

the Bruno Walter Orpheus d'Or Prized for Best Opera Conductor by the Academy of Lyric Recordings for his live recording of Mascagni's Parisina. His 1993 recordings of the music by Revueltas, Chavez, and Moncayo was honored with the Golden Record Award and was a top ten seller in Mexico for over a year.

As a composer, Enrique Diemecke's work commands international respect. During the 1998 World Cup, he was commissioned by Radio France Festival to compose a work in honor of the soccer spectacular. His composition, Die-Sir-E, was heard around the world and has been performed at other venues since the World Cup. His compositions are increasingly presented to the public by orchestras in several countries.

It is an honor to ask my fellow members of the House of Representatives to join me in congratulating Maestro Enrique Diemecke for his collaboration with the Flint Symphony Orchestra. During the past fifteen years, Maestro Deimecke has inspired a spirit of joy and enthusiasm with each performance, enriching the life of the greater Flint area with his talent and blessing our community through his continued association with the Flint Symphony Orchestra.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF THE VICTIMS OF THE KATYN FOREST MASSACRE

HON. ROBERT MENENDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of the victims of the Katyn Forest Massacre of 1940. A Memorial Service sponsored by the Katyn Forest Massacre Memorial Committee of the New Jersey Division of the Polish American Congress was held on Sunday, September 21, 2003, at the Katyn Monument in Jersey City, New Jersey.

The Katyn Forest Massacre Memorial Service is a tribute to the bravery of the Polish people who fought valiantly during World War II. Over sixty-three years ago, during the Soviet invasion of Poland, over 15,000 Polish military officers, intelligentsia, prisoners of war, clergy, and Polish civilians were attacked and killed by Soviet military and secret police. Over 4,500 bodies were discovered in the Katyn Forest in a single mass grave.

This year, the Katyn Massacre Memorial Service will also pay special tribute to the brave men and women who perished in the horrific terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and Flight 93 in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, on September 11, 2001. Although more than 60 years apart, the loss of innocent lives in both tragic events have had a profound effect on our society. To lay wreaths and flowers in memory of all of the victims is a fitting tribute, as the site of the Katyn Monument in Exchange Place in Jersey City once looked upon the towers of the World Trade Center just across the Hudson River.

Today, I ask that my colleagues join me in remembering the victims of the Katyn Massacre and the September 11th attacks, and honor their sacrifice and courage. May we continue to honor the memories of those who were lost, so we will not be destined to repeat the horrors of the injustices suffered by these innocent victims.

MOTION TO INSTRUCT CONFEREES ON H.R. 1588. NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2004

HON. JAMES R. LANGEVIN

OF RHODE ISLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. LANGEVIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend the brave men and women of our armed services who are carrying out the mission to provide hope and freedom to the Iraqi people. I would also like to commend Representative CROWLEY for his leadership and advocacy for our men and women in uniform.

Like many of my colleagues, I am concerned with the increasing frequency and duration of Reserve component deployments. During the Cold War era, the Reserve components were a manpower pool that was rarely tapped. However, this resource has become increasingly important to our peacekeeping and counterterrorism missions. As a result, the demands placed on Guard and Reserve families are quickly growing. Not only do these families often have to adjust to life on much smaller salaries, they may have to worry about maintaining their health coverage. This situation is unacceptable, and we need to provide our Guard and Reserve with this coverage from the start so that the stresses of deployment are not compounded by worries about healthcare. I believe offering the guarantee of long-term health coverage would not only help the families of activated Guard and Reservists, but also increase recruitment and retention of some of our most valuable personnel.

As a member of the House Armed Services Committee, I firmly believe that members of our National Guard and Reserve should have benefits commensurate with those of active duty forces. With the announcement that the Reserves' total commitments could now be in excess of a year in some circumstances, this problem must be remedied immediately, and if not by the Pentagon then by Congress. We place enough burdens on these families as it is, I want us to make every effort to remove at least this one. I urge my colleagues to support the Crowley motion to instruct.

HONORING PAUL DEVAUL

HON. STEVE ISRAEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. ISRAEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Paul DeVaul, a decorated veteran and past County Commander for the Suffolk County American Legion. On October 5 2003, the American Legion will be honoring Mr. DeVaul for his service to veterans on Long Island.

After entering the United States Army in December of 1961, Paul was assigned to the United States Army Special Warfare School at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. During this time Paul was awarded numerous awards, including the Army Commendation Medal and the Good Conduct Medal upon his discharge on December 16, 1984.

