IN REMEMBRANCE OF MARTIN P.

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 18, 2008

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of Martin P. Zanotti, whose life will forever reflect devotion to family and friends, and service to community and country.

Mr. Zanotti's family was central to his life. He was married to his beloved wife, Rose, for 59 years. Together, they lovingly raised their children, Marty, David, Christopher and Mary Beth. He was a doting grandfather to Jacqueline, Rachael, Anthony, Anna, Corey, Courtney, Stephanie, Sarah, Frank, Natalie and Gina; he was a devoted brother to Paul, and a loyal friend to many.

Mr. Zanotti contributed greatly to our Nation and to our community. He was a United States veteran, having served during WWII in the U.S. Army Corps. His abiding commitment to his Catholic faith was evidenced by his long-time involvement in St. John Bosco Church, where he was founding member.

Above all, Mr. Zanotti was a man who lived his faith. He personified the word "gentleman" and was a man of integrity, who treated everyone with kindness and respect. Mr. Zanotti's quiet, yet warm nature and quick smile were at the core of his spirit and nothing made him happier than spending time with his family.

Mr. Zanotti attended countless sporting and school events and was there to witness every milestone. He reveled in the achievements of his children and grandchildren, and even most significantly, was their rock of support and encouragement when the chips were down.

Behind the scenes, Mr. Zanotti consistently lent his assistance to help anyone in need. Without fanfare or recognition, as soon as Mr. Zanotti learned of an individual or family in need, he reached out to help in any way he could, without hesitation and regardless of whether or not he knew them.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honoring the life of Martin P. Zanotti, whose spirit, joy for living, service to others and love for his family will live forever in their hearts and memories. I extend my sincere condolences to his family, extended family and numerous friends.

Although he will be greatly missed, Mr. Zanotti's legacy of kindness and giving has made our community a much better place, his joyous life and simple acts of kindness will never be forgotten.

RECOGNIZING JUNETEENTH
INDEPENDENCE DAY

SPEECH OF

HON. AL GREEN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, June 17, 2008

Mr. AL GREEN of Texas. Madam Speaker, I support H. Res. 1237, a resolution recognizing the historical significance of Juneteenth. The holiday of Juneteenth is an important opportunity to recognize the abolition of slavery in the United States. This holiday commemorates the emancipation of African Americans from the final vestiges of bondage in our Nation. On June 19, 1865, Major General Gordon Granger led Union troops into Galveston, Texas, and announced that all slaves had been freed by the Emancipation Proclamation. The celebration of Juneteenth recognizes that day, two and a half years after Lincoln's proclamation, as the first opportunity for Union troops to penetrate Texan military resistance to announce and enforce the Emancipation Proclamation.

On June 19, 1865, after overcoming extreme opposition from Southern slave owners, General Granger arrived at Galveston, Texas. Beginning his fateful announcement, he said, "The people of Texas are informed that in accordance with a Proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free. This involves an absolute equality of rights and rights of property between former masters and slaves, and the connection heretofore existing between them becomes that between employer and free laborer."

These words brought forth the emancipation of 250,000 Texas slaves who were among the last people to learn of their freedom. Granger's statement marked the full realization of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness as intended by the Founding Fathers of our great Nation. The date of June 19, 1865 symbolizes the genius of our country's struggle to bring about a more perfect union, a struggle that continues to this very day.

I take this opportunity to recognize the historical significance of Juneteenth as a holiday which celebrates African American freedom while also encouraging self-pride and multicultural respect. I also thank Congressman DANNY DAVIS for sponsoring H. Res. 1237, a commendable resolution that I wholeheartedly support. I knowledge and support the historical significance of Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day or Emancipation Day.

CRIME IN THE CARIBBEAN—PRAISING
YVETTE CLARKE'S RESPONSE

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 18, 2008

Mr. RANGEL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to praise the efforts of Congresswoman YVETTE CLARKE with regard to the bipartisan resolution that addresses crime in the Caribbean. The prevalence of crime in the Caribbean and its particular importance to the United States are discussed in the editorial "Resolution Passes House of Representatives" and "Crime and Violence in the Caribbean: Clear and Present Danger," which appeared in this week's edition of the New York Carib News.

