The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

JACQUES PURVIS

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I have had the good fortune of having people to work with me and with us, and one of my prizes over these years has been a young man by the name of Jacques Purvis who has worked on my personal staff. He is, of course, an integral part of the cloakroom. We see him here every day. He helps send to me every day on my e-mail account what is taking place each day. I read faithfully what is taking place because I am not here all the time on the Senate floor. He is bright, hardworking, and so nice. He is going to be leaving the Senate to go to the London School of Economics for an advanced degree. I have tried to talk him out of it, but not really, because he has various goals in mind. He is going to complete his studies in London, come back and go to law school. I hope after that time he will consider coming back and working in the Senate. We will all miss him. He is a wonderful young man, and I consider him a friend.

ORDERS FOR MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 2009, AND TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2009

Mr. REID. I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it adjourn until 1 p.m. on Monday, August 10, for a pro forma session only, with no business conducted; that following the pro forma session, the Senate adjourn under the provisions of H. Con. Res. 172 until 2 p.m. on Tuesday, September 8; that following the prayer and pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day, and there then be a period of morning business until 4:30 p.m., with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each; that following morning business, the Senate resume consideration of S. 1023, the Travel Promotion Act, with the time equally divided and controlled until 5:30 p.m. between the two leaders or their designees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. REID. Under a previous order, at approximately 5:30 p.m., the Senate will proceed to a cloture vote on the Dorgan amendment to the travel promotion legislation.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 2009, AT 1 P.M.

Mr. REID. That being the case, if there is no further business to come before the Senate today, I ask unanimous consent it stand adjourned under the previous order.
