and their three children. Aside from spending time with his family, in his spare time, Dr. Patheja has always enjoyed golfing and photography.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues join me in commending the Asian-American Medical Association, as well as this year’s Crystal Globe Award recipient, Surjit S. Patheja, M.D., for their outstanding contributions to medicine and to the community. Their unwavering commitment to improving the quality of life for the people of Northwest Indiana and throughout the world is truly inspirational. For these reasons, they are to be praised, and I am proud to serve as their Representative in Washington, DC.

IN MEMORY OF MAJOR GENERAL KATHRYN G. FROST

HON. IKE SKELETON
OF MISSOURI
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. SKELETON. Mr. Speaker, it is with deep sadness that I inform the House of the death of Major General Kathryn G. Frost.

General Frost was an inspiration to many people. She was the wife of The Honorable Martin Frost, she was a sister, an aunt, a friend to the military, and a hero to many. General Frost consistently urged joint service officers and enlisted persons to be the very best they can be and worked hard to transfer her commitment to service to the soldiers with whom she came in contact.

Her distinguished career spanned three decades, and her duties included tours as Chief, Military Personnel Office/Deputy Adjutant General, Berlin Brigade/United States Army, Berlin, Germany; Commander, Eastern Sector, United States Military Entrance Processing Command, Great Lakes, Illinois; Adjutant General/Commanding General, Physical Disability Agency/Executive Director of Military Postal Service Agency, Alexandria, Virginia; and Deputy Legislative Assistant to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Washington, DC.

General Frost’s awards and decorations include the Distinguished Service Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters, Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 6 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal, and Joint Chiefs of Staff Identification Badge. She also was named one of USC’s Distinguished Alumni in 2002.

Mr. Speaker, Major General Kathy Frost was a respected leader who will be greatly missed by her family, her friends, and her colleagues. She and her husband were dear friends of mine and I know the members of the House will join me in extending heartfelt condolences to Major General Kathy Frost’s family.

HONORING THE 60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JOHNSON-PHELPS ALL AMERICAN VFW POST #5220

HON. DANIEL LIPINSKI
OF ILLINOIS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. LIPINSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the 60th anniversary of the Johnson-Phepsh All American VFW Post #5220 in Oak Lawn, IL. Since its establishment, Post #5220 has enriched the lives of its members and faithfully served the community. Today, Post #5220, under the guidance of Commander Joseph Stachon, has over 600 members and is one of the most active VFW Posts in the Chicagoland area.

Area veterans, returning from the Second World War, formed the Johnson-Phepsh VFW Post between 1944 and 1945 and received a formal charter in 1946. Initially, members gathered at the Oak Lawn Public Library and later held functions at Brandt’s Dug-Out. In 1951, the Post moved into its current location at 52nd and Yourell Drive.

Throughout its history, Post #5220 has successfully brought veterans of all ages and backgrounds together. Members of the Post and its Ladies Auxiliary have a strong reputation for participating in community service events, performing volunteer work at hospitals, and spearheading donation drives and fundraisers for charity. Through the work of its members, the Post continues to make a difference in the lives of countless individuals and has a tremendous impact on the surrounding community.

It is my great honor to recognize the 60th anniversary of the Johnson-Phepsh All American VFW Post #5220 and commend the outstanding work of its members. As we celebrate the members’ accomplishments today, we also thank them for their dedicated service in defending everything that our great Nation represents. Our society is forever indebted to our Nation’s veterans for their unyielding bravery, courage, and perseverance.

TRIBUTE TO ARTHUR T. Dotson

HON. MAURICE D. HINCHEY
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. HINCHEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and memory of an inspiring man and longtime constituent, Professor Arch T. Dotson.

Arch Dotson was named Chair of the Department of Philosophy at Bard College in 1961 and served there for 34 years, during which he had an immeasurable impact on the campus and its students. In 1969, 18 years after arriving in Ithaca, Prof. Dotson was named Chair of the Department of Government. In 1979 he became founding Director of the Cornell Institute for Public Affairs. And in 1984 undertook the name of Cornell Abroad. From 1991 to 1996 he served as Director of the Cornell Institute for Public Affairs. During this time, he also consulted internationally, helping India with regional development, assisting with the opening of a College of Public Administration in the Philippines, and working for the United Nations.

Professor Dotson had a tremendous impact on all whose lives he touched. The Cornell in Washington and Cornell Abroad programs are now cornerstones of the Cornell experience, with over 1,000 students participating in them each year. A former student says, “He deeply loved all of his students . . . he encouraged us to recognize within ourselves the ability to succeed even if the odds seemed stacked against us.” Dedicated to public service, Arch truly believed that everyone, no matter their roots or circumstances, could make an impact on the world they lived in.

