

Benito Tourism Council, the United Way of Hollister and the San Juan Bautista Historic Planning Committee.

I first met Terry in April of 2002 when she accepted my request to assist with the planning of California's 17th Congressional District's 2002 Naturalization Ceremony. Without her tireless help, we would not have been able to convene so many community leaders in such a short amount of time. That ceremony was a very special day for the participating new citizens, and it is one that many members of San Benito County will remember for a long time to come. It wouldn't have been possible, had it not been for Terry's ambitious fundraising and vision for that day.

Terry will be moving to the Sonora area in the Sierra foothills, and I would like to say that she will be missed by the community of San Juan Bautista, and San Benito County.

Because of her enormous sense of dedicated community service and love for the City of San Juan Bautista, Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to recognize Terry Marburger and her valuable contributions to our community.

HONORING FRANK JOHNSON

HON. DENNIS A. CARDOZA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. CARDOZA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Frank Johnson, who has delighted the community of Modesto as a ticket taker for the Modesto A's Baseball Club, Inc. for 31 years. As one of the most well known and popular members of the Modesto A's staff, Mr. Johnson has become an endeared friend to all of the team's fans.

Mr. Johnson began working in Modesto baseball in 1958 when he worked in the concession stand for the Modesto Reds at Del Webb Field. Since that time he witnessed five different minor league professional baseball teams call Modesto home. From the New York Yankees to the Oakland Athletics, Mr. Johnson is a testament not only to baseball, but to the many changes the City of Modesto has experienced.

As a constant face to all of the attendees at the Modesto A's games, Mr. Johnson has become a part of local history. He is a reminder of all of the good things about baseball and youth. It is my honor and privilege to recognize Mr. Johnson's 50 years of commitment to our community.

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. BONNER. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to recognize and salute my friend, Gene Owens, on the occasion of his retirement from "active duty" with the Mobile Register, Alabama's oldest newspaper.

For 9 years, Gene has provided consistent, quality reporting to readers along the Gulf Coast and throughout Alabama, first as the paper's political editor and in recent years, as the Register's popular metro columnist.

Prior to moving to Alabama, Gene worked at newspapers in other areas of the country, devoting much of that time to reporting jobs in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Upon moving to the Gulf Coast in 1994, Gene became a familiar face to those of us in public service during his stint as the Register's political editor. In so doing, he shared with the people of south Alabama the talents and personal integrity upon which he built his reputation as a journalist.

Elected officials, community representatives and concerned citizens alike could always rely on Gene to provide the best possible coverage of issues facing us in Alabama as well as topics of national interest. From covering local political debates to national party conventions, Gene could always be counted on to give you the complete story on the major issues of the day. While his readers—and those he reported on—did not always agree with him, we could always be assured there would be equal and fair treatment in his columns and stories, a statement which can not always be said about all journalists.

In recent years, Gene moved to cover more local issues, and his columns on more human interest stories won him an entirely new following. His humorous and often folksy manner of sharing local tales, from topics as diverse as an annual Texas State Fire Ant Festival to a discussion on the finer points of the southern "take" on the English language, could always be counted upon to inform, entertain and bring a smile to the faces of all his readers.

His readers, colleagues and fans never hesitated to share their opinions on and about Gene and his pontifications. Of all the comments the paper received during the past 9 years, the one that perhaps best sums up Gene's career and the public's feeling toward him was left on the Register's open comment line, "Sound Off," and was recently reprinted in a tribute column about Gene. Someone called in to say, "I hope God continues to watch over Gene Owens. The world is so in need of the humor and wisdom that he so richly shares with us all."

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me today in recognizing Gene Owens for his tremendous contributions to both the world of journalism and to his friends and neighbors along Alabama's Gulf Coast. Gene is indeed a genuine Alabama treasure who has freely shared both his wisdom and humor with all of us, and for nearly a decade I have been proud to call him my friend.

Along with his many friends and followers throughout South Alabama, "Pal Joey" wishes to extend to Gene Owens and his lovely wife, "Miss Peggy," all the best in the months and years ahead.

RECOGNIZING REV. JAMES MORRIS LAWSON JR.

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I stand before you today to recognize one of the most inspiring and remarkable leaders in the United States,

Rev. James Morris Lawson Jr. Rev. Lawson Jr. is a minister and a civil rights leader who has worked hard to further the advancement of people of color.