Paul has been an active member of the Bay Shore Post, #365, of the American Legion since 1990 including serving as County Commissioner in 2001. Paul is one of the few Legionnaires who has served as County Commissioner for two years. One of his more notable accomplishments was when he took it upon himself to gather the names of all Korean and Vietnam War veterans from Bay Shore to create an Honor Roll to recognize their sacrifices for this country.

Paul also developed recognition programs for community groups, individuals, and students who support Veterans and American Legion programs; such as the Spirit Of American Award, which honors individuals for their efforts on behalf of veterans or for their community work. On September 11, 2001 Paul coordinated seven local American Legion posts to serve as shelters for the emergency workers at Ground Zero.

Paul continues to play an active role in the American Legion community and he serves as a role model for all Legionnaires. I commend Paul DeVaul for his dedicated service to our country during his time in the Army and in the aftermath of the attacks on the World Trade Center, and for his hard work on behalf of veterans on Long Island.

TAIWAN'S BID FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS

HON. PETER T. KING

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. KING of New York. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in support of Taiwan's bid for membership in the United Nations (UN).

For the 32nd consecutive year, the U.N. convenes its annual General Assembly without the membership of Taiwan and once again its 23 million citizens will be denied a voice in vitally important global matters. Although Taiwan has long been a significant player in world affairs with a GNP and population larger than three quarters of U.N. member countries, it has repeatedly been denied membership.

The transformation of Taiwan from an impoverished State into an industrial powerhouse, and from a one-party dictatorship into a multi-party democracy, is among the most impressive economic and political marvels of our time. Free and fair elections are held at all levels of government. Taiwan's constitution guarantees its citizens freedom of assembly, freedom of expression, freedom of religion, freedom of the press and it is a strong supporter of human rights.

Already, Taiwan is an active participant in international organizations as exemplified by its membership in the Asian Development Bank, its admission as a full member to the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) group, and its membership in the World Trade Organization (WTO).

Taiwan has also used its successes to become an active contributor to international humanitarian efforts. It has made significant donations to countries devastated by natural disasters and war including relief efforts in Kosovo, Afghanistan, Turkey, and Iraq, to name a few. Taiwan is well prepared and quite willing to actively support U.N. endeavors.

Furthermore, it is not uncommon to have parallel representation of divided countries in the U.N. such as the case of East and West Germany before German reunification in 1990. This type of representation currently exists with respect to the membership of both the Democratic People's Republic of Korea and the Republic of Korea.

By large margins, both Houses of Congress have endorsed Taiwan's desire for participation in the United Nations. Taiwan, a country seeking peace and stability in its region, deserves the right to membership in the United Nations.

TRIBUTE TO LARRY REED

HON. RON PAUL

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. PAUL. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased to pay tribute to one of America's leading advocates for liberty, my friend Larry Reed, who celebrates his 50th birthday on September 29th. In 1993 Larry founded the Mackinac Center for Public Policy in Midland, Michigan. Under his leadership, Mackinac has emerged as one of the largest, most prolific, and effective think tanks in America. Mackinac focuses on issues affecting Michigan; however, much of their work is useful to policymakers at the State and national level.

Prior to founding Mackinac, Larry served as Chair of the Department of Economics at Northwood University in Midland, Michigan. While at Northwood, Larry developed the university dual major in Economic and Business management and founded the University's "Freedom Seminar." Larry has also been a candidate for Congress.

In addition to running Mackinac, Larry is a prolific author. He has written over 800 newspaper columns and articles, 200 radio commentaries, dozens of articles in magazines and journals in the United States and abroad. Larry is also the author of five books including Lessons From the Past: The Silver Panic of 1893 and Private Cures for Public Ills: The Promise of Privatization. All of Larry's writings reflect his unwavering commitment to limited government and the free market as the best way to promote human happiness.

Larry has also found time to deliver more than 700 speeches, traveling to 40 states and 10 foreign countries to spread the freedom philosophy. Larry also promotes liberty as a member and past chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation for Economic Education (FEE), the nation's oldest free-market educational institution.

In 1993, Larry was appointed by then-Governor John Engler to head the Headlee Amendment Blue Ribbon Commission. Governor Engler also appointed Larry to the task force of the Secchia Commission on Total Quality Government, where Larry helped develop policies aimed at streamlining Michigan's state government. I am sure the taxpayers of Michigan are grateful to Larry for his efforts to reduce unnecessary spending.