Professor Dotson serves as a model for what we all may aspire to become. I am honored to pay tribute to him today, and send my thoughts and prayers to the family and friends of this inspiring figure.

TRIBUTE TO SAYKLLY’S CONFECTIONARY AND GIFTS

HON. BART STUPAK
OF MICHIGAN
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, November 13, 2006

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a business and a family in my district that, in many ways, exemplify the American dream. The Sayklly’s family business has been in the same family for 100 years. Through hard work, perseverance and an admirable entrepreneurial spirit, this family has built an Upper Peninsula institution.

In 1906, a young Lebanese immigrant named Joseph Sayklly opened his own shop in Escanaba, Michigan. The shop, “Sayklly’s,” carried groceries and homemade candy and ice cream. Eventually, that little store would blossom into a thriving landmark, recognized throughout the Escanaba area. In 1916, Joseph married his wife, Mary, who was also a Lebanese immigrant. Together, Joseph and Mary would have nine children—Josephine, Marge, Angelina, Louise, Elizabeth, Marie, Martha Jean, Fred and Edward. All of the children helped in the business and all of them lived in a small apartment above the store.

Over the years, Sayklly’s grew in popularity. Local residents in Escanaba would stop by the store to take home a bag of Sayklly’s famous hand-pulled taffy, hand-dipped chocolates, peanut-pulled taffy, hand-dipped chocolates, peanut clusters and fudge. Many of these same delights are sold in the store to this day.

When Joseph Sayklly passed away in 1943, Mary maintained the business with the help of her children and Mary’s sister Martha Jean. In November 13, 2006 CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — Extensions of Remarks E1997
1959, Fred moved the candy-making part of the business to Third Avenue North from its original Ludington Street location. Fred also separated the store Sayklly’s from the candy production facility.

Shortly thereafter, Marge and Josephine began operating the store, then known as “Sayklly’s Confectionery and Gift.” Around 1960, Sayklly’s stopped selling groceries and concentrated on selling the candies and gift items for which the store has since become so famous.

In 1959, Fred moved the candy-making part of the business to Third Avenue North from its original Ludington Street location. Fred also separated the store Sayklly’s from the candy production facility. Operating Sayklly’s was a homecoming for Debbie who began working in the store at age 12 when her aunts, Marge and Josephine were the proprietors. Today, Debbie fondly recalls how her Aunt Marge instilled into her a sense of customer service, always reminding Debbie to put a smile on her face for customers by saying, “Smile, God loves you.”

Today, Sayklly’s remains in the same family that started it 100 years ago. Since the entering Joseph Sayklly opened the store in 1906, it has been a mainstay in downtown Escanaba. The store continues to be an institution for everyone who lives in Escanaba and throughout the Upper Peninsula. Locals and visitors alike delight in Sayklly’s famous chocolates.

Sayklly’s has grown over the years. The business now employs 28 people year round and that number increases when extra help is needed during busy sale times such as Christmas, Valentine’s Day and Easter. In addition to renovating the store on Ludington Street in Escanaba, the Kirbys have opened Sayklly’s outlets in the Delta Plaza Mall in Escanaba as well as the Westwood Mall in Marquette, Michigan.

However, just as the business has grown over the years, the owners have never forgotten their commitment to quality. Sayklly’s uses only premium ingredients, still heats candy in big copper kettles and hand-dips all of its chocolates.

Sayklly’s remains an anchor of the Escanaba community. As Debbie Kirby notes, what she enjoys most about owning and operating Sayklly’s are her customers. Generations of families have gathered at Sayklly’s to buy treats, visit with their neighbors or simply see a friendly Sayklly face.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to admit that I too have been bitten by the Sayklly chocolate bug. Over my 14 years in Congress, I have handed out hundreds of Sayklly chocolate bars, known as “Yooper Bars” in Michigan. D.C. A “Yooper Bar” is a chocolate bar in the shape of Michigan’s Upper Peninsula. Everybody knows about the Yooper Bar because they are delicious. They are a perfect combination of chocolate and peanut butter. The bars are popular with politicians and policy makers alike. They are a great way to show your support for SAYKLLY’S in a special place that is enjoyed by so many of your constituents.

