IN RECOGNITION OF CAPTAIN ENRIQUE SADSAD UPON RECEIVING THE 2009 MILITARY LEADER OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. JEFF MILLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, July 21, 2009

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize Captain Enrique Sadsad, who has received the 2009 Military Leader of the Year Award, given by the Association of Defense Communities. Captain Sadsad's tireless pursuit of fostering community bonds, developing defense partnerships and effectively leading the Training Air Wing Five for the Naval Air Station Whiting Field has made a lasting difference in the lives of many in my district.

Captain Sadsad effectively fulfills his military mission through superior leadership of Training Air Wing Five. His duties include coordinating fixed-wing and rotary-wing aircraft pilot training for Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Air Force and pilots from over a dozen different countries. Under Captain Sadsad's direction, the Training Air Wing Five contributes to 10% of all Naval Flight hours flown worldwide. Captain Sadsad still finds the time to go above and beyond his call of duty to actively engage in the community exemplified through his involvement with numerous programs. Chief among them include; the Covenant Hospice Veteran program, American Cancer Society, Habitat for Humanity, Junior Reserve Officer Training Course, Partners-in-Education, Manna Food Bank, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and the Drug Education for Youth program.

Moreover, Captain Sadsad's successful joint venture with County and State Encroachment Partnering has resulted in the acquisition of more than 1,000 acres of conservation easements contributing to the protection of the mission at NAS Whiting Field. In addition, Captain Sadsad has sought to diligently work with resource management to oversee the preservation of several rare, threatened and endangered wildlife species as well as overseeing 2,351 acres of forestland, 317 acres of wetlands, and 742 acres in Agricultural leases.

Madam Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress, I would like to thank Captain Enrique Sadsad for his dedicated efforts of training our service men and women and conscientiously working to improve the community of Northwest Florida. IN TRIBUTE TO OBIE V. BRANDON

HON. DORIS O. MATSUI

OF CALIFORNIA

Ms. MATSUI. Madam Speaker, I rise today in tribute to Obie Brandon, a dear friend and community leader who passed away last week after a valiant fight against cancer. Obie was a prominent labor leader in the Sacramento Region, and his death leaves a great void in the fight for the rights of working families and the labor movement. As his family, friends, and labor brothers and sisters gather to honor and remember his wonderful life, I ask all my colleagues to join me in saluting one of Sacramento's most well-respected figures.

Obie was an admired advocate for the working class citizens and an unapologetic champion for the rights of the underserved and needy. Obie's roots in labor began early in his life with his first career beginning in 1962 as a flour miller for Pillsbury. After the plant closed, he continued his career with United Grocers until he was called for military service in Vietnam. After serving his country for two years in Vietnam, Obie returned to his position with United Grocers. He was a steadfast advocate of labor and continued his support of labor by becoming an active member of the International Longshoremen's Warehouse Union Local 17. He began as the Recording-Secretary for the ILWU Local 17 in 1970 and soon became the Local's President in 1973.

Obie was widely recognized as a tough negotiator and strong advocate for the rights of Union labor members. His ardent support for the labor movement soon caught the attention of Roy Mack of the United Food and Commercial Workers Local 498. Obie later joined Mack on the staff of the Local 498, where only eight months into his membership he was elected Secretary-Treasurer, a position he would hold from 1982 to 1990. Later, along with other labor leaders, Obie helped form the Coalition of Organized Labor Board, an organization of 24 local Unions representing some 150,000 members and committed to bringing Unions together to provide mutual support. He served until his passing as the group's Secretary-Treasurer.

Through his advocacy at the local and state levels, Obie became an important ambassador between labor Unions and Commercial Enterprises. In addition to his work with the UFCW, Obie served as Vice President of the Sacramento Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO. He was a passionate supporter of working class citizens and their rights through labor Unions, and his ardor and commitment to these issues resonated in his advocacy. Obie contributed to the growth and maturity of countless people and was a true champion of the labor movement.

Madam Speaker, as Obie Brandon's wife Kathy, his children Tera Clizbe and Eric Brandon, his three grandchildren, Cameron, Brandon and Taylor, and his friends gather to honor his wonderful legacy and countless contributions, I am honored to pay tribute to him. I ask all my colleagues to pause and join me in paying respect to an extraordinarily loving man, Obie Brandon.
