

for fair representation for all voters, Mr. Shelton was a leader in securing four single-member district representatives on the Pinellas County Commission.

An advocate of continuing education, Mr. Shelton went back to school to become a paralegal, specializing in elder law. Working for Gulf Coast Legal Services, he fought discrimination against the elderly. Mr. Shelton never gave up the fight—he was even writing letters on behalf of the St. Petersburg Commission on Aging at age 91.

Mr. Shelton was a Walter Mondale delegate to the 1984 Democratic National Convention. He served on the Environmental Development Commission, Housing Authority and Fair Housing Board and was a chairman of the legislative committee of the St. Petersburg Council on Human Relations. In 1988, the City of St. Petersburg gave Mr. Shelton a Senior Hall of Fame Award in honor of all his contributions to our community.

St. Petersburg is undoubtedly a better place to live thanks to Perkins Shelton. On behalf of our community, I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to Mr. Shelton's family. His impact will not be forgotten.

TRIBUTE TO COMMAND MASTER
CHIEF ROBERT CONKLIN

---

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 4, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with a great deal of pride that I rise before this body of Congress and this nation today to pay tribute to an American hero. Command Master Chief Robert Conklin stands as a fine example of our fighting men and women of the Armed Services who have dedicated their lives to protecting their nation and their fellow citizens. Master Chief Conklin has given thirty-four years of service to his country, and I am honored to pay tribute to his accomplishments here today.

Robert Conklin enlisted in the Navy in 1969, and has accomplished a long and distinguished career. He has served as Command Master Chief, the highest rank for an enlisted man, on the USS Conolly, the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the USS Bataan, and currently serves aboard the USS Ronald Reagan. Through his service, Master Chief Conklin has earned numerous awards, including the Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Good Conduct Medal, and the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.

Mr. Speaker, Command Master Chief Robert Conklin is the kind of dedicated and devoted serviceman who young recruits look to for guidance and encouragement. He has enjoyed a stellar career, and has earned the admiration of his fellow shipmates, as well as the respect of the citizens of the country he has committed his life to serving. I am deeply honored to join with my colleagues in recognizing the tireless work and dedicated service of Master Chief Robert Conklin here today.

VERNON CHAPEL A.M.E. CHURCH

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 4, 2003

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise before you today on behalf of the members of Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church of Flint, Michigan, to congratulate them on their successful completion of a $2 million expansion/renovation project. The church will hold a dedication ceremony to celebrate this blessed achievement on Sunday, November 9, 2003. Bishop Philip R. Cousin, the Presiding Bishop of the Fourth District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, will be the guest preacher and will preside over the dedication.

The expansion of Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church started with a vision 10 years ago and now that vision has come to life. Proverbs 29:18 states that "Where there is no vision, the people perish." Vernon Chapel A.M.E. church is definitely alive, and growing by leaps and bounds. One proof of that growth is their newly constructed 8,700 square-foot family life center. The church and community will utilize the facility for wedding receptions, recreation events and banquets. Inside the church, seven new classrooms were added along with four offices, an elevator, and six restrooms. They have also added a day care and health care site. The church's purpose in starting this project was to give back to the community. They saw a need and they fulfilled it. With the newly expanded facility, the church will be able to spread the Gospel to more people in different ways. Reverend Darryl Williams, Pastor of Vernon Chapel for 13 years, stated to me that completion of this project is a testament to their faith, their progressive attitude and their desire to serve the people of Flint and Genesee County in a greater capacity. The members of Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church are beyond doubt dedicated to the work of the Lord.

Mr. Speaker many people in Genesee County have greatly benefited from Vernon Chapel A.M.E. Church outreach. This church consistently thrives to make the community a better place to live and worship. I ask my colleagues in the 108th Congress to please join me in congratulating this fine Christian community on a job well done.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO WILLIAM
"SARGE" BROWN

---

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 4, 2003

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, I rise before this body of Congress and this nation today to pay tribute to an outstanding citizen from my district. William "Sarge" Brown of Grand Junction, Colorado is an active member of the skiing community and a great citizen. For his years of hard work and many contributions to Colorado's ski industry and his local community, I am honored to pay tribute to Sarge here today.

Like many of his generation, Sarge heeded his country's call, serving in the Army during World War II and the Korean War. At the end of the Korean War, Sarge directed a mountain and winter warfare program for Dartmouth College's Reserve Officer Training Corps. He retired from the military in 1966 as a Sergeant Major, and began work at Vail Mountain where he worked his way up the ranks to become Mountain Manager. While at Vail, Sarge worked to help make the resort the world-class destination that it is today. Sarge retired from Vail in 1989, and was inducted into the National Ski Hall of Fame in 1990. Today, Sarge remains active in the skiing community by serving on the board of the Powderhorn Recreation and Development Company.

Mr. Speaker, William "Sarge" Brown has dedicated many years to serving his country and his community, first in the Army, and then as Mountain Manager at one of Colorado's most beloved ski resorts. His hard work and contributions to his community are an inspiration, and I am honored to join with my colleagues in recognizing the work of William "Sarge" Brown here today.

EMERGENCY SUPPLEMENTAL AP-
PROPRIATIONS ACT FOR DE-FENSE AND FOR THE RECON-
STRUCTION OF IRAQ AND AF-GHANISTAN, 2004

SPEECH OF

---

HON. BOB ETHERIDGE

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 4, 2003

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 3289) making emergency supplemental appropriations for defense and for the reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2004, and for other purposes:

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Mr. Chairman, I will reluctantly support this Iraq Supplemental Appropriations bill conference report for our troops and their families.

I will support this bill because we must support our troops and we must continue to engage the effort in Iraq to its successful conclusion. I have the honor of representing the Army's Fort Bragg, Pope Air Force Base and many Guard and Reserve units in North Carolina. Many of them are serving in Iraq while their families here at home pray for their safety and speedy return. This bill increases funds to purchase body armor for our troops and to contract for the clearing of unexploded ordnance. The bill provides funding for the contracting of security guards to replace reservists currently performing these duties. The Army has indicated this provision would permit the demobilization of 7,000 to 10,000 reserve component soldiers. The bill also includes a provision to continue the increased monthly rate of hazardous duty pay and Family Separation Allowances through September 30, 2004. These provisions are very important to the military families in my district because they have a very real impact in relieving some of their financial burden. I am proud my Democratic colleagues in the House and I have successfully led the fight to secure these needed funds.

I have serious reservations about this vote because despite the brilliant and valiant action of our soldiers to defeat the evil regime of
