

IN RECOGNITION OF THE HEROIC ACTIONS BY THE STAFF OF JEANNE MOORE, INC., IN MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF ALABAMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. ROGERS of Alabama. Mr. Speaker, I respectfully ask the attention of the House today to pay recognition to the heroic actions of the entire staff at Jeanne Moore, Inc. Daycare in Montgomery, Alabama, and to specifically recognize the bravery of Ms. Jeanne Moore, Ms. Liberty Duke, Ms. Sharon Ware and Ms. Elaine Edwards.

On November 15th, powerful tornados swept through Alabama, including the City of Montgomery. Jeanne Moore, Inc. Daycare was in the path of one of those tornados and was destroyed while the children were on site. According to Jeanne Moore, one four year old described the terrifying experience as, "my school was breaking in two . . ." Responding quickly and professionally, the staff at the daycare did not flee, but made sure the children were safe and covered the children with their own bodies during the brunt of the storm.

According to news reports, Ms. Liberty Duke had two of her own children at the daycare when the storms hit. Instead of going to look for her children, she saved the ones closest to her knowing and trusting that the staff at Jeanne Moore, Inc. would take care of her own. She was right.

In addition, media reports said that Ms. Jeanne Moore recalls seeing other nearby citizens risking their lives when they realized what was happening. Moore said after the storm passed people were running from surrounding businesses to help pull children from the rubble.

Miraculously, no one died and only minor injuries were incurred.

I salute the heroes from that horrible day—everyday Alabamians working together to save innocent children. It is indeed a miracle that no lives were lost, and I hope we will all look to these brave Alabamians as role models for us all.

TRIBUTE TO MR. STEPHEN R. REED

HON. TIM HOLDEN

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. HOLDEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Stephen R. Reed of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, who was voted America's number one mayor in the World Mayor 2006 online poll by the City Mayor organization.

Mayor Reed, the 7-term mayor of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, is the only United States mayor to ever break into the top 3 spots in the annual online contest finishing third in the world. From January to May each year, citizens nominate mayors in the contest then choose from a list of fifty finalists from June to October. This year, over 103,000 people voted giving Mayor Reed more than 7,000 votes.

Under his leadership, the Pennsylvania state capital has been revitalized with the development of shops, hotels, and restaurants in the downtown area that once stood virtually vacant; the Harrisburg Senators baseball games and other attractions have revived tourism in the city; the Harrisburg University was established; and graduation rates have increases since Mr. Reed took control of the city school district.

Mr. Speaker, it is a privilege to be able to recognize a man who has dedicated his entire life to the City of Harrisburg, helping hundreds of people in my district, including myself. I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in congratulating Mr. Stephen R. Reed on his many years of devoted public service and thank him for the many contributions he has made toward the well being of the citizens of Harrisburg, Dauphin County, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

H.R. 5466, CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH CHESAPEAKE NATIONAL HISTORIC TRAIL DESIGNATION ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 5, 2006

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Speaker, today I rise in strong support of H.R. 5466, the Captain John Smith Chesapeake National Historic Trail Designation Act, which traces the 1607 and 1608 water voyages of Captain John Smith to chart the land and waterways of the Chesapeake Bay. The water trail extends approximately 3,000 miles along the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and in the District of Columbia. The year 2007 will mark the 400th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown and Captain John Smith's monumental voyages of exploration in the Chesapeake Bay, making passage of this legislation and the designation of this route as a national historic trail timely.

Designating this historic trail is an excellent way for Americans to learn about the voyage of Captain John Smith and the valuable resources of the Chesapeake Bay and will help to spur efforts to protect and restore the region's historic and environmental assets. During his voyage, Captain John Smith traveled 45 miles up the Nanticoke River into Delaware. He reached approximately half a mile above Broad Creek, in present-day Sussex County, where he placed a brass cross to symbolize the furthest extent of his exploration. During that time, Captain John Smith met and traded with hundreds of the Kuskarawaok (Nanticoke) Indians who were vital to keeping the Jamestown settlement alive through their knowledge and trade goods.

This project is widely supported in Delaware by Governor Ruth Ann Minner; Delaware Economic Development Office; Department of Natural Resources & Environmental Control; Nanticoke Indian Tribe; New Castle County; City of Seaford; Town of Laurel; Bethany-Fenwick Area Chamber of Commerce; Delmarva Low Impact Tourism Experiences; Greater Seaford Chamber of Commerce; Laurel Chamber of Commerce; Southern Delaware Tourism (Sussex County); University of Delaware; the Conservation Fund in Delaware; and the DuPont Corporation.

