IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 29, 2003

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, It is with great pride that I rise today to join the Columbian Lawyers Association in paying tribute to one of the New Haven community's most outstanding citizens, and my dear friend, the Honorable Guido Calabresi. In recognition of his contributions, Judge Calabresi will be honored with the thirty-eighth annual Charles A. Rapallo Award.

The first Italian-American appointed to the New York State Court of Appeals, Charles A. Rapallo has served as an example to many young law professionals. Each year, the Columbian Lawyers Association, a professional organization of Italian-American attorneys, honors an individual who has demonstrated a unique commitment to the field of law. Though he has been recognized with a myriad of honorary degrees, awards, and commendations—both in the United States and abroad—the Charles A. Rapallo Award is a true reflection of the many invaluable contributions Guido has made to the judiciary and the bench.

Born in Milan, Italy, Judge Calabresi has become one of New Haven's most respected scholars in the field of Law. Graduating from Yale University, Oxford University, and Yale Law School, where he was first in his class, his impressive career has spanned nearly half a century. From clerking for United States Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black, to serving as Dean and Sterling Professor at Yale Law School, to his judicial appointment to the United States Court of Appeals—his has been a career that will leave a legacy which is sure to inspire generations to come. He has lived the American Dream.

Throughout his life, Judge Calabresi has also demonstrated a unique commitment to his community. As a professor, he continues to touch the lives of hundreds. Though appointed to the United States Appeals Court nearly a decade ago, Judge Calabresi continues to serve as a member of the faculty of Yale Law School as Sterling Professor Emeritus and Professional Lecturer. Those he has trained will go on to teach others, for his is not just a legacy of books and articles but of ideas and inspiration.

I have known Judge Calabresi for many years and consider myself fortunate to call him my friend. It is with great pleasure that I stand today to join his wife, Anne, family, friends, and colleagues in extending my congratulations to Judge Guido Calabresi on this very special occasion. Friend, teacher, public servant—he has left an indelible mark on this community and we have been fortunate to benefit from his brilliance and unparalleled generosity.

HONORING LESLIE AND RITA
GORENFLO, 2002 ANGELS IN
ADOPTION

HON. E. CLAY SHAW, JR.

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 29, 2003

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Leslie and Rita Gorenflo, my 2002 Angels in Adoption.

Every year the Congressional Coalition on Adoption asks Members of Congress for an honoree(s) from their congressional district that has made a remarkable difference in the area of adoption. Last year the Children's Home Society of Florida informed me of a very special family in Palm Beach County, the Gorenflos.

Mr. Speaker, Leslie and Rita Gorenflo have blessed the lives of six children who they have adopted. All of the children in their home have special needs, most of them medical. Rita is a registered nurse, but no longer works outside the home because she practices her nursing skills with her children. Along with giving out medication, administering tube feedings and breathing treatments, Rita hands out much love and encouragement. Les works long and hard so that Rita can stay at home to care for the children and be their advocate.

Not only is Rita a wonderful advocate for her children, she is always the first to volunteer to speak publicly to share her story and encourage others to adopt. It is not unusual to see this family's picture in the newspaper, or on television, telling the world what an honor and privilege it is to be an adoptive parent. The smiles on the faces of the children tell how blessed they are to be members of this loving family.

Mr. Speaker, November is National Adoption Month, and as our nation honors both adoptive parents and children, we salute those who have made a loving family environment for so many children. I am honored to have this wonderful family as constituents in my congressional district and I am proud to recognize them as Angels in Adoption.

HONORING THE CLIFFORD W.
BEERS GUIDANCE CLINIC ON THEIR 90TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 29, 2003

Ms. DeLAURO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to join with staff, clients, and the Greater New Haven community in celebrating the 90th Anniversary of the Clifford W. Beers Guidance Clinic of New Haven, Connecticut. This is a milestone for a special organization.

"A pen rather than a lance has been my weapon of offense and defense; for with its point I have felt sure that I should one day prick the civic conscience into a compassionate activity, and thus bring into a neglected field earnest men and women who should act as champions for those afflicted thousands least able to fight for themselves." This passage, taken from Clifford W. Beers' A Mind That Found Itself, has and continues to be the guiding principle of the clinic and its staff. Since its inception in 1913, the clinic has strived to address the critical needs of the mentally ill and has expanded its mission to assist children and families who face such crises as violence, teenage suicide, drug use, homelessness, physical and sexual abuse, and the impact of AIDS on children.

Clifford Whittingham Beers, one of the first mental health advocates in America, founded the clinic as a compassionate alternative to early psychiatric institutions where the mentally ill were treated. His own battle with mental illness inspired Beers to the belief that those suffering from "diseases of the mind" would have the best chance to become healthy and productive if they received treatment and understanding in their own communities. His work and unparalleled advocacy changed the face of American psychiatry.

Today, the clinic, working with local agencies and organizations, is able to provide a multitude of programs to those most in need. The partnerships they have established allow them to provide comprehensive services to their clients—making a real difference in the lives of thousands of children and families. Just recently, I had the opportunity to visit the Clifford Beers Clinic and was touched by the story of a man whose children received care at the clinic. The pure gratitude that this man expressed to the clinic and its staff for being there for him and his family is indescribable. In building upon the vision of Clifford Beers, the clinic has been able to provide one of life's most precious gifts—hope.

Through its gift of hope, the Clifford Beers Clinic has left an indelible mark on our community and the thousands of lives they have touched. For its many invaluable contributions to our community and for all of their work on behalf of our children and families, I am proud to stand today and extend my sincere congratulations to the Clifford W. Beers Guidance Clinic on their 90th Anniversary.

IN HONOR OF BILL AND TRICIA
MANNING—THE 2003 ANGELS OF
ADOPTION

HON. E. CLAY SHAW, JR.

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, October 29, 2003

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Bill and Tricia Manning, my 2003 Angels of Adoption.

Every year the Congressional Coalition on Adoption asks Members of Congress for an honoree(s) from their district who has made a remarkable difference in adoption. This year,

Place of Hope, located in Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, made me aware of a very special family in Palm Beach County, the Mannings.

Bill and Tricia Manning have been members of Place of Hope for many years. Place of Hope is a family-style community that fosters children in group homes. The Mannings caught the vision and began helping even prior to the arrival of foster children into Place of Hope's unique campus and family cottages.

Tricia is employed at Place of Hope as a Relief Cottage Parent, providing consistent weekly relief care at the Brett Harris Weinstein Family Cottage for six foster girls. She also owns her own business, and is a certified MAPP trainer for foster and adoptive families. Although her husband Bill works full-time, he also recently completed a Masters Degree and volunteers countless hours, along with their two children, at Place of Hope supporting Tricia and the efforts of Place of Hope.

When the Mannings started working with Place of Hope, they had already adopted a boy from Romania. In addition, the Mannings were foster/adoptive parents in the state of Florida. They later adopted another boy through the public child welfare system.

Bill and Tricia are always there for children in need. They continue to provide foster care, currently for two more beautiful children in need. They have hearts for children and it shows through their dedication and commitment to them. Bill and Tricia make a great team and provide a wonderful balance for each other. Bill and Tricia Manning are very appreciated for all that they do each day for hurting children within our South Florida community.

Mr. Speaker, as we recognize the month of November as National Adoption Month, I am honored to have this wonderful family as constituents in my congressional district. It gives me great privilege to nominate them as Angels of Adoption.
