

TRIBUTE TO OLGA WOLOSYN,
MAYOR OF THE CITY OF ENGLEWOOD

HON. DIANA DeGETTE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 25, 2007

Ms. DeGETTE. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the extraordinary life and exceptional accomplishments of Mayor Olga Wolosyn. This remarkable public servant merits both our recognition and esteem as her impressive record of civic leadership and invaluable service has improved the lives of our people.

Sadly, Mayor Wolosyn was taken from us by a series of brain aneurysms at the young age of 54. Olga will be greatly missed. Her passion for civic life and her capacity for community service were boundless. Her indomitable spirit sustained her through many challenges and molded a life of genuine accomplishment. Truly, her passing is a great loss to our entire community. Olga came to us from her native Pennsylvania where she earned her bachelor of arts degree from Seton Hill College. Subsequently, Olga and her husband moved to the Front Range from Grand Junction in 1972. Olga was elected to the Englewood City Council in November 1999 and served as mayor from November 2005.

I always looked forward to visiting with Olga and members of the Englewood City Council because I was so taken by Olga's energy and enthusiasm for Englewood's plans as well as prospects for the future. She was a powerful advocate for her city and inspired conduct beyond the expected. Good leaders set the example and Olga led by doing. Many have pointed out that Olga "was tireless and seemed to volunteer constantly," "she was going full speed all the time," "she had everyone's best interest at heart" and "regardless of the task for which she volunteered, she always got it done and got it done on time." Olga was a devoted volunteer with the schools; she served on the water board and the pension board; she served on the Englewood Teenage Drinking Task Force and she served on the board of the Greater Englewood Chamber of Commerce. As mayor, she helped secure a $1 million grant for schools to teach mathematics through art. In addition to her community service, Olga was a businesswoman and operated a pottery establishment—Wolosyn-Doty Pottery—with her husband, Jim Doty. Given Olga's capacity for achievement, it comes as no surprise that the Englewood Chamber chose Olga as Business Woman of the Year in 2004.

Civic institutions depend on people with enormous energy and imagination. Olga was an extraordinary civic leader because she understood there are many ways to define a community. Olga was an artist and she recognized the power of art to inspire creativity, to bring people together and to foster new ways of collaboration. Olga's efforts to expand public art in Englewood added dimension to public spaces and created a deeper interaction between the community and its environs. As one of the founders of Englewood Arts, I believe Olga knew that the vision of a thriving community needed art and culture at its center and that is why Olga worked tirelessly to establish a cultural arts facility and make the arts part of the Englewood experience. Someone once noted that "a thriving culture is a community alive." We are grateful for the life and vitality Olga brought to the arts, culture and the community. Her efforts have enhanced our sense of place and increased our quality of life.

Olga Wolosyn lived a life that is rich in consequence. Englewood is a better place because of her efforts. Her character and her deeds leave a legacy of civic commitment rivaled by few. Truly, we are all diminished by the all too early passing of this remarkable woman. Please join me in paying tribute to the life of Mayor Olga Wolosyn, a distinguished public servant. It is the values, leadership and dedication she exhibited during her life that serves to build a better future for all of us.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN FARMERS UNION

HON. MARILYN N. MUSGRAVE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, October 25, 2007

Mrs. MUSGRAVE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the Rocky Mountain Farmers Union, RMFU, for 100 years of proud service to the independent farmers and ranchers of Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming.

The Rocky Mountain Farmers Union was founded in 1907 as a grassroots organization dedicated to improving the well-being of family producers and their communities through legislation, cooperation, and education. This organization believes, as I do, that stable farm and ranch families are the foundation of healthy rural communities, and healthy rural communities bolster the entire U.S. economy and provide the Nation with a steady, wholesome, local food supply.

As a practical display of these values, RMFU founded the Educational Charitable Foundation in 1996 offering programs such as the Cooperative Development Center, seminars and conferences on renewable energy, and campaigns such as "Buy Fresh Buy Local." As a family organization RMFU also sponsors activities and educational opportunities for all ages, from toddlers to senior citizens. This organization seeks to meld the value of experience with the importance of developing young leaders.

Madam Speaker, I am honored to publicly recognize the Rocky Mountain Farmers Union on their 100th anniversary and thank them for their service to the ranchers and farmers of Colorado's Fourth Congressional District. And although we don't always agree about how best to help farmers and ranchers, I wish RMFU continued success as they advocate for the needs of the independent producer into the next century.