Mr. VISCOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great honor and enthusiasm that I recognize the Holy Trinity Hungarian Church in East Chicago, Indiana, for its 100th anniversary. The festivities began on Sunday, October 22, 2006, with Holy Mass, and were followed by a jubilee dinner at Casa Maria Banquet Hall in Dyer, Indiana, to celebrate this exceptional milestone.

Around the turn of 1927, a century, the Hungarian neighborhood in East Chicago, Indiana, was centered around family, religion, and a yearning for a church of their own. On July 4, 1904, a group met in the home of Stephen Farkas on Alexander Avenue to share ideas for beginning what is now the Holy Trinity Hungarian Church. On November 11, 1906, the cornerstone was laid for the first church building, which was followed by its dedication on the feast of the Holy Trinity in 1907. On Christmas Eve 1917, the first Hungarian parish priest arrived, Father Oscar Szilagyi. Though his tenure was short-lived due to the regulations of the Religious Order, Father Szilagyi has the distinction of performing Holy Trinity’s first marriage, baptism, and funeral. Though this church building, which was eventually destroyed by fire, the parishioners and their spiritual leaders forged on. Through their faith, hard work, and dedication, the cornerstone of the third and present church was laid on May 30, 1920, and dedicated on September 1921.

Holy Trinity continued to expand, saw the development of several organizations, including: Holy Rosary Circle, Altar Society, Holy Name Society, Knights of Holy Trinity, Children of Mary, and Young Ladies Society. The parishioners at Holy Trinity continued to share their faith in communion with one another, surely not without their share of struggles. In February 1957, the newly formed Diocese of Gary was established, and Holy Trinity joined the neighboring Catholic parishes in welcoming the Most Reverend Andrew G. Grutka as its first Bishop. Throughout the years, Holy Trinity and its leaders have achieved many milestones and accolades. None, however, was seen as more prestigious than what occurred on July 10, 2004, when Holy Trinity was honored with a visit from Peter Cardinal Erdő, Primate of Hungary.

Another outstanding milestone in the parish’s history took place on May 1, 2005, when the present pastor, Father Alphonse Skerl, celebrated Holy Trinity’s second ordination to the priesthood. Through all of the support, generosity, and leadership of Father Skerl for nearly 35 years, along with the dedication of the parish council, staff, parishioners, and organizations, Holy Trinity has reached their most meaningful celebration with the 100th anniversary.

Holy Trinity Hungarian Church has been a mainstay in the city of East Chicago and is worthy of this recognition as it celebrated its 100th anniversary on Sunday, October 22, 2006. The church offers an invaluable service to its parishioners and community, providing numerous opportunities for all to join together to experience its rich heritage.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues join me in honoring and congratulating Holy Trinity Hungarian Church on its 100th anniversary. Throughout the years, the clergy and members of Holy Trinity have dedicated themselves to providing spirituality and guidance through the protection of the Hungarian traditions and faith. Their constant dedication and commitment is worthy of our admiration.

Mr. VISCOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great honor and enthusiasm that I recognize the Holy Trinity Hungarian Church in East Chicago, Indiana, for its 100th anniversary. The festivities began on Sunday, October 22, 2006, with Holy Mass, and were followed by a jubilee dinner at Casa Maria Banquet Hall in Dyer, Indiana, to celebrate this exceptional milestone.

Mr. SKELTON. Mr. Speaker, it has come to my attention that a longtime community leader in Lexington, MO, has been recognized for her commitment to the Daughters of the American Revolution. LaVeda Cross has been a member of this distinguished organization for twenty-eight years and recently served as Regent of the Lafayette-Lexington Chapter for the past eight years.

Under the leadership of LaVeda Cross, the Lafayette-Lexington Chapter more than doubled its membership while at the same time promoting the City of Lexington and its local businesses. Notably, she traveled the state raising funds for the restoration of the Madonna of the Trail monument in Lexington.

LaVeda Cross not only was active in her local chapter, she also has held many leadership positions with the state chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She has served as the Missouri State Corresponding Secretary, Missouri State Registrar, and Chairman of the Missouri Madonna of the Trail Monument. Her leadership continued at the national level where she served as the National Vice Chairman of the Flag of the United States of America.

As a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Ms. Cross devoted much of her time to traveling. She has represented the Lafayette-Lexington chapter at district meetings, fall forums, at the Missouri State Conference, and at the National Continental Congress.

Mr. Speaker, I want to thank LaVeda Cross for her leadership to the community of Lexington, MO, to the State of Missouri, and to her country. I know the members of the House will join me in wishing her well.

Mr. ROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize Mr. Christopher J. Donfield, a resident of Washington Township, New Jersey, for his