Mr. Speaker, the great economist Ludwig Von Mises once said that "everyone. . . must thrust himself vigorously into the intellectual battle. None can stand aside with unconcern; the interests of everyone hang on the result. Whether he chooses or not, every man is drawn into the great historic struggle, the decisive battle into which our epoch has plunged." Few have so vigorously thrust themselves into the intellectual and policy battle on the side of freedom as Larry Reed. It is therefore my privilege to pay tribute to this champion of liberty on his 50th birthday.

TRIBUTE TO JOSEPH MURPHY

HON. SCOTT MCINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. MCINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise before this body of Congress and this nation today to pay tribute to the life and memory of a great citizen from my district. Joseph Murphy of Durango, Colorado was a dedicated teacher, enthusiastic coach, and devoted public servant. As his family and community mourn Joseph's passing, I would like to pay tribute to his memory here today.

Joseph was born in Pueblo, Colorado in 1922. Like many of his generation, Joseph served his country in the Army during World War II. Later, he and his wife Marie settled in Durango, where they became fixtures of the community by getting involved in local politics.

Joseph taught Journalism and English at Durango High School and at Fort Lewis College. As an athlete, baseball was dear to Joseph's heart and he shared his love of the game with others in many ways. Joseph was seemingly always involved with baseball, playing semiprofessional ball, coaching a team, officiating for years, and announcing sports news on the radio. In addition, Joseph was a dedicated public servant. He served on the Durango City Counsel for four years and served one term as Durango's Mayor.

Mr. Speaker, Joseph Murphy embodied the spirit of America. When his country needed him, Joseph bravely fought in World War II. When his community needed him, Joseph faithfully served as its Mayor. When his students needed him, Joseph worked to enrich their lives. When his teammates and players needed him, Joseph inspired and supported them. While Joseph has passed on, his legacy will live on. For these many reasons, I am honored to join with my colleagues in recognizing Joseph here today.

IN HONOR OF LA CASA DE DON PEDRO

HON. ROBERT MENEDEZ

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. MENEDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor La Casa de Don Pedro for providing invaluable community programs and services for residents of New Jersey. La Casa celebrated its 30th anniversary on Friday, September 12, 2003.

Since 1973, La Casa de Don Pedro has been providing a wealth of services to the residents of Newark, New Jersey and surrounding communities. La Casa currently provides over 20 programs and services that have made a profound difference in many lives. A true community-based organization, La Casa was founded and continues to be driven by members committed to changing and improving their community.

La Casa de Don Pedro has been tremendously successful in providing critical services for children, young people, adults, and families ranging from education and job training to emergency assistance. In 2002, La Casa provided after-school programs to more than 300 children, ages 6 to 18, and Early Childhood Education programs for parents of 130 families, 80 percent of whom maintained employment or remained with the program. La Casa's Weatherization Assistance Program helped 294 homes become more energy efficient, which will help families save thousands of dollars in energy costs.

More than 410 adults received English language education or citizenship assistance from La Casa, and over 130 adults received immigration assistance. La Casa's Welfare to Work initiative had one of the highest job placement rates in Essex County in 2002, and its Telecommunications Learning Center served as a model for New Jersey's new Workplace Literacy Program. From its inception, La Casa has been a leader for the quality and wealth of services that it provides to members of the community, and its success proves that it will continue to be a model for similar organizations.

La Casa de Don Pedro received the 2002 Excellence in Hispanic Leadership Award from the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs' Center for Hispanic Policy Research and Development and was listed as one of the top 25 Hispanic Nonprofit Organizations of 2002 by Hispanic Business Magazine.

Today, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring La Casa de Don Pedro for thirty years of outstanding and dedicated work, and for making critical differences in the lives of many New Jersey residents.

REAUTHORIZATION OF THE FEDERAL HIGHWAY AND TRANSIT PROGRAMS

HON. JAMES L. OBERSTAR

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 25, 2003

Mr. OBERSTAR. Mr. Speaker, we must quickly enact a multiyear surface transportation bill to provide the assured and continuing funding of transportation programs that is so vital to the Nation, to the States, and to our local communities. But, we must also ensure that the bill that we pass adequately addresses the Nation's transportation needs.

The Transportation and Infrastructure Committee is crafting a bipartisan bill to do just that: to provide the necessary infrastructure investment ($375 billion over six years) to begin to improve our Nation's highway and transit infrastructure. Our country's economic strength, our ability to create jobs and improve business productivity, and our desire to create a safe, efficient, and secure transportation system are all dependent upon increasing investment in our Nation's infrastructure.

We are fortunate to have a strong surface transportation system today. But that system is being challenged by a continuing growth in passenger travel and an ever-increasing demand for fast, efficient movement of freight.
