ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1502

So the Journal was approved.
 The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. RANGEL. Pursuant to clause 1 of rule IX, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has been made aware of a valid basis for the gentleman's point of personal privilege.

The gentleman from New York is recognized for 1 hour.

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I promise you, this will not take anywhere near 1 hour.

I was advised last night and assured this morning that the minority intended to bring up a resolution recommending that I be censured or that my conduct as reported in The New York Times would be declared that I was a discredit to this House.

There is no one in this House that is more thick-skinned than I am in terms of playing politics, but playing with someone's reputation, especially someone that has felt so honored to serve in this House, I really think goes a step beyond that.

In reading the allegations as to where my campaign headquarters was located or what the rent should have been, I have never felt more secure that I violated no law and no spirit of the law. But in order to make certain, to make certain that there is no cloud over my conduct in New York, I asked the Ethics Committee to look into it, to investigate, to do whatever is necessary to bring this to the House and to bring it to my family and friends.

In addition to that, the same newspaper reported that I was overly aggressive in trying to raise funds in order to encourage moneys to go to a local college that encouraged minorities and others to get involved in public service. And even though there was no request for money, the mere fact that there was a cloud involved in the accusation by the newspapers, even though there have been more newspaper articles correcting it than anything else, I referred that to the Ethics Committee.

Showing that I do want this to be sincerely investigated, I am asking the minority to allow me to join in with them in this resolution to say this matter should be cleared up. But there is no need, even for mean-spirited people in the minority, to say that I am a discredit to the United States Congress, based on a newspaper story, and, worse than that, there is no reason why Republicans or Democrats should do this to each other based on any newspaper story.

So, I don't know the parliamentary inquiry, and, as most of you suspected, most of my friends say, Rangel, the less you say the better, get out of the headlines, and do all of these things. And this is normally what I recommend to newer Members: just leave it alone, it will go away. But my reputation won't, and I could not really appreciate if this body was to resolve that I bring dishonor to this wonderful House and this wonderful country, or that I be censured.

So I make an appeal to the minority; let me join in with you with the request. Let me say if there is any doubt about anything, I would feel better if it went to the Ethics Committee. I have requested that it go to the Ethics Committee. Let us join in. But with not one scintilla of any evidence, other than a newspaper story, I think fairness would say, for God's sake, don't make politics out of a person's reputation. Strike out "discredit," strike out "censure," and put in there whatever the heck the Ethics Committee recommends. I join with them. I ask you to consider that.

I yield back the balance of my time.

RAISING A QUESTION OF THE PRIVILEGES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I have a privileged resolution at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

H. RES. 1396

Whereas the representative from New York, Charles B. Rangel, serves as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, a position of considerable power and influence within the House of Representatives;

Whereas clause 1 of rule XXIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives provides that "A Member, Delegate, Resident Commissioner, officer, or employee of the House shall conduct himself at all times in a manner that shall reflect creditably on the House.;"

Whereas the New York Times reported on July 11, 2008 that, "While aggressive evictions are reducing the number of rent-stabilized apartments in New York, Representative Charles B. Rangel is enjoying four of them, including three adjacent units on the 16th floor overlooking Upper Manhattan in a building owned by one of New York's premier real estate developers.;"

Whereas the New York Times newspaper reported on July 11, 2008, that Rep. Rangel, "paid a total rent of $3,894 monthly in 2007 for four apartments at Lennox Terrace, a

1,700-unit luxury development of six towers, with doormen, that is described in real estate publications as Harlem's most prestigious address.”;

Whereas the New York Times newspaper reported on July 11, 2008, that “The current market-rate rent for similar apartments in Mr. Rangel’s building would total $7,465 to $8,125 a month, according to the Web site of the owner, the Olnick Organization.”;

Whereas clause 5(a)(2)(A) of rule XXV of the Rules of the House defines a gift as, “a gratuity, favor, discount, entertainment, hospitality, loan, forbearance, or other item having monetary value.”;

Whereas clause 5 of rule XXV provides that a Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner, officer, or employee of the House may not knowingly accept a gift in violation of that clause;

Whereas the New York Times newspaper reported on July 18, 2008, “Mr. Rangel acknowledged that his use of one of the apartments as a campaign office ‘presents an issue,’ given that city and state guidelines require rentstabilized apartments to be used as a primary residence. ;

Whereas section 2520.11(k) of the Rent Stabilization Code of the State of New York prohibits the application of rent stabilization to “housing accommodations which are not occupied by the tenant, not including subtenants or occupants, as his or her primary residence as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction.”;

Whereas in each of the years 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, and 2008, the campaign committee of the representative from New York, Representative Rangel, known as “Rangel for Congress” and by Federal Election Commission Identification Number C00302422, made disbursements to the Lennox Terrace Development Association for payment of office rent;

Whereas Olnick Organization, Inc. owns the Lennox Terrace Development;

Whereas according to the State of New York, Department of State, Division of Corporations, the Olnick Organization, Inc., owner of Representative Rangel’s apartments, is an active domestic business corporation;

Whereas section 441b(a) of title 2, United States Code, states that “it is unlawful for any national bank, or any corporation organized by authority of any law of Congress, to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election to any political office, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any political office, or for any corporation whatever, or any labor organization, to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election at which presidential and vice presidential electors or a Senator or Representative in, or a Delegate or Resident Commissioner to, Congress are to be voted for, or in connection with any primary election or political convention or caucus held to select candidates for any of the foregoing offices, or for any candidate, political committee, or other person knowingly to accept or receive any contribution prohibited by this section, or any officer or any director of any corporation or any national bank or any officer of any labor organization to consent to any contribution or expenditure by the corporation, national bank, or labor organization, as the case may be, prohibited by this section.”;

Whereas Federal Election Commission records confirm that in 2004 Representative Rangel received $2,000 in campaign contributions from Sylvia Olnick, an owner of Olnick Organization, Inc. the company that owns his apartment building, and that Representative Rangel’s separate political action committee also received $2,500 donations from Ms. Olnick in 2004 and 2006;

Whereas the New York Times newspaper reported on July 11, 2008, “City records show that in 2005, a lobbyist for the Olnick Organization met with Mr. Rangel and Mr. Paterson, who was then the State Senate minority leader, as the company set out to win government approvals of a plan to expand Lenox Terrace and build another apartment complex in the Bronx.”;

Whereas Representative Rangel’s acceptance of more than one rent-controlled apartment for his personal use is a violation of the House gift ban;

Whereas Representative Rangel’s failure to disclose the aforementioned gifts on his annual Personal Financial Disclosure statements is a violation of House rules;

Whereas the acceptance by Representative Rangel’s campaign of illegal corporate contributions from the Olnick Organization, Inc. violates Federal law;

Whereas the failure by Representative Rangel’s campaign to disclose certain contributions from the Olnick Organization, Inc. violates Federal law: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That—

(1) by the conduct giving rise to this resolution the representative from New York, Representative Charles B. Rangel, has dishonored himself and brought discredit to the House and merits the censure of the House for same; and,

(2) the representative from New York, Mr. Rangel, is hereby so censured.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The resolution presents a question of privilege.

MOTION TO TABLE

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I move to lay the resolution on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to table.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on the motion to table will be followed by 5-minute votes on ordering the previous question on H. Res. 1388; adopting H. Res. 1388, if ordered; ordering the previous question on H. Res. 1384; and adopting H. Res. 1384, if ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 254, noes 138, answered “present” 34, not voting 9, as follows:
