ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (during the vote). There are 2 minutes remaining in this vote.

□ 1548

Messrs. CAPUANO and MASSA changed their vote from “nay” to “yea.”

So (two-thirds being in the affirmative) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF THE TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SHOOTINGS AT COLUMBINE

(Mr. COFFMAN of Colorado asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. COFFMAN of Colorado. Madam Speaker, I know that the whole House joins the Colorado delegation in their sorrow at the tragic events of 1999. The Nation was horrified. This was an event that changed the Nation and still casts a shadow on our culture. The community around Columbine still deals with this event, and I believe it is appropriate for us to pause and reflect on what happened that terrible day.

I would now yield to my colleague, Ms. DEGETTE.

Ms. DEGETTE. Madam Speaker, 10 years ago this week as I sat in my office in the Longworth Office Building, I watched the horrific events of the Columbine shooting occur. Sadly, that was not the first time we've had a high school shooting. And even more sadly, it was not the last time we've seen a shooting of this nature.

Every time this happens, for those of us in Colorado the memory of the horrific events in April 10 years ago floods back to us. I am joined today with the entire Colorado delegation, as Mr. COFFMAN said, in mourning the loss of the teacher and the students at Columbine. Mr. PERLMUTTER had constituents who were killed in the shooting. I had constituents attending Columbine at that time, and we still do today.

All of us share the hope that Principal Frank DeAngelis, who was the principal then and now, shared with the country Monday this week at a ceremony commemorating the 10th anniversary of Columbine. Principal DeAngelis said on Monday—and we all agree with this—“My hope is that school violence comes to an end, and that our Nation is not mourning the loss of more of our children and educators; and that the members of our society come together to stop the senseless deaths that are occurring. Our children are our future, and we must continue to pave the way for a safe and successful journey.”

Let's remember Columbine, and let's remember these words.

Mr. COFFMAN of Colorado. Madam Speaker, to my colleagues, please join me in a moment of silence for the victims and their families.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Members please rise for a moment of silence.

MOMENT OF SILENCE OBSERVED FOR BINGHAMTON, NEW YORK TRAGEDY

(Mr. HINCHEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. HINCHEY. Madam Speaker, I rise today in the context of a deep tragedy that struck the 22nd Congressional District in New York, and particularly the wonderful city of Binghamton.

Less than 3 weeks ago, this proud community suffered a devastating tragedy. On the morning of Friday, April 13, 2009, a single gunman entered the office of the American Civic Association and murdered 13 innocent people. He murdered 13 innocent people, and wounded four more. This was a horrendous act of violence, one that no community should ever experience.

Next week, I will be presenting a condolence resolution on the floor which will convey sympathy to the families of these victims, express hope that those wounded and touched by this tragedy are on the path to recovery, and to thank all of those who responded to the scene and secured the security and helped the victims.

Today, I would like to take a moment to honor the 13 individuals who lost their lives that day. The victims ranged in age from 22 years to 72 years. They included a mother of three, a newly wedded bride, a student, a teacher, and many others, all of whom were hardworking individuals who had the same goal of being able to offer a better life for themselves and their family.

At this time, Madam Speaker, I would be very grateful to request that Congress take a moment of silence to reflect on this senseless loss of life, and to pray for the victims and their family and friends.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members please rise for a moment of silence.
