AMENDMENT NO. 1: At the end (before the short title), insert the following new title:

TITLE —ESTABLISHMENT OF SELECT COMMITTEE

SEC. __. There is established a select committee to investigate and oversee the awarding and execution of contracts for relief and reconstruction activities in areas affected by hurricane Katrina.

SEC. __. The select committee shall conduct an ongoing study and investigation of the awarding and carrying out of contracts by the Government for relief and reconstruction activities in areas affected by Hurricane Katrina, and to make such recommendations to the House as the select committee deems appropriate regarding the following matters—

(1) oversight procedures for the awarding of contracts and distribution of appropriated funds;

(2) bidding, contracting, and auditing standards in the issuance of government contracts;

(3) accountability of contractors and Federal, State, and local government officials involved in procurement;

(4) penalties for violations of law, official corruption, and abuses in the awarding or carrying out of government contracts; and

(5) such other matters as the select committee deems appropriate.

SEC. __. The select committee shall be composed of 15 individuals, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House (of whom 7 shall be appointed upon the recommendation of the minority leader), one of whom shall be designated as chairman. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the select committee shall be filled in the same manner in which the original appointment was made.

SEC. __. (a) For the purpose of carrying out this title, the select committee may sit and act during the present Congress at any time and place within the United States or elsewhere, whether the House is in session, has recessed, or has adjourned and hold such hearings as it considers necessary and to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses, the furnishing of information by interrogatory, and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memoranda, papers, documents, and other things and information of any kind as it deems necessary, including classified materials.

(b) One-third of the members of the select committee shall constitute a quorum for the reporting of the results of its study and investigation (with its recommendations) or the authorization of subpoenas, which shall require a majority of the committee to be actually present.

(c) A subpoena may be authorized and issued by the select committee in the conduct of any investigation or series of investigations or activities only when authorized by 8 members of the select committee. Authorized subpoenas shall be signed by the chairman or by any member designated by the select committee, and may be served by any person designated by the chairman or such member. Subpoenas shall be issued under the seal of the House and attested by the Clerk. The select committee may request investigations, reports, and other assistance from any agency of the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of the Government.

(d) The chairman, or in his absence a member designated by the chairman, shall preside at all meetings and hearings of the select committee. All meetings and hearings of the select committee shall be conducted in open session, unless 8 members of the select committee vote to close a meeting or hearing.

(e) The Rules of the House of Representatives applicable to standing committees shall govern the select committee where not inconsistent with this title.

(f) The select committee shall adopt additional written rules, which shall be public, to govern its procedures, which shall not be inconsistent with this title or the Rules of the House of Representatives.

SEC. __. (a) The select committee staff shall be appointed, and may be removed, by
