AMERICA SUPPORTS YOU

(Mr. PRICE of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, as our troops fight the war on terror, it is imperative that we show our appreciation for all of their sacrifices, their efforts and their courage. As Secretary Rumsfeld said, “Our country is proud of every member of our Armed Forces, and we are deeply grateful for those who have sacrificed for the cause of liberty.”

Many Americans want to thank our troops; they just do not know how. There is a great program that America should know about. It is called America Supports You. It is a nationwide program run by the Department of Defense to recognize and communicate support by citizens for our military men and women. The program highlights many ways that Americans can get involved and join in the support effort. By going to www.AmericaSupportsYou.mil, you can donate frequent flier miles to provide tickets to hospitalized soldiers and their families, provide prepaid phone cards so their family members can keep in touch or just write a letter of gratitude.

Mr. Speaker, it is time we showed the troops how much we care. With the 4th of July approaching, let us take time to show our appreciation and give back to those who have made so many sacrifices for us and for our liberty.

AmericaSupportsYou.mil lets all Americans say thanks.

CORPORATE WELFARE DEMONSTRATES NEED FOR LOBBYING REFORM

(Mr. EMANUEL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, on Monday, oil topped at $60 a barrel, and yet the House energy bill contains more than $8 billion in taxpayer funded giveaways to oil companies.

American taxpayers are being asked to subsidize big oil to do one thing: execute their business plan. So we pay twice, once at the gas pump and once on April 15. That is just business as usual here in Washington.

As USA Today points out today, corporate donors have given more than $120 million to Republicans during the last election, and now they are receiving their reward for loyalty.

Tobacco companies gave more than $40 million to Republicans, and they got a sweetheart deal from the Justice Department.

Pharmaceutical companies gave over $100 million to the Republican party and got a prescription drug bill resulting in $138 billion in additional profits.

To those industries, it is just good business: Invest a little now for a bigger return from Congress.

Special interests have attached themselves to Congress, and this is a parasitic relationship that is having a corrosive effect on the People's House. Congress has told corporate America to clean up their act. We have told professional sports to clean up their act, but when it comes to the People's House, things are squeaky clean.

The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. MEEHAN) and I have introduced lobbying reform legislation.

Mr. Speaker, when the gavel comes down, it should mark the opening of the People's House, not the auction house.

WHO TOOK MY HOME?

(Mr. POE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE. Mr. Speaker, the Supreme Court has opened the gate of chaos by allowing local governments to forcibly seize private homes so they can sell to private developers for the greater tax revenues. The result of this land-grabbing decision, in violation of the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, the protection of private property, is occurring now even in the remote New England town of Weare, New Hampshire.

A developer has filed necessary papers with the city to condemn a local home, have it seized and destroyed so he can build a brand new hotel and museum. That will give the city greater tax revenue.

The Supreme Court should realize there are consequences for decisions that they make. They affect all Americans. The homeowner has no recourse, no place to turn.

So I say, to the homeowner, Supreme Court Justice David Souter who voted for the land-grabbing decision, your decision shows the Supreme Court has lost its way, and you may lose your home.

VAWA REAUTHORIZATION

(Ms. SOLIS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in support of a comprehensive reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act.

Throughout my career and as chair of the Democratic Women's Working Group, I have been actively involved in advancing domestic violence legislation.

Although domestic violence is blind to race, ethnicity, racial and ethnic minority women, immigrant women especially, we face unique challenges to reporting and getting help for these victims.

The comprehensive reauthorization of VAWA includes provisions that address these concerns.

The bill includes language that would help communities establish specialized domestic violence courts in order to speed up the processing time of domestic violence cases. Also, the bill includes a provision that would help educate minority and immigrant communities on how to prevent domestic violence and provide services available to those victims.

Our efforts to educate the public about domestic violence must directly address factors like cultural differences, linguistic differences and immigration issues.

It is my hope that the reauthorization for the Violence Against Women Act is comprehensive and meets the needs of all women.

GITMO GETS THE DEMOCRATIC GO-AHEAD

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to highlight comments published in Tuesday's edition of The Hill from Members of Congress who recently visited the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay.

One Democratic Senator described the tour as “an eye-opening experience.”

“We found a well-run and well-organized camp,” he added. “Everything we heard previously was negative, but what we saw was much different from
