

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Tom Ogburn, Jr., Executive Professor of Management and Director of the Family Business Center at the Wake Forest University Babcock Graduate School of Management. Mr. Ogburn has dedicated his life to serving his community of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, and the students of Wake Forest MBA; and that is why I honor him today.

Tom began his long and distinguished career in the Marketing Research Department of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and eventually became the Director of Global Research and the Marketing Director of the international company. He then spent 8 years as RJR's Vice President of Public Issues. He is also a successful entrepreneur and a gifted professional sculptor.

In 1998, Tom joined the faculty of Wake Forest University and shortly thereafter became the Faculty Advisor of the Wake Forest MBA Case Competition, now known as the Wake Forest MBA Marketing Summit. Always quick to come up with exceptional creative ideas and never willing to settle for less than excellence, Tom challenged students to transform the event from a regional competition with a limited budget into the premiere nationally recognized event it is today. He has helped students form partnerships with an impressive list of corporate sponsors including Yahoo, Wachovia Wealth Management, EchoStar, Coca-Cola, GlaxoSmithKline, Lowe's and Heineken. He has also built and sustained relationships with some of the Nation's most outstanding marketing leaders.

Tom and his wife, Anita, have been married since 1966; and both are natives of Winston-Salem. She is currently the Executive Director of the city's Ronald McDonald House. The Ogburns have two sons, Tate and Allen, both graduates of Wake Forest MBA, and one granddaughter, Virginia.

February 9, 10 and 11 mark the 16th annual Wake Forest MBA Marketing Summit on the campus of Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Hundreds of MBA students, faculty members and marketing executives gathered at the summit; and I am proud that such an exceptional event took place in my district. This event would not be possible without the dedication and commitment of Mr. Tom Ogburn, Jr.

I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating Tom for his outstanding contributions to his community and to the students of Wake Forest MBA.