Rev. Lawson was born in Uniontown, Pennsylvania, in 1928. Since early on in his life, he has strongly advocated for nonviolent resistance to achieve political change, a philosophy he developed by studying Ghandian ethics and Methodist theology. A leader in the fight against racism, Rev. Lawson was instrumental in desegregating many of our Nation's societies, especially those in the southern States during the late 1950's and 1960's.

In 1957, Rev. Lawson worked with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and helped shape the Southern Christian Leadership Council, a national organization that dismantled barriers for black citizens in the segregated south. Rev. Lawson helped organize students in southern universities to perform nonviolent demonstrations to desegregate restaurants and drug stores in Nashville, Tennessee. His actions influenced others in Historically Black Colleges and Universities to protest, eventually helping to end segregation throughout the South.

Admirably, Rev. Lawson's leadership not only helped black citizens achieve political change, but he also aided labor unions, women, gays and lesbians, and recently incarcerated individuals. With all these monumental accomplishments, Rev. Lawson continues to fight for social justice even in his mid-70's.

His accomplishments as a dignitary of civil rights have inspired other civil leaders, like me, to achieve political change. Therefore, I am privileged to recognize him as the perfect example of today's exceptional leader.

TRIBUTE TO WALTER TIMME

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise before this body of Congress and this nation to pay tribute to a most remarkable individual from my district. Walter Timme of Pueblo, Colorado honorably served in the Army during World War II, leaving his motorcycle sales business to answer his country's call to duty. Walter's service to our country in its time of need is indicative of his commitment to our nation, which I would like to recognize here today.

Putting his passion for motorcycles on hold, Walt kissed his wife goodbye and shipped off to New Caledonia and Biak in the South Pacific. It was not long after they learned of his mechanical abilities that the Army put Walt to work as an aircraft engine repair technician. Walt's knowledge of engines, acquired from his fondness of motorcycles, provided him with an unparalleled skill for fixing planes. Our country owes Walt a debt of gratitude for his service during WWII.

Walt returned safely from the war and revisited his passion for motorcycles. Aside from his time spent serving the country during WWII, Walt has been selling motorcycles since 1938. Walt's entrepreneurial spirit and business savvy have provided his community with jobs and services for over six decades.

Mr. Speaker, it is a privilege to stand before this body of Congress today and recognize the loyal service of Walt Timme to our nation.

Walt's wealth of knowledge regarding mechanics served as a tremendous resource to the Army in a time of need. Thank you Walt, and best of luck with your future endeavors.

A PROCLAMATION HONORING
GEORGE "GUS" WRIGHT AS HE CELEBRATES HIS 80TH BIRTH-DAY

HON. ROBERT W. NEY

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. NEY. Mr. Speaker:

Whereas, George Wright was born in Flemington, West Virginia on September 7, 1923; and

Whereas, George Wright, a resident of Bellaire, Ohio is celebrating his 80th birthday today; and

Whereas, George Wright has long been a dedicated family man, being understanding and caring. His personal sacrifices of time and energy to family, friends and country stand as a monument to a truly fine individual. For his service to our Nation in the United States Navy, we owe Mr. Wright a debt of gratitude.

Therefore, I join with the family and friends,
as well as the residents of the entire 18th Congressional District of Ohio, in honoring George "Gus" Wright as he celebrates his 80th birthday.

A TRIBUTE TO SCOTT UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

HON. ADAM B. SCHIFF

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. SCHIFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Scott United Methodist Church in Pasadena, CA. On Saturday, September 20th, Scott United Methodist Church will celebrate 100 years of dedicated service to the community.

In its century of existence, the location of Scott United Methodist Church, named for Bishop Isaiah Benjamin Scott, has changed on numerous occasions, but the benevolent spirit of the church has remained a consistent presence in the community. After its first humble meeting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.W.
Harris in 1903, the church assembled in a series of buildings for short periods until 1930
when the congregation settled into the church building at 55 Mary Street for the next 43 years. Scott United Methodist Church then held services at First United Methodist Church
on Colorado Boulevard for 2 years before arriving at the current site on Orange Grove Boulevard.

Despite the many moves in its history, Scott
United Methodist Church, acting on its motto,
"the church at the heart of the community with the community at heart," continually dedicated itself in service to the people of Pasadena.
That commitment remains to this day. The Aspires West-Pasadena Program supports at-risk youth in the Pasadena area, and the "Clothe
the Pasadena Unified School District School Children" project provides school wardrobes
for children from low-income families. Scott

United Methodist Church also provides assistance to the needy with its rent relief and holiday food programs.