Congresswoman YVETTE CLARKE introduced the resolution to the House floor in the hopes that it would raise awareness about the horrific situation of skyrocketing crime rates in the Caribbean. The resolution unanimously passed the House and hopefully will be followed by support from the Senate and the administration. Crime is threatening the pillars on many Caribbean nations' economies: tourism and agriculture. Crime destroys both people's perception of safety and companies' perception of a sound location to invest funds. Whether America likes to admit it or not, we have played a crucial role in causing this crisis. Contagion is a real concern as extremely high rates of violent crime can easily pass through our porous borders.

Congresswoman YVETTE CLARKE has done America a great service in bringing this very serious issue to the forefront of American politics. I urge Americans to remain informed on the situation by reading the editorials "Resolution Passes House of Representatives" and "Crime and Violence in the Caribbean: Clear and Present Danger" in Carib News.

U.S. REP. CLARKE'S CARIBBEAN CRIME RESOLUTION PASSES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Today a bipartisan resolution addressing crime in the Caribbean region introduced by Congresswoman Yvette D. Clarke passed unanimously in the House of Representatives. The resolution (H. RES. 865) expresses that the United States Government should assist Caribbean nations in taking specific measures toward reducing crime in that region.

Below are Congresswoman Clarke's prepared remarks on H. RES. 865:

"The release of the UN/World Bank report 'Crime, Violence, and Development: Trends, Costs, and Policy Options in the Caribbean' is a wake-up call for every American interested in the security of our nation.

As the report points out, a variety of factors, including some for which the U.S. is partly responsible—such as heavy illicit drug use and problematic deportation policies—have contributed to the Caribbean region having the highest crime rate in the world.

While today the region remains a wonderful place for Americans to visit, in the long-term, continuing these high levels of crime will wreak serious social, economic, and security troubles for many Caribbean countries.

Allowing this situation to deteriorate for years-to-come will undoubtedly create a security threat not just for the Caribbean states, but also for our own country, as an unstable Caribbean would create a vast hole in America's border security.

Many of the problems identified by this report have long been recognized by Caribbean leaders.

Now, with the confirmation provided by this report in hand, the U.S. must partner with its Western Hemisphere neighbors and allies to find workable solutions that will help the people of the Caribbean and ensure the long-term security and stability of our region.

I ask my colleagues to support this resolution calling for the U.S. to take up the solutions contained in a very important UN/World Bank report. If we act now, we can help our allies to greatly reduce their crime levels before the situation becomes far less manageable."

CRIME AND VIOLENCE IN THE CARIBBEAN,
CLEAR AND PRESENT DANGER EXPERTS WARN
(By Tony Best)

"A clear and present danger to the Caribbean's social stability and economic vibrancy." That's how Dr. Ivelaw Griffith, perhaps the Caribbean's foremost security specialist, described the bleak picture of crime and violence confronting almost every nation and territory in the region.

With the homicide rate at historic levels in some countries, the rising incidence of kidnappings and armed robberies, drug and gun running serious problem for urban communities, and break-ins and assaults of homeowners now commonplace throughout the area, Dr. Griffith, Provost and Senior Vice President of the York College of the City University of New York, said that unless a comprehensive solution and implemented soon, the economic impact would be severe and the social stability undermined.

"It has reached a nearly uniform level of being a clear and present danger for the region," he told the Carib News after Caricom leaders approved a plan to deal with it at a recent special summit in Trinidad and Tobago, one of the region's hardest hit countries. "Although it is not a crisis-driven situation in every country, for instance there is variability in the homicide rate in Jamaica and St. Kitts-Nevis and there is the perennial trafficking of drug trafficking in Guyana vis-à-vis the Bahamas. But given the connectivity of the region, given the transnationality of the challenges, an appropriate definition is that the situation is a clear and present danger."

Meanwhile, the Caribbean's crime profile hasn't gone unnoticed by members of the U.S. House of Representatives in Washington. At the urging of Brooklyn Congresswoman, Yvette Clarke, the chamber has approved a resolution calling on the United States to assist the region as it tries to grapple with the growing problem.

"What is very significant about it is that is a record by which we can hold the feet of the House and by extension the Congress to the fire when it comes to our relationship
