

Scott Air Force Base, home to the United States Transportation Command, the Air Force's Air Mobility Command, and some tireless flying units that move troops and materials all over the world in defense of our Nation. St. Clair County, where Scott Air Force Base is located, has for some time been willing to discuss with the Air Force the idea of working together on a lease-purchase agreement. That idea cannot get off the ground; much less take flight, however, so long as the current law strictly limits such agreements to private contractors.

This is just one example from my own State of Illinois. I expect there may be other military installations and their neighboring jurisdictions that also might like to work together in a similar fashion. The Base and Community Lease-Purchase Expansion Act which I introduce today will help open the door to that sort of teamwork.

America is strongest when the military and civilian parts of our society work together in partnership on projects of mutual benefit. To that end we must work to reduce barriers and seize opportunities to foster cooperation between military installations and the states and local jurisdictions in which they are located. In so doing, we lay the foundation for mutual understanding, a strong military and enduring communities.

SEC. _____. (a) Congress makes the following findings:

(1) The American Jobs Creation Act of 2004 permitted the outsourcing or privatization by the Internal Revenue Service of collection of unpaid and past due federal income taxes.

(2) The Internal Revenue Service is about to issue to private-sector debt collection companies tax collection contracts that will create up to 4,000 well paying private-sector jobs.

(3) If the same tax collection activities were conducted by Federal employees, Federal law would give preferences in employment to disabled veterans in filling those federal jobs.

(4) By enacting legislation to improve the Internal Revenue Service’s tax collection efforts and outsourcing or privatizing those efforts, Congress did not intend to curtail the Nation’s long-standing commitment to creating meaningful job opportunities for disabled veterans and other persons with severe disabilities.

(5) The contracts the Internal Revenue Service will execute with private-sector debt collection companies provide a unique opportunity for the Federal government to stimulate the creation of well paying jobs for disabled veterans and other persons with disabilities.

(b) It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Secretary of the Treasury should, to the maximum extent practicable, ensure that existing Federal employment preferences for disabled veterans and Federal policies promoting opportunities for other disabled persons are carried forward as a part of any tax collection contract program carried out under section 6306 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as added by the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, and

(2) the criteria applied by the Internal Revenue Service in awarding contracts to private-sector tax collection companies under such program should incorporate a preference for companies hiring disabled veterans and other disabled persons.
