselves by expanding benefits for dental and vision. That is the problem.

Again, we have no question but that the gentleman's intentions were not only honorable, but we appreciate the fact that the gentleman was looking out for all of the Members of the House, the staff, and their families, et cetera.

But in the course of the discussion, the debate that occurred earlier today, we wanted to emphasize, we are not opposed to expanding and adding this coverage; it is just that we do not want to do it just for ourselves, particularly at this point in time. It just does not seem to be the principled way to go about it. And we would love to have that; at least on this side of the aisle we would love to have that coverage, but for everybody, not just for us.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the indulgence of the House at this late hour. I yield once more to the gentleman from Ohio.

Mr. NEY. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the gentleman yielding.

I just want to make this clear: It was in a document. I appreciate what the gentleman is saying about we will work on this, but this was in a document that I requested, in the CAO's document. So maybe it was not mentioned. It was not intentional, but it was in a document that was presented. The CAO's budget was in writing, and I need to make that clear.

I thank the gentleman for yielding.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, reclaiming my time, the point is simply that it is up to Members how they want to vote, but if Members want to be on record opposed to that expansion under these provisions, they would vote "aye" for the rule.
