

human rights. This represents a colossal failure of leadership.

For 2 years, we have heard that if you are not with us, you are against us. Who is with us now? And who was ever with us? The coalition the President speaks of is a mirage. It is Americans who are dying. It is Americans who are paying the price—another $25 billion, according to the President today, and that is only for the next few months. Another $50 billion at least will be necessary next year just for Iraq. That is $75 billion we do not have to pay teachers and police and firefighters and other needs in America.

We have heard how the Secretary of Defense waited for months to tell the Congress about what was happening in that prison. When the photographs appeared in the press, he and the National Security Adviser, the President, everybody else said they were stunned and shocked and said these were isolated incidents. The only thing they could have been shocked by was that the facts became public because they had known about them for a very long time. That is the real question that should trouble each one of us: Why we thought it was OK to behave this way. It represents a serious flaw of character, of morality, of decency, of professionalism, of training. It does not reflect the great military of our country. It certainly does not reflect the values of America, and we have to ask the leaders: Why did you allow this shame to happen? Why did you allow America—America—to be shamed this way throughout the world?

I yield the floor, and I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT—EXECUTIVE CALENDAR

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, as in executive session, I ask unanimous consent that following morning business today the Senate proceed to executive session for the consideration of Calendar No. 685, the nomination of John Negroponte to be Ambassador to Iraq.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Reserving the right to object, and I certainly will not object, we hope to work very closely with our Republican friends and have a good discussion and debate about the Negroponte nomination. I understand there are a number of other Senators who wish to be recognized in regard to this nomination.

Last night, we confirmed two members of the Federal Marine Maritime Commission and the nominee for chief executive officer of the Millennium Challenge Corporation. We are now going to get the agreement on Ambassador Negroponte, and we hope before the end of the day to announce an agreement on additional ambassadors who might be confirmed yet today as well.

I hope all of the cooperation that is being demonstrated will allow the administration to reciprocate with a number of our nominees to various boards and commissions from whom we have yet to hear. So I look forward to working through the confirmation of the Negroponte nomination today and the ambassadors tonight, and our hope is we can get additional cooperation from the administration on our board nominees very shortly.

I have no objection to going forward as the majority leader has now proposed.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. FRIST. I am pleased we are making progress. The fact that we are going to the debate on the future Ambassador of Iraq, Mr. Negroponte, demonstrates that we are making some progress. We have a whole series of judges who must be addressed, a whole series of nominees who were just mentioned who must be addressed, and a whole series of ambassadors on whom it sounds as though we are making some progress with the Negroponte nomination, as well as what we will see take place later during the day.

I further ask consent that there then be 5 hours 30 minutes equally divided between the chairman and ranking member of the Foreign Relations Committee; provided further that the minority time be divided among the list that is at the desk. I also ask unanimous consent that following the use or yielding back of time, the Senate proceed to a vote on the confirmation of the nomination with no intervening action or debate.

Finally, I ask unanimous consent that following the vote, the President be immediately notified of the Senate's action, and the Senate then resume legislative session.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

The minority leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Reserving the right to object, I ask the majority leader if it is his intention to go back to the FSC bill after we have completed this work. I have consulted with the assistant Democratic leader. We are now down to four amendments which will only require 1 hour 35 minutes on our side. We are getting down to a very small number. Only 1 hour 35 minutes on four amendments, and we would be finished with the bill as far as our side is concerned.

I ask the majority leader if it is his intention to complete work on the FSC bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, in response, through the Chair, our intention is that as soon as we finish the 5 hours 30 minutes, we go back to the FSC/ETI JOBS bill. We have made tremendous progress on the bill. I congratulate the managers for their leadership over the course of the week. They have done a commendable job in getting the number of amendments both down and dealt with. Some have been adopted. Some have had votes on them over the course of the week. Our intention is, as soon as we finish the Negroponte nomination debate and vote, to go back to FSC/ETI. I hope all 5 hours 30 minutes might not be required on the Negroponte nomination.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? Without objection, it is so ordered.

There is still 6½ minutes remaining for the Democratic Party. The Senator from New Jersey has 5 minutes.

The Senator from New Jersey.

Mr. CORZINE. May I make an inquiry? Are there other of my colleagues requesting time?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Jersey is the only one on the Democrat side seeking time.

SUDAN DARFUR CRISIS

Mr. CORZINE. Mr. President, I rise today to speak on an issue that too easily comes off our agenda in America and around the globe. We accepted S. Con. Res. 99 which condemns the Government of the Republic of Sudan for its participation and complicity in the attacks against innocent civilians in the impoverished Darfur region of western Sudan. I think it is not enough just for us to be condemning in this situation. It has all of the makings of turning into a humanitarian crisis that rivals or at least approaches the kinds of problems we saw in Rwanda.

While we will take a stand in recognizing it as a problem, I think it is absolutely essential that we maintain attention and focus when there are so many events in the world that draw us away.

The United Nations, international humanitarian and human rights organizations, as well as our own Government, agree that the campaign by the extremist, theocratic Sudanese Government and their militia allies against Muslim civilians of African ethnicity in Darfur, western Sudan, over the last 14 months has driven over 1 million civilians from their home. We have the risk of another tragic genocidal action in place.

The 1 million Muslim civilians displaced within Darfur, Sudanese citizens victimized by their own Government, cling to life as displaced, homeless persons living in the open or in pathetic and inadequate camps, in constant fear of further attacks and depredation.

Their physical condition is severely weakened, food supplies are exhausted, and the international community so far has been unable to get critically needed food assistance into the interior, due to deliberate interference and
