Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker. I rise today to pay tribute to Council Member Doris Rodriguez, who is retiring from the Hayward City Council at the end of her term on April 6, 2004. Ms. Rodriguez will leave a legacy of 27 years of dedicated service to the city of Hayward, California.

Her initial service was on the City of Hayward Citizens Advisory Commission from 1977 to 1984, followed by an appointment to the city's Planning Commission, where she served a seven-year stint. These organizations, who continue to benefit from Rodriguez's experience and commitment, include Friends of the Hayward Library, Hayward Area Planning Association, Hispanic Elected Local Officials, Southgate Home Owners Association, League of Women Voters, and Sun Gallery.

On March 19, 2004, the City of Hayward will host a farewell dinner to thank Council Member Doris Rodriguez for her tireless efforts on behalf of Hayward and its citizens. I join the fine citizens of the city to thank Doris for a job well done.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO LUCY
MEYRING

HON. SCOTT McINNIS

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 10, 2004

Mr. McINNIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to pay tribute to the historic achievement of a remarkable woman from my home state. Lucy Meyring of North Park, Colorado was recently chosen as the next president of the Colorado Cattleman's Association. What makes this more special is the fact that the Cattleman's association is the oldest in the country and Lucy will become its first female president. I join with my colleagues to congratulate Lucy on this remarkable achievement.

Lucy has spent her entire life as a cattlemaster in Colorado, and has a deep love of ranching and the cattle industry. As the newest leader of the Colorado Cattleman's Association, Lucy hopes to educate our youth on the importance of agriculture and the origin of such staples as milk and meat. While Lucy recognizes that she will have an extensive travel schedule over the next year, she believes that doing so will provide a unified voice for all cattlemen throughout Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to rise before this body of Congress to pay tribute to the achievements of Lucy Meyring. Throughout her life, Lucy has been a devoted cattlemaster and earned the respect and admiration of her colleagues, friends and fellow citizens. It is a great honor to rise before this body of Congress to congratulate Lucy on her achievements. I wish her all the best throughout her tenure.

CONGRATULATING MR. PORTNOW
AND THE RECORDING ACADEMY

HON. STENY H. HOYER

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 10, 2004

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to share remarks made by Recording Academy President Neil Portnow at the 46th Annual Grammy Awards on February 8th, 2003. Mr. Portnow worked on behalf to the Recording Academy in a variety of volunteer leadership roles for over 20 years before being selected as President by the Board of Trustees in September of 2002.

In his first two years as President of the Academy, Mr. Portnow has used his creative talents in marketplace development and his many years in the entertainment industry to advocate on behalf of the Music and Arts community, especially in the area of Music Education funding.

I know I am joined by my colleagues in the House of Representatives in congratulating Mr. Portnow and the Recording Academy on their success in fostering, supporting and promoting a myriad of music-based education and community programs throughout the country.

To follow are the remarks presented by Neil Portnow, President, Recording Academy, on February 8th, 2004 on the occasion of the 46th Annual Grammy Awards:

Thank you for joining as we celebrate the 46th Annual Grammy Awards.

Tonight, you've seen some remarkable performances that span the spectrum of recorded music, with musical icons joining wonderfully talented young artists to demonstrate that we are all one family.

But our family extends beyond the boundaries of the artists nominated tonight for Grammy Awards. You, the music fans, are the most important part of our family for whom all of us in this creative community give our all. We are inspired to create and make our music so that you can hear and enjoy it. After all, music uplifts the very fabric of our daily lives.

As in all families, there are times when we must all come together as one. Tonight is one of those times.

Many of our music family have arrived here on this Grammy stage because they had the benefit of exposure to music and the arts in school. Proposals for dramatic cuts in funding for the arts mean that our children will be denied that vital opportunity. We cannot sit idly by and allow this to happen. If our leaders spend our resources to search for something, it ought to be for tools of mass education and cultural enlightenment in our nation.

The Recording Academy recognizes your hunger and passion for music. We also represent the music-makers and many others involved in the creative process whose livelihood depends on your support. And tonight we are asking for that support.

We have spent the past year researching and examining the complex issues created by the digital world and this evening, we are announcing a national program designed to educate and inform music lovers everywhere about the serious issues and alternatives surrounding digital downloading of music. We encourage you to visit our new Web site, What's The Download.com, and learn about legal downloading and the ethical choices you can make about how you get your music.

The coming months and years will be a critical time for all of us who bring you the music. Our industry will emerge from what has been a perfect storm. And we will reinvent and renew that which requires change, providing more choices and options to discover and enjoy music.

Just as you would respond to one of your family members seeking your help, we ask you to help us keep music strong and alive for this and for generations to come. You can be sure that we will continue to do our part; we're counting on you to please do yours.
