

Latin "sylvan" meaning "the woods." It remains a city of trees today, including 27 varieties of maple, with the maple leaf as the city's symbol.

In the decades which followed through the nineteenth, twentieth, and now the twenty-first century, Sylvania has prospered. It is a caring community with fine schools and first rate services for young and old and families. Sylvania remains a bucolic community reminiscent of its wooded early history, yet offers a bustling suburban economy of thriving businesses. Its Main Street retains charm from its past, but Sylvania at 150 years is a city moving forward. I am pleased to offer the congratulations of our entire region during this sesquicentennial celebration.

REMARKS IN RECOGNITION OF THE 30TH ANNIVERSARY OF CORA

HON. JACKIE SPEIER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Ms. SPEIER. Madam Speaker, this week, CORA—Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse—celebrates the thirtieth anniversary of comprehensive domestic violence support in San Mateo County.

Three decades ago, a victim of domestic violence on the San Francisco peninsula had no resources outside of hospitals and the police. Then in 1978, La Casa de San Mateo opened its doors to become the county's first and only emergency shelter for domestic violence survivors and their children. La Casa later changed its name to the Center for Domestic Violence Prevention and in 2003, partnered with Sor Juana Ines, the first toll-free domestic violence hotline in the county, to become CORA.

CORA's mission is to end domestic violence and abuse through intervention and prevention. The dedicated staff and volunteers respond to thousands of calls on the CORA hotline, and answer an equal number of requests for legal assistance each year. They serve more than 6,000 clients annually, providing legal, medical and mental health services, as well as counseling and safety in the county's only shelter for abuse victims and their children. This operation is overseen by the CORA governing board and a diverse staff of 35 who represent the vibrant cross-section of the county and region. Besides English and Spanish, CORA staff-members speak Tagalog, French, Mandarin, Italian, Korean, Hindi, and Farsi.

Madam Speaker, domestic violence is a silent epidemic. Every nine seconds, a woman in our country is abused by someone she knows. Millions of children witness acts of violence involving one or more parents every year. And one in five female high school students reports being physically or sexually abused by a dating partner.

Domestic violence impacts all of us. It is a significant drain on police and emergency resources and costs the national economy eight to ten billion dollars annually in medical bills, community support and lost wages and productivity. It is also a leading cause of homelessness and often leads to depression, substance abuse and—most troubling—an increased likelihood that victims and young witnesses will go on to become abusers themselves.

Madam Speaker, thanks to increased public awareness, domestic abuse is emerging from the shadows of shame and ignorance. Still, there are far too many instances of cruel and dehumanizing behavior within what should be the security of the family home. Because of this, society will always need an organization like CORA. My sincere hope is that, someday, we will need them less.

SUPPORTING OUR MEN AND WOMEN SERVING IN THE MILITARY AND URGING CONGRESS
TO CONTINUE FUNDING FOR THE AMYOTROPHIC LATERAL SCLEROSIS
RESEARCH PROGRAM
(ALSRP) AT THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

HON. ZOE LOFGREN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Ms. ZOE LOFGREN of California. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express my support for our men and women serving in the military and to urge Congress to continue funding for the Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis Research Program (ALSRP) at the Department of Defense.

Studies conducted by the DOD and Veterans Administration have found that those who served in the 1991 Gulf War are approximately twice as likely to die from ALS, the deadly disease that took the life of baseball legend Lou Gehrig, as those who did not serve in the Gulf. In addition, current research suggests that ALS is occurring at greater rates in those who are serving in the current conflict in Iraq. Tragically, there is no effective treatment for ALS and it is fatal in just two to five years after diagnosis.

The ALSRP is an innovative program that has the potential not only to develop new treatments for ALS that benefit our soldiers and veterans but also to determine why they are at greater risk and enable us to take action to protect them. I therefore urge the Appropriations Committee to include $5 million for the ALSRP in the FY 2009 DOD Appropriations bill.

A TRIBUTE TO SENATOR KENNEDY

HON. KENDRICK B. MEEK

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Mr. MEEK of Florida. Madam Speaker, I would like to submit the following passage on Senator TED KENNEDY written by Albert Carey Caswell.

A LION IN WINTER

A Lion in Winter . . .
Facing The Storm, with The Heart of A
Champion . . . so very warm . . .
Where courage lives, to help you move on!

An American Tale, as a nation so stands behind you Ted . . . with all of our prayers, so now!

Take this to your heart Ted, take this to your soul . . . as you move out so to behold!

In this your battle to be won . . .

In this your war to be waged, in this but another chapter Ted . . . in your life's most heroic page . . . of all ones!

As you face this new morning, as you face this dark sun!

Standing Tall, to do what must so be done!
To Fight That Good Fight, To Wage That Great War, our Lion In Winter . . . Our Precious American Son sure!

From deep down inside, that great Irish Heart . . . win this Great Battle, This Great War begun . . .

For A Lion In Winter . . .

With the Heart of A Champ, against all odds . . . we can hear your roar, can victory so command!

For no man known's more, what a heart can so endure . . . and can so stand!

Ted it's the bottom of the 9th, with two outs!
Like the Teddy before you of The Sox's, we know you too can pull this one out!

Go with God My Son, as you have always done . . . we know you will be rounding the bases, no doubt!

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. STEPHANIE HERSETH SANDLIN

OF SOUTH DAKOTA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Ms. HERSETH SANDLIN. Madam Speaker, I regret that I was unable to participate in three votes on the floor of the House of Representatives on June 9, 2008. I was absent due to illness.

As noted, I was not present for three votes: The first vote was H. Res. 1225, Expressing support for designation of June 2008 as "National Safety Month." Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on that question.

The second vote was H. Res. 1243, Recognizing the immeasurable contributions of fathers in the healthy development of children, supporting responsible fatherhood, and encouraging greater involvement of fathers in the lives of their children, especially on Father's Day. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on that question.

The third vote was H. Res. 127, Recognizing and celebrating the 50th anniversary of the entry of Alaska in the Union as the 49th State. Had I been present, I would have voted "yea" on that question.

IN HONOR OF THE GRAND OPENING OF GREENHUNTER ENERGY'S RENEWABLE FUELS CAMPUS IN HOUSTON, TEXAS

HON. GENE GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Mr. GENE GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I am proud to honor the grand opening of GreenHunter Energy's Renewable Fuels Campus located in my congressional district in Houston, Texas.

GreenHunter Energy's renewable fuels campus—a converted waste oil refinery—is the largest and most versatile biodiesel refinery in the U.S. to date. The campus includes a 105 million gallon per year biodiesel refinery, a 700,000 barrel bulk liquid terminal operation, a
