

RECOGNIZING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF STEPHEN BARROUK AS HE LEAVES THE WILKES-BARRE CHAMBER OF BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to ask you and my esteemed colleagues in the House of Representatives to pay tribute to Mr. Stephen Barrouk, of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, who has served as president and chief executive officer of the Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Business and Industry from 1989 until earlier this month.

Mr. Barrouk's extraordinary leadership has helped guide and forge the beginning of a truly remarkable revitalization of the City of Wilkes-Barre.

Since 1989, Mr. Barrouk has led the growth of the Chamber from 500 members to 1,338 members in 2005. He has been at the forefront of a litany of catalytic projects that have transformed the region. Those projects include the Wachovia Arena, an entertainment venue that has spawned tens of millions of dollars of commercial expansion and created hundreds of new jobs. An innovation center was carved out of a vacant department store complex in central city to nurture fledgling businesses. Public Square Commons, formerly the Pomeroy's Department Store, was completely renovated to provide first class office space. Also during his tenure, Mr. Barrouk secured an American Hockey League franchise and recruited the Penguins as an anchor tenant for the Wachovia Arena.

In addition, Mr. Barrouk helped launch a 14-screen downtown theater complex as well as studies for the Susquehanna Riverfront Convention Center and Hotel and the Riverfront Museum.

Mr. Barrouk also led the way for the development of two business parks, Hanover Crossings and the East Mountain Corporate Center, both of which have major tenants responsible for creating hundreds of jobs.

During his tenure he managed three capital campaigns that raised over $10 million to support 15 years of economic development marketing that attracted over 125 new companies to the region. He also led the effort to create Penn's Northeast, Inc., a regional marketing organization; the Diamond City Partnership and Downtown Business Association, the Great Valley Technology Alliance and the Luzern County Convention Center Authority which manages the Arena.

Mr. Barrouk has been the worthy recipient of numerous service awards, among them the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Boy Scouts of America; the Distinguished Leader Award from Leadership Wilkes-Barre; a 25 Year Leadership Star Award from Leadership Wilkes-Barre, a Special Achievement Award from the Pennsylvania Ben Franklin Partnership and, in 2001, he received the Chamber of the Year award from the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business and Industry and the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce executives in 2001.

Mr. Barrouk serves on the boards of directors of numerous organizations including 10,000 Friends of Pennsylvania, Chairman of Steering Committee for the Renew Pennsylvania effort; NEPA Alliance; Luzerne-Schuylkill Counties Work Force Investment Board; Great Valley Technology Alliance; Joint Urban Studies Center, Earth Conservancy, United Way of Wyoming Valley, Catholic Social Services and the Diamond City Partnership.

On a personal note, I have worked closely with Steve on many projects over the last 17 years. There is no economic development official who is more dedicated to improving the quality of life in our area. His perseverance, hard work and integrity made him one of the most effective leaders in our area. I am proud to call him a friend and look forward to continuing working with him to help northeastern Pennsylvania for many years to come.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in congratulating Mr. Barrouk for the exemplary community service he has contributed over the past 17 years. His commitment to revitalizing the Wilkes-Barre area has been responsible for a wealth of community improvements that have greatly enhanced the quality of life in northeastern Pennsylvania.

IN RECOGNITION OF CAPTAIN
MICHAEL R. WOMACK

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend Captain Michael R. Womack, of North Richland Hills, Texas on his years of dedicated service and commitment to law enforcement.

Captain Womack joined the North Richland Hills Police Department as a police officer in September of 1976. During his thirty years of service to North Richland Hills, Captain Womack has been awarded the Patrolman of the Year Award, the Supervisor of the Year award, as well as three Meritorious Service Awards and a Life Saving Award.

On Wednesday, January 31, 2007, Captain Womack will be retiring from law enforcement. Having worked in the Patrol Division, the Administrative Services Division, as well as the Technical Services Division and Investigative Services Division, Captain Womack's tenure, skills, and experience will surely be difficult to replace.

Mr. Speaker, I commend Captain Womack on his devotion to the service and protection to his community. His contributions and commitment to North Richland Hills should inspire us all. I wish him the best of luck in his retirement and all of his future endeavors.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN
COMMEMORATIVE COIN ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. JERRY F. COSTELLO

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 6, 2006

Mr. COSTELLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of H.R. 2808, a bill that directs the Treasury Department to mint 500,000 one-dollar coins marking Abraham Lincoln's 200th birthday. Abraham Lincoln is a true American hero who will always be remembered for his commitment to the ideals of freedom, democracy, and equal opportunity. Illinois, known as the Land of Lincoln, is where Lincoln lived for many years and began his political career. Today, many historical sites in Illinois are dedicated in honor of Lincoln and his legacy. Illinois will be a focal point for activities to celebrate the 200th anniversary of Lincoln's birth.

