

REMARKS ON THE MANAGER'S
AMENDMENT TO H.R. 3170HON. ROSA L. DeLAURO

OF CONNECTICUT

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 24, 2009

Ms. DeLAURO. Madam Speaker, I rise in strong support of the Manager's amendment and particularly the increase in funding for the CPSC.

In short, we cannot afford to cut corners when it comes to consumer product safety. The stakes are much too high.

In recent years, we have seen hundreds of recalls affecting millions of toys—many of which were for extremely dangerous lead-contamination.

Today, 86 percent of the toys Americans purchase are imported from China. Almost one-fifth of all consumer products for sale in America today are Chinese-made. These trends demand a real vigilance on our part. Parents cannot distinguish a dangerous toy coated with lead paint from one that is safe simply by looking at it. They must be able to count on the agencies charged with protecting them.

That is why we must fund the CSPC to its fullest extent. Just last July, we passed the Consumer Safety Improvement Act by a margin of 424 to 1. Now is not the time, less than a year after we finally began taking the Commission's responsibilities seriously, to start cutting the CSPC back down to the bone. The health and safety of our children, and of all American consumers, are far too important for that.

This is an important amendment that strengthens this bill and I urge its adoption.

HONORING MR. RICHARD D.
"DICK" MACRAVEYHON. JOHN T. SALAZAR

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 24, 2009

Mr. SALAZAR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor my mentor and close friend, Mr. Richard D. "Dick" MacRavey. After twenty-six years of service as the Secretary and Executive Director of the Colorado Water Congress, Dick is announcing his retirement. Throughout his tenure, Dick helped enact a multitude of important legislation to protect water resources throughout Colorado. As Executive Director, Dick saw 350 of the 419 Colorado Water Congress supported bills enacted into law. In addition, only one of the 123 bills opposed by the Colorado Water Congress became law. This impressive record demonstrates Dick's effective leadership and dedication to protecting Colorado's water.

During my time in the Colorado State Legislature, Dick took me under his wing and taught me a great deal about water legislation. As a farmer and life-long resident of the San Luis Valley, I understand the importance of water. This precious resource is our lifeblood and essential to maintaining our way of life. Dick understood the needs of everyone. From farmers, like me, in rural Colorado, to those in towns like Aspen, Carbondale and Telluride and cities like Denver, Aurora and Colorado Springs. With his guidance, I helped craft a piece of legislation, "The Basin of Origin Protection," which I am very proud of. Although this bill was never enacted into law, the lessons Dick taught me during this experience were invaluable. I will always consider Dick a great mentor and friend.

Dick's dedication to protecting water and to serving Colorado started long before his involvement with the Colorado Water Congress. He served three years as Executive Director to the Larimer-Weld Council of Governments and seven years as Executive Director of the Colorado Municipal League. While at Larimer-Weld COG, Dick developed and guided the early stages of the Larimer-Weld "208" Water Quality Management Planning effort. In 1970, Dick served as Chairman of the Colorado Good Government Committee for the promotion of the State Constitutional Amendments One (Governor's Cabinet), Two (State Civil Service Reorganization) and Three (Local Government Modernization). All three amendments were approved overwhelmingly by the people of Colorado. In addition, Dick was involved in six other statewide initiative campaigns and was successful in all six campaigns.

In 1988, Dick was appointed to COLORADO VISION 2000 and, in 1989, he was appointed to become part of the 16-member Legislative Council Subcommittee on Long-Range Planning for the State Government. From 1969–71, Dick served on the National League of Cities Board of Directors. He also served as a member of the Boards for the Colorado Water PAC and the Colorado Water Education Foundation. Dick is a member of the American Society of Association Executives, Colorado Society of Association Executives, American Water Works Association and International City Management Association. Dick is one of Colorado's great leaders. He has been involved in many aspects of Colorado life and has worked tirelessly to protect our current and future generations.

However, it is his tireless fight for water that has been most inspiring to me. In 1999, Dick was named the nineteenth recipient of the "Wayne N. Aspinall Water Leader of the Year Award." This is a prestigious award in Colorado named after a former Congressman of the District I currently represent. Mr. Aspinall was a water champion for Colorado and was instrumental in helping to ensure that Colorado residents have access to a safe water supply.

After I was elected to the U.S. House in 2004, Dick gave me a biography, entitled "Wayne Aspinall: Mr. Chairman." In the inside cover, he wrote me an inspirational and encouraging message. It read:

To: John Salazar,

This book is about one of Colorado's great members of Congress. You will some day also rank as one of the great members from Colorado. I have no doubts about your future achievement.

Your friend, Dick MacRavey. January 27, 2005.

This note touched my heart and I keep this book with me in my Congressional office. While serving in Congress, I will continue to fight for Colorado's water and I hope that my efforts will make Dick MacRavey proud.

I wish Dick well in his retirement and I want him to know that he will always have a special place in my heart.

HONORING THE LIFE AND MEM-ORY OF GERALDINE MARTIN AND EXPRESSING SYMPATHY ON HER PASSINGHON. TOM COLE

OF OKLAHOMA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, July 24, 2009

Mr. COLE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor a woman that could teach us all a thing or two about love and compassion. Geraldine Martin is currently looking down on us from Heaven where last month she was reunited with the love of her life, Jesse, her husband of 63 years. A mother of four, grandmother of nine and great-grandmother of six, family was her first thought in the morning and last thought at night.

When complications from birth left her son Cecil with special needs, she became a crusader for children with challenges. From coaching Special Olympics for two decades to establishing the Power Shop, helping children meet and exceed their potential was a calling Geraldine gladly answered. A dedicated volunteer at the Bethel Assembly of God and a professional banker for nearly four decades, she retired as vice president of the First Bank and Trust of Velma, Oklahoma in 2003 to enjoy her family, her volunteer work, sewing, gardening and, of course, drinking coffee on her back porch.

Geraldine considered her legacy to be her family and today, on behalf of myself and the gentleman from Texas, Mr. BRADY, we honor her and offer them our sincerest condolences. She leaves behind two daughters, Sharon Frame and her husband Larry of Oklahoma City, and Gail Clark and her husband Joe of Krum, Texas; two sons: Jesse Martin and his wife, Vicki, of Edmond, Oklahoma, and Cecil Ray Martin. She is also survived by three sisters: Betty Stanley and Margaret Tiemann, both of Goldthwaite, Texas, and Kay Nixon and her husband, Bill, of Anaheim, California, and one brother, Jackie Sherrill and his wife, Peggy, of Memphis, Tennessee. She will be especially missed by her nine wonderful grandchildren and six great-grandchildren and her many friends and admirers.

Madam Speaker, I want to thank Geraldine Martin for showing us all how to live a great life and extend our greatest sympathy to her family.
