

and women who have been granted citizenship based on their service in the U.S. armed forces and who have died in the line of duty would be authorized to seek permanent resident status on an expedited basis. Then, unlike other people seeking legal immigrant status, these family members would not be required to meet financial thresholds which indicate that they would not immediately be public charges.

Most of the American public is unaware of these provisions. Enacting such excessive inducements for joining the U.S. military is a step in the wrong direction, particularly if it results in this country increasingly depending upon what could come to be thought of and called "foreign mercenaries" to serve in the armed forces. This practice has too many similarities to the mercenary forces of the Roman Empire in its decline as Roman citizens themselves became unwilling to serve in the Roman legions. Imagine, too, the reactions of foreign nations that begin to see our military personnel as serving almost solely to gain citizenship for themselves and their families.

Mr. Speaker, this Member encouraged his colleagues to vote against the Rodriguez motion to instruct.

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 23, 2003

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call the attention of the House of Representatives to the Germania Hose Company in Duryea, Pennsylvania as it celebrates its 100th anniversary this Saturday, September 27, 2003.

Germania Hose Company was incorporated in 1903. As this company of volunteer firefighters approaches its centennial celebration, it continues to provide their community with the highest quality of service and protection. This all-volunteer company prides itself on a staff of over 60 members both active and retired. With approximately 35 active firefighters and fire police ranging from the age of 18-70, the Germaine Hose Company repeatedly holds successful annual fundraisers such as picnics and pancake breakfasts to help subsidize costs.

On this upcoming milestone for this fire department, I would like to recognize some of firefighters the Germania Hose Company considers its founding fathers. Paul Komenski, George Orenich, Henery Lewandowski, Charles Bartlow, Jim Steer, Mike Kosik, Ed Slatky and Ed Murzinski. Their founding fathers both living and deceased provided the initial training and support that has continued their reputation of tradition and excellence to the community.

Heading this volunteer fire company is Fire Chief, Mike Shovlin. Under his guidance and assistance, members of the fire company respond to more than 200 calls per year that range from structure to grass fires. They also run Mutual Aid assists to neighboring towns. In addition to fire fighting they also have a Scuba Search and Rescue Team that consist of 8 certified divers and the latest state of the art search and rescue equipment.

On their upcoming day of celebration, I would like to remind all House Members of the critical role firefighters and rescue personnel play in protecting our families and communities. Their profession, a dangerous and volunteer service, provides the people of Northeastern Pennsylvania the safety and security that so many take for granted.

Mr. Speaker, on their 100th anniversary, I pay tribute to both the effort and positive impact that the Germania Hose Company, Fire Chief Mike Shovlin and all the volunteer firefighters have on their community in Duryea and all of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. C.A. DUTCH RUPPERSBERGER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 23, 2003

Mr. RUPPERSBERGER. Mr. Speaker, on Tuesday, September 23, 2003, I was detained in Baltimore while assisting my constituents in dealing with the devastating damages from Hurricane Isabel.

While estimates on the economic damages are not yet available, we do know that the hurricane damaged or destroyed 3,300 homes on the eastern shore of the Chesapeake Bay displacing thousands of Marylanders. It caused over 1.34 million Marylanders to lose power. All of Baltimore County's 70 marinas were destroyed, devastating a $225 million dollars a year industry. Thousands of businesses, including ISG's Bethlehem Steel plant, are flooded ruining their daily operations.

Today, Department of Homeland Security Secretary Tom Ridge, Governor Robert Ehrlich, and I toured an area of Baltimore County that experienced extensive damage. After viewing the damage and I encouraged Secretary Ridge to expedite efforts to assist Maryland's Second Congressional district. It is important that the Federal, State and local governments work together.

Hurricane Isabel devastated Maryland's Second Congressional District and I was there assisting my constituents in their discussions with the Federal Emergency Management Agency, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, and the Small Business Administration to help re-establish their homes and businesses.

TRIBUTE TO MR. AND MRS. JAMES PIERCE

HON. DONALD M. PAYNE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 23, 2003

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize two exceptional members of my community, Mr. and Mrs. James and Susie Pierce, and to congratulate them on reaching an exceptional milestone. On September 22, 2003, this inspiring couple celebrated their 75th Anniversary, surrounded by family and friends.

Married in 1927, they moved in 1932 from Georgia to the Booker T. Washington Housing complex in Jersey City, NJ, where they still reside. James was 19 and Susie was 15.

Mrs. Pierce has served New Jersey for many years as a Licensed Day Care provider for the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce have been members of Emmanuel Pentecostal United Holy Church since 1932, amassing 72 years of devotion and service. Susie served as Trustee for 40 years, President of the Ushers for 47 years, Women's Day Chairperson for 30 years, Hospitality Committee for 30 years, Acting Church Treasurer for 3 years, and YPHA for 12 years. She has been both a fieldworker for the New Jersey District United Holy Church Sunday School and Chairperson for the finance department of New Jersey's District Ushers Union. In 1979, she was Women's Day's Woman of the Year and on Mothers' Day in 1986, she was honored by Jersey City Housing as the mother who has lived longest in the development.

