hard pressed to find one, a sad statement on us.

As to what I do? No trips during the week except to work and back. If I can do any errands at all, otherwise it’s till the weekend. I plan one trip, one circle. If something is missed, too bad, it is missed. The real clincher is this, I tithe to my church but I am not practiced in a marital sense. My benefits ended this week, no hope to keep my car in gasoline between pay checks. Now I think it is pretty awful when I have to pay $10 less, to keep my car in gasoline between pay checks. It costs me almost as much, $10 less, to keep my car in gasoline between pay checks. If something is missed, too bad, it is missed. The real clincher is this, I tithe to my church but I am not practiced in a marital sense.

Thank you for at least noticing that we have a problem with the cost. I do not believe, however, that anything can be done to ameliorate the problem. I would like to make a good living working for the military here in Boise but am still unable to put any money aside. It is funny that every time we receive a pay raise the price of fuel goes up and our health care premiums grow as well, so you never see any savings. Thanks again; good luck with this effort.

REMEMBERING TONY DEAN

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. President, today I wish to recognize the passing of a very close friend of mine, Tony Dean. As one of this Nation’s foremost conservationists, one would be hard put to find someone who cared more about wildlife and the environment. Tony passed away on October 19.

I had known Tony for years with his high profile television commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 Senate campaign. He told me that he was willing to do whatever I needed him to do, and he was honest to his word. With his natural and effective voice, he was a television sensation. Tony starred in two commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 campaign. I have no doubt that Tony’s support was crucial, though it resulted in many tests to his courage. Even amidst the backlash of his supporting my campaign, he said, “Tim, I know I did the right thing, and I’d do it again in a second.” Tony shamed down the people who threatened him, and he refused to blink.

As Director of Gritman Adult Day Health Center, I wish to recognize the passing of a very dear friend of mine, Tony Dean. As one of this Nation’s foremost conservationists, one would be hard put to find someone who cared more about wildlife and the environment. Tony passed away on October 19.

I had known Tony for years with his high profile television commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 Senate campaign. He told me that he was willing to do whatever I needed him to do, and he was honest to his word. With his natural and effective voice, he was a television sensation. Tony starred in two commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 campaign. I have no doubt that Tony’s support was crucial, though it resulted in many tests to his courage. Even amidst the backlash of his supporting my campaign, he said, “Tim, I know I did the right thing, and I’d do it again in a second.” Tony shamed down the people who threatened him, and he refused to blink.

As Director of Gritman Adult Day Health Center, I wish to recognize the passing of a very dear friend of mine, Tony Dean. As one of this Nation’s foremost conservationists, one would be hard put to find someone who cared more about wildlife and the environment. Tony passed away on October 19.

I had known Tony for years with his high profile television commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 Senate campaign. He told me that he was willing to do whatever I needed him to do, and he was honest to his word. With his natural and effective voice, he was a television sensation. Tony starred in two commercials that were critical to the success of my 2002 campaign. I have no doubt that Tony’s support was crucial, though it resulted in many tests to his courage. Even amidst the backlash of his supporting my campaign, he said, “Tim, I know I did the right thing, and I’d do it again in a second.” Tony shamed down the people who threatened him, and he refused to blink.

As Director of Gritman Adult Day Health Center, I wish to recognize the passing of a very dear friend of mine, Tony Dean. As one of this Nation’s foremost conservationists, one would be hard put to find someone who cared more about wildlife and the environment. Tony passed away on October 19.