

In The Book of Luke, he has spoken . . .
 Of chapters of faith he's invoking, of character and courage spoken . . . all in his actions invoking . . .
 Of an American Hero, A Tale of Hope then . . . and Inspiration, To Teach our children, worth quoting!

The Heart!

The greatest of all things, which can not so be stopped nor so broken!

Which pound's, with his words of faith, courage and hope then, in The Book of Luke he has spoken!

In honor of Luke Shirley, and his brother Josh both in The United States Army . . . who came home with him to help him heal, and their family of generations who have fought for our country and given so much throughout the generations so we could live free. . . . Their uncles, Dwight Harris Williams Jr., Kenneth Wayne Williams, John Dennis Williams were all Marines and did tours in Vietnam.

THE DAILY 45: HELDER TOMAR

HON. BOBBY L. RUSH

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 13, 2008

Mr. RUSH. Madam Speaker, every day, 45 people, on average, are fatally shot in the United States. We have become too numb to the continued violence that plays out daily. On April 26, in Pawtucket, Rhode Island, 19-year-old Helder Tomar was shot and killed in Jenks Park in Central Falls. Unfortunately, this set off a cycle of teenage violence in Pawtucket and Central Falls.

According to a local newspaper, a young man said the obvious: "Death is part of life, but it's supposed to be natural, not by violence, not by strife."

Americans of conscience must come together to stop the senseless death of "The Daily 45." When will Americans say, "Enough is enough, stop the killing."
