

Center for Public Policy and to recognize the work of a great Coloradan, the Bighorn Center's CEO and founder, Rutt Bridges.

The Bighorn Center for Public Policy was created in 1999 in an effort to provide Colorado with a truly nonpartisan organization that identifies, develops, and advocates public policies to enrich the quality of life in the State of Colorado. Over the past 7 years, the Bighorn Center has brought together leaders from both sides of the aisle to find real solutions to Colorado's ever-changing public policy needs.

Rutt Bridges is a close friend and colleague. He is a man who understands the value of hard work and authentic leadership, and it has been my pleasure to work with him over the years to improve Colorado.

More than 25 years ago, Mr. Bridges and his wife moved to Colorado and founded a small software company that used emerging computer technology to search for oil. With his ambition and intelligence, Mr. Bridges revolutionized the oil exploration business. His small software company quickly grew from 3 employees to over 70. When he sold his company in 1994, he committed himself to doing good for Colorado, and he has maintained that commitment to this day.

The Bighorn Center's list of accomplishments is impressive. As Colorado attorney general, I worked with the Bighorn Center to develop the Colorado Anti-Bully Project. The Bighorn Center and Mr. Bridges are most well-known, however, for Colorado's telemarketing no-call list, passed in 2001 by Colorado's General Assembly. I am most proud of working with Rutt and the Center to help develop this landmark consumer protection law. Taking on special interests and supplying grassroots political pressure, the Bighorn Center was the driving force in making it easy for Coloradans to choose to block intrusive and unwanted telemarketing calls.

Mr. Bridges and the Bighorn Center did not stop there and have often worked behind the scenes to encourage more campaign finance disclosure, convene meetings to discuss Colorado's budget issues, and create a DNA fingerprinting database for all criminals.

The Bighorn Center also created the Bighorn Leadership Development Program, directed by another distinguished Coloradan, Brenda Morrison. This bipartisan program has effectively recruited and trained over 200 young leaders to work for a better Colorado.

I am proud of the accomplishments of the Bighorn Center for Public Policy, and I applaud Mr. Bridges, Ms. Morrison, and other staff at the Bighorn Center for their dedication to making Colorado a better place to live. While the Bighorn Center is closing its doors, its legacy and the work of these civic-minded Coloradans will continue.●
