

the 18 F-16 aircraft assigned to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) to meet the Primary Aircraft Authorizations (PAA) requirements established by the Base Closure and Realignment recommendations of the Secretary of Defense, as amended by the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Commission.

Establish 18 PAA F-16 aircraft at the 140th Wing (ANG), Buckley Air Force Base, Colorado.

Establish 18 PAA F-16 aircraft at the 149th Wing (ANG), Lackland Air Force Base, Texas.

Establish a contiguous enclave for the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) sufficient to support operations of that unit, including flight operations, and compatible with joint use of the Springfield-Beckley Municipal Airport as a civilian airport.

If the State of Ohio decides to change the organization, composition and location of the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) to integrate the unit into the Future Total Force, all personnel allotted to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG), including the unit's Expeditionary Combat Support (ECS) elements, will remain in place and assume a mission relevant to the security interests of the State of Ohio and consistent with the integration of the unit into the Future Total Force, including but not limited to air mobility, C4ISR, Information Operations, engineering, flight training or unmanned aerial vehicles. Where appropriate, unit personnel will be retained in skills relevant to the emerging mission.

This recommendation does not effect a change to the authorized end-strength of the Ohio Air National Guard. The distribution of aircraft currently assigned to the 178th Fighter Wing (ANG) is based upon a resource-constrained determination by the Department of Defense that the aircraft concerned will better support national security requirements in other locations and is not conditioned upon the agreement of the state.

The Commission found that this change and the recommendation as amended are consistent with the final selection criteria and the Force Structure Plan. The full text of this and all Commission recommendations can be found in Appendix Q.

IN HONOR OF THE PEACE AND JUSTICE AWARDS DINNER OF CLEVELAND

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Rev. Mr. Bill Merriman, The Empowerment Center of Greater Cleveland, Marilyn Cunin and the Pulaski Franciscan Community Development Corporation as they receive the annual Peace and Justice awards from the Commission on Catholic Community Action.

Rev. Mr. Bill Merriman is a deacon at St. Patrick's Parish in Cleveland. He received the Individual Award for his work as an advocate and catalyst for social justice and peace locally and globally for over thirty-five years.

Rev. Mr. Merriman aggressively works with transitioning refugees into the city of Cleveland through the Migrant Refugee Office.

The Empowerment Center of Greater Cleveland received the Organization Award. The Empowerment Center has worked on numerous cases including getting school supplies to families on welfare. Their nearly forty years of service of advocacy on public policy and practical programs with and for low-income people across greater Cleveland has earned them this recognition.

Marilyn Cunin received the Special "Church in the City" Recognition Award. She received this award for her strong support of "The Church in the City" Forum series, as well as the West Side Ecumenical Ministry and the East Cleveland Public Library and countless efforts to strengthen the urban core of Northeast Ohio.

The Pulaski Franciscan Community Development Corporation is a not-for-profit CDC. Their collaboration effort with the St. Stanislaus Parish to develop the Cloisters Housing Development in the Warszawa Historic District in Cleveland, Ohio is a major revitalization to the Slavic Village area. For their spearheading efforts the Pulaski Franciscan Community Development Corporation received the Special "Church in the City" Recognition Award.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of the recipients of the Catholic Community Action Annual Peace and Justice Awards as they are honored today for their work.

IN HONOR OF JUDGE PHILIP N. GUMBS

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Judge Philip N. Gumbs. Judge Gumbs passed away after a life of distinguished service to his family and his community at the age of 82.

Judge Gumbs was a first generation American who volunteered for the U.S. Army Air Corps immediately after graduating high school and served honorably in World War II. After returning home, he earned his undergraduate degree from Rutgers University and his law degree from Lincoln University in St. Louis. Judge Gumbs was a probation officer and a law partner before an ardent desire to see his children receive a good education caused him to enter public life as a member of the Matawan Board of Education.

Judge Gumbs's work to improve education was his first step in a career of dedicated public service. He would go on to hold many other public offices including serving on the township council and as the mayor of Matawan. He was elected to the Monmouth County Board of Chosen Freeholders with the highest number of votes for any elected seat in the county. He later became the first African-American director of the Board of Chosen Freeholders. He was appointed a judge in 1976, and served as a workers' compensation judge for 25 years.

Judge Gumbs was a lifelong member of St. Mark AME Zion Church. He was an active member of his church community and served in a number of capacities, including superintendent of the Sunday school, a role that allowed him to continue his work to improve education. He served for 30 years as chairman of the Trustee Board. Judge Gumbs was also active as a Master Mason with a local lodge.

My condolences go out to his wife Rachel, his children, Robina and Kelvin, his three grandchildren, his sisters and brothers, and his nieces and nephews. Judge Gumbs's legacy of service to his community will be remembered for generations to come.

RECOGNIZING STUDENTS AND TEACHERS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN AT WHITEWATER'S SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE

HON. TAMMY BALDWIN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Ms. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise today to recognize a talented group of students and teachers from Wisconsin whom I am proud to represent. From Les Paul to Boz Scaggs, Wisconsin has a long history of producing diverse musicians of international acclaim. Continuing this legacy, the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater's Symphonic Wind Ensemble always sets a high standard and soon it will set that standard on a much larger stage. On November 4–6, they will travel to England for the Royal Northern College of Music International Festival of Winds. The ensemble will perform at one of the most prestigious band conferences in the world.

