

War. There is a wall with 50,000-some people on it. Their names were never read on the floor. They ought to be read here and not forgotten.

LOCAL HEROES

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, as the American people saw on national television this morning, the Indiana flood of 2003 moves forward at a heart-breaking, record-setting pace. The St. Mary's River in Decatur, Indiana, crested last night at nearly 28 feet, an all-time historic high for that river, and the Wabash River as well. But because of the work of local heroes, like Decatur Mayor Fred Isch, Fire Chief David Brinneman, State Police Master Sergeant Rodger Popplewell, and National Guard Unit Leader Sergeant Mike Hiester, thousands of volunteers filled more than 176,000 sandbags in Decatur, Indiana, alone. And when the St. Mary's River crested, it did not break the levee.

There are so many to be commended, but I remember two in particular, Decatur Police Officer Mark Cook, who organized the sandbag filling at the Wal-Mart parking lot, and even 13-year-old Melanie Vergary, who went out and worked and stuffed bags.

The Chaplain said today, "unless the Lord watches over the city." Surely, Mr. Speaker, we would ask the Lord to watch over this city and all the cities in Indiana affected by the flood of 2003 and all those who labored to protect it.

LABOR-HHS BILL SHORTCHANGES

(Mr. ETHERIDGE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Speaker, today this House will consider the appropriations bill for education. As the only former State schools chief serving in Congress, I think I know better than anyone the impact education cuts can have on teachers, our students, our schools, and the future of this great country. This bill contains Draconian education cuts.

Last Congress I voted to pass the bipartisan No Child Left Behind Act for education reform. I supported it because the President and the Republican leadership promised to provide the funding needed to make this reform work. But today's bill shatters that promise by cutting $8 billion below the authorization level of this new law. Educational cuts of this magnitude will devastate morale in our schools and doom our children to an educational system that is designed to fail. Our children and our schools deserve better.

I have introduced legislation to require full funding of the No Child Left Behind bill, and I urge my colleagues to join me in support of this bill and vote against this appropriation bill.

LAW NEEDED TO BAN CLONING

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, recently scientists in a lab in Chicago took a female human embryo and injected into it cells from a male human embryo, creating what they called a mixed-sex embryo.

In the name of progress, some scientists are pushing the limits of medical ethics with their experimentation and toying with human life, and this is what happened in Chicago last week. But the fact that it happened opens the door to even further laboratory experiments in manufacturing human life.

The effect of unethical research is that it turns human life into a commodity to be bought and sold to the highest bidder or to the most advanced laboratory. The more scientists do this type of experimentation, the more likely we will face a situation described in science fiction books where humans are mass produced in laboratories. We should not go down that road.

What can Congress do about it? We can start by sending the President a cloning ban to sign into law. The other thing we can do is to fund good ethical research.

INDEPENDENT COMMISSION/
SPECIAL PROSECUTOR NEEDED

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, two more soldiers, as reported by national news, lost their lives in Iraq this morning. The war continues.

Yesterday, the Secretary of Defense said to the United States Senate, as reported in the Los Angeles Times, "Defense Secretary Donald H. Rumsfeld said yesterday that the United States' decision to go to war with Iraq was based not on the evidence that Saddam Hussein's regime had chemical, biological, or nuclear weapons, but on old evidence reinterpreted in the wake of September 11, 2001."

Mr. Speaker, what was told to the American people is that we were to be under imminent attack by Saddam Hussein. What was told to the American people was that we were in the line of fire. Mr. Speaker, I believe it is imperative that an independent commission and a special prosecutor be set up, and I believe that it is not frivolous for us to address the question of why the President of the United States addressed this body and suggested there was uranium being bought from Niger on the continent of Africa.

I believe the American people need the truth. More importantly, I believe the mothers and fathers who have lost their sons and daughters need the truth. We have a responsibility to the American people—tell the truth!

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMMONS). Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, the pending business is the question of the Speaker's approval of the Journal of the last day's proceedings.

The question is on the Speaker's approval of the Journal.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. MCNULTY. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 341, nays 64, answered "present" 1, not voting 28, as follows:

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMMONS) (during the vote). Members are advised 2 minutes remain in this vote.

So the Journal was approved.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

REPORT ON H.R. 2691, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2004

Mr. TAYLOR of North Carolina, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 108-195) on the bill (H.R. 2691) making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2004, and for other purposes, which was referred to the Union Calendar and ordered to be printed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 1, rule XXI, all points of order are reserved on the bill.

PERMISSION FOR MEMBER TO REVISE AND EXTEND REMARKS AND INCLUDE EXTRANEOUS MATERIAL

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that during debate on H.R. 2660, I may be allowed to revise and extend my remarks, and insert extraneous and tabular material in one instance immediately after my initial statement on the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Wisconsin?

There was no objection.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on H.R. 2660, and that I may include tabular and extraneous material.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

DEPARTMENTS OF LABOR, HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, AND EDUCATION, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2004

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMMONS). Pursuant to House Resolution 312 and rule XVIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 2660.

□ 1046

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole

House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2660) making appropriations for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2004, and for other purposes, with Mr. LATOURETTE in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered as having been read the first time.

Pursuant to the order of the House of Wednesday, July 9, 2003, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. REGULA) and the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) each will control 1½ hours.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. REGULA).

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Many of my colleagues have asked, will we finish today, and I can only answer that by saying we can if everybody works at it, and if we do not get too many delays, I think we can get this bill done in good time.

The Constitution says that the objective of government, or at least this is what we interpret it to be, is twofold. One is to provide for the common defense, and we did that earlier this week; we provided for the common defense. The other is to provide for the common welfare of the people, 280 million Americans. Today, in this bill, we have a unique and, I think, very good opportunity to achieve that goal. Maybe not perfectly, but certainly a lot of very positive things are in this bill.

First of all, I want to say that the members of the subcommittee were all very cooperative, all very helpful. We worked together in the subcommittee listening to a lot of testimony. We tried to put together a bill that represents the aspirations of the American people, not totally to the satisfaction of everyone, but certainly I think one that covers a lot of very positive parts. I also want to commend the staff members of both the minority and the majority. We have an excellent staff on this subcommittee; and if it were not for their effort, we would not be here today.

I am pleased to present before the House today the fiscal year 2004 appropriations bill for the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies. When we reflect on that, we think of the broad jurisdiction and responsibility which that entails: Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies.

In crafting this bill, we have taken into consideration the priorities of the President, as well as the Members of the House. We have been attentive to the priorities of Congress as set by the budget resolution, and we are appreciative of the work of the leaders of the House and the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG), in