I consider it a great privilege to recognize Scott United Methodist Church for its 100 years of service to the people of the San Gabriel Valley. I ask all Members to join me in wishing Scott United Methodist Church many more fruitful years of service to the community.

TRIBUTE TO LEONE "LEE"
CHAMBERLIN

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Leone "Lee" Chamberlin who passed away on Thursday, July 3, 2003. During her lifetime Mrs. Chamberlin was an active community member, dedicated to serving others
by leading such organizations as the Girl Scouts of America, Soroptimists International and the Salvation Army. She will be dearly missed by her family of four nieces Patricia Minor, Carole Sobel, Mary Menke and Barbara Elgen; and two nephews Rocky Phillips and Ron Elgen; as well as countless friends.

Leone Chamberlin was born in Fargo, ND and earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Minnesota.
She headed the Siems Drake Mechanical Engineering Department at Puget Sound in Seattle, and became at the time one of just 10
women members of the American Association of Mechanical engineers. Her community service began when she moved to Whidbey Island Naval Air Station in Oak Harbor with her husband Walter Chamberlin. There she counseled teenage girls and organized the Girl Scout Council of Whidbey Island.

She later moved to Fairbanks, AK where she worked as the chief of preliminary engineering and drafting departments for the Army Corps of Engineers. While in Alaska she also served as the president for the Farthest North Girl Scout Council and began her work with Soroptimists International. After her husband's death Mrs. Chamberlin moved to Seattle and became the financial adviser on the national staff of the Girl Scouts of America. When she moved to Monterey County she furthered her work with the Girl Scouts by organizing the Santa Cruz, San Benito and Monterey County Girl Scout Councils into the single Girl Scouts of Monterey Bay Council, serving as executive director for several years.

Leone Chamberlin remained active after her retirement, serving as the executive director of the Carmel Business Association, the president of the Monterey Peninsula Soroptimists Club, and board member and president of the Salvation Army. As an ever involved member of the local community she served as a member of the board for numerous committees
such as Monterey County Economic Development Committee Monterey County Symphony, Monterey History and Art Association, Carmel
Women's Republican Club, Monterey County Council of Chambers of Commerce and Regional Advisory Council for the Salvation Army.

Mr. Speaker, I wish to add my appreciation and recognition of Leone Chamberlin's whose countless achievements have been recognized by numerous awards such as the Congressional Recognition award from Leon Panetta,

the Soroptimists' Women of Distinction award,
and several Thanks Badges from the Girl Scouts. I join Leone Chamberlin's countless friends and family in honoring her truly commendable life and achievements.

HONORING GREGORY HINES

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Gregory Hines, whose limitless grace, style and talent brought international attention to the art of tap dancing.

Gregory Hines set a high standard of excellence and dedication in the realm of entertainment, whether it was singing, dancing, acting, directing, or creating new choreography. He starred in many tap dancing movies and also created, produced and supported many productions, such as Tap City with Tony Waag and Hoagy Bix Carmicheal. Through his art form, he mentored young talent, and today, tap dance is performed in festivals in as many as 40 nations and has been adapted to diverse cultural rhythms throughout the world.

Mr. Hines not only contributed greatly to the arts, but his dedication to the community has been truly selfless. As a board member of several non-profit organizations, including the American Tap Dance Foundation, Mr. Hines was the tap dance community's chief ambassador, dedicated to the preservation and perpetuation of history, education, and presentation of tap dance. Regardless of the numerous credits to his name, Mr. Hines would always say he considered himself first and foremost a tap dancer.

Gregory Hines will be truly missed as a role model who has taught us how to join together and celebrate the diversity that makes our nation great. His dedication to the community transcended the stage and productions and will be a model for future generations.

A PROCLAMATION RECOGNIZING
CHIEF MICHAEL MAGUSCHAK

HON. ROBERT W. NEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 5, 2003

Mr. NEY. Mr. Speaker:

Whereas, Chief Michael Maguschak has dedicated his life to serving and protecting the residents of Mingo Junction; and

Whereas, on a daily basis Chief Maguschak has upheld his oath with an honor and conviction far above the call of duty; and

Whereas, Chief Maguschak has demonstrated a commitment to meet challenges with dedication, confidence and outstanding service; and

Whereas, Chief Maguschak should be congratulated on his retirement after 29 years in the police force;

Therefore, I join with the residents of Mingo Junction in congratulating Chief Michael Maguschak on his retirement.
