

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN HONOR AND RECOGNITION OF
ANTHONY BRANCATELLI

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 17, 2006

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Anthony Brancatelli, Ward 12 Cleveland Councilman, as he is presented with Villa Montessori's prestigious Guardian Angel Award.

This award is given to a person who has been instrumental in the success of the Villa Montessori Center School. Mr. Brancatelli was the former chief executive of Slavic Village development and played a vital role in finding a space for the school and spearheaded its expansion during its 10 years of existence.

Mr. Brancatelli has always been a pioneer for community development, public safety and education. During his 17 years at the Slavic Village Community Development Corp., Mr. Brancatelli partnered with longtime councilman, Ed Rybka, to reshape and renew the neighborhood. He organized several block clubs on safety and housing issues, with community anchors such as Cleveland Central Catholic High School and with Third Federal Savings and Loan on major investments in the ward. He also brought forward a case to the Cleveland Housing Court in which they sued the owner of 110 severely neglected houses in a racially diverse, working-class neighborhood, since then it has developed into a respectable living area. Mr. Brancatelli was also the executive director of the Broadway Housing area housing coalition, which had renovated over four hundred houses. Under his leadership it was the largest number of renovations done by any community development corporation in Cleveland.

Mr. Speaker and Colleagues, please join me in recognition of Anthony Brancatelli as he rightfully receives the Guardian Angel Award. Mr. Brancatelli's perseverance, dedication, and compassion to the Slavic Village have made him a patriarch and champion for all people in the city of Cleveland.

DENTON REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER HONORED AS TOP-RANKED PLACE TO WORK IN DFW

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 17, 2006

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Denton Regional Medical Center in my congressional district for being named "Top-Ranked Best Places to Work" in the Dallas Fort Worth Metroplex by the Dallas Business Journal.

Nearly 200 companies entered the competition that began in January of 2006. Denton Regional Medical Center, where I used to work, received the distinction for businesses with over 500 employees.

Denton Regional Medical Center is renowned for maintaining a warm and inviting environment despite the fact that the full-service hospital has doubled its size in the last 5 years. The family atmosphere has been a hallmark of the institution for its beginnings.

The hospital promotes from within, offers scholarship loans and tuition reimbursement, ongoing education programs for employees and participates in community service projects such as Meals on Wheels and Habitat for Humanity, where about 200 employees contributed more than 1,700 volunteer hours to build a house last year.

Hospitals can be overwhelming places to work not only for the sheer number of hours that individuals give in time of service, but also the unusually high emotional stress associated with hospital positions. In 2005, Denton Regional Medical Center recorded 9,046 admissions and 42,131 emergency room visits. But hospital executives work diligently encouraging open dialogue by inviting managers and administrators to hold advisory group meetings. Hospital Chief Executive Bob Haley also conducts town hall meetings each quarter to which all employees are invited to attend and ask questions.

Today, I congratulate Denton Regional Medical Center for its service to the community and its commitment to providing a positive work environment for its dedicated medical and administrative staff. I am honored to have worked at Denton Regional Medical Center and to know represent its staff, my constituents, in Congress.

CONGRATULATING TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL FOR 100 YEARS OF SERVICE

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 17, 2006

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Temple Beth Israel in Hazleton, Pennsylvania, on the occasion of its 100th anniversary.

In 1895, the Jews living in Hazleton organized an orthodox congregation. But, even at that time there was a desire among some of the members to establish a congregation that favored reform practices.

In the fall, of 1906, a small group was able to engage the services of Rabbi Block who conducted High Holiday services which they believed were more in keeping with the modern American conditions of the time.

Late in September 1906, 23 men met to organize a reform congregation that would be called Beth Israel, or "House of Israel." Soon, Temple Beth Israel joined the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Over the years, the congregation has followed the path of the city of Hazleton with a combination of good times and hard times. Throughout its history, Temple Beth Israel has contributed to the city's business and civic leaders, distinguished doctors and lawyers.

Temple Beth Israel has been a good neighbor and a helpful ally. The congregation has survived for 100 years and stands ready for the next 100 years.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating Temple Beth Israel and all its members on the happy occasion of their 100th anniversary. Congregations like Temple Beth Israel form the solid foundations every community needs for moral guidance and human development. It is a proud day for Temple Beth Israel and we share in the congregation's exuberance.

TRIBUTE TO MARIN YOUTH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

HON. LYNN C. WOOLSEY

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, May 17, 2006

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Marin Youth Symphony Orchestra (MSYO) on the occasion of its 50th anniversary. Over the past half century, the orchestra has provided the opportunity for over 3,000 talented young musicians to learn and perform classic symphonic orchestral music.

This was made possible by brilliant conductors such as founder Maestro Hugo Rinaldi who led the MSYO from its inception in the fall of 1954 until 1989 while the group enjoyed residence at Dominican College. Under his leadership the MSYO grew to become an integral part of the arts community in Marin County collaborating with the Marin Ballet, Marin Girl's Chorus, Marin Opera, Marin Theater Company, Marin Youth-In-Arts and numerous other organizations. He also toured the MSYO to Italy, Austria, and Australia, a unique experience for the young musicians.

Upon Hugo Rinaldi's retirement, Leslie Stewart led the group for seven seasons, adding scholarships and a chamber program. Dr. Anthony Adessa developed the orchestra further until 2001, when current conductor George Thomson took over the baton. Thompson moved MSYO to its current home with the College of Marin.

Under Maestro Thomson's leadership the orchestra has developed an extraordinary opportunity for soloists, and ensemble players to experiment with innovative repertoire. He continues to provide gifted young people with an opportunity to benefit from his professional coaching and intimate knowledge of classical literature, allowing for participation in performing rich and rewarding orchestral music.

The MSYO has provided valuable training for a number of students who have continued their musical careers into the uppermost heights of musical accomplishment. Alumni include Joe Alessi, Principal Trombone of the New York Philharmonic; Mark Isham,
