SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 6, 2009, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

REVISIONS TO ALLOCATION FOR HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from South Carolina (Mr. SPRATT) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. SPRATT. Madam Speaker, Under section 423(a)(1) of S. Con. Res. 13, the concurrent resolution on the budget for fiscal year 2010, I hereby submit an adjustment to the budget aggregates and allocations for the Committee on Appropriations for each of the fiscal years 2009 and 2010. Section 423(a)(1) of S. Con. Res. 13 permits the chairman of the Committee on the Budget to adjust discretionary spending limits for overseas deployments and other activities when these activities are so designated. Such a designation is included both in the conference report to accompany H.R. 2346, a bill making supplemental appropriations for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2009, and for other purposes, and in the bill H.R. 2847, Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2010.

n.a. = Not applicable because annual appropriations Acts for fiscal years 2011 through 2014 will not be considered until future sessions of Congress.

¹ Current aggregates do not include the disaster allowance assumed in the budget resolution, which if needed will be excluded from current level with an emergency designation (section 423(b)).

² Budget authority in the amount of the adjustment is already included in the resolution aggregates. The adjustment represents the difference in spendout rates between what was assumed in the budget resolution and the actual supplemental. Adjustments for outlays from 2010 designated budget authority will be made when needed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Texas (Mr. POE) is recognized for 5 minutes.

(Mr. POE of Texas addressed the House. His remarks will appear hereafter in the Extensions of Remarks.)

HONORING DR. BOB FREDERICK

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. MORAN) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Madam Speaker, I rise this evening to announce the sad passing of Dr. Bob Frederick, a distinguished Kansan and exceptional human being.

Dr. Frederick served as athletic director at the University of Kansas for 14 years, the second longest tenure in the school history, and a period during which the Jayhawk athletics achieved 32 conference championships and generated 41 Academic All-Americans, the latter of which I'm sure meant the most to Dr. Frederick, as that is the kind of person he was.

Dr. Frederick felt most concerned about the well-being of student athletes. First as a coach and later as an athletic director, he showed that concern as he personally took an interest in the students at Kansas University that were also engaged in the intense dedication that it takes to be a college athlete today.

While very competitive by nature, he was as gracious in defeat and as much a class act as any athletic director there ever was. For Dr. Frederick, the bottom line was not about winning but, rather, about improving and advancing the lives of young men and women.

Dr. Frederick loved Kansas. As part of the university for 35 years, beginning with his bachelor's and master's degrees and walking onto the basketball team to his years of serving as assistant basketball coach, athletic director, and finally as administrator and assistant professor, it is clear Dr. Frederick and Kansans were meant for each other.

Dr. Frederick is perhaps best known for his bold hire of then-unknown assistant basketball coach Roy Williams in 1989. Williams, who would achieve the winningest decade of any first-time head coach in NCAA history, said of Dr. Frederick, "He is the finest gentleman I've ever known in my life."

A basketball coach himself at Russell and Lawrence High Schools, as well as Coffeyville Community College in Kansas, Dr. Frederick was cherished on all sides of our great State. I wish to offer this tribute to an outstanding gentleman, Dr. Bob Frederick, and express my sincere condolences to his wife, Margey, and his four sons. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE NEWEST STANLEY CUP CHAMPIONS: THE PITTSBURGH PENGUINS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. ALTMIRE) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. ALTMIRE. Madam Speaker, to borrow a catchphrase from Hall of Fame hockey announcer Mike Lange, "You can buy Sam a drink and get his dog one, too, because Lord Stanley's Cup is making a return visit to the City of Champions." Pittsburgh now becomes the first city to ever be home to both the defending Super Bowl and Stanley Cup champions at the same time.

This past Friday, the Pittsburgh Penguins won their third Stanley Cup, and they did it the hard way, by coming from behind on the road in game 7 of the finals against last year's champion Detroit Red Wings.