Besides being a noble tribute, this commemorative coin will help provide significant funding for the bicentennial and is an important part of how the United States will mark Lincoln's 200th birthday in 2009.

I urge my colleagues to support the bill.

IN RECOGNITION OF BROOKLYN
CENTER JUNIOR/SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL IN BROOKLYN CENTER,
MINNESOTA

HON. BETTY McCOLLUM

OF MINNESOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Ms. McCOLLUM of Minnesota. Mr. Speaker, last evening I had the great pleasure to join in a celebration in honor of our Nation's high schools that have made an outstanding commitment to music education. As a strong supporter of the arts and music education, it was a pleasure to sit among music industry supporters, arts advocates, individuals in the private sector, and corporate sponsors such as 7UP, who work every day to ensure that young people have access to strong music education programs.

It was an even greater privilege to be part of a celebration where a Minnesota high school headlined the event. Brooklyn Center Junior/Senior High School, located in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, received one of the Foundation's highest honors—the GRAMMY Foundation's Signature Schools Enterprise Award, which honors those schools that make great efforts to bring music to economically underserved students. I'd like to extend a warm congratulations to Ms. Chris Porter, Brooklyn Center High School's music teacher and all of her students, including Chanel Chatham, who both traveled to DC to participate in last evening's special event.

As budgets for the arts and arts education continues to dramatically decline, I applaud the efforts of the thousands of teachers and students across the country who are working to piece together the critical funding needed to strengthen, and sometimes simply sustain, their music education programs. It is my hope that the federal government will recommit its resources to the arts and arts education—especially since we know that there are strong correlations between arts education and achievement in math and science. Our nation's ability to compete in an increasingly competitive world will depend on not only strong math and science preparation—but also on an emphasis in the arts and in music education. As a member of the House Education and the Workforce Committee, I will continue to fight for a well-rounded education for all students.

I commend the hard work and dedication of the students and staff at Brooklyn Center Junior/Senior High School. Thank you for the opportunity to join you in your celebration. I look forward to hearing more about your continued success in bringing the joys and benefits of music to students!

RECOGNIZING DIALOGUE ON DIVERSITY'S 2006 HEALTH CARE SYMPOSIUM

HON. HILDA L. SOLIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Ms. SOLIS. Mr. Speaker, as Democratic Co-Chair of the Congressional Caucus for Women's Issues, I rise today to congratulate Dialogue on Diversity for its 2006 Health Care Symposium. I am proud to recognize the Dialogue's effort to inform and educate the public about the importance of an effective preventive health care system.

Dialogue on Diversity, founded in 1989, is committed to improving the economic and social condition of women in the U.S. and around the world. Its programs bring together multi-ethnic women for a worldwide interchange on concerns of vital importance to the world's women and their families.

Today, our health care system is not meeting the needs of all people, particularly in racial and ethnic minority communities where health disparities continue to grow. Discussions and symposiums like Dialogue on Diversity's 2006 Health Care Symposium will help to address these important issues.

Again, I want to commend the Dialogue on Diversity for its 2006 health care event and wish them the best of luck in the future.

IN RECOGNITION OF ED TEMPLETON, NEWLY ELECTED BOARD MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

HON. CHARLIE NORWOOD

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. NORWOOD. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise today to recognize Ed Templeton, the President of SRP Federal Credit Union, on his recent election to the Board of Directors of the National Association of Federal Credit Unions, NAFCU.

For the past 34 years, Ed has dedicated his life on behalf of improving financial institutions in America and currently serves on the South Carolina Credit Union League Board of Directors. His illustrious experience further includes service as President of the Columbia Chapter of Credit Unions, member of NAFCU's Education Committee, and member of the Better Business Bureau of Augusta, Georgia.

As the President of SRP Federal Credit Union, Ed has focused on ensuring his members receive helpful, personal service. Through his credit union, Ed is continuously educating his members on how to prevent identity theft. He also understands that today's youth must be armed with the knowledge to be financially savvy. SRP Federal Credit Union established the "Teaching Kids How to Handle Money Responsibly" program which was designed to help children at an early age develop the decision making skills for sound future financial decisions.

