Prayer
The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, in You is light and salvation. Because You have compassion on our darkness, we always live with expectations of a new day. Be ever-present and shed Your light upon the Members of Congress.

When confronted by the complexity of problems to be addressed, grant singleness of mind and focus on justice. When confused by many voices of concern and advice, let the truth of Your Word be heard. When aware of limitations and the passing of time, provide patience and understanding of others and the ability to seize the present moment to accomplish Your holy will. For You are ever-faithful, God with us, now and forever.

Amen.
