

I just want to say, Madam Speaker, briefly, when we honor you today, Jack, we honor all of the extraordinary support staff and professionals that serve the United States House of Representatives because you represent the finest of them through your 30 years of service. Most of us don't know, he is not just Jack Kelliher, he could be our Jack Bauer. He pulled, at one point as a Capitol police officer, a bomber from the gallery. He has a distinguished history of valor and patriotic service at the highest level. And he is the Keeper of the Mace and Assistant Sergeant at Arms.

Sitting next to him is Joyce Hamlett, who will take his place full time. She is my best friend here in the House. We love Joyce.

We are grateful for Jack. As was said, I have had more laughs in the last 15 years with Jack out on the balcony than just about anybody in the House. He is a good-natured man and a man of extraordinary commitment to our country. We will sorely miss him. In St. Augustine a number of years ago they bought a little place not on the beach but just off the beach. And it is where he goes to get away from us. And we won't follow you there, Jack. We want you and Nancy to enjoy those days and come back to see us. But know every minute how grateful every man and woman in the U.S. House of Representatives is for your service to our country, Jack. Thank you and we honor you.