In being invited to the festival, the ensemble will not only be representing Wisconsin but they will be the sole representative of the United States at the festival. The ensemble embodies the American values of hard work and dedication, which is a testament to their Director, Mr. Glenn Hayes. Fittingly, Wisconsin will recognize these students as Official Musical Ambassadors as they travel abroad.

While at the festival, they will receive the special privilege of instruction from faculty at the Royal Northern College. I applaud the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater's Symphonic Wind Ensemble for their accomplishments and for their contributions both to Wisconsin and the United States.

MARTIAL ARTS DAY

HON. HEATHER WILSON

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mrs. WILSON of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, the National Association of Professional Martial Artists, Project Action Foundation and martial arts schools in my community recently joined together to bring attention to martial arts and the positive benefits of martial arts training.

On this day of awareness, the martial arts schools hosted open houses to provide exposure and bring attention to the art. Martial arts has a reputation for introducing and reinforcing the values of self-discipline, focus, self-esteem, while enhancing non-violent conflict resolution, self-confidence, goal setting abilities and strength of character creating productive healthy people.

Mr. Speaker, for these reasons I ask you to join me in congratulating those in my home town of Albuquerque, New Mexico who participated in this successful celebration and commend them for the positive impact martial arts has on those who participate.

IN HONOR AND REMEMBRANCE OF ANN CHUDNER

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Ann Chudner, devoted wife, mother, champion of social and civil rights, and friend and mentor to countless.

Mrs. Chudner was born and raised in New York City where she became actively involved in social causes when she was a young employee at Macy's Department Store. While there, Mrs. Chudner joined the union movement and took part in the first major strike against the store. Her husband, Irving Chudner, was also involved in the union movement and became a union leader with Local 1250 at Ford's Brook Park plant. She moved to Cleveland with her husband, where their focus on their son, Rick, and their dedication to causes of social justice never diminished.

Mr. and Mrs. Chudner and their son, Rick, who has followed the activism path of his parents, direct their spirit of activism throughout the City of Cleveland and the West Park community. Mrs. Chudner became deeply involved in social issues ranging from fighting against corporate tax abatement to working toward educational and recreational opportunities for youth, to supporting numerous candidacies. Mr. and Mrs. Chudner were immersed in the mayoral candidacy of Carl Stokes, helping him to win the election as the first African American mayor of a major American city. She was instrumental in the success of the grassroots campaign to save Cleveland's municipal power company from takeover by the local monopoly private electric company when I was mayor of Cleveland. She was instrumental in working with Cleveland school officials to implement the Compu-Tech program, which introduced students to computers at a young age. Mrs. Chudner also rallied against the closings of West Tech and John Adams high schools, and was a steadfast leader in the West Park Community Council, a social action group whose membership climbed to 300 during her tenure.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in honor and remembrance of Mrs. Ann Chudner, whose fearless advocacy on behalf of the people of her community was framed by courage, heart and unwavering conviction in the philosophy that a unified group can affect real change. I offer my deepest condolences to her husband, Irving; to her son, Rick; and to her extended family and many friends. Her journey through life has made our world a better place, and her legacy will forever live on in the West Park community and miles beyond.

IN HONOR OF DORIS SEPTEN

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition and appreciation of Doris Septen, a dedicated employee and caring staff member of the Visiting Nurse Association of Central Jersey. It is with great admiration that I honor Doris today for her unwavering commitment to the VNA for the past 50 years.

Doris originally came to the association as a clerk for a fundraising consultant, the Foote System, in 1955. Since then, she has held such positions as receptionist, assistant supervisor and supervisor of the Foote Department, and senior clerk. Her warm, caring voice has greeted callers and reassured patients and their families for many years.

Through her hard work and devotion, Doris earned herself further promotions to communications operator, and customer service coordinator. Furthermore, Doris was named VNA of Central Jersey's first employee of the month in 2003. These accomplishments only further reiterate what a worthy, notable person Doris Septen is and how indispensable she has become to her organization.

Doris is a compassionate woman that is genuinely concerned with the well-being of those who rely on the VNACJ. She handles many tasks, such as tracking down nurses for patients, helping callers on the main switchboard, and facilitating the Monmouth County support staff council.

Mr. Speaker, I hope my colleagues will join me in recognizing Ms. Doris Septen for all she has done for the VNACJ community, and congratulate her on reaching the milestone of 50 years of service.

RECOGNIZING THE CAMBRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL ENVIRONMENTAL CLUB

HON. TAMMY BALDWIN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, November 1, 2005

Ms. BALDWIN. Mr. Speaker, for more than 10 years, the Cambridge High School Environmental Club has performed valuable community service. Their activities have ranged from collecting of old cell phones to be recycled to puppet shows that promote ecology lessons for children. The club's recent research at Custer State Park in the Badlands of South Dakota is a fine example of their desire to be active at both the local and national level. They are a diverse group of "active environmentalists" whose lives and goals are as varied as the projects that they have taken on. Living together for 14 days, the club worked as an environmental research team at Custer State Park. The club, using the advanced protocols of a professional research team, performed chemical tests and journaled about their research at night. These students have experienced a life lesson that is of far greater value than anything that could be read in a
