

has played and continues to play a vital role in shaping communities throughout New Jersey and the entire United States.

Several years ago, I had the distinct pleasure of traveling to Korea. While there I was able to meet with Korean government leaders, high-level U.S. military officials, and top Korean business executives. In addition, I shared a meal and conversed with troops from New Jersey's 5th Congressional District.

I was honored to take part in this informative diplomatic trip. The opportunity contributed to my understanding of what issues affect the economic, political, and military policies of Korea, and in turn, their impact on United States interests.

During the visit, I met with opposition party leader Chairman Choe, Korean cabinet members and members of the Korean Chamber of Commerce. We discussed enhancing the visibility of the important United States-Korea relationship and addressed the tensions in the region surrounding the North Korean nuclear issue. In addition, I was taken by the U.S. Army, led by General Leon Porte, Chief in Command of the United States Forces in Korea, to the Joint Security Area on the Korean Demilitarized Zone (DMZ).

Now more than ever there is a need to increase mutual understanding between the United States and Korea. The 2 countries have become increasingly important regional and global partners, as Korea has become a stronger advocate for democracy and a free-market economy. It is critical that the working relationship between the 2 countries flourish for years to come.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF DR.
LAWRENCE W. SCOTT

HON. DIANE E. WATSON

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Ms. WATSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to memorialize the life of a distinguished American, Dr. Lawrence "Bill" W. Scott, who passed away on December 20, 2005.

Throughout his illustrious life, Dr. Scott could claim many "firsts." In 1944, he was the first black student body president of Foshay Middle School. In 1947, he graduated with honors from Polytechnic High School, where he participated in track and field and also served as the first black student body president. In 1948, he attended the University of California at Berkeley and later became the student body "representative at large." After receiving his degree from Berkeley, in 1951, Dr. Scott was drafted into the U.S. Army and stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington, where he served for 2 years during the Korean War. He eventually attained the rank of Captain.

After his discharge from the Army, Dr. Scott enrolled in the pre-med program at the University of California at Los Angeles. In 1957, the then new UCLA School of Medicine accepted Dr. Scott as its first African American medical student. Upon graduation, Dr. Scott interned at Harbor General Hospital, ultimately specializing in obstetrics and gynecology. He subsequently opened 2 women's clinics in Los Angeles.

At the age of 52 and after 14 years of medical practice, Dr. Scott returned to law school and received his J.D. from Southwestern University School of Law in 1980. After passing the bar, he initially thought he would pursue missionary work; however, he worked as a forensic attorney and represented victims in malpractice suits.

Dr. Scott's achievements, honors, and awards are numerous. He was the first African American resident at Queen of Angeles Hospital in Los Angeles. At one time, he held the record for the most infants delivered at Cedars-Sinai Medical center. He also served on the Board of Governors of the UCLA Foundation in the mid 1980s.

His interest in people and his special affection for children were evident. He enjoyed sports and was an avid tennis player. He also loved music, from jazz to the classics. He will be remembered by many for his wonderful humor and his black book of jokes.

Dr. Scott is survived by his devoted wife of 8 years, Maria; his three children—Rebecca, Brian, and Onjale Scott; his sister, Darling Scott Herod; his brother, Paul Richard Scott; mother-in-law, Loretta Domer-Wilson; and other beloved family and friends.

Dr. Scott truly enjoyed this journey called life and lived it to its fullest.

PEACE CORPS DAY

HON. EDWARD R. ROYCE

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. ROYCE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of National Peace Corps Day, which was last Tuesday, February 28th.

In my travels to Africa, I have had the chance to meet with many Peace Corps volunteers. The commitment these men and women have shown is extremely impressive and is to be commended.

The work that Peace Corps volunteers have done to address the HIV/AIDS pandemic is invaluable. Volunteers have worked hard to carry out the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS relief, and are active in 9 of the 15 Emergency Plan countries.

Mr. Speaker, I have seen the valuable work the Peace Corps is doing in Africa, and throughout the world. It deserves our recognition and support. Under the leadership of Director Gaddi Vasquez, the Peace Corps is well poised to address the rapidly evolving challenges of the developing world.

HONORING HENRY TRAVIS
HOLMAN

HON. RON LEWIS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay public tribute to an exemplary public servant and citizen from my congressional district. Henry Travis Holman recently retired from Mammoth Cave National Park, drawing to a close a remarkable 32 year career with the National Park Service in Kentucky.

Mr. Holman began his career with the National Park Service in 1971 as a cave guide.

