

travel. Amtrak's British Thermal Unit, (or, "BTU," standard unit of energy) per passenger mile was 2,650 in 2006. This compares to the 3,264 BTUs for air travel and 3,445 BTUs for highway travel in 2006. New energy efficient equipment is further improving conservation (e.g., in addition to Acela Express trains' regenerative braking system, Amtrak has acquired new more energy-efficient Auto Train vehicle carriers and is evaluating more fuel efficient switching locomotives). Amtrak's BTU per passenger mile improved from 2,800 in 2003 to 2,760 in 2004, 2,709 in 2005, and 2,650 in 2006.

Amtrak is taking steps to further reduce its greenhouse gas emissions. After Amtrak restored electrified service to the 104-mile Philadelphia-Harrisburg line in October 2006, it replaced 9 diesel powered roundtrip trains per weekday with 12 roundtrip trains powered by electricity. Today, most of the electric power Amtrak uses between New York and Washington is generated from non-fossil fuel sources.

Madam Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HELLER of Nevada. Madam Speaker, I appreciate the chairman's comments and his commitment to renewable energies.

I just want to mention, living in a district that's 105,000 square miles—and I mention that every time I get a chance to speak—

Mr. OBERSTAR. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HELLER of Nevada. Absolutely. Mr. OBERSTAR. My district is 30,000 square miles. I sympathize.

Mr. HELLER of Nevada. It takes me 15 hours to get from one end of my district to the other.

So what I'm looking for, as I mentioned earlier—and I appreciate your commitment to electric cars because we're all there. The fact is I want a car that goes 300 miles and recharges in 5 to 10 minutes because if you live in Elko, Nevada and you have an electric car, it takes you 300 miles roundtrip to get anywhere. And if it takes you 6 hours to plug it in, it's certainly going to cost you more to reserve time in a hotel in order to get back. But again, I want to thank the chairman.

Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. OBERSTAR. Madam Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the previous question is ordered on the motion to instruct.

CONGRESSIONAL BASEBALL GAME

(Mr. BARTON of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BARTON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, last Thursday evening, at Nationals Stadium, we had the 47th Annual Congressional Baseball Game. The true winners of the game were the Washington Literacy Council and the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Washington, D.C. area.

In terms of the score on the field, in the most thrilling game that I have been associated with in the last 21 years that I have played, coached or managed, in the bottom of the seventh with the bases loaded and one out and the Democrats leading 10-9, CONNIE MACK hit a dart back to the pitcher, Mr. BACA, who threw home for a force out making two outs. And then unfortunately for my friends on the Democratic side, the catcher overthrew the first baseman allowing two runs to score, the winning run by the speedy ADAM PUTNAM of Florida for a thrilling 11-10 victory. Our MVP on the Republican side was KEVIN BRADY of The Woodlands, Texas.

The class of 1996, which includes KEVIN BRADY, MVP; KENNY HULSHOF, who was our first baseman, CHIP PICKERING; the third baseman; JEFF FLAKE, center fielder; VIRGIL GOODE, right fielder; TOM DAVIS, one of our tricaptains; PETE SESSIONS, our third-base coach; and SAM GRAVES who was a pinch runner and hitter, those players in the 12 years that they have played in the game have an 11-1 record, which I think is amazing.

I want to thank Speaker NANCY PELOSI for attending the game, Majority Leader STENY HOYER for attending the game, and I want to thank my good friend, MIKE DOYLE, for his excellent job of managing. It can truly be said that this year, the Democrats had victory in their grasp and took pity on us and allowed us to win one more time.

Mr. DOYLE. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. BARTON of Texas. I will be happy to yield.

Mr. DOYLE. Mr. Speaker, as manager of the Democratic team, we want to congratulate our friends over on the Republican side in what had to be one of the most exciting games, certainly for the fans to watch, a little less exciting from our perspective. I just want to say our guys, the top of the seventh inning, we were down 8-4, and it was our last at-bat. And it would have been easy to fold. But our guys came back, scored six runs to put this game into the bottom of the seventh inning in one of the most exciting games we've seen. I think parity has finally arrived in the House baseball game.

We look forward to playing our friends across the aisle next year.

The big winner, of course, is our charities, the Washington Boys & Girls
