

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, there seems to be something missing from the debate today. It is like the elephant in the room, no one wants to talk about it. Whatever happens to the United States' own commitment to nonproliferation?

Yesterday, I went before the Rules Committee, and I had an amendment that was quite simple. It stated that until the President has implemented and observed all of our NPT obligations and revised its own policies relating to them, no item may be transferred to India, including exports of nuclear and nuclear-related material, equipment or technology. Unfortunately, my amendment was not included in this restrictive rule.

As many of my colleagues have stated, this objection is not about the deal or our alliance with India. This is about how the Bush administration has made a mockery of the NPT and encouraged other countries to go around the treaty. Basically, the bill says that if a country ignores the NPT, the United States will cut a deal down the road.

If anything, the U.S. is contributing to global nuclear proliferation with this agreement.

Vote against the rule because in a world that is becoming more, not less, violent by the day we must face the facts. Until the United States lives up to its nonproliferation obligations, how can we possibly ask others to do so?

Today, I will vote against this misguided bill. I will vote against the rule. I urge my colleagues to do the same.

Mr. BISHOP of Utah. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Just to illustrate what the Rules Committee actually did do, there were 10 amendments that were proposed to the Rules Committee, one withdrawn, two not germane. The one recently referred to was ruled not germane because it referred to all NPTs, not specifically this particular one. Of the seven that were remaining, six were actually made in order.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, without further closing, in light of the fact that I have already, I yield back the balance of our time.

Mr. BISHOP of Utah. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate my good friend, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. HASTINGS), and his presentation. I am very proud that I was able to go through this entire discussion and I hope to say "nuclear" correctly. It was the biggest fear I had.

I support the rule; I urge all those to support this rule and the consideration for H.R. 5682.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back my time and I move the previous question on the resolution.

The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. KLINE). The question is on the resolution.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. BISHOP of Utah. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, further proceedings on this question will be postponed.