James has retired from his years of service at the Domenico Bus Company and has held the positions of Deacon and Trustee at Emmanuel Pentecostal Church. He has committed himself to community service by recruiting neighborhood children to Sunday School and Church, even picking them up himself so that they might attend. These children, now adults, have grown and matured in the Lord, a living testimony to James' legacy.

Their beautiful family includes 4 children: James, a Serviceman in San Antonio, Texas; Akua Clark, a bank Vice-President in Franklin Park, NJ; Linda Stokes, a Guidance Counselor at Public School No. 8; and John, a Construction Worker in Jersey City. They also have 7 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

These fine people have been pillars in my community, and I am honored to call them my neighbors. Mr. Speaker, I know that my colleagues here in the U.S. House of Representatives join me today in saluting Mr. and Mrs. Pierce for their many years of service to their city and to their church community.

HONORING SUE KLUGER FOR ESTABLISHING LEADERSHIP WILKES-BARRE

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 23, 2003

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Sue Kluger of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania for making Leadership Wilkes-Barre what it is today. I ask that my colleagues pay tribute to her achievements as she is honored at a dinner this Wednesday, September 24, in Wilkes-Barre.

Established in 1981, Leadership Wilkes-Barre is an outstanding community development program designed for those in the field of business and industry, healthcare, social services, utilities, government, labor, education, and professional and volunteer organizations. Graduates of the program usually take on leadership roles throughout my Congressional District in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and throughout the United States.

Leadership Wilkes-Barre has a strong commitment to developing leadership skills and of informing class members about the issues confronting our community. It encourages its participants to address community needs by completing group projects, and the program instills a commitment and a personal responsibility to serve and strengthen our community. This program inspires people to get involved and lead their community toward a brighter future.

Sue Kluger exemplifies community involvement and leadership. She is a member of the founding Board of Directors of Leadership Wilkes-Barre and its Executive Director since 1983. She has assisted in the formation of 15 Leadership programs throughout Pennsylvania.

She is a member of countless organizations throughout the Wilkes-Barre area and has participated in many community projects throughout the years. It is no surprise that Sue has been recognized for her community leadership on several occasions. She has been honored as Woman of the Year by the Sisters of Mercy, won the Lifetime Achievement in Philanthropy Award from the National Society of Fund Raising Executives, was awarded the Preceptor Award from the National Association for Community Leadership, was included in the National Directory of Who's Who in Executive and Professional Women, and was the winner of the United Ways of Pennsylvania Volunteer of the Year Award. She has also received the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce Award for Outstanding Business Woman.

Mr. Speaker, I insert in my remarks at this point the complete text of a recent editorial honoring Sue.

[From the Wilkes-Barre Citizens Voice, Sept. 23, 2003]

SUE KLUGER RADIATES LEADERSHIP

Her tenure created 3,000-plus leaders, doers and friends.

If the Greater Wyoming Valley is well-supplied with anything, it is with individuals who are groomed for community leadership. This, to a great extent, is the result of the career of one who has been called "the leader of leaders," Sue Kluger. Sue Kluger will be honored tomorrow evening with a party and salute at the F.M. Kirby Center For the Performing Arts on Public Square. The salute will be for 20 years of service as executive director of Leadership Wilkes-Barre as she completes that tenure and takes up the role of senior adviser to the organization.

During those two decades, Sue Kluger has headed this well-known community program that identifies as many as 40 emerging community leaders each year and educates them about needs and assets—ranging from economic development to local government to social services. During the same two decades, too, she has encouraged and helped the core program expand to leadership training for high school students, college students, executives and senior citizens through programs called Junior Leadership, Intercollegiate Leadership, the Executive Leadership Series and The Masters Leadership Program. By way of all these programs, more than 3,000 local people have gained understanding of our community and been put into position to help it progress.

Equally as impressive as the large numbers of "graduates," however, is the substantive result of their participation. The boards of directors of scores of area organizations and agencies are more diverse and more vital because they include individuals who have gone through the leadership programs. The actual leaders in training have completed hundreds of class projects. They have done environmental cleanups. They have organized recreational events. They have held performances events promoting the arts in Northeast Pennsylvania. They have held forums—attended by several thousand people over the years—addressing community concerns.

Too, the Leadership Wilkes-Barre program has been personally enriching for those who participate in it. The many alumni of the leadership programs have become a network of friends who can call upon each other to advance community goals.

Friendship, community activism, diversity, and belief in the future of the Greater Wyoming Valley will fill the room tomorrow night at the Kirby Center as the graduates and friends of Leadership Wilkes-Barre gather. And it will radiate—as it long has—from the woman being saluted, Sue Kluger.

Mr. Speaker, It is a privilege and honor to represent a woman who has done so much for her community and for all of Northeastern Pennsylvania.