As an original cosponsor of this legislation and earlier legislation that authorized the feasibility study of the proposed trail by the National Park Service, I fully back this project and look forward to visiting the portion of the trail that extends along the Nanticoke River in Delaware.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JOE KNOLLENBERG

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Speaker, on December 5, 2006, I was unavoidably absent and missed rollcall vote 524. For the record, had I been present, I would have voted "yea."

DEMOCRATIC PACIFIC UNION SYMPOSIUM

HON. DAVID WU

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. WU. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize that on December 8, 2006, the Democratic Pacific Union will be hosting an international symposium in Taipei, Taiwan on democracy and commerce. Participants from more than 20 countries will discuss issues related to democracy and the workings of national legislatures, parliaments and congresses.

The Democratic Pacific Union was founded in Taiwan and is committed to the promotion of democracy, human rights and the rule of law in the Pacific Rim. It emphasizes representative government and peaceful resolution of disputes.

I am pleased that the Democratic Pacific Union will foster a discussion about the importance of democracy and the rule of law and also pleased that the open dialogue will foster the possibility of enduring peace.

TRIBUTE TO CARL YAEGER

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. CLYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to a medical pioneer, Dr. Carl E. Yaeger, Jr. Dr. Yaeger is the recipient of the Trailblazer Award, a recognition bestowed upon him for his extraordinary contributions to his profession.

Carl Yaeger was born in Hartford, Connecticut, the son of another trailblazer, Dr. Carl Yaeger, Sr. founder of the Yaeger Clinic in Long Island, New York. Carl Jr. came to my home State of South Carolina to practice his profession after graduating from the University of Southern California, Los Angeles College of Chiropractic and Center States College of Physiatrics. In 1956, Dr. Yaeger joined his father in Miami, Florida to open the Yaeger Clinic there. It is one of the oldest African American owned medical facilities in the country.

Over the years, Dr. Yaeger built a tremendous clientele. He has provided health care to several generations of patients, treated disaster victims and delivered over 400 babies in the clinic's four-bed maternity ward. Some patients were so loyal to Dr. Yaeger they traveled from as far as Georgia and the Bahamas regularly to see him. He counts among his more than 100,000 patients, Muhammad Ali, who came to his clinic while living in Miami in the 1960s. He continued an active Naturopathic and Chiropractic medical practice until 2005. Dr. Yaeger continues to serve on the executive board of the Yaeger Foundation, Inc. and is actively involved in the organization's establishment of the National Medical Museum.

Among Dr. Yaeger's many contributions, was his appointment as Chairman of the Florida Board of Naturopathic Medicine by Governors Rubin Askew and Bob Graham. He also provided internships to aspiring health care professionals and free medical services to indigent patients.

Dr. Yaeger has been the recipient of many other honors including the Florida Chiropractic Association's Lifetime Achievement Award. He has served as the President of the Florida Naturopathic Physicians Association and was a member of the Practice Parameters Advisory Committee of the Florida Agency for Health Care Administration. Outside his professional affiliations, Dr. Yaeger has been a civil rights activist that helped integrate many of Miami's segregated restaurants and hotels and is a Lifetime Member of the NAACP.

Dr. Yaeger and his late wife, Ollie, raised four children. He is now the proud grandfather of two grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in congratulating Dr. Carl Yaeger, Jr. for receiving this distinguished honor. He has given a lifetime of service to the medical community, and has had a tremendous impact on Miami and its people.

HONORING THE ROY CLASSEN FAMILY FOR BEING SELECTED AS THE ESCAMBIA COUNTY 2006 OUTSTANDING FARM FAMILY OF THE YEAR

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it is a great honor for me to rise today to extend congratulations to the Roy Classen Family for being selected as the Escambia County 2006 Outstanding Farm Family of the Year. The Classen family has run an extremely successful farm in Northwest Florida for 39 years.

Classen is a Row Crop Producer, growing cotton, peanuts, corn, soybeans and wheat on his 515 acre farm in Walnut Hill. He raises cows as well. Classen and his wife, Miriam have been married 40 years and have four children and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress, I would like to offer my sincere commendation to a family that could serve as a role model to us all. A deep sense of work ethic and values has been instilled in the Roy Classen Family. It is my hope that this family tradition continues for many generations to come.

