AUTHORITY FOR COMMITTEES TO MEET

COMMITTEE ON HOMELAND SECURITY AND GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs be authorized to meet during the session of the Senate on Thursday, December 11, 2008, at 10 a.m. to conduct a hearing entitled "World at Risk: A Report from the Commission on the Prevention of Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferation and Terrorism."

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNITED STATES CAPITOL COMPLEX TOURS

Mr. DURBIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the consideration of S. Con. Res. 107, which was submitted earlier today.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the concurrent resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 107) expressing the sense of Congress regarding the rights of Members of Congress (or any employee of a Member of Congress authorized by that Member) to lead tours of the United States Capitol complex.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the concurrent resolution.

Mr. DURBIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the concurrent resolution be agreed to and the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The concurrent resolution (S. Con. Res. 107) was agreed to, as follows:

S. CON. RES. 107

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that—

(1) Members of Congress (or any employee of a Member of Congress authorized by that Member) should not be prohibited, with or without prior notice to the Architect of the Capitol, the Chief Executive Officer for Visitor Services, or the Capitol Guide Service, from taking guests or visitors into the publicly accessible areas of the United States Capitol complex during normal business hours;

(2) nothing in this resolution shall be construed to affect the authority granted to employees of Members of Congress by the respective Members relating to the movement of such employees through the United States Capitol complex;

(3) at the direction of the Capitol Police Board or the fire marshal, the taking of guests or visitors into the publicly accessible areas of the United States Capitol complex by a Member of Congress (or any employee of a Member of Congress authorized by that Member) should be temporarily suspended or otherwise subject to restriction for safety or security reasons to the same extent as guided tours of the United States Capitol complex which are led by the Architect of the Capitol or the Capitol Guide Service; and

(4) nothing in this resolution shall be interpreted to contradict the Congressional staff-led tour policy that ensures that tours of the Capitol are conducted by staff members who have undergone mandatory life safety and historical accuracy training.

CENTENNIAL OF UNION STATION, DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Mr. DURBIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the Environment and Public Works Committee be discharged from further consideration and the Senate now proceed to the consideration of S. Res. 664.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 664) celebrating the centennial of Union Station in Washington, District of Columbia.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. DURBIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, and the motions to reconsider be laid upon the table.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 664) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 664

Whereas, on February 28, 1903, President Theodore Roosevelt signed into law the act entitled "An Act to provide a union railroad station in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes", and Daniel Burnham, a noted architect from Chicago, Illinois, was chosen to design the building;

Whereas, on October 27, 1907, Union Station officially opened at 6:50 a.m. when the Baltimore and Ohio Pittsburgh Express pulled in to the station;

Whereas the building was ultimately completed in 1908;

Whereas, in 1924, 5,000 cheering fans met the victorious Washington Nationals at Union Station after they defeated the Boston

Red Sox to capture the American League pennant;

Whereas, in 1951, President Harry Truman dedicated the Presidential Suite at Union Station as a "home away from home" for members of the Armed Services;

Whereas, in 1968, in preparation for the bicentennial of the United States, the decision was made to transform the building into a National Visitor Center;

Whereas Congress then passed the Union Station Redevelopment Act of 1981 (Public Law 97-125; 95 Stat. 1667) to return Union Station to its original use as a transportation center;

Whereas, in 1983, the Union Station Redevelopment Corporation was created to oversee the development of the station into an operating railroad station, to restore the architectural and historical elements of the structure, to explore collaboration with the private sector in the commercial development of the station, and to withdraw the Federal Government from active management of the station;

Whereas the renovation and restoration of Union Station began on August 13, 1986, with the ringing of an old train bell;

Whereas the restoration of Union Station was the largest public-private restoration project accomplished in the United States;

Whereas the restoration took 2 years and the grand reopening was held on September 29, 1988;

Whereas, in 2008, Union Station includes more than 210,000 square feet of retail space, including 50,000 square feet of restaurant space;

Whereas Union Station is the corporate headquarters for Amtrak and contains 200,000 square feet of Amtrak passenger and baggage facilities;

Whereas 32,000,000 people visit Union Station annually; and

Whereas Union Station is the most visited tourist destination in Washington, District of Columbia: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) celebrates the centennial of Union Station in Washington, District of Columbia;

(2) applauds the efforts of the people who worked to preserve this national treasure; and

(3) encourages the people of the United States to continue to visit and learn about Union Station and its storied history.
