TRIBUTE TO THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FATHER CAREY COUNCIL 1280

HON. ALBIO SIRE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 4, 2007

Mr. SIRE. Madam Spaker, I rise today in honor of the Knights of Columbus Father Carey Council 1280 of Carteret, New Jersey, which is celebrating its 100th anniversary on October 24, 2007. This fraternal organization has assisted thousands of Carteret residents with its volunteer work and served as vital support for members in need.

The Knights of Columbus, initially formed to help sick, disabled and needy members and their families, extended their work to assist others in their communities. In this spirit, in 1907, a group of 57 Catholic gentlemen established a council in the Borough of Carteret, New Jersey. The Father Carey Council 1280 was founded on November 24, and today, its 500 members continue to serve true to its principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism.

The Father Carey Fourth Degree Assembly #0677 was later formed in 1947 to foster the spirit of patriotism in members and the community at large, as well as encourage active Catholic citizenship. To promote these ideals, the Father Carey Fourth Degree Color Corps was created, and actively participates in Carteret’s parades and ceremonies, in addition to the borough’s church communions, confirmations, and anniversary celebrations.

Today, the Father Carey Council continues to be active in the Carteret community by volunteering and assisting its sick, disabled, and needy, emulating its founding members. The Council hosts semi-annual blood drives, a youth free throw contest, and assists at veteran’s hospitals. The Council also sponsors the Youth Squires Program, which gives Catholic young men the opportunity to learn the skills and attitudes of Catholic leadership. The Council’s Buddy Group, created to engage the borough’s mentally disabled community, hosts several yearly gatherings that include movie nights, dinner dances and holiday parties.

Please join me in congratulating the Knights of Columbus Father Carey Council 1280 of Carteret, New Jersey on their 100th anniversary. I also want to express my gratitude for their service to the residents of the Borough of Carteret.

TRIBUTE TO EDWARD KELLY ANSCHUTZ

HON. GEORGE MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 4, 2007

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today with my colleagues Mrs.

ELLEN O. TAUSCHER and Mr. JERRY MCNERNEY to pay tribute to the life of Mr. Edward Kelly Anschutz.

A third generation plumber, Kelly joined the United Association of Plumbers and Steamfitters Union Local 159 in 1967. After serving his apprenticeship and becoming a journeyman plumber, he was elected to serve as the Assistant Business Manager and eventually the Business Manager for the local for 13 years. He was so well respected; in his last term as Business Manager, he was elected without any opposition.

Kelly was courageous in his efforts to support his union brothers and sisters and their interests at every level. Whether working with a member or an employer, he was well respected and liked by all. Kelly was also a great personality; he had a wonderful sense of humor and truly enjoyed people.

While we realize words may do little to lessen the impact of this loss, we trust that the memories shared will help Kelly’s family, friends, and union brothers and sisters realize the scope his influence had on working people and their families.

Madam Speaker, because of Mr. Anschutz’s contributions to his community, it is proper for us, and it is my honor, to pay tribute to his life today.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. DORIS LOCKEY

HON. KEVIN BRADY

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 4, 2007

Mr. BRADY of Texas. I rise today to recognize an important milestone in the life of one of my constituents. Mrs. Doris Lockey has served as the manager of the Social Security Administration District Office in Conroe, Texas since 1986. This alone is noteworthy.

But October 22, 2007 will mark her 40th anniversary as an employee of the Social Security Administration. Starting out as an account number clerk in 1967, I doubt Mrs. Lockey thought she would still be serving her Nation today. Whenever the residents of Texas’ 8th Congressional District need help with their social security benefits, Mrs. Lockey is the person they turn to. No matter how big or small the problem, Mrs. Lockey always makes herself personally available to help. This was most evident in the wake of Hurricanes Katrina and Rita when, along with her team, she helped numerous individuals and families with their benefits and so much more.

While after 40 years most people would be celebrating retirement and the chance to collect the benefits she has spent a lifetime overseeing, Mrs. Lockey shows no signs of slowing down. I know that the people she works with on a daily basis have learned from the dedication she has demonstrated over the years. And today I hope that all of our public servants and Americans appreciate the dedication she demonstrates on a daily basis.

Mrs. Lockey is not just defined by the work she does for the Federal Government but the impact she has on our community. She volunteers with numerous local organizations that make life in Montgomery County, Texas better. She just finished a term as the President of the Rotary Club of Conroe and has served on the boards of the local United Way and The Friendship Center’s Committee on Aging. Still today, she serves on the United Way’s Success by Six Leadership Committee and is a very active member of Longmire Road Church of Christ.

In knowing Mrs. Lockey, what I find impressive is the fact that she takes the time to mentor a local child at Runyan Elementary School every week. The stories she is able to tell, the life lessons she is able to impart to young children provide our youth with a tremendous opportunity.

Today, I join with her family and friends, Southeast Texas, her colleagues at Social Security Administration offices in Conroe, Houston, Pasadena and Galveston, the American people and my colleagues in Congress to mark Mrs. Doris Lockey’s 40th anniversary as an employee of the Social Security Administration. I am honored to recognize her amazing contributions and offer my best wishes and encouragement as she continues a life of public service with the Federal Government and her numerous volunteer activities.

EXPRESSING SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING THE IMMEDIATE AND UNCONDITIONAL RELEASE OF DAW AUNG SAN SUU KYI

SPEECH OF

HON. PATRICK J. KENNEDY

OF RHODE ISLAND

Tuesday, October 2, 2007

Mr. KENNEDY. Madam Speaker, the horrific violations of human rights in Burma have alarmed leaders in the United States and around the world. When repressed people across the globe cry out for help, America has an obligation to lead the calls for justice and equality. In Burma, a nation with a long history of egregious human rights violations, a repressive regime has cracked down on civil liberties and peaceful protests. The State Peace and Development Council, a military junta and illegitimate ruling party, has brutally cracked down on dissidents using rape and murder as their tools of terror. Now, leaders of the legitimately elected opposition, led by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, face increased violence and incarcerations. This bipartisan resolution expresses Congress’s support for the immediate release of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and restoration of democracy in Burma. I believe the United Nations should swiftly act in response to this dangerous and growing threat in Southeast Asia. As the world watches the events in Burma, the United States must take a firm leadership role to speak for the voices that have been silenced by repression and make perfectly clear that this brutality will not be tolerated.
