ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

THE NINE LOTHSPPEICH BROTHERS

• Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, there is no State in the Union that is prouder of its military heritage than North Dakota. When I began the North Dakota Veterans History Project a few years ago to record the stories of our veterans for future generations, the outpouring of interest around the State resulted in more than 1,500 interviews.

In the past, I have spoken in this Chamber about the nine North Dakota soldiers who earned Medals of Honor during a single campaign in the 1899 Philippine Insurrection, about the famed 164th Infantry Regiment of the North Dakota National Guard, about the "Happy Hooligans" of the North Dakota Air National Guard's 119th Fighter Wing, and about Woody Keeble who won the Medal of Honor for his heroism in Korea.

Today, I would like to tell you about some more North Dakota military heroes. On July 4 of this year, the city of Park River, ND, is going to devote part of its 125th anniversary celebration to recognizing the military service of a truly remarkable North Dakota "band of brothers."

In 1920, Edward Lothspeich of Langdon, ND, married Rose Dirkes of Sauk Centre, MN. They settled in Wales, ND, where Ed managed a lumber yard. In time, Ed and Rose Lothspeich became the proud parents of nine sons and one daughter.

The nine Lothspeich brothers hold a unique record in the history of the State of North Dakota. Each one of them served in U.S. Armed Forces. That is most from any single family in our State.

Let me tell you a bit about each of them.

Eugene Lothspeich, the eldest son, served in the Army from 1942 to 1945. He was a machine gunner with the 337th Infantry Regiment through three campaigns in Italy. He received the Purple Heart for wounds received in the Apennines.

Edward served in the Army from 1943 to 1946. He served in the Pacific theater and saw combat on the islands of Leyte and Luzon.

Donald served in the Navy from 1943 to 1946. He was a machinist's mate and repaired damaged ships while stationed in Hawaii and San Diego, CA.

Donald was inducted in the Army in 1950 and served for 2 years in Germany.

Gerald was drafted into the Army in 1950 and was stationed at Fort Lewis, WA, for 2 years, except for a short period when he was sent to Nevada to support nuclear weapons testing.

Lyle was inducted in the Army in 1951. He served in Hawaii, Iceland, and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he was a rifle instructor.

Marlin served in the Air Force from 1951 to 1955. He served in Japan in the Air Force Medical Service Corps.

Franklin entered the Army in 1955. He served in Germany as a tank gunner.

Leon, the youngest of the nine Lothspeich brothers, served in the Army from 1954 to 1957. He was stationed in Germany where he worked with guided missiles.

From World War II, through the Korean conflict and into the early years of the Cold War, Leon, Eugene, Harold, Edward, Donald, Gerald, Lyle, Marlin, and Franklin Lothspeich served with honor and bravery. These nine men, a "band of brothers," made many sacrifices for the safety and freedom of our country and the world.

Today I want to particularly honor three of the brothers who are still with us: Lyle, Marlin, and Franklin.

Our Nation is what it is today because of the soldiers, sailors, and airmen like the Lothspeich brothers who were willing to leave their homes so many years ago and travel around the world to protect our freedom. They did it without complaint and without question. They loved their country.

There is a verse that goes, "When the night is full of knives, and the lightning is seen, and the drums are heard, the patriots are always there, ready to fight and ready to die, if necessary, for freedom." These brothers I have just described are true patriots.

The story of the nine Lothspeich brothers is a remarkable one. It illustrates the strength of character and hardy determination that has served America so well for so many years. The Lothspeich brothers loved their country and answered the call of duty. They stood up for America, and I am honored to salute their service today in the Senate.●