Two years later, he was appointed as a Park Technician for the Interpretation and Visitor Services Division. He was later reassigned to the Ranger Division, becoming a fully commissioned law enforcement officer for the National Park Service. In 1999, Mr. Holman was installed as Management Assistant for the Office of the Superintendent at Mammoth Cave National Park. In that capacity he skillfully coordinated all park projects, managed environmental compliance requirements, and developed important long-range planning initiatives. For his efforts, he received the 2003 National Park Service Honor Award for Superior Service, recognizing his many accomplishments as a top administrator.

Henry Holman's three decades of service significantly enhanced park operations and community relations at Mammoth Cave. His vast knowledge, work ethic, and attention to detail exemplify true professionalism, a legacy that will long endure among his colleagues and members of the public.

It is my great privilege to recognize Henry Holman today, before the entire U.S. House of Representatives, for his leadership and service. His unique achievements and dedication to the National Park Service mission make him an outstanding American worthy of our collective honor and appreciation.

HAPPY 45TH ANNIVERSARY TO THE PEACE CORPS

HON. SAM FARR

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. FARR. Mr. Speaker, the week of February 27 to March 3 is Peace Corps week and on March 1st we celebrated the 45th Anniversary of the founding of the Peace Corps. Over the last 45 years Peace Corps has become one of our nation's premier international assistance programs that has focused on helping communities and individuals help themselves.

I served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Medellin, Colombia in the mid-1960s and I can say definitively that it was a life changing experience. During my two years in Colombia, I learned that the most sustainable type of development was when locals were empowered to create their own development. I therefore worked on educating and assisting my Colombian colleagues, neighbors and friends on how to petition their local governments and make positive changes in their own lives.

In the years since I returned from Colombia thousands of Americans have served as Peace Corps Volunteers. Each of these volunteers has made a difference, large or small, in the lives of hundreds of people across the globe. Person-to-person relationships like those built by PCVs are key to greater understanding—greater American understanding of other cultures, and greater understanding of Americans by other cultures.

In this time of increasing tension between countries, now more than ever, we need programs like the Peace Corps. I urge my colleagues to support the President's FY 07 request for the Peace Corps at $337 million. We need to robustly fund Peace Corps so that during the next 45 years, Peace Corps Volunteers can continue to make a positive difference in countries all over the world.

I wish the Peace Corps a very happy 45th anniversary.

TRIBUTE TO BISHOP WALTER
EMILE BOGAN, SR.

HON. DALE E. KILDEE

OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. KILDEE. Mr. Speaker, I rise before you today with a heavy heart, as I ask my colleagues in the 109th Congress to join me in honoring the life and accomplishments of a dear friend of mine, Bishop Walter Emile Bogan, Sr. Bishop Bogan passed away at his residence on Sunday, January 8, at the age of 57. I am deeply saddened by this great loss, for Bishop Bogan was an inspiring and positive force for Genesee County, the State, and Nation. He was a true friend, and I shall miss him greatly.

Born to the union of Norma L. Bogan-Burrell and the late William Bogan in my hometown of Flint, Michigan, Walter Bogan attended and graduated from Flint Community Schools, and later went on to schools such as Saints Academy College in Lexington, MS, Moody Bible College in Chicago, and Moorhouse College in Atlanta. He also attended Flint's C.S. Mott Community College, and the University of Michigan-Flint. On July 25, 1980, he answered the Lord's call and succeeded his grandfather and mentor, Rev. Theodore Harris, as Pastor of Harris Memorial Church of God in Christ.

Over the years, Rev. Bogan became more than just a Pastor, but a spiritual leader whose guidance, vision, and commitment to spreading the Word of God helped make the Flint area a better place in which to live. Pastor Bogan constantly and selflessly gave of himself, hosting Christmas parties for neighborhood children and providing gifts for them all. In recent years, he would offer college scholarships for several young members of his congregation, in hopes of granting them opportunities they otherwise may not have had the chance to take.

In 2000, Pastor Bogan became Bishop Bogan, as he was appointed Chief Servant and Presiding Bishop of the Great Lakes Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of Michigan, Church of God In Christ. Bishop Bogan admirably balanced his new leadership duties with powerful sermons each Sunday, which for him was a labor of love.

Bishop Bogan leaves to cherish and carry on his legacy his beautiful and devoted wife of 35 years, Dianne, sons Walter and Eric, daughter-in-law Karleen, three grandchildren, and of course the many people whom he loved and loved him in return.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the House of Representatives to join me in offering condolences to the family of Bishop Bogan, and in thanking them for sharing him with our community. My message to his congregation is as follows:

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble in heart." [Matthew 11:29]

It takes a strong person to be meek, a strong person to be in charge of his passions and emotions.

