

What was not lost on me, though, was the concept that these very tight supply and demand markets are around the world, and I think, man, those first four witnesses that presented to us that day said that by the year 2015, world demand would vastly outstrip supply. The message I took from that is we'd best be looking at the next level of supply because we had about a 7-year window in which to achieve that, so you had to be sure that some of these other methods that we've heard today would be several years down the road before we would actually get the supply from those areas, but we need to start today to be able to get that supply.

The other thing that was just absolutely amazing was the number of dollars going into those markets and where the actual rate of rise really began to increase. It was in about December of 2006 or in January of 2007.

I think my time has expired. I yield back to the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

Mr. ALTMIRE. I thank the gentleman.

I thank the gentleman from Georgia (Mr. WESTMORELAND). I especially thank the gentleman from Texas (Mr. BARTON) for these 2 hours.

This, I think, was very productive, very eventful. We had a good debate. Hopefully, this is not the last time that we will do this. I thank the Speaker for the time, for both this hour and for the previous hour.

At this point, I would yield back.
