

(152), truncating social security numbers on consumer reports given to consumers (115), providing free annual disclosures (211) (in addition to the preemption for disclosures provided under section 212), any consumer protections addressed under the red flag guidelines (114), prohibiting the transfer of debt caused by identity theft (154), notice by debt collectors with respect to fraudulent information (155), coordination of identity theft complaints by consumer reporting agencies (153), duties of furnishers to prevent furnishing of blocked information (154), and the disposal of consumer report information (216). Under this new preemption provision, no state or local jurisdiction may add to, alter, or affect the rules established by the statute or regulations thereunder in any of these areas. All of the statutory and regulatory provisions establishing rules and requirements governing the conduct of any person in these specified areas are governed solely by federal law and any State action that attempts to impose requirements or prohibitions in these areas would be preempted. This section also clarifies that with respect to any State laws for the prevention or mitigation of identity theft that address conduct other than those for which a national uniform standard is created under FCRA, those laws are not preempted to the extent they are not inconsistent with FCRA.

HONORING THE MEMORY OF THE HON. DEVON WIGGINS

HON. JO BONNER

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 8, 2003

Mr. BONNER. Mr. Speaker, Escambia County, AL, and indeed the entire First Congressional District, recently lost a dear friend, and I rise today to honor him and pay tribute to his memory.

Judge Devon Wiggins was a devoted family man and dedicated public servant throughout his entire life. Following a lengthy tenure on the Escambia County Commission, twelve years of which he spent as the commission chairman, Judge Wiggins was elected to the position of Judge of Probate, a position he held until his retirement three years ago. Throughout his professional career, he was dedicated to bringing better opportunities to all the residents of Escambia County and was a tireless advocate for local business and industry. He also was dedicated to making himself and other county offices as accessible as possible to the general public and, through his efforts, garnered the respect and admiration of many individuals in both the public and private sectors.

As a small business owner in Brewton, Alabama, Judge Wiggins was extremely familiar with the challenges and goals of running a successful business and providing employment opportunities for hardworking men and women. It was this background and his tremendous work ethic which became hallmarks of his career in public office and which marked his efforts on behalf of all residents of Escambia County.

Judge Wiggins was also actively involved in his community, participating in church-related organizations and taking a leadership role in the activities of the Brewton Lions Club. His devotion to his fellow man was unmatched, and I do not think there will ever be a full accounting of the many people he helped over the course of his lifetime.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in remembering a dedicated public servant and long-time advocate for Escambia County, Alabama. Judge Wiggins will be deeply missed by his family—his wife, Nell Wiggins, his daughters, Dawn Wiggins Hare, Donna Wiggins Schlager, and Daphne Wiggins Martin, his son, Maxwell Devon Wiggins, and his six grandchildren—as well as the countless friends he leaves behind. Our thoughts and prayers are with them all at this difficult time.

TRIBUTE TO ROSS FISCHER

HON. STEVE BUYER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 8, 2003

Mr. BUYER. Mr. Speaker, one of the most rewarding aspects of representing Indiana's Fourth District is to have the opportunity to honor outstanding Hoosiers for his or her contributions to the community, State, and Nation.

For over fifty years, Ross Fischer has been the owner and President of McCord Auto Supply in Monticello, Indiana. McCord is the largest distributor of flotation tires in the world—a device of which Ross was instrumental in its design and development.

Ross Fischer was born in 1931 and grew up on a farm in Cissna Park, Illinois. He attended Possum Trot, a one-room schoolhouse.

He served in the United States Army, from 1952–1955 as the Squad Leader in the Alaskan Recoiless Rifle Regiment.

Throughout his over 40 years in Monticello, he has never forgotten his beginnings and it shows everyday in his treatment and compassion of others. Ross has made enormous contributions to the city, including providing free tire repairs to the community after a 1974 tornado. He is a member and supporter of the American Legion, the John Purdue Club, and the Monticello Jaycees and also sits on the Board of the White County Airport.

He and his wife Beverly are the parents of three daughters—Jo Anna, De Anna, Anna Lyn, as well as grandparents to seven grandchildren.

On the eve of his retirement from McCord, as well as his 49th wedding anniversary, I salute Ross Fischer for his dedication to family, community and the State of Indiana.

HONORING RANDY STRUCKOFF OF GRINNELL, KANSAS

HON. JERRY MORAN

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 8, 2003

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a devoted member of the Grinnell, Kansas community, Randy Struckoff.

Coach Randy, as he is affectionately called, has become one of the most well known sports fans in Northwest Kansas. At every game in the Grinnell high school gymnasium,

Coach Randy always sits at the end of the score table, right next to the home team's bench. On December 19th, USD 291, the Grinnell Public School District, will honor Coach Randy by dedicating the high school's brand new score table to him.

A life-long resident of Grinnell, Coach Randy has touched the lives of all who have had the opportunity to know him. Although born with a mental handicap, he has never let that challenge get him down. Randy has a smile on his face year-round, and his bright spirit helps to carry Grinnell sports teams through hard times and add to their joy during the good times.

Coach Randy's love for his community, its schools, and its youth is visible to everyone around him. Whether he is helping to coach, officiate, lead cheers, or do all three at once, Coach Randy gives his heart and soul in supporting the coaches, students, and entire community. During the playing of the national anthem at any sporting event in Grinnell, Coach Randy stands at rapt attention, singing along with every word. He is present during every sports season, through summer league baseball and softball, football and volleyball in the fall, basketball in winter, and track in the spring.

I join Grinnell, Kansas in thanking Coach Randy for all of his encouragement and his dedication to the community.

HONORING THE LIFE OF BARBER B. CONABLE, JR.

HON. THOMAS M. REYNOLDS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 8, 2003

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I rise before the House of Representatives today in remembrance of a great man who once served in Congress—former Representative Barber B. Conable, Jr. During his twenty years in Congress he represented both his constituents and this institution with grace and integrity. Regardless of where his service led him, Barber always remained true to his Western New York roots.

While he distinguished himself as a Member of Congress and earned the respect of colleagues on both sides of the aisle, Barber was also notable for his esteemed academic career, his professional knowledge on a wide variety of issues from taxes to Social Security, and his willingness to tackle any problem head on. Always lending a helping hand was a signature trait of Barber's; he never let partisanship get in the way of progress.

Barber Conable was the best example of what a public servant ought to be. He loved his country, his community and his family, never straying from the strong values he was raised on. His genuine sophistication as a legislator came so effortlessly, revealing the compassion and unselfishness that was a hallmark of his public service.

In devoting his life to serving others, Barber exemplified loyalty to his country as a veteran of both World War II and the Korean War. With a thirst for knowledge, Barber shared his experiences when he taught at the University of Rochester and later went on to become President of the World Bank. Though no matter what national or global stage he was on,