Bishop Walter Emile Bogan was such a person. He was strong in his love of God. He was strong in his love of the Church. He was strong in his love of family. He was strong in his pursuit of justice. He was strong in his effort to eliminate injustice. And all this deep strength, he exercised humbly, as an instrument of God's Holy Will.

Because of Bishop Bogan's strength, anchored in humility and meekness, this community is a better community. This Church is a stronger representation of the Mystical Body of Christ. All of us here in this Church are better people because of that strength of faith and action of Bishop Walter Bogan.

The greatest tribute we can render to Bishop Bogan is to emulate his love, his dedication, his humility, and his Christ-centered strength.

Bishop Bogan, as a triumphant member of the Communion of Saints, please ask Almighty God to shower His Blessings upon us that we might use our strength to carry out God's Holy Will.

CHATTAHOOCHEE TRACE NA-TIONAL HERITAGE CORRIDOR STUDY ACT

HON. TERRY EVERETT

OF ALABAMA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. EVERETT. Mr. Speaker, today I am pleased to introduce the Chattahoochee Trace National Heritage Corridor Study Act, a bill that would direct the Secretary of the Interior to study the suitability and feasibility of establishing the Chattahoochee Trace National Heritage Corridor in Alabama and Georgia.

The Historic Chattahoochee Compact was signed into law in 1978, and it established the Historic Chattahoochee Commission to promote historic preservation and tourism in the Chattahoochee Valley. Since this time, the Historic Chattahoochee Commission has been involved in a heritage tourism program in eighteen Alabama and Georgia counties along the lower Chattahoochee River. Because of their exemplary work, the National Trust for Historic Preservation has cited the Historic Chattahoochee Commission as a national model for heritage corridor development.

The designation of this corridor is the final piece in the commission's development plan. It would enable them to initiate new and innovative projects to invigorate the economies of the member counties since they would be eligible to receive funding for publications and marketing for tourism, historic preservation, environmental education, outdoor recreation, and small business development. In addition to aiding historic preservation, this effort will also enhance economic development in this region.

I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting this important legislation.

HONORING COLONEL JAMES E.
BEAN

HON. RON LEWIS

OF KENTUCKY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, March 2, 2006

Mr. LEWIS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a remarkable soldier and citizen from my congressional district. Colonel James E. Bean, a longtime resident of Bardstown, Kentucky, passed away peacefully January 4th at age 82. Colonel Bean was a local hero, remembered for his athletic achievements as a young man and military heroism as a fighter pilot, flying combat missions in World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War.

Colonel Bean was born in 1923 on a farm at Cox's Creek, KY. He graduated from Bardstown High School in 1942. A football and basketball All Star, Colonel Bean was especially remembered for being the signal caller on offense and fullback of the legendary unbeaten 1941 Bardstown High School football team. He matriculated to the University of Kentucky on a football scholarship later that fall but cut short his collegiate career soon thereafter to join the U.S. Army Air Corps. He was called to active duty in early 1943, assigned to Foster Field, Texas as an Advanced Flying School inspector. He was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in January, 1944 and assigned to the European Theater, where he flew 41 combat missions in Germany and France.

Upon his return to the United States, Colonel Bean completed numerous assignments testing and flying Air Force fighter aircraft. He was assigned to Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada in 1960 to establish and operate the F-105 aircraft flight training program for all Air Force units. He later carried out assignments in Japan with the 8th Tactical Fighting Wing, completing several short tours in Southeast Asia, before returning to the United States to serve as an Air Force duty officer at the Pentagon. Colonel Bean volunteered and was assigned to the 388th Tactical Fighting Wing, Korat Royal Thai Air Base, Thailand, in October, 1967.

On January 3, 1968 while flying an F-105 combat mission over North Vietnam, his aircraft was shot down near Hanoi. Colonel Bean was captured by the North Vietnamese and held as a Prisoner of War until his release March 14, 1973.

James Bean retired from the United States Air Force as a Colonel in 1974. He returned to Kentucky, where he enjoyed a peaceful retirement with his wife until his death in January. He was a member of the Bardstown High School Hall of Fame, State President of Future Farmers of America, a Shriner, Mason, Kentucky Colonel, member of the American Legion, Kentucky Pork Producers, and communicant at the Bardstown Baptist Church.

James Bean's remarkable life is one of a true American hero. His distinguished service and unique sacrifice for his country represent the very best of what it means to be an American soldier. His achievements as a citizen, especially his unwavering dedication to his family and his community, are further marks of greatness worthy of our collective respect and appreciation. It is my great privilege to honor his memory today, before the entire U.S. House of Representatives. May he rest in peace.