Ed's involvement to improve the lives of others can be further illustrated through his involvement as a Member of the Board of Directors for the Shepard Blood Center in Augusta, and in his past service as Elected Commissioner for the City of Hephzibah.

It is because of the good work of Ed and others like him that the credit union movement enjoys the success it has today. Such service is the hallmark of the credit union movement and I wish Ed the best of luck in his new role as a member of the NAFCU Board of Directors.

THE YOUTHBUILD TRANSFER ACT

HON. MAXINE WATERS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Ms. WATERS. Mr. Speaker. I rise in strong support of the YouthBuild Transfer Act, S. 3534. The bill amends the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 provides for the transfer of the YouthBuild program from HUD to the Department of Labor. I would like to acknowledge Mr. CASTLE, Mr. GEORGE MILLER, Mr. WILLIAM LACY CLAY and Mr. DALE KILDEE who supported this bill. I also want to thank Mr. FRANK, Ranking Member of the Committee on Financial Services for sponsoring the bill.

The YouthBuild Transfer Act will do four important things. It will:

(1) Enable disadvantaged youth to obtain the education and employment skills necessary to achieve economic self-sufficiency in occupations in demand and postsecondary education and training opportunities;

(2) Provide disadvantaged youth with opportunities for meaningful work and service to their communities;

(3) Foster the development of employment and leadership skills and commitment to community development among youth in low income communities; and

(4) Expand the supply of permanent affordable housing for low-income families by utilizing the energies and talents of disadvantaged youth.

The education, employment, and housing needs of our nation's most vulnerable youth must be one of our highest priorities. Since 1994, the YouthBuild program has awarded $485 million in grants, enabling 47,000 youth to obtain education, training and trade skills related to the building and rehabilitation of affordable housing for low-income families and the homeless. The program has a long track record of proven success, although for the past two years funding has been down 23 percent from $65 million to $50 million. YouthBuild would be extended for five years consistent with other Work Investment Act programs, and would provide for greater flexibility in the use of funds. This program is being extended just as the U.S. Bureau of Census released the most recent data on youth and poverty in the United States.

In August 2006, the U.S. Bureau of the Census reported that the poverty rate for children in the U.S was higher than the rates for people 18 to 64 years and older. Children represent 34.9 percent of the people living in poverty and 25 percent of the total population of the United States. The poverty rate for young children under the age of 6 living in families were 20.0 percent and 4.8 million. Even more astounding is that for those children living in households headed by females 52.9 percent were in poverty, over five times the rate of their counterparts in married families 9.9 percent. For children under 18 living in families headed by females, 42.8 percent were in poverty, compared with 8.5 percent for married couples. Many of us know that these youth are most at risk, and that any public policy or program that is designed to assist these young people as they prepare to enter the workforce is an investment in our future.

So why YouthBuild? The poverty data paints a very vivid picture of what is going on in America. Too many American youth live in poverty, and are robbed of opportunities to take full advantage of all their God-given talents. Even Alan Greenspan, the former Chairman of the Federal Reserve System, pointed to the fact that the historic causes of poverty and disenfranchisement detrimentally impact our entire nation. When the least among us do well, we know the entire nation benefits. In effect, these youth, who are vital to the economic well-being of this country, are handicapped by poverty, poor education and the lack of strong viable communities with housing that is livable, affordable and safe. YouthBuild is one program that acknowledges the experience of millions of American youth by making real investments in their education, employment skills and leadership development. It also provides housing for the homeless and low-income families that represents another approach to address what is an overlooked group.

The Secretary of Labor is authorized to fund YouthBuild activities through grants for which public and nonprofit entities can compete. In addition, there are provisions in the bill to ensure the orderly transition of the program from HUD to the Department of Labor. In 2005, 14,000 youth were turned away from the YouthBuild program for lack of funding. Over 1000 communities would like to participate in YouthBuild, and this bill will make that happen for many of them.

Mr. Speaker I am convinced that the YouthBuild program represents a major step to refocusing our national resources toward a well-established vehicle that can provide hope and opportunity for disadvantaged youth in America. These young people deserve every chance, and we must continue to provide opportunities for them to succeed. By better preparing our disadvantaged youth to be competitive and to function in the ever changing global economy we will continue to reduce poverty and strengthen American households. YouthBuild will improve our youth and increase housing opportunity for the homeless. I urge my Colleagues to support the bill.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF BRIDGET MASIELLO

HON. BRIAN HIGGINS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. HIGGINS. Mr. Speaker, it is my distinct honor to remember the life of a proud
