

but we will continue to discuss with the Democratic leadership how we can best proceed to conference.

Finally, just a few moments ago, we passed H.R. 3850, a 2-month extension of the highway bill. As we witnessed over the course of the day, it has required a lot in terms of discussions among colleagues in this body with Members of the House of Representatives, but I am pleased to announce we have reached a satisfactory conclusion for all parties involved. I thank all the Senators who were just appropriately thanked for their participation.

Again, the 5,000 Transportation employees who were at risk of not being able to go to work and being paid for work on Monday can rest now and, indeed, will receive both those checks and show up for work on Monday.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, MARCH 1, 2004

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 12 noon Monday, March 1. I further ask that following the prayer and pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and the Senate then resume consideration of S. 1805, the gun liability bill; provided that there be 4 hours of debate with the following Senators to control the time: Senator MCCAIN or his designee, 1 hour; Senator FEINSTEIN or her designee, 1 hour; Senator CRAIG or his designee, 2 hours; provided further that at 4 p.m. Senator BINGAMAN be recognized to offer his definition amendment, and the time until 5 p.m. be equally divided between Senators CRAIG and BINGAMAN; provided further that at 5 p.m. the Senate will proceed to a vote in relation to the Bingaman amendment without any intervening action or debate, and following the disposition of the amendment, the Senate resume consideration of the Levin amendment numbered 2631.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. On Monday, the Senate will resume consideration of S. 1805, the gun liability bill. There are a number of Senators who will be here to debate the remaining amendments and there will be adequate time for debate on Monday.

I sincerely thank the bill managers for their hard work on this legislation.

They have been on the floor constantly for the past 3 days, working through amendments and moving this bill forward. Through their efforts and a lot of hard work, we are poised to finish the bill Tuesday of next week. Again, they should be complimented.

I inform all my colleagues we will have a vote on an amendment to the bill Monday afternoon. Senators should expect that vote in relation to the Bingaman definition amendment to occur promptly at 5 p.m.

Mr. REID. I wonder, with the easy week the majority leader has had this week, could you tell us what we will do after we finish the gun liability legislation?

Mr. FRIST. Through the Chair, Mr. President, we have the agreement to complete the gun liability legislation Tuesday. It is our plan, although I want to discuss it further with the Democratic leadership and also my colleagues, but the plans are at this juncture to continue with the manufacturing bill called FSC/ETI. There is a deadline we are all familiar with of March 1. This bill has been taken through committee and we will be addressing it on the floor. The House has not yet addressed it.

It is my intention, at this point in time—again, it could be subject to change—to proceed with FSC/ETI.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY, MARCH 1, 2004

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 4:41 p.m., adjourned until Monday, March 1, 2004, at 12 noon.