ST. NICHOLAS

HON. TED POE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. POE. Mr. Speaker, while later this month kids will talk of Santa Claus, today, December 6th, belongs to St. Nicholas. The Christian Bishop. The human Santa Claus.

In Europe, around 300 A.D. St. Nicholas, a devout Christian, gave away all of his possessions. And dedicated his life to helping the poor.

St. Nicholas wearing a long, red robe, would sneak into homes leaving fruits, chocolates, and small presents by the fireplace for families in need.

As word of his deeds spread, eager young children would hang stockings or leave out shoes hoping for a visit from St. Nicholas.

When St. Nicholas died in 343 A.D., an annual day of celebration was declared on the anniversary of his death—December 6th.

Across continents, throughout centuries, acts of generosity continued to be carried out in St. Nicholas' name.

Today the spirit of St. Nicholas is still celebrated.

Children leave their shoes by the door, awaking to the candy and gifts left by St. Nicholas.

St. Nicholas Day reminds us of the true meaning of the holiday season . . . giving to others and spreading goodwill among all. It's a good thing.

TRIBUTE TO DAVID E. JANSSEN

HON. HENRY A. WAXMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to pay tribute to Dr. David E. Janssen and to thank him for his 40-year career as a public servant in the State of California. Our Nation owes him a debt of gratitude for his decades of dedicated public service.

In August 1996, Dr. Janssen became the ninth Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) of Los Angeles County, a position that was created in 1938. He has been a superb leader and an inspiring example of personal integrity and dedication. He brought a wealth of fiduciary and operational knowledge gained through years of experience to his post that has resulted in prudent recommendations and sound oversight of the County's $20 billion budget.

As CAO, Dr. Janssen has been responsible for a wide range of duties, including making financial recommendations to the County of Los Angeles Board of Supervisors to bring more cost-efficient programs to better serve the public. He has worked closely with the 38 County Departments to make certain that Board policies and priorities have been implemented. He has monitored Countywide spending and recommended departmental budgets to the Board and ensured that Board-approved allocations are not exceeded.

Dr. Janssen has made sure that the Board's legislative and intergovernmental policies and objectives have been coordinated with the Board Offices, the Legislative Strategist, and the offices in Sacramento and Washington, DC.

Dr. Janssen has coordinated capital projects/debt management, asset management, leasing and space management; administered insurance management programs; coordinated emergency preparedness and cost recovery efforts following major disasters; addressed unincorporated area issues; handled centralized security management for employees and facilities; advised Board offices and departments on international protocol issues; managed the County's employee relations program and compensation systems; coordinated centralized marketing programs; performed demographic and geographic research; coordinated centralized workplace programs, such as ride sharing, saving bonds, charity and volunteers; initiated and promoted activities which provide information about the County to the public; and provided centralized photographic and graphic art services.

Under Dr. Janssen's leadership, the CAO's office initiated an annual Vision Statement for the County that defined "core values" for providing public services, including integrity, commitment, accountability, professionalism, compassion, respect for diversity, and responsiveness. Dr. Janssen was instrumental in implementing a Strategic Plan in conjunction with the Vision Statement, which now includes six goals: Service Excellence; Workforce Excellence; Organizational Effectiveness; Fiscal Responsibility; Children and Families Well-Being; and Community Services.

Dr. Janssen has held memberships in several civic and professional organizations, including the United Way, on which he continues to serve as a member of the Board of Directors, and the Rotary. He also serves on the University of Southern California School of Policy, Planning and Development Board of Councilors. In addition, he is a member of the American Society of Public Administration and the National Academy of Public Administration, which honored him with the 2003 National Public Service Award given for exemplary public service.

Dr. Janssen has served our Nation, our State, and our County with honor and distinction. He is to be commended for his philosophy of open and honest government that provides easy access to information for employees and the public so they can meaningfully participate in the governmental process.

I ask my colleagues to join me and Dr. Janssen's many co-workers, family, friends, and associates in congratulating him on his retirement and wishing him health, happiness, and good fortune in his future endeavors.

GOVERNMENT SUPPORT CRITICAL TO AMTRAK

HON. BARNEY FRANK

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, one of the most important institutions in the region I represent in this House is the New England Council. No organization does a better job of advocating in a sensible and reasonable way for the economic interests of our area. The Council is composed largely of businesspeople and it is important to note that
