

People throughout South Florida followed the team's success as they captured the Florida State Championship followed by the Southeastern United States Regional Championship. With these victories in hand, it was on to historic Williamsport, Pennsylvania to compete in the 2003 World Series.

There they captured this year's championship title along with the hearts of baseball fans throughout America and the world. Their victory brought East Boynton great recognition, but it was their teamwork and sportsmanship that brought us all great pride.

We must also recognize their parents and coach, Kenny Emerson, who helped them set a new standard of excellence in play and in life.

Please join me in saluting this fine team, the 2003 United States Little League World Series champions, the East Boynton Little Leaguers.

QUESTIONS FOR THE PRESIDENT

(Mr. MCDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, I come to the floor with a heavy heart today. The wards are full at Walter Reed Army Hospital and Bethesda Naval Hospital, full of young men and women who were sent by their country to defend their country, whose minds have to have the question today, why was I sent there?

The President of the United States, Mr. Speaker, and the Prime Minister of Great Britain have lost the confidence of their own people. They misled us over and over and over again. They must come clean and tell the American people the truth. This is so reminiscent of what I went through during the Vietnam years that it is eerie. A government that says, well, things are better today, things are better today, and another boy or another girl gets killed or is sent back to Walter Reed or Bethesda maimed.

The President has got to come forward and tell us the truth about what it is going to cost, where we are going to get the people. They will not talk about a draft, but they have kept those reservists and those National Guard people over there for a year. Those people volunteered to support their country when it needed them.

How long are you going to keep them there, Mr. President?

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON). The Chair would advise Members that they should address the Chair and not the President.

FIRST PROSECUTION UNDER TRUTH IN DOMAIN NAMES ACT

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, as the author of legislation passed by Congress earlier this year and signed by President Bush known as the Truth in Domain Names Act, one can imagine my sense of satisfaction when yesterday I received a call from a United States Attorney in Manhattan to learn that the first prosecution under the Truth in Domain Names Act had taken place.

Yesterday, Federal prosecutors in Manhattan charged a Florida man with violating this new law that essentially makes it illegal to use a misleading Internet domain name to entice children to view pornography on the Internet. The defendant, John Zuccarini, had actually registered 3,000 domain names that included misspellings and slight variations of popular names like "Disneyland" and "Bob the Builder" and then would lease them to pornographers to expose children to this prurient material.

Thanks to the leadership shown here in Congress, by the President and by the U.S. Attorney James Comey, Mr. Zuccarini is now being brought into the halls of justice. And I am deeply humbled by this and felt the need today to rise and thank my colleagues for their support of the Truth in Domain Names Act and most especially the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. SENSENBRENNER), chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary, and his capable staff, Phil Kiko and Beth Sokul, without whose effort the Truth in Domain Names law would not be in a position today to terrorize those who would prey upon our children on the information super highway.

THE NATIONAL DEBT

(Mr. DAVIS of Tennessee asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DAVIS of Tennessee. Mr. Speaker, it has been 846 days since President Bush and the Republican Party embarked on their economic plan for our country. Do the Members realize that during that time the national debt has increased by $1,152,231,363,445 and some few odd cents and according to the Web site for the Bureau of the Public Debt at the U.S. Department of the Treasury, at 4:30 p.m. yesterday, eastern daylight time, the Nation's debt was $6,792,556,749,803 and some few odd cents?

□ 1015

Now, you study that for a moment. Furthermore, in fiscal year 2003, interest on our national debt, a debt tax, is $288,803,184,023 and some few odd cents through July 31 of this year.

ADDRESSING THE TERRIBLE STATE OF AFFAIRS IN BURMA

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1

minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today out of concern over the continued imprisonment and disappearance of Aung San Suu Kyi, Nobel Peace Prize winner and leader of the National League of Democracy in Burma.

The cruel SPDC military dictatorship ruling Burma today imprisoned her in May of this year after their own government thugs attacked her and her supporters. Ms. Suu Kyi is now on a hunger strike in protest.

Mr. Speaker, no country should be defending this savage dictatorship that has no qualms about engaging in slave labor, systematic rape, destruction of villages and the murder of many innocent civilians.

What more will it take to get the international community to take deliberative, decisive action? Secretary General Kofi Annan and the U.N. Security Council should immediately act to secure the release of Aung San Suu Kyi, help alleviate the suffering of the people and address the terrible state of affairs in Burma.

THE PHILMONT SCOUT RANCH, A TREASURE FOR ALL AMERICANS

(Mr. WILSON of South Carolina asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker, a highlight of the August district work period was to accompany my 15-year-old son Hunter on a 70-mile backpacking trek at the Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico.

Philmont is correctly identified as a scouting paradise due to the multitude of camps and breathtaking views of mountain ranges and Southwestern mesas. This 137,000-acre area ecological wonder is the result of its benefactor, the late Waite Phillips, who donated the properties now defined as the world's largest camping organization, staffed by 900 employees for over 25,000 hikers who come annually from every State.

I saw firsthand the accomplishments of dedicated adult volunteers, Mike Apfeld and Jeff Geygan of the Milwaukee County Scout Council, who guided our crew of nine scouts, Crew Leader Brendan Apfeld, Daniel Gerlach, J.P. Geygan, Nicholas Haynes, Michael Mastroianni, Christopher Murphy, Danny Brownfield, John McClellan, Jr., and Hunter Wilson. They achieved climbing the ranch's highest peak on Baldy Mountain of 12,441 feet, encouraged by Ranger Michael Ferrin.

Philmont Scout Ranch is a treasure for all Americans to enjoy, and I urge my colleagues to encourage their scout troops to participate in the exhilarating Philmont experience.

TRIBUTE TO GENERAL RAY DAVIS
