

changed the city of Tall Afar from a ghost town, in which terrorists spread death and destruction, to a secure city flourishing with life.

To the lion-hearted who liberated our city from the grasp of terrorists who were beheading men, women and children in the streets for many months, to those who spread smiles on the faces of our children, and gave us restored hope, through their personal sacrifice and brave fighting, and gave new life to the city after hopelessness darkened our days, and stole our confidence in our ability to reestablish our city.

Our city was the main base of operations for Abu Mousab Al zarqa wi. The city was completely held hostage in the hands of his henchmen. Our schools, governmental services, businesses and offices were closed. Our streets were silent, and no one dared to walk them. Our people were barricaded in their homes out of fear; death awaited them around every corner, terrorists occupied and controlled the only hospital in the city. Their savagery reached such a level that they stuffed the corpses of children with explosives and tossed them into the streets in order to kill grieving parents attempting to retrieve the bodies of their young. This was the situation of our city until God prepared and delivered unto them the courageous soldiers of the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment, who liberated this city, ridding it of Zarqawi's followers after harsh fighting, killing many terrorists, and forcing the remaining butchers to flee the city like rats to the surrounding areas, where the bravery of other 3rd ACR soldiers in Sinjar, Rabiaft, Zumar and Avgani finally destroyed them.

I have met many soldiers of the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment; they are not only courageous men and women, but avenging angels sent by the God himself to fight the evil of terrorism.

The leaders of this regiment; COL McMaster, COL Armstrong, LTC Hickey, LTC Gibson, and LTC Reilly embody courage, strength, vision and wisdom. Officers and soldiers alike bristle with the confidence and character of knights in a bygone era. The mission they have accomplished, by means of a unique military operation, stands among the finest military feats to date in Operation Iraqi Freedom, and truly deserves to be studied in military science. This military operation was clean, with little collateral damage, despite the ferocity of the enemy. With the skill and precision of surgeons they dealt with the terrorist cancers in the city without causing unnecessary damage!

God bless this brave regiment; God bless the families who dedicated these brave men and women. From the bottom of our hearts we thank the families. They have given us something we will never forget. To the families of those who have given their holy blood for our land, we all bow to you in reverence and to the souls of your loved ones. Their sacrifice was not in vain. They are not dead, but alive, and their souls hovering around us every second of every minute. They will never be forgotten for giving their precious lives. They have sacrificed that which is most valuable. We see them in the smile of every child, and in every flower growing in this land. Let America, their families, and the world be proud of their sacrifice for humanity and life.

Finally, no matter how much I write or speak about this brave regiment, I haven't the words to describe the courage of its officers and soldiers. I pray to God to grant happiness and health to these legendary heroes and their brave families.

Mr. Speaker, as you have just heard, the mayor of Tall Afar exhibited personal courage in daring to speak out in support of American troops.

I recently read in the papers of a horrific homicide bomber who attacked a police recruitment station in Tall Afar.

The terrorist killed more than 20 Iraqis, and there is no doubt in my mind that this attack was motivated in part by the outspoken support for the American 3rd Armored Cavalry regiment by the mayor.

My constituent Roger Hattersley and I spoke about his son and his service in Iraq. He told me that like so many of the young men and women serving there, his son is totally committed to the cause of freedom and liberty in this far away land.

It is heartwarming for me to read the words of mayor Al-Jibouri. It is clear that he is willing to put his life on the line to recognize the commitment and bravery of our men and women in uniform.

While you will probably never hear about the courage of mayor Al-Jibouri on the evening news or in your local newspaper, I wanted to take this opportunity tonight to make sure that the mayor received recognition for his outspokenness and honesty.

Mr. Speaker, once again I would like to say how much I support the mission and work of our troops, especially the 3rd Armored Cavalry regiment.

HONORING JUANA SEQUEIRA SOLIS ON HER 80TH BIRTHDAY

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 6, 2006

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I rise tonight to honor my mother, Juana Sequeira Solis, who celebrated her 80th birthday yesterday.

My mom was born in Jinotega, Nicaragua, on June 5, 1928, to Ramon Sequeira Arauz and Lucia Diaz Moeller. As a young child, she faced many obstacles due to the death of her father Ramon. At the age of 17, she immigrated to the United States and resided for a time in New Orleans, LA. After a few years, she moved to Los Angeles, CA, where she met her husband Raul Sanchez Solis. They married in 1953, and had 7 children, which led to 10 grandchildren, and 7 great-grandchildren. While raising her children in La Puente, CA, she took classes to improve her English and culinary skills. In addition, she was active in the PTA at the schools attended by her children.

When the youngest of her children turned 5, my mom began work at Mattel Inc. After 22 years of service, Juana retired from her job as an assembler. Although she had a double shift, working full-time and raising a large family along with her husband, she never regretted the sacrifices she made to maintain family cohesion, which has been a major driving force in her life.

Throughout her life, my mom made every effort to instill strong values in her children, including a strong work ethic and the ability to overcome adversity. Her life demonstrates that people can rise above unfortunate circumstances and humble beginnings. She has proven this by her charity work with the elderly residents of her neighborhood and others in need. The abundance of compassion and love that she has to offer to others has been unrestricted throughout her life and she has modeled qualities that have been inculcated in everyone she comes in contact with.
